An Earneſt and Serious

ANSWER

TO

Dr. Trapp's Diſcourſe, &c.

MIGHT I follow the Bent of my own Mind, my Pen, ſuch as it is, ſhould be wholly employ'd in ſetting forth the infinite Love of God to Mankind in Chriſt Jeſus, and in endeavouring to draw all Men to the Belief and Acknowlegement of it. This one great Mercy of God, which makes the one only Happineſs of all Mankind, ſo juſtly deſerves all our Thoughts and Meditations, ſo highly enlightens, and improves every Mind that is attentive to it, ſo removes all the Evils of this preſent World, ſo ſweetens every State of Life, ſo inflames the Heart with the Love of every divine and human Virtue, that he is no ſmall Loſer, whoſe Mind is, either by Writing or Reading, detain'd from the View and Contemplation of it.

When this Myſtery of Divine Love was firſt manifeſted to the World, it produced its proper Effects, it put an End to all Selfiſhneſs and Diviſion; for all that believed were of one heart, and one ſpirit, and had all things common *. And indeed under the real Influence, and full Belief of this great Myſtery of Divine Love, there ſeems to be no Room left for any thing elſe amongſt Chriſtians, but Returns of Love to God, and Flowings out of Love towards one another.

But now it is ſo difficult to enter into Controverſy without being, or at leaſt ſeeming in ſome Degree unkind to the Perſon that one oppoſes, that it is with great Reluctance that I have enter'd upon my preſent Undertaking; having nothing more deeply rivetted in my Heart, than an univerſal Love and Kindneſs for all Mankind, and more eſpecially for thoſe whom God has called to be my Fellow-Labourers in promoting the Salvation of Mankind. But however unwilling, yet I find myſelf obliged to conſider, and lay open many grievous Faults in the Doctor's Diſcourſe; and to ſhew to all Chriſtians, that the deareſt Intereſts of their Souls are much endanger'd by it.

And this I muſt do with great Plainneſs and Sincerity, in the Love of Truth, and under the Direction of Charity, ſaying nothing in the Spirit of an Adverſary, ſparing nothing through Reſpect of Perſons, ſacrificing nothing to the Taſte or Temper of the World, but ſetting forth every Thing in that naked Light, in which the Spirit of God repreſents it to my own Mind.

* Acts iii.

The Doctor undertakes to ſtir up, and alarm Mankind with the Sin, Folly, and Danger, of being righteous over-much. The Text from which he has the Title of his Diſcourſe is very unhappily choſen, and muſt be looked upon rather as a ſevere Reproach, than any kind of Juſtification of it. The Text is indeed in the Writings of Solomon, and as it ſtands there, has no Hurt in it; becauſe as the Royal Preacher ſometimes introduces Fools, and ſometimes Infidels, making their Speeches, ſo there is a Neceſſity of ſuppoſing that to be the Caſe in the Doctor's Text; not only from the Context, which plainly ſhews there are Two Perſons introduced, the one for, the other againſt Righteouſneſs; but becauſe the Words, unleſs ſtripped of all their proper Meaning, cannot be taken in a Senſe that is tolerable, or conſiſtent with the common Notions of Piety.

Is it not therefore ſtrange, that the Doctor ſhould chuſe to have a Diſcourſe and Title to it, conformable to a Text of this kind? For if his Diſcourſe is of a Piece with his Text, muſt not all ſenſible People find it as hard to reconcile his Diſcourſe, as to reconcile the Text with the common Notions of Piety? Is it not ſtrange, that he ſhould think it right and juſt, to limit, explain, and model, both the Letter and Spirit of the Goſpel by ſuch a Saying in the Writings of Solomon, as muſt be aſcrib'd to the Spirit and Mouth of an Infidel? Is it not ſtill ſtranger, that ſuch a Text, ſo offenſive to Piety, ſhould have not only been ſo long dwelt upon in the Doctor's Three Churches, but sent abroad into the Christian World, as a proper Key to all the practical Sayings, Parables, and Doctrines, of Jesus Christ?

Supported by this Text, the Doctor endeavours to deter and fright Christians from the Sin, Folly, and Danger, of being righteous overmuch, and from what he calls the baneful Plague of Enthusiasm. But then it is Matter of just Complaint, that he does all this, without ever shewing in any Part of his Discourse, wherein true Righteousness, or the right and sober Spirit of Piety consists. If he supposed his Readers to be already well acquainted with the Nature and Extent of Christian Holiness, and to have just and distinct Ideas of Religion, what it is in itself, what Change, Purification, and Perfection, it aims at in human Nature, how, and by what Means, a Man may make himself a full Partaker of all that Benefit, Change, and Perfection, that is intended by it, there would then have been little Occasion for his present Undertaking.

For if they may be supposed thus to know what is right in Religion, they would by such Knowlege be in the best State of Security against that which is wrong.

But the Doctor overlooks this important Matter. He neither supposes them to have this Knowlege, nor endeavours to help them to it; but in a Flow of Zeal, in a loose, declamatory Stile, reflects at large upon all Attempts towards a Piety, that is not modern, common, and according according to the preſent Power and Faſhion of Religion in the World. Thus, you every-where find hard and ſevere Reflections caſt upon Pretenders to Piety, pretended Spiritualiſts, and Righteous over-much; great Accuſation of Exceſſes, Extraordinaries, and By-paths; but no-where a Word, or a Hint, in Favour of thoſe, who would only be ſo exceſſive, ſo extraordinary, and ſo much out of the common Paths, as the bleſſed Saints, and Martyrs of the Primitive Church were; no-where are ſuch People told, that he wiſhes them God Speed, that their Zeal is much wanted both amongſt Clergy and Laity, and that the Goſpel ſuffers, becauſe we know not where to find living Examples of its Purity and Perfection. No-where are ſuch People told, that he writes not againſt them, that He loves their Spirit, and ſhould be glad to add new Fervours to it; no-where are they told, what Chriſtian Perfection is, what a Holineſs of Body, Soul and Spirit it requires, and what Bleſſedneſs of Life it gives; how powerfully all are called to it; how earneſtly all ought to aſpire after it; and how ſadly they are miſtaken, what Enemies to themſelves, who for the Sake of any, or all the Things in the World, die leſs purified and perfect, than they might have been.

If we had to do only with one ſingle Perſon, ſincerely good, yet ſeeming to carry Matters too high in ſome Parts of his Duty, if we intended privately to diſſuade him from ſuch Heights; yet even this, thus privately done, and to a Perſon of Piety, would be exceeding dangerous, and very unjuſtifiable; unleſs we took the utmoſt Care at the ſame Time, to keep up the pious Zeal of his Mind, to ſhew him wherein the true Point of Perfection conſiſted, and to encourage his utmoſt Endeavours after it.

But if this Caution, Inſtruction, and Encouragement, cannot be omitted without great Hurt to Religion, when we ſpeak only to a Perſon of Piety, and in private, about any religious Extreams. What muſt be ſaid of the Doctor's Conduct? who to the World dead in Treſpaſſes and Sin, preaches up the Sin, Folly, and Danger, of being Righteous over-much. To the World Eating and Drinking, and riſing up to Play, he harangues upon the Madneſs, Danger, and Folly, of too much Temperance, Abſtinence, Mortification, and Severity of Life. To the World aſleep, inſenſible, and careleſs, not only of the Purity and Perfection, but of the Firſt Principles of the Goſpel, he boldly, raſhly reproaches all Appearances of Holineſs, that are uncommon and extraordinary. To no Part of the World does he repreſent or propoſe the Perfection of the Goſpel, or recommend it as that, which deſerves all that they can do, or ſuffer for Sake of it.

This, therefore, I am obliged to point out, as a fundamental Defect in the Doctor's Diſcourſe, and ſuch as renders it an evil Temptation, a dangerous Snare, and fatal Deluſion, to all thoſe, who do not read it with a full and thorough Diſlike. Cold-

Coldneſs, Indifference, and a lifeleſs outward Compliance with all the Duties of Religion; a Slavery to Eaſe, Softneſs, and ſenſible Pleaſures; a criminal Conformity to the Spirit, Faſhions, and Corruptions, of the World; unmortified Paſſions; a conniving at favourite Sins; deep Roots of Pride, Partiality, and Self-Love; an unawakened Conſcience; an Inſenſibility of their corrupt, unreformed, unregenerate State; a Proneneſs to be content and ſatisfied with poor Beginnings, Names and Appearances of Virtue; is perhaps the State of more than Two-thirds of thoſe that are looked upon to be the Religious amongſt us.

Now the Doctor's Diſcourſe has a direct and natural Fitneſs to lull all theſe People aſleep, to ſuppreſs all Stirrings and Intentions of Amendment, to keep up and nouriſh every Diſorder of their Hearts, to increaſe their Blindneſs, and awaken nothing in them, but a hurtful Zeal to cenſure and condemn all thoſe, that are endeavouring to practiſe the uncommon Piety of the Goſpel.

There is ſcarce a Reader amongſt this Number of People, whether he be Layman or Clergyman, but will find this Effect from the Doctor's Inſtructions; he will begin to take freſh Comfort in his State, to think himſelf happy for having had no aſpirings after high Improvements in Piety; he will not only be content with his Corruptions, but be fixed, and hardened againſt all inward and outward Calls to a ſolid Piety; he will approve of the Deadneſs and Inſenſibility of his own Heart, and acquieſce in it, as his true and juſt Security, from the Sin and Folly and Danger of being Righteous overmuch.

Again, others there are, I make no doubt, in all Parts of this Kingdom, both amongſt Clergy and Laity, Men and Women, rich and poor, whoſe Conſciences are greatly awakened, who ſee the general Apoſtacy from the Religion of the Goſpel, whoſe Souls are wanting, and wiſhing nothing ſo much, as to know how, all that they are, all that they have, and all that they do, may be one continual Sacrifice, and Service of Love unto God; to know how, and in what Manner, and to what Extent, and by what Means, they may and ought to be perfect, even as their Father which is in Heaven is perfect.

Now who can help looking with Love, Pity, and Compaſſion, upon theſe poor Souls, longing for that, which has been ſo long loſt; aſking after that, which ſcarce any one will tell them any thing of, and wanting to enter upon Paths, where there are few or no Footſteps to be ſeen, nor any Travellers in Motion!

Now had theſe awakened Souls liv'd in the Firſt Ages of the Church, nay, I may ſay in almoſt any till theſe very laſt Ages of it, their Zeal had not been in vain; they could have been at no Loſs to know how they were to proceed in their heavenly Purpoſe; becauſe they could have always been immediately directed to ſome living Examples of the perfect Spirit of the Goſpel, who were publicly known and

acknowleged by all to be such, and who had the same undisputed Right to point out every Degree of Christian Perfection, as John the Baptist had to preach up Mortification and Self-denial. Every Age, and every Sex, consecrated Virgins, holy Widows, Converts, and Penitents, Priests and People of all Conditions, had their open, known and public Standards to resort to, where every one was sure to be guided and directed, assisted and encouraged to live up to that Height of Holiness and Perfection, which was proper to their State and Condition.

But now how does the Doctor deal with this Sort of People? What Love, Instruction, Assistance, and Encouragement, does he reach out to them? Why, truly, he considers them as a deluded, weak, or hypocritical, or half-thinking People, that disturb the Christian Church with their Projects about Perfection, who are to be set right by returning to the Instruction of common Sense. He ridicules and exposes every Step they must take in their intended Progress, by adding Absurdities of his own Invention to it. There is nothing for such People throughout his whole Discourse, but Reproaches, Ridicule, and Discouragement.

Are they desirous of all that Self-denial, all that Mortification of bodily Appetites and sensual Passions, as may best fit them to be Temples of the Holy Spirit, he ridicules them as holding the Sinfulness of smelling a Rose *?

Do

Do they begin to discover the deep Corruption of their Nature, the Superficialness and Weakness of their Virtues, and to fear they have as yet scarce come up to the Righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees? He tells them, The great Enemy of Souls adapts his Temptations to all Sorts of Tempers and Dispositions. — Those who are dispos'd to be good and virtuous, if he cannot prevail with them to be vicious, commonly so called, he labours to make them over-virtuous, that is vicious, tho' not commonly so called; and so involves them in Dangers and Mischiefs *.

Are they such as are only desirous of reforming their own Lives, by bringing all their Actions to the Standard of the Gospel, and wholly intent upon their own Advancement in merely practical Piety?

To these he shews, that they are in the very Paths that lead, and always did lead, to Fanatic Madness.

Thus, says he, " To what a Height of Fa-
" natic Madness in Doctrine, as well as Prac" tice, are some advanced, who set out at first
" with an Appearance of more than ordinary
" Sanctity in Practice only?" And again, " I " do say, that in all Ages Enthusiasts have been " Righteous over-much; they began with the " last mention'd, and ended with the other.
" And is it not so now †?"

Further, Are there others, who begin to feel the Mystery of their Redemption discovered in their own Souls, so that they hunger and

and thirſt after the Manifeſtation of the Divine Life in them, deſiring that Chriſt may be wholly form'd and reveal'd in them, that they may put on Chriſt, be in him new Creatures, led by his Spirit, growing in him as Branches in the Vine, hearing the Word of God written and ſpoken in their Hearts, in his Light ſeeing Light, and taſting in the inward Man the Powers of the World to come.

For ſuch as theſe, the Doctor has this Inſtruction: "That there is, ſays he, ſuch a "Thing as the Operation and Influence of the "Holy Spirit upon our Souls, tho' we cannot "diſtinguiſh it from the Operations of our "own Minds, is not only granted, but inſiſted "upon, by all ſincere and ſober Chriſtians. But "what Reaſon, what Scripture, is there for this "inward Seeing, Hearing, Feeling *?"

According therefore to the Doctor's Divinity, both Reaſon and Scripture require, that the true Chriſtian be inwardly blind, inwardly deaf, and void of all inward Feeling. For if neither Scripture nor Reaſon will allow of any inward Senſes, then they muſt both of them require an inward Inſenſibility. But Scripture, from Geneſis to the Revelations, is full of Proof of theſe inward Senſes. I ſhall not now produce them. I ſhall here only obſerve, that Hardneſs of Heart is a common and well-known Phraſe of Scripture, and every-where ſignifies ſome Degree of Blindneſs, Deafneſs, and Loſs of Feeling †. I ſuppoſe it will not be ſaid, ſaid, that it ſignifies Blindneſs, or Loſs of outward Eyes and Ears, or Feeling: Neither does it ſignify a Want of human Reaſon, or natural Sagacity; for learned, polite, and ingenious Men are full as ſubject as others are, to this Hardneſs of Heart. Therefore the Scripture is as open, as plain and expreſs, in declaring for inward Senſes, as it is in declaring againſt ſuch a Thing as Hardneſs of Heart.

Hardneſs of Heart is that to the inward Senſes which a deep, or, as we call it, a dead Sleep, is to the outward. It keeps our inward Eyes and Ears clos'd and ſtopp'd, juſt as Sleep does our outward Eyes, and Ears, and Feeling.

A broken and a contrite Heart unlocks all our inward Senſes, and makes us ſee, and hear, and feel the Things, which could no more be ſeen, heard, or felt before, than a Man in a deep Sleep can hear, and ſee, and feel the Things that are ſaid and done about him.

Water violently frozen into a Rock of Ice, is very different from the ſame Water melted, rarify'd, warm'd, and moving under the Influences of the Sun and the Air.

Now if this Water was a ſenſible Being, we might well ſuppoſe, that when it was a ſoft, yielding, tranſparent, flowing Subſtance, full of Light and Air, that it had certain Senſes in that State; which Senſes were loſt, and locked up, as ſoon as it became a hard, rough, thick, dark, immoveable Rock of Ice, made ſo by Coldneſs, or for the Want of the Motion of Light

Light and Air in it. And that the Ice must of all Necessity be first melted, before these Senses could be found again.

Now this Difference between Water flowing full of Light and Air, and the same Water frozen into a dark hard Rock of Ice, is but a small Resemblance of the Difference between a hardened Heart, and the same Heart become broken.

And a Lump of Ice would be as well qualified to deny that sweet Sensibility of Water flowing full of Light and Air, as the natural Man is to dispute those Senses, which arise in the Heart, that is broken and penetrated by the Light, and Spirit of God in it.

But no more of this at present. I now return to the Doctor. His further Instruction to this Sort of People stands thus: They are told by him, that their high Notions of Spiritual Improvements have this Effect: On the one Hand, they lead to Presumption; on the other, to Desperation. He has been told, he says, that some have been actually thrown into Despair. They have been made stark mad, and received into Bedlam, as such. And then he cries out, Was the Religion of Jesus Christ intended to make People mad? Is this for the Honour of Christianity *?

I shall not here question the Doctor's Information. I shall only observe, that when our Saviour was upon Earth, there were Two Sorts of mad People about him. The one Sort ran about about in Diſorder, tore their Cloaths, and cut their own Fleſh; the other Sort raved in Malice, threw Duſt into the Air, ſtopt their Ears, and cried out, Crucify him, crucify him.

Now it may be aſk'd, which of theſe Two Sorts of People were in the moſt diſorder'd and diſtemper'd State? Whoſe Madneſs was the moſt ſhocking, that of the Lunatics, or that of the High Prieſts, Scribes, and Phariſees? Thoſe who only mangled their own Bodies, or thoſe that thirſted after the Blood of Chriſt, and would have no Reſt, till they ſaw his Body nail'd to the Croſs? To me the Lunatics ſeem to be in a leſs Degree of Diſorder; and the Reaſon is this; becauſe I ſee that our Saviour could heal them, but not the Prieſts, Scribes, and Phariſees.

Now is it reaſonable, on the account of the Madneſs of theſe Prieſts, Scribes, and Doctors of the Law, to ſay, Is this for the Honour of the Jewiſh Law? Was the Law and the Prophets intended to make People mad? Now if the Doctor knows how to excuſe the Law and the Prophets, though theſe great Students of them were in ſuch a deſperate State of Phrenzy and Madneſs, then Chriſtianity may be blameleſs; though here and there a Chriſtian may be fit for Bedlam.

Again, there are others, who deſire to bring the whole Form of their Lives under Rules of Religion, to let the Spirit of the Goſpel give Laws to the moſt ordinary, indifferent, innocent and lawful Things and Enjoyments, ſo that that as the Apoſtle ſpeaks, whether they eat or drink, or whatever they do, they may do all to the Glory of God?

Theſe People are told by the Doctor, That wholly abſtaining from Things indifferent and innocent in themſelves, as forbidden and unlawful, is a ſignal Inſtance of being Righteous over-much; and ſo, on the other hand, is making Things indifferent to be neceſſary, and Matters of Duty *.

What is here ſaid has ſome Truth in it, and might be uſeful in its proper Place, and under right Limitations. But as it here ſtands in the Diſcourſe, it is a grievous Snare and Deceit to the Reader. For it is to ſignify to him, that wholly abſtaining from Things in themſelves indifferent and innocent cannot be made a Matter of true religious Advancement; but is a blameable Inſtance of a Piety in Exceſs. If the Doctor had meant only to teach, that we ſhould not wholly abſtain from Things indifferent and innocent, as if they were in themſelves unlawful, he ſhould have told his Readers that he meant no more; he ſhould have told them, that ſuch Things might be abſtain'd from juſtly, and piouſly upon a better Principle, and ſo become very expedient and edifying; and that he did not condemn the abſtaining wholly from ſuch Things, when it was done upon a Motive of Piety, for the better fulfilling any Duty; but only when it was done from a ſuperſtitious Notion, of the Things being in themſelves ſinful.

Had

Had he done this, he had prevented the Snare and Deceit that is now in his Aſſertion; but then he would, at the ſame time, have made it uſeleſs and inſignificant to the Deſign of his Diſcourſe, and would have left a Door open for ſuch Advances of Piety as he is here oppoſing.

It might eaſily be ſhewn, if this was the Place for it, that no one can truly fulfil, or live up to the Two Firſt and greateſt of all Laws, that of loving God with all our Heart, all our Strength, and all our Mind; and that of loving our Neighbour as ourſelves; unleſs he be willing and glad, in many Inſtances, wholly to abſtain from Things in themſelves indifferent and innocent; and alſo to make Things that in themſelves are indifferent, to be Matters of Duty.

St. Paul's Doctrine is this: All Things are lawful for me, but all Things are not expedient. This ſets the Matter right on both Sides. It leaves Things in their own State of Indifference and Lawfulneſs, and yet carries us to a higher Rule of acting. It directs us wholly to abſtain from ſome Things innocent in themſelves, and to do ſome Things to which the Law calls us not, becauſe they are expedient; becauſe by ſo doing, we ſhew a higher Love of God, and a greater Deſire of doing every thing to his Honour and Glory; becauſe we thereby attain a greater Purity and Perfection of Heart, a greater Conqueſt over all our inward and outward outward Enemies, and in a greater Degree help forward the Edification of our Neighbour.

Let us look at St. Paul's Doctrine and Example in the Two following remarkable Inſtances. Firſt, where he declares it to be lawful for thoſe that preach the Goſpel to live by the Goſpel, and yet makes it Matter of the greateſt Comfort and Joy to himſelf, that he had wholly abſtain'd from this lawful Thing. And declares, it were better for him to die, than that this Rejoicing ſhould be taken from him. He appeals to his daily and nightly labouring with his own Hands, that ſo he might preach the Goſpel freely, and not be chargeable to thoſe that heard him. And this he ſaid he did, not for want of Authority to do otherwiſe, but that he might make himſelf an Enſample unto them to follow him.

What fine and awakening Inſtructions are here given to us of the Clergy, in a practical Matter of the greateſt Moment! How ought every one to be frighted at the Thought of deſiring or ſeeking a Second Living, or of rejoycing at great Pay where there is but little Duty, when the Apoſtle's Rejoycing conſiſted in this, that he had paſſed thro' all the Fatigues and Perils of preaching the Goſpel without any Pay at all! How cautious, nay, how fearful ought we to be, of going ſo far as the ſecular Laws permit us, when the Apoſtle thought it more deſirable to loſe his Life, than to go ſo far as the very Laws of the Goſpel would have ſuffer'd him!

It is lawful to receive more for doing the Work of the Miniſtry in any Pariſh, and to ſpend more upon ourſelves than our bare Subſiſtance requires. —— It is look'd upon as lawful to get ſeveral Preferments, and to make a Gain of the Goſpel, by hiring others to do Duty for us at a lower Rate.——It is looked upon as lawful to quit a Cure of Souls of a ſmall Income, for no other Reaſon but becauſe we can get another of a greater. —— It is looked upon as lawful for a Clergyman to take the Revenue of the Church, which he ſerves, to his own Uſe, tho' he has more than a ſufficient Competency of his own, and much more than the Apoſtle could get by his Labour.—It is looked upon as lawful for the Clergy to live in State and Equipage, to buy Purple and fine Linen, out of the Revenues of the Church.——It is looked upon as lawful for Clergymen to enrich their Families, and bring up their Children in the faſhionable Vanities, and corrupting Methods of a worldly and expenſive Life, by Money got by preaching the Goſpel of Jeſus Chriſt.

But now ſuppoſing all this to be lawful, what Comfort and Joy might we treaſure up for ourſelves, what Glory and Honour might we bring to Religion, what Force and Power might we give to the Goſpel, what Benefit and Edification ſhould we do to our Neighbour, if we wholly

wholly abſtained from all theſe Things, not by working Day and Night with our own Hands, as the great Apoſtle did, but by limiting our Wants and Deſires according to the plain Demands of Nature, and a religious Self-denial?

The other Inſtance of the Apoſtle's, I appeal to, is that, where he ſays, it is good neither to eat fleſh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy Brother ſtumbleth and is offended *. And again, If meat make my Brother to offend, I will eat no fleſh while the world ſtandeth, that I may not offend my Brother †. Hence it appears, that to abſtain from Things indifferent, as if they were in themſelves ſinful, is wrong; but wholly to abſtain from them upon other Motives, may be the higheſt Piety, and oftentimes Matter of neceſſary Duty and Edification. But ſince the Doctor has not looked at this Matter in this twofold View, in which it can only be juſtly apprehended, he can't well be excuſed from that Half-Thinking, which he ſo much reproaches in others.

But I muſt farther obſerve, that there is yet more of Snare and Deception, in what the Doctor has here ſaid of this Matter. For the Reader may thereby be eaſily brought into a Belief, that Things in themſelves indifferent and innocent, &c. are not the proper Subjects of Religion, or Means of advancing in Piety, and that he need not bring himſelf under any Laws of Religion concerning ſuch Things.

 Whereas

* Rom. xiv. 23. † 1 Cor. viii. 13.

Whereas nothing can be more contrary to Truth, or more hurtful to his Piety, than ſuch a Belief.

Eating, Drinking, Sleeping, Dreſſing, Reſting, Labour, Converſation, Trade, Diverſion, and Money, are in themſelves indifferent, innocent, and uſeful. But it is in the religious, or irreligious Uſe of theſe Things, that ſome People live up to the Spirit of the Goſpel, and other wholly dye to it. And it is from ſtrict Laws of Religion made concerning theſe indifferent and innocent Things, that the ſpiritual Life of every one is to be built up.

And it is for want of religious Laws in the Uſe of innocent and lawful Things that the Spirit of the Goſpel cannot get Poſſeſſion of our Hearts. For our Souls may receive an infinite Hurt, and be render'd incapable of all true Virtue, merely by the Uſe of innocent and lawful Things.

What is more innocent than Reſt and Retirement? And yet what more dangerous than Sloth and Idleneſs? How lawful and praiſeworthy is the Care of a Family? And yet how certainly are many People render'd incapable of all Virtue, and dead to all the Calls of God, by a worldly ſolicitous Temper? How lawful and beneficial is it to us, to eat and drink in ſuch Quantity and Quality, as may render the Body healthful, ſubſervient and uſeful to the Soul? And yet, what Danger is there in eating and drinking, if we are not under this

ſtrict

ſtrict Law of Religion, to ſeek only Health, and not the Pleaſure of various Taſtes in our Food. What Senſuality of Diſcourſe ſhall we not every Day fall into, unleſs it be a fix'd Law to us, to ſpeak of no other Joy in our Food, but that which is expreſſed by our Grace before and after our Meals.

How indifferent a Thing, and innocent in itſelf, is Dreſs. And yet what more hurtful and abounding with Sin? It reaches and infects the Heart and Soul, both of the Wearer and Beholder. Its Evils are innumerable. It has deſtroyed, and does deſtroy, like a Peſtilence.

If the luſtful Eye is in the Scripture deem'd to be an Adultery, we may ſee plainly the Reaſon why the Apoſtle requires Women to be cover'd, not to beautify their outward Perſon with coſtly Ornaments of Dreſs, or curled Hair, but to be adorned with Shamefacedneſs and Modeſty. For it is only ſaying, in other Words, that it becomes not the Piety of Chriſtian Women, to carry and hold out Snares and Temptations to the unwary Eye, that can ſo eaſily be betray'd into ſo great a Sin.

Now how can all theſe Evils, which ariſe from the Uſe of theſe Things indifferent and lawful in themſelves, be avoided, but by making every Thing in our common and ordinary Life to be Matter of Conſcience; which is, to have its Rule, and Meaſure, and End, from the Spirit of Religion. And indeed what other End or Intent is there in Religion, but to govern every Motion and Desire of our Hearts, to make all the Actions of our common Life pure and holy, by being done in strict Conformity to the Will of God, and under the Light and Guidance of his Holy Spirit? So that every outward Form of our Lives, and the whole Manner of our living in the World, whether in Estates, Titles, Shops, or Farms, whether in Eating, Drinking, Dressing, &c. may make it known to all the World, that we do every Thing in the Name of Jesus Christ, suitably to that high Vocation wherewith we are called.

The Apostle directs Servants to this Degree of Piety; that is, to be obedient to their masters, in singleness of heart, as unto Christ. Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart. With good-will doing service, as unto the Lord, and not to men *. Surely, if poor Slaves, by reason of their Christian Profession, are not to comply with their Business, as Men-pleasers, if they are to look wholly unto God in all their Actions, and serve in Singleness of Heart, as unto the Lord, surely all Christians of other Employments and Conditions, must be as much obliged to go through their Business with the same Singleness of Heart; not as pleasing the Vanity of their own Minds, not as gratifying their own selfish, worldly Passions, but as the Servants

* Eph. vi. 5. Col. iii. 22.

Servants of God, that are to live wholly unto him in every thing that they do. It is therefore abſolutely certain, that no Chriſtian is to enter any further into Buſineſs, nor ſeek any worldly Profit, nor do any thing in any other Meaſure, nor for any other End, than ſuch as he can in Singleneſs of Heart do unto God, as a reaſonable Service.

No Folly of Life whatever can be rightly removed, but by being thus wholly cut up by the Roots, by making every thing ſubject to the Spirit of Religion.

That which is to direct our Prayers, and govern us at Church, muſt, with the ſame Strictneſs, direct our Converſation, and govern our Dealings in common Life. We muſt Dreſs with the ſame Spirit that we give Alms, or go to Prayers; that is, we muſt no more Dreſs to be ſeen and admired by others, than we muſt give Alms, or make Prayers for the ſame Reaſons.

And when Religion has its Seat in our Hearts, and is the Work of God's Spirit in us, this acting according to its Direction in all Things, will be ſo far from ſeeming to be a hard Leſſon, that it would be a Pain to act otherwiſe. It is no Hardſhip to a Miſer, to do every thing ſuitable to the greedy Deſires of his Heart. The ambitious Man is not troubled with acting always agreeably to his Ambition. If theſe Perſons are in Trouble or Diſtreſs, or under any Dejection, you can only comfort the one with Honour and Power, and the other with filthy Lucre and Gain.

Yet the Doctor complains of the Treatiſe upon Chriſtian Perfection, becauſe Chriſtians in Sickneſs, Diſtreſs, and Dejection of Spirit, are there ſolely directed to ſeek for Comfort and Refreſhment in God alone. Our Bleſſed Lord is very ſhort, and yet very full, upon this Article; he only ſays, Be of good Comfort, I have overcome the World. And the Doctor might as well be angry at the Goſpel for having made no mention of worldly Amuſements proper for ſick and diſtreſſed Chriſtians, as at the Treatiſe of Chriſtian Perfection, for not having done the ſame.

If I ſhould ſee a ſick Man ſmelling a Roſe, eating an agreeable Fruit, or diverting himſelf with a Child, I ſhould not call him from ſuch ſinful Indulgences. But if he wanted Comfort in his State, I would no more direct him to any thing, but the great and ſolid Comforts, that are to be found in the Love and Goodneſs of God, than I would direct him to another Saviour than Jeſus Chriſt.

For to tell Chriſtians, that in ſome kinds of Trouble, they might juſtly ſeek for Relief, by reading a Play, or wanton Bucolic, inſtead of the Goſpel, would be the ſame Abſurdity, as to have told People in our Saviour's Time, that, in ſome Sorts of Diſtreſs, they might juſtly have Recourſe to Simon Magus, inſtead of Jeſus Chriſt.

But

But now to look back a little. I have consider'd the Bulk of those Christians that are the most likely to be the Doctor's Readers, under Two Characters. The one, as living some Way or other in a partial, false, superficial, or half State of Piety; the other as an awaken'd People, called by the Spirit of God to come out of the common Corruptions of the Times. I have shewn, that the Doctor's Discourse (where it is not disliked) must do great Hurt, and have dreadful Effects upon those Two Sorts of People; the one Sort it seals up in a false Security, sleeping in the Chambers of Death, without any Oil in their Vessels; the other it frightens, and discourages from their pious Intentions of trimming their Lamps with all Diligence, and living upon the Watch for the midnight Call of the Bridegroom's Voice.

That I may therefore do all the Good that I can to both these Sorts of People, that I may awaken the one from their false Security in their half Form of Godliness, and assist and encourage the other to proceed with all Earnestness, after every Degree of Christian Holiness; I shall, before I proceed any further, lay down a short, but plain Account of the whole Nature and Ground of the Christian Religion, that every one may clearly see, why we want the Christian Religion to save us: What it is to do for us; and how it is done. By this Means every one will best judge of the Importance of this Enquiry, and how he ought to be affected with what is ſaid on either Side of the Matter.

(1.) Man was created a living, real, perfect Image of the Holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt. This I have largely explained, and proved elſewhere *.

(2.) This whole viſible World, as far as the Stars and Elements, or any corporeal Being reaches, ſtands in the Place, or takes up that Extent of Space, where Lucifer and his Angels, before their Fall, had their glorious Kingdom. So far as this viſible Frame of Nature extends itſelf, ſo far was the Extent of their Kingdom.

(3.) That the Place or Extent of this World, was the Place or Extent of their Kingdom, is plain, from the Two following Reaſons: Firſt, Becauſe the Place of this World is now their Habitation. For we muſt by no Means ſuppoſe, that God brought them from ſome other Region into this World only to tempt Man, and make his Life dangerous; but they are here now, becauſe they were created to dwell here. For fallen Angels cannot poſſibly leave the Place of their Sin and Fall, they muſt live in the Defilements and Diſorders of their ſpoiled Kingdom; and in that Place they muſt find their Hell and Torment, where they extinguiſh'd their Light and Joy. Secondly, Becauſe the whole Extent of this World, every thing in in it, Sun, Moon, Stars, Fire, Air, Water, and Earth, Stones, Minerals, must all be dissolved, and pass thro' a purifying Fire. Therefore all these Things are polluted, and have in them some Grossness and Disorder from the Fall of the Angels. Therefore we may see where they have lived, and how far the Place of their Kingdom extended, by the Extent of those Things that are to be dissolved and purified.

(4.) When the Angels had, by their Rebellion against God, lost the Divine Life within themselves, and brought their whole outward Kingdom into Darkness, Grossness, Wrath, and Disorder, so that, as Moses speaketh, Darkness was upon the Face of the Deep, that is, the whole Deep, or Extent of the Place of this World; then, at the Fall of the Angels, and in the Place where they were fallen, and out of the Materials of their ruin'd angelical Kingdom, did God begin the Creation of this present, material, temporary, visible World.

(5) In the beginning, saith Moses, God created the Heaven and the Earth; here, at this Instant, ended the Devil's Power over the Place or Kingdom in which he was created: As soon as the whole of his outward, disorder'd Kingdom was thus divided into a created Heaven and Earth, all was taken out of his Hands, he was shut out of every thing, and he and all his Hosts became only poor Prisoners in their lost Kingdom, that could only wander about in Chains of Darkness, looking with impotent Rage and Anger at the created Heaven and Earth,

Earth, which was ſprung up in their own Place of Habitation, and which they could not rule over, becauſe their Nature had no Communion with this new created Heaven and Earth.

(6.) Thus was this outward Kingdom, of the whole Extent of this World, taken out of the Hands of Lucifer and his Angels; all its Wrath, Darkneſs, Groſſneſs, Diſharmony, Fire, and Diſorder, was, by the Six Days Creation, changed into a temporary State, reſtored to a certain, but low Reſemblance of its firſt State, and put into that Form and Order of Sun, Stars, Fire, Air, Light, Water, and Earth, in which we now ſee it.

(7.) Into this World, thus created out of the Ruins of the Kingdom of the fallen Angels, and made paradiſical, by the Goodneſs of God, was Man introduced on the Sixth Day of the Creation, to take his Place, as Lord and Prince of it, to have Power over all outward Things, to diſcover and manifeſt the Wonders of this new created World, and to bring forth ſuch an holy Offſpring, as might fill up the Places of the fallen Angels. And when that was done, and certain Periods of Time had produced theſe great Effects, then this whole Frame of Things was, by the laſt purifying Fire, to have been raiſed from its paradiſical State, into which it was put at the Creation, into that firſt heavenly Brightneſs, and high Degree of Glory, in which it ſtood before the Fall of Lucifer.

(8.) But the firſt Man, thus created to be a Prince and Father of a new angelical Kingdom, ſtood not out his Trial for this glorious State.

(9.) He came into this World in that ſame glorious Body, in which, after the Reſurrection, he ſhall be like the Angels in Heaven. For no other Body, but that which was at firſt created, and died in Adam's Sin, ſhall riſe in Jeſus Chriſt. He only ſaves and reſtores that which was loſt. The Reſurrection will only take away what Sin, and Death, and Earth, had added to the firſt created Body.

(10.) In this Body, which ſhall riſe triumphant over Death and Hell, did the firſt created Man ſtand in this World, incapable of receiving any Hurt, or knowing Evil from outward Nature. The Holy Ghoſt was the Breath of his Life, and the Son of God was the Light, that illuminated all both within and without him.

(11.) Had he fix'd his Will to be abſolutely and eternally what he was, had he deſired only to eat of the Tree of Life, to live by the Word of God, he had been eſtabliſh'd, and confirm'd to be an eternal Angel, or divine Man.

(12.) But his Imagination wander'd after the Secrets of this outward World, after the Fruit and Knowlege of ſuch Good and Evil, as wrought an intire Change in his Nature. For every thing muſt have the Nature of that which it chuſes for its Food.

His

His own ſtrong Will (a Spark of the Divine Omnipotence) was to be his Maker; for he could not be an Angel of Light with leſs Freedom. What he deſired, that he had: as his Imagination work'd, ſo he became to be. He turn'd from the Tree and Light of Life, and took in the Fruit and Darkneſs of the earthly Nature. And ſo he fell from his Height of Glory as deep into an earthly Life, and the Miſeries of the Earth, as the Devil fell into a helliſh Life, and the Miſeries of Hell.

(13.) Imagine a moſt precious Pearl, infinitely more bright, infinitely more tranſparent, infinitely more illuminated, than any that mortal Eyes ever ſaw. Imagine this Pearl to be in a Moment penetrated, thicken'd, darkened, deformed in every Part, and thro' every Pore, with ſomething as hard as Iron, as heavy as Lead, as rough as Earth, as dark as Soot, and then you have but a Shadow of that which happen'd only to the Body of Adam, when, by deſiring and eating the earthly Fruit, he drew in the earthly Nature of this World into his pearly, paradiſical Body. And here, by the by, we may ſee as in a Glaſs, what it is that earthly Deſires now do to every Son of Adam; they do all that which they did to the firſt Man, they carry on, keep up, and continue, that ſame Death in us, which he died in Paradiſe.

(14.) Here it was that his eternal Soul, the immortal Fire of Life in him, being ſwallowed up, and ſmothered by an earthly dark Body, loſt the Light of the Son of God, and the

Breath

Breath of the Holy Spirit. And this was the great and immediate Death that he died in Paradiſe, before he became the Father of Mankind, a Death much more grievous than that which is to bring us all to our Graves. It was a Death that extinguiſh'd all that was Divine and Holy in the Human Nature, juſt as the Sin of Angels had turn'd them into Devils. Now in looking at this Death, or the Extinction of this firſt divine Life, we have the cleareſt, fulleſt View, of what we are to underſtand by our Regeneration by the Second Adam. For what can it poſſibly be, but the Reſtoration of that ſame divine Life which was loſt in Adam the Firſt, and to which he abſolutely died in Paradiſe? Muſt not that which is re-generated in the Human Nature, be ſomething that had been generated in it before? If we want to be redeem'd, or regenerated only, becauſe Adam died in Paradiſe, and loſt the Firſt Birth of Human Nature, muſt not Regeneration be only and ſolely the bringing forth again that Firſt Birth in the Human Nature? Or will any one ſay, that Chriſt is not in as high a Degree the Reſtorer of our Firſt Birth, as Adam was the Deſtroyer of it? Now, tho' this great Truth, ſeated in the very Heart of the Chriſtian Religion, ſpeaks at once the whole Nature of Regeneration, and leaves no room to miſtake about it; yet many learned Men; either not ſeeing, or not loving, or being afraid to own it, have been forced, not only to miſtake, but wholly to ſink the moſt ſolid, ſubſtantial, edifying, and glorious Article of the Christian Faith; and, instead of telling us the Height and Depth of the Benefit and Blessing of having the Nature and Life of Christ derived into, or regenerated in us, they can only teach us, what Kind of Word Regeneration is —— that it is a Figurative Expression —— And that our Saviour may be justified for having made use of it. What learned Pains do some People take to root up the Belief of our having a Life and Birth from Jesus Christ, in the same Truth and Reality, that we had lost a Life and Birth in Adam? They run from Book to Book, from Language to Language, they call upon every Disputant, consult all Critics, search all Lexicons, to shew us, that according to Scripture, and Antiquity, and the Rules of true Criticism, Regeneration need signify no more, than what is meant by the federal Rite of Baptism. Nay, what is still worse, they appeal to the poor Notions of the blind, infatuated Jews; they produce the Opinions which they had of a Regeneration talked of, and a Baptism used amongst them, when they rejected and crucified our Saviour, to teach us, what we are to understand by our divine Birth in Christ Jesus. But if this be the Use of Learning amongst ourselves, we need not look at Rome or Geneva, or the ancient Rabbi's of the Jewish Sanhedrim, to see what miserable Work Learning can make with the Holy Scriptures. For it must be said, that the true Messiah is not rightly owned, the Christian Religion is not truly known, nor its Benefits rightly sought, till the the Soul is all Love, and Faith, and Hunger, and Thirſt, after this new Life, Birth, and real Formation of Jeſus Chriſt in it, till without Fear of Enthuſiaſm it ſeeks and expects all its Redemption from it. But to return.

(15.) Man, thus dead to the Divine Life, thus deſtitute of the Son, and Holy Spirit of God, thus fallen into an earthly Nature, under the Dominion of an earthly World, which would afford him for a while a miſerable Life, and then leave him to a more miſerable Death, thus fallen, he could do no more to re-place himſelf in Paradiſe, or to regain his firſt Nature, than the Devil could do, to reſtore to himſelf his loſt Glory.

(16.) But in this State the infinite Mercy of God met him. That Love which at the firſt breathed, or ſpoke out of the Mouth of God, a living, holy and divine Soul and Spirit into him, now again breathed, or inſpoke a Spark, or Seed, or Ray of Divine Light into him, in the Declaration of a Serpent-Treader; which Seed or Spark of Life ſhould in Time do all that, which Adam ſhould have done; that is, ſhould raiſe up and bring forth a Generation of Men, that ſhould become Sons of God, and take Poſſeſſion of that Kingdom from which the Angels had fallen.

(17.) Here now began the merciful Myſtery of Man's Redemption; for this Seed of a Divine Life, or inſpoken Word of Grace, or Treader of the Serpent, was the Holy Jeſus, the Second

Adam, who from that Time, ſtood in the Place of the Firſt Man, and became the Father and Regenerator of Adam himſelf, and all his Poſterity. And from that Time it may be ſaid in a certain and true Senſe, that the Incarnation of the Son of God began; becauſe he was from that Time enter'd again into the human Nature, as a Seed, or Beginning of its Salvation, hidden under the Veil of the Law, and not made manifeſt, till he was born in the Holy, and highly Bleſſed Virgin Mary. And in this Senſe it is, that our Bleſſed Lord ſaid of himſelf, that he was the Light of the Word, as Adam might have ſaid of himſelf, that he was the Sin and Death of the World; becauſe, as Sin and Death came wholly from him upon all Men, ſo the Light of Life came as wholly and univerſally from Jeſus Chriſt. And in this Senſe alſo St. John ſays of him, that he was the true Light which lighteth every Man that cometh into the World. Becauſe every Man, whereever born, has from him this Light of Life, this inward Saviour, or Seed of his Salvation, in the Birth of his own Life, which is to overcome the Darkneſs, reſiſt the Evil, and bruiſe the Serpent that is in his fallen Nature. This Beginning of the Divine Birth in our Souls, if it is not ſtifled and ſuppreſſed by us, but inwardly reverenced, and attended to, as the Voice and Call of God within us, is our certain Guide and Leader to Chriſt, born in the Fulneſs of Time, and ſacrificed for us upon the Croſs.

Fulneſs

(18.) What we want from Jeſus Chriſt, as our Redeemer, is manifeſt by that which he offers and gives to us, namely, a Birth from Himſelf, a Birth from the Holy Spirit, a Redemption from the Hell that is in our Souls, and from the Death and Corruption that is in our Bodies.

(19.) We were no more created to be in the Sorrows, Burdens, and Anguiſh, of an earthly Life, than the Angels were created to be in the Wrath and Darkneſs of Hell. It is as contrary to the Will and Goodneſs of God towards us, that we are out of Paradiſe, as it is contrary to the Deſigns and Goodneſs of God towards the Angels, that ſome of them are out of Heaven, Priſoners of Darkneſs.

The Groſſneſs, Impurity, Sickneſs, Pain and Corruption of our Bodies, is brought upon us by ourſelves in the ſame Manner as the dark, hideous ſerpentine Forms of the Devils are brought upon them. How abſurd, and even blaſphemous, would it be, to ſay with the Scripture and the Church, that we are by Nature Children of Wrath, and born in Sin, if we had that Nature which God at firſt gave us? What a Reproach upon God to ſay, that this World is a Valley of Miſery, a Shadow of Death, an Habitation of Diſorders, Snares, Evils, and Temptations, if this was an original Creation, or that State of Things for which God created us? Is it not as conſiſtent with the Goodneſs and Perfections of God, to ſpeak of the Miſery and Diſorder that holy Angels find above, and of the Vanity, Emptineſs and Sorrow of the heavenly State, as to ſpeak of the Miſery of Men, and the Sorrows of this World, if Men and the World were in that Order in which God at firſt had placed them? If God could make any Place poor, and vain, and miſerable, or create any Beings into a State of Vanity and Vexation of Spirit, he might do ſo in all Places, and to all Beings.

(20.) But by the Mercy of God in Chriſt Jeſus, this Priſon of an earthly Life is turned into a State of Purification, it is made a Time and Place of putting off our filthy and defiled Garments, and of ſlaying and ſacrificing that corrupt old Man of Sin that is hid under them. And God ſuffers the Sun to ſhine upon us, and the Elements to afford us Nouriſhment, for no other End, but that we may all have Time and Opportunity to hear the Call of the Son of God, to embrace a ſecond Adam, to be born again of him, to be renewed by the Holy Spirit, and be made capable of that Kingdom from which Lucifer and his Angels fell.

(21.) Look at our Saviour's Sermon on the Mount, and indeed at all his Inſtructions, and you will find them pointing at nothing elſe on our Side, but a Denial of ourſelves, and a Renunciation of the World. And indeed how could it be otherwiſe? For if we are ourſelves ſomething which we were not created to be, and if this is our Misery, that we have raised and awakened a Nature and Life in us, which is not our first, that we had from God; must not the First Step towards our Salvation be, a denying and departing with our whole Will and Inclination from that which we have made ourselves to be, from that Life which we have awakened in us? If Self is our Misery and Captivity, must not our Deliverance require a total, continual Self-denial? If we want a Redeemer, only because we have wander'd out of Paradise, and could not get back to it ourselves; if we are overcome by this World, only because the Will and Desire of our first Father sought after it, what Wonder is it that he who is to replace us in Paradise should call us to a Renunciation of the World? If this World has got its Dominion over us, merely because the Will and Desire of Man turned itself towards the Earth; how can its Dominion over us be destroy'd, but by our turning our whole Will and Desire towards Heaven?

if

(22.) Vain Man, taken with the Sound of heavenly Things, and Prospects of future Glory, yet at the same Time a fast Friend to all the Interests and Passions of Flesh and Blood, would fain compound Matters between God and Mammon. He is very willing to acknowlege a Saviour, that died on the Cross to save him; he is ready to receive outward Ordinances, and Forms of Divine Worship, and to contend with Zeal for the Observance of them.

He likes Heaven, and future Glory, on these Conditions. He is also ready to put on an outward Morality of Behaviour, to let Religion polish his Manners, that he may have the Credit and Ornament of a prudential Piety, well-order'd Passions, and a Decency of outward Life; this gives no Hurt, or at least no Death's-Blow to the old Man. But to lay the Ax to the whole Root of our Disease, to cut all those silken Cords asunder, which tie us to the World, and the World to us, to deny every Temper and Passion that cannot be made Holy, Wise, and Heavenly; to die to every Gratification which keeps up, and strengthens the Folly, Vanity, Pride and Blindness of our fallen Nature; to leave no little Morsels of Sensuality, Avarice and Ambition, for the old Man to feed upon, however well covered under his Mantle; this, tho' it be the very Essence of Religion on our Part, is what he flies from with as much Aversion as from Heresy and Schism. Here he makes learned Appeals to Reason and Common Sense to judge betwixt him and the Gospel; which is just as wise, as to ask the learned Greek, and the worldly Jew, whether the Cross of Christ be not Foolishness, and a just Rock of Offence; or to appeal to Flesh and Blood about the narrow Way to that Kingdom of Heaven, into which itself cannot possibly have any Entrance.

(23.) To seek for any thing in Religion, but a new Nature fitted for a new World, is knowing knowing neither it, nor ourſelves. To be born again, is to be fit for Paradiſe, in whatever Part of the Univerſe we live. Not to be born again, is continuing where the Sin and Death of Adam left us, whatever Church, or Sect of Religion we have Fellowſhip with. All Ways and Opinions, all Forms and Modes of Divine Worſhip, ſtand on the Outſide of Religion. They may be, and certainly are, great and deſirable Helps to the Kingdom of God, when we conſider them only as the Gate, or Guide to that inward Life, which wants to be raiſed, and brought forth in us. But this is unqueſtionably true, that our Salvation conſiſts wholly and ſolely in the Birth of the Son of God, and the Renewal of the Holy Ghoſt, in our Souls. When this begins, our Salvation begins; as this goes on, our Salvation goes on; when this is finiſh'd, our Salvation is finiſh'd. This alone ſaves the Soul; becauſe this alone reſtores the Firſt Paradiſical, Divine Nature, which is the true Image of God, and which alone can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

(24.) If we had only a notional Knowlege that our Firſt Father had ſinned, and knew no more of his ſinful Condition than Hiſtory tells us of it; if we had only certain inſtituted Types and Figures to keep up the Remembrance of it in our Minds, we ſhould never be the worſe for his Sins; we ſhould have no Hurt by owning ourſelves to be Children of a ſinful Father, if his Nature, Life and Spirit was not propagated in us: So, if we have only a notional Belief that Jesus is become the Second Adam, to redeem or regenerate the fallen Nature; if we know this only in the Notion and History kept up in our Minds by outward Figures and Ordinances, tho' we contend ever so much for this Belief of a Saviour, and write Volumes in Defence of it; yet he is not our Saviour, till his Nature, Life, and Spirit, be born in us. If there be any Man in the World, in whom the Nature of Adam is not, he has no Sin from Adam. If there be any Man, in whom the Life of Jesus is not, he has no Righteousness from him. We must have Life and Righteousness in the same Truth and Reality in us from the Second Adam, as we have Sin and Death in us from the First.

(25.) The Whole of the Matter is this: This World is our Curse and Separation from God; by the Mystery of our Redemption it is turn'd into a short State of Purification, and can only be made so, by our going with our whole Will and Desire out of it, and away from it, as Adam by his Will and Desire sought after, and fell into it. The Second Adam must take us out, as the First Adam brought us into this World. Our Bodies are our Burdens which Sin has laid upon us: Our stinging, wounding Passions are the Nails which must fasten our Hands and Feet to the Cross on which we are to die, and commend our Spirit into the Hands of God, as our Lord did. But yet, all this

Turning

Turning with our whole Will, and Desire towards God, and Paradise, all this Bearing our Cross, and passing through the fiery Trials of this Life, is still but preparatory to our Salvation, which wholly consists in the Incarnation of the Son of God in the Soul, or Life of Man. That must be done, and born in us, which was done, and born in the Virgin Mary. As our Sin and Death is, Adam in us, so our Life and Salvation is, Christ in us. This is it alone that saves us, that delivers us from the Fall, that restores all that was lost in Adam; by this alone what died in Adam, is brought to Life again in us; by this alone we can be taken out of an earthly Life, Nature, and World, and translated into a heavenly Life, Nature, and World.

(26.) Christ, by the over-shadowing of the Holy Spirit, became in the Body of the holy Virgin Mary, of the same Nature with that First Man, which was created in Paradise, who, according to the Purpose of God, was to have been the Father of an holy, paradisical Race of Men. Now the First Purpose of God must stand, and that which God designed must come to pass. But seeing the First Adam failed in this Design of God, and was not the Generator of such a Race of Men, therefore the Wisdom of God provided a Second Adam, who was born of the Virgin Mary in the same Degree of Perfection, in which the first Man was created. To this holy, paradisical, human Nature, the

Son

Son of God was perſonally united; and thus Chriſt, the Second Adam, took the Place of the Firſt, and ſtands as the Regenerator, Redeemer, Second Father of all the Sons of Adam. Now as we are earthly, corrupt, and worldly Men, by having the Nature and Life of the Firſt Adam propagated in us, ſo we muſt become holy, paradiſical, and heavenly Men, by having the Life and Nature of the Second Adam derived into, or regenerated in us; or, as the Scripture ſpeaks, by being born again of him. Therefore if we are to have the Nature of Chriſt regenerated in us, as the Life of Adam is born in us; if we are to be like him in Nature, as we are like to Adam in Nature; if we are to be the heavenly Sons of the one, as we are the earthly Sons of the other, then there is an abſolute Neceſſity, that That which was done and born in the Virgin Mary, be alſo by the ſame Power of the Holy Ghoſt done and born in us, by a Seed of Life derived into us from Chriſt our Regenerator. The Myſtery of Chriſt's Birth muſt be the Myſtery of our Birth; we cannot be his Sons, but by having the Birth of his Life derived into us; for the new paradiſical Man muſt be brought forth in the ſame manner in every individual Perſon; that which brought forth this holy Birth in the Firſt Adam at his Creation, and in the Second Adam in the Virgin Mary, that alone can bring it forth in any one of their Offſpring. Jeſus Chriſt therefore ſtands as our Regenerator, to help us by a

Second

Second Birth from him, to such an holy, pure, and undefiled Nature, as he himself received in the Blessed Virgin, and which we should have received in Paradise from our First Father.

From the Time of the Fall of Adam, the incorruptible Seed of Christ is in us all, in the whole human Nature; he has Power, as the Son of God, to quicken and raise it up, till it comes to be that First holy Image of the Blessed Trinity. And when a Divine Faith arises in this Seed of Life, by which it lays hold on Christ as the Author, Preserver, and Finisher of its Life, as the Atonement, Saviour and Deliverer from the Death and Hell that surrounds it, then it grows up into a new, inward Man, of the same Nature with that which appeared in Paradise, and with that which was born in the Virgin Mary. Then the Birth of the Son of God, the Birth of the Spirit, and that First holy Humanity which Adam lost, are all restored to us, but in a Mystery in the inward Man hid in God, till the Resurrection shall separate every thing that is earthly, dark, and corruptible, from it. Thus by Faith in Christ we put on Christ, he becomes formed in us, we eat his Flesh, and drink his Blood, and have his Nature and Life in us; that is, we have a Flesh and Blood, a holy Humanity, derived into us from Christ, in the same Reality as we have Flesh and Blood, a corrupt Humanity from Adam, our First Father. Thus we are real Members, living Branches, and new-born Children, of Christ,

Chriſt, our Regenerator; he is our Father, and as ſuch, as certainly brings us into the Kingdom of Heaven, Heirs of all his Glory, as Adam brought us into the Priſon of this World, Heirs of all his Sin and Miſery. This is the Whole of the Chriſtian Redemption. Let us look where we will, and talk of what we will, there is no Poſſibility of Salvation for any one Son of Adam, but in this Divine Birth, nor can this Birth be had any other way. And to this great Truth all the Writings of the New Teſtament bear undeniable Witneſs. For the further and full View of this important Matter, I refer the Reader to another little Book *, which, if I could afford it, ſhould be ſent gratis into all Parts of the Kingdom. Look now at yourſelves, at the World, at Religion, in this true Light, and ſurely you muſt enough ſee and feel the deſirable Nature of every Virtue, and every Degree of it, which the Goſpel ſets before you. Surely you muſt awaken into a ſtrong Abhorrence of every thing, that the Fall has brought upon you, whether it be in your Souls, your Bodies, or the State of the World into which you are fallen. To renounce the poor Intereſts of a worldly Life, to be content with a Pilgrim's Fare in it, to live looking and longing after that which you have loſt; to have no more of Covetouſneſs, of Pride, of Vanity, and Ambition, than John the Baptiſt had; to live unto God in your Shops, your Em-

* Grounds and Reaſons of Chriſtian Regeneration, &c.

Employments and Eſtates, with ſuch Thoughts and Deſires of going to your heavenly Father, as the loſt Son had when he ſaw his poor Condition, eating Huſks among Swine, is only a Proof that you are, like him, come to yourſelves, that you begin to ſee what, and how, and where you are. Surely you can need no Exhortations to haſten and run to your Redeemer, to aſk and beſeech him in Faith and Love to do every thing in you and for you, that your darken'd corrupted Heart, and polluted Body, ſtands in need of. He now ſtands as near you, as full of Love over you, as he did to Lazarus when he raiſed him from the Dead. He is no farther from your Call, than he was from the Call of blind Bartimæus, whoſe Eyes he immediately opened. Surely it ſhould now be more needleſs to exhort you to look earneſtly and diligently after every Means of recovering your firſt glorious State, than to exhort the Blind to receive their Sight, the Sick to accept of Health, or the Captive to ſuffer his Chains to be taken off. For when you thus ſee your Miſery and your Redemption in this ſtrong Light, both of them ſo exceeding great, you ſee ſomething that muſt needs penetrate and awaken the inmoſt Depth of your Soul, that leaves you no room to doubt about the Nature of any Virtue, no Liberty to indulge one vain Paſſion, or to think it any Hardſhip that the Goſpel calls you to be perfect. For in this Light every Virtue of the Goſpel ſtands known and recommended to us, just as Health, Purity and Sight, stand recommended to a sickly, noisome, blind Leper, who was shut up in a Place that continually increased all his Evils. It strips us of nothing but the Uncleanness of Leprosies, the Miseries of Sores, Pains, and Blindness. It takes nothing from the World which is about us, but its Poison and Power of infecting us. So that to be called to the Height of all Virtue attainable in this Life, however excessive it may seem to the Reasonings of Flesh and Blood, is only being called away from every Misery and Evil that can be avoided by us. Jesus Christ is become our Regenerator, that we may again be made like unto God, have the Purity and Perfection of an angelic Nature, and be made capable of enjoying the infinite Riches and Treasures of the Divine Nature to all Eternity. No Virtue therefore has any blameable Extreme in it, till it contradicts this general End of Religion, till it hinders the Restoration of the Divine Image in us, or makes us less fit to appear amongst the Inhabitants of Heaven. Abstinence, Temperance, Mortification of the Senses and Passions, can have no Excess till they hinder the Purification of the Soul, and make the Body less useful and subservient to it. Charity can have no Excess till it contradicts that Love which we are to have in Heaven, till it is more than that which would lay down its Life even for an Enemy, till it exceeds that which the first Christians ſtians practiſed, when they had all things common; till it exceeds that of St. John, who requires him that has Two Coats, to give to him that has none, and he that has Meat to do likewiſe; till it is loving our poor Brethren more than Chriſt has loved us; till it goes beyond the Command of loving our Neighbour as we love ourſelves; till it forgets that our own Life is to be preſerved.

See now how the Doctor inſtructs and enlightens his Readers on theſe Two great Articles, Chriſtian Temperance, and Charity. To remove the Reſtraints of the Firſt, he ſays, "Our Bleſſed Saviour came eating and drinking, was preſent at Weddings, and other Entertainments; nay, at one of them worked a Miracle to make Wine, when it is plain, there had been more drank than was abſolutely neceſſary for the Support of Nature, and conſequently ſomething had been indulged to Pleaſure and Chearfulneſs *."

O Holy Jeſus, that thy Divine Life ſhould, by a Preacher of thy Goſpel, be made a Plea for Liberties of Indulgence! The Doctor's Argument lies in this; that our Saviour work'd a Miracle to help them to more Wine, when they had already drank to the Indulgence of Pleaſure and Chearfulneſs, therefore he could be no Enemy to ſuch pleaſant Indulgences; therefore it is lawful for us Chriſtians to delight in them. Now if this Lawfulneſs is well proved, the Doctor

Doctor may go on, and prove these Indulgences to be good and pious; because what our Saviour work'd a Miracle to promote, must needs be esteem'd to be so. And so the adding another Bottle, when Friends are rejoicing, may be made to be a Christian Duty. But the Doctor should have remember'd, that the Wine here spoken of, was not common Wine, and therefore has not the least Relation to our common Drinking — that it was not Wine from the Juice of the Grape — that it had nothing in it, but what came from a heavenly Hand — that it must have in it the Purity and Virtue of him that made it — that it had as good Qualities in it, and was fitted to have the same Effects upon some that drank it, as the Clay, which he moisten'd with his Spittle, had upon the Eyes of the Blind. He should have remember'd, that it was Water, only so alter'd, and endued with such Qualities, as he pleased to put into it; and therefore we may be sure, it was Water as highly bless'd for their Use, as they were capable of; we may be sure it was fitter to allay the Heat and Disorder of their Drinking, than if it had been Water unalter'd by our Saviour. How suitable was this Miracle to a Feast! How worthy of so Divine a Person! To make them cooler, by giving them Water made fitter for that Purpose, and to raise their Faith by its miraculously seeming to be turn'd into the best of Wine. Well might it be said of this Miracle, that he thereby manifested feſted forth his Glory, and his Diſciples believed on him. But according to the Doctor's horrid Account of this Miracle, it muſt be ſaid, that he thereby ſhew'd his Approbation of continuing ſuch Pleaſures of Drinking, and has left us a Proof, that we may do the ſame. But I muſt further vindicate the Life and Example of our Bleſſed Lord from the Indignity and Irreverence done to it by the Doctor. Our Bleſſed Lord came indeed, as he ſays of himſelf, eating and drinking. But how, or in what Manner, or in what Senſe, did he ſay this of himſelf? Why, it was in Oppoſition to, and Diſtinction from, John the Baptiſt, who came eating only one Sort of Food. And it was to ſhew the Jews their great Guilt in this reſpect, that nothing could do them any good. For the Mortification of the Baptiſt they condemned, as coming from the Devil; and the Condeſcenſion of the Holy Jeſus in coming to their Tables, they accuſed as Gluttony and Wine-bibbing. Now the Doctor is plainly doing what our Lord accuſed the Jews of; he with them condemns the Mortification of the Baptiſt, as coming from the Devil. But he differs from the Jews in this, that he does not condemn, but approves of our Lord, as a Friend to Feaſts, and merry Meetings.

Our Saviour, ſuitable to his gracious Love, in coming into the World, ſought the Converſation of Sinners and Publicans; becauſe he came to ſave that which was loſt, and becauſe

he knew that ſome amongſt ſuch Sinners were more moveable, than the proud Sanctity of the learned Phariſees. But may we thence conclude, that the Lives of ſuch Sinners were not blameable in his Sight? Is not this as well, as to imagine he favour'd the Indulgences of Feaſting and good Fellowſhip, becauſe he was found there? The Holy Jeſus converſed more freely, ſpoke of himſelf, and of the Kingdom of God, more divinely to a wicked Woman of Samaria, than he appears to have done to his Diſciples. May we thence conclude, that he approved of a Woman of that Character, or that he thereby ſet his Seal to the Goodneſs and Lawfulneſs of her Way of living? Is not this as well, as to make his Preſence at a Wedding, an Approbation of the Freedom and Indulgences of ſuch Feaſts?

O Holy Jeſus, thou didſt nothing of thyſelf, thou ſoughteſt only the Glory of thy Father, from the Beginning to the End of thy Life; thou ſpenteſt whole Nights in Prayer in Mountains and Deſart Places; thou hadſt not where to lay thy Head; thy common poor Fare with thy Diſciples was barely Bread and dried Fiſh; thy miraculous Power never help'd thee to any Dainties of Refreſhment, tho' ever ſo much fatigued, and fainted with Labour. But yet, becauſe this Holy Jeſus came into the World to ſave all Sorts of Sinners, and to ſhew that every Kind and Degree of Sin could be taken away, and forgiven by him, therefore he came into all Places, and entered into all Sorts of Companies. He did not, as the Baptiſt, tie himſelf to one Sort of Food, but he came eating and drinking. But why did he ſo? It was, that he might reprove and convert Sinners at their own Tables. He came, not to indulge himſelf, or to find ſuch Gratifications as the Baptiſt abſtain'd from, but to work Miracles, to awaken and aſtoniſh Sinners in the Midſt of their Indulgences.

It is ſaid, that where-ever the King is, there is the Court. But with much more Reaſon may it be ſaid, that where-ever our Saviour came, there was the Temple, or the Church. He came to Feaſts and Entertainments with the ſame Spirit, for the ſame End, and in the ſame Divine Power, as he went to raiſe a dead Corpſe; namely, to ſhew forth the Glory of God. Where-ever he came, it was in the Spirit and Power of the Redeemer of Mankind; every thing he did, was only to deſtroy the Works of the Devil, to deliver Men from his Power, raiſe the Dead, and give Sight to the Blind, and Ears to the Deaf; it made no Difference to him, whether he did this in the Temple, or in the Streets, at a Feaſt, or at a Funeral. As he was every-where God, ſo every Place became Holy to him. Laſtly, If our Saviour came Eating and Drinking, and was preſent, as is pretended, at chearful Entertainments, to ſhew his Approbation of ſuch Indulgences, and to leave us a Proof, that we may do ſo too;

how came John the Baptiſt, that ſevere Maſter of Mortification, to be a fit Preparer of the Way to the Kingdom of Heaven? Surely his Voice muſt cry wrong, if ſuch Mortification was not right. And if our Saviour diſapproved of the Severity of his Life and Manners, how came he to point him out to the Jews, as a burning and ſhining Light? Thus much may ſerve to vindicate our Saviour's holy Life and Example from the ſhocking Miſapplication the Doctor has made of it.

Let us now ſee how he treats and inſtructs the charitable Chriſtian in theſe Words: "What! ſays the Half-Thinker, is not Cha- "rity to the Poor, a moſt excellent Thing? "And can I be too charitable? Can I there- "fore beſtow too much upon the Poor? I an- "ſwer, Would you conſider the other Side, "you would perceive, that tho' you cannot "be too charitable, yet you may beſtow too "much upon the Poor, to the Ruin of your "Wife and Children, which is not Charity, "but Madneſs, and a great and moſt grievous "Sin. Did you never hear, that Charity be- "gins at Home? Did you never read that of "St. Paul? If any provide not for his own, "and eſpecially thoſe of his own Houſe; he hath "denied the Faith, and is worſe than an Infi- "del *."

The Doctor's Proverb I ſhall leave to himſelf. But the Text of St. Paul, which he has as

as grosly mistaken and misapplied, as he did our Saviour's Miracle, I must take out of his Hands. St. Paul's Words are quoted to prove, that it is Madness, a great and grievous Sin, for any one, through Charity to the Poor, to render himself unable to provide for his Wife and Children. Now the Apostle in this Place speaks no more about this Sin, than he speaks against the Sin of Watching and Prayer. Nay, what is more, there is not in all his Writings, or in the whole New Testament, the least Supposition or Hint that such a Sin ever was, or would be committed by any charitable Man. The Apostle was singly speaking of such Women as were to be taken into the Order of Widows, for the Service of the Church, and to be maintained by it *. Verse 4. he says, that such Widows as had Children or Nephews that could support them, such were not to be maintained by the Church. And to such Sons and Nephews who have Mothers and Aunts that thus want their Assistance, he says, If any one provide not for his own, especially for those of his own House, i. e. If any Sons or Nephews, having Mothers or Aunts become desolate Widows, and take not care to assist them, especially if they live with them, such have renounced the Piety of the Gospel, and have not so much Humanity as Infidels. This alone is the plain Doctrine of the Apostle, which the Doctor has grosly perverted, to the condemning of that which he never thought of, either there, or in any Part of Scripture. On the contrary, the Scripture abounds with Paſſages that might perſuade us, that no Family could ever be ruin'd by the Alms and Charity of its Father. I have been young, and now am old, ſaith the Pſalmiſt, yet never ſaw I the Righteous forſaken, or their Seed begging their Bread. The liberal Soul ſhall be made fat, and he that watereth, ſhall be watered again. They that cannot believe this, want the Faith of Chriſtians. Had any one in the Apoſtle's Time reduced his Wife and Children to Want, by his great Charity to the Poor, the Apoſtle would have been ſo far from rebuking him, as a half-thinking Fool, or expoſing him to others, as guilty of Madneſs, and grievous Sin, that he would have told them, that he had conſecrated himſelf and Family to the Church, that he and they were thereby become the dear Objects of the Church's Care and Love, ſince their preſent Diſtreſs was brought upon them by a boundleſs Love and Compaſſion for the Poor. I will now ſuppoſe that the Apoſtle had condemn'd a Charity in a Father that was to the Detriment of his Wife and Children; I will put the following Caſe in as high Terms as the Doctor can well deſire. Let it be ſuppoſed that ſome good Biſhop, poſſeſſed of as rich a Biſhoprick as that of Wincheſter, ſhould through his extenſive Love and Charity for the Poor throughout his whole Dioceſe, be forced to uſe the utmoſt Frugality in Family-Expence, and to bring up his Children in Employments of

of Labour, to help themſelves to Food and Raiment; one a Carpenter, in which Buſineſs our Saviour is ſaid to have labour'd in his Youth; another a Maker of Tents, the Trade of the great Apoſtle; and the reſt in the like manner. Let it be ſuppoſed, that when he died, he left only Twenty Pounds a Year amongſt them, not to be poſſeſſed by any one of them, but only to be uſed by every one, as Sickneſs or Age made them ſtand in need of it, with this Injunction, that it ſhould be given to other ſick and helpleſs People, when there was no ſuch amongſt themſelves. Let it be ſuppoſed that by his Life and Converſation, he had filled his Wife and Children with the true and perfect Spirit of the Goſpel, that they loved and rejoiced in his Memory for all the Good that he had done to them, deſiring nothing but to go through the World in that ſame Humility, Piety, Charity, Love of God, and Renunciation of the World, as he had done. Will the Doctor ſay, that this Biſhop had ruin'd his Wife and Children? that half-thinking had betray'd him into a moſt grievous Sin, that he had by this Life deny'd the Faith, and become worſe than an Infidel? I will venture to ſay, that if ſuch a Biſhop ſhould ever appear in this Kingdom, he would bid fair to put an End to Infidelity through all his Dioceſe, tho' it were the largeſt in the Nation. Now if the Doctor does not know of any one, either amongſt the Laity or Clergy, who is ruining his Wife and Children by a greater and more blameable Charity than that of this Biſhop, it muſt be ſaid, that he has been in too much Haſte; that his Zeal has not proceeded from Knowlege; and that he has been throwing cold Water upon Charity, before there was any Flame in it.

I now proceed to ſhew in a more general Way, the blameable Nature and Deſign of the Doctor's Diſcourſe. The whole Chriſtian World, from the Time of our Saviour to this Day, has been praying, Thy Kingdom come, thy Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. Sacraments, Divine Worſhip, and the Order of the Clergy, are appointed as miniſterial Helps for this End, to raiſe, ſet up, and eſtabliſh, this Kingdom of God on Earth. The Fall of Man brought forth the Kingdom of this World; Sin in all Shapes is nothing elſe but the Will of Man driving on in a State of Self-Motion, and Self-Government, following the Workings of a Nature broken off from its Dependency upon, and Union with, the Divine Will. All the Evil and Miſery in the Creation ariſes only and ſolely from this one Cauſe. There is not the ſmalleſt Degree of Diſtraction, Pain, or Puniſhment, either within us, or without us, but what is owing to this, viz. that Man ſtands out of his Place, is not in, and under, and united to God as he ſhould be, as the Nature of Things require. God created every thing to partake of his own Nature, to have ſome Degree and Share of his own Life and Happineſs. Nothing can be good or evil, happy or unhappy, but as it does or does not ſtand in the ſame Degree of Divine Life in which it was created, receiving in God, and from God, all that Good that it is capable of, and co-operating with, and under him, according to the Nature of its Powers and Perfections. As ſoon as it turns to itſelf, and would, as it were, have a Sound of its own, it breaks off from the Divine Harmony, and falls into the Miſery of its own Diſcord; and all its Workings then are only ſo many Sorts of Torment, or Ways of feeling its own Poverty. The Redemption of Mankind can then only be effected, the Harmony of the Creation can only then be reſtored, when the Will of God is the Will of every Creature. For this Reaſon our Bleſſed Lord having taken upon him a created Nature, ſo continually declares againſt the doing any thing of himſelf, and always appeals to the Will of God, as the only Motive and End of every thing he did, ſaying, that it was his Meat and Drink to do the Will of him that ſent him.

What now can be ſo deſirable to a ſober, ſenſible Man, as to have the vain, diſorderly Paſſions of his own corrupted Heart removed from him, to be filled with ſuch Unity, Love, and Concord, as flows from God, to ſtand united to, and co-operating with the Divine Goodneſs, willing nothing, but what God wills, loving nothing, but what God loves, and doing all the Good that he can to every Creature, from a Principle of Love and Conformity to God. Then the

the Kingdom of God is come, and his Will is done in that Soul, as it is done in Heaven. Then Heaven itſelf is in the Soul, and the Life, and Converſation of the Soul is in Heaven. From ſuch a Man the Curſe of this World is removed; he walks upon conſecrated Ground, and every thing he meets, every thing that happens to him, helps forward his Union, and Communion with God. For it is the State of our Will, that makes the State of our Life; when we receive every thing from God, and do every thing for God, every thing does us the ſame Good, and helps us to the ſame Degree of Happineſs. Sickneſs and Health, Proſperity and Adverſity, bleſs and purify ſuch a Soul in the ſame Degree; as it turns every thing towards God, ſo every Thing becomes divine to it. For he that ſeeks God in every thing, is ſure to find God in every thing. When we thus live wholly unto God, God is wholly ours, and we are then happy in all the Happineſs of God; for by uniting with him in Heart, and Will, and Spirit, we are united to all that he is, and has in himſelf. This is the Purity and Perfection of Life, that we pray for in the Lord's Prayer, that God's Kingdom may come, and his Will be done in us, as it is in Heaven. And this we may be ſure is not only neceſſary, but attainable by us, or our Saviour would not have made it a Part of our daily Prayer. It may now then juſtly be aſk'd, have we yet obtain'd that, which we have been ſo long, long, and so universally praying for? Can we look upon the Church of this Nation, as drawing near, or even tending to this State of Perfection? Can we be carried to any one Parish, either in Town or Country, where it can with Truth be said of any one Pastor and his Flock, that there the Kingdom of God is coming, and his Will begins to be done on Earth, as it is done in Heaven? Can we therefore find any one Parish, where the Pastor has not great Reason to reject the Doctor's Discourse, and to pray both for himself and his Flock, that they may enter much farther into the Spirit and Practice of Christianity, than they have yet enter'd, that the Gospel may have much greater Power over them, than it hath yet had, and that they all may, with a most awakening Conviction, see and understand what it is, that has made so divine and powerful a Religion, so without its proper Effect upon them? For if the Case be thus, if we stand at this amazing Distance from that State of Perfection to which Christ has called us, tho' we have his infallible Promise to be with us to the End of the World, to assist us with such Power and Strength from above, as to obtain, and do every thing that we pray for, through a right Faith in him, and Conformity to his Laws and Example; if the Case be thus, does not Heaven and Earth seem to call upon every Minister of the Gospel, to take some Share to himself of this miserable State of Things, and to endeavour to convince both both himself and his Flock, that they have not yet been Christians in true earnest, that they have professed Christ with the Tempers of Jews and Heathens, that they have not yet entered into the narrow Way that leads to Life; that they have not yet enough renounced the World; not enough denied themselves; not enough emptied their Hearts of Passions hurtful to Piety; not enough offer'd and devoted themselves to God; not enough made the Spirit of Religion the Spirit of their Lives; not enough sought for Strength and Deliverance from Sin, by a firm and living Faith in Jesus Christ, who is made Righteousness and Sanctification to every Sinner that turns to God thro' Faith in him; not enough pray'd, and desired that they might be born again of God by the awakening and quickening the incorruptible Seed of Divine Life in their Souls, so that Christ may be truly said to be form'd in them; not enough pray'd, and desired to be every-where, and on all Occasions, under the perpetual Influence and Guidance of the Holy Spirit, that they may think, and say, and do every thing by his Holy Inspiration; not enough look'd to that first and great Commandment, of loving God with our whole Heart and whole Strength; not enough endeavour'd to keep the next, which is like unto it, that of loving our Neighbour, as we love ourselves; not enough renounced such Fashions, Customs, and Conformities, to the World, as greatly corrupt the Heart, and grieve

and ſeparate the Holy Spirit from it. Now which way ſoever we conſider the lamentable State of Religion amongſt us, whether they be Evils within or without the Church, no Evil can be removed, nor any Remedy be procured by us of the Clergy, but in this one Way, That every Individual of the Order, from the higheſt to the loweſt, begin in right Earneſt with himſelf, open the Book of his own Heart and Life, and conſider ſeriouſly in the Preſence of God, whether, according to his Degree in the Eccleſiaſtical Function, the World has had its due Share of Salt and Light from him; whether all that is in the World, the Luſt of the Fleſh, the Luſt of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life, have been ſo openly, ſo conſtantly diſcouraged and renounced by him, that the whole Form of his Life has been one loud, continual Call to all Orders of Chriſtians, to ſet their Affections on Things above, to mind only the one Thing needful; to have nothing at Heart, but to be in Chriſt new Creatures, ſeeking, intending, deſiring nothing through the Pilgrimage of this Life, but to live unſpotted from the World, and to obtain every Height of Holineſs, and heavenly Affection, which becomes thoſe who are to be called Sons and Heirs of God with Chriſt Jeſus. If Religion was at this Time in a moſt flouriſhing State amongſt us, abounding with ſuch Congregations as made up the primitive Church, it would be great Injuſtice to ſuppoſe that the Clergy had not,

not, under God, been the chief Inſtruments of building it up to ſuch a State of Perfection, ſince they are conſider'd by our Saviour himſelf, as the Salt and Light of the World, which are to preſerve it both from Darkneſs and Corruption. Seeing then that an univerſal Corruption of Manners is on all hands confeſs'd to have overſpread this Chriſtian Nation, and the true Spirit of Religion hardly any-where to be ſeen, nothing can be more reaſonable in itſelf, more ſuitable to the preſent State of Things, than for every Clergyman, where-ever his Lot is fallen, to ſuſpect himſelf to have, in ſome Degree or other, contributed to this common Calamity, and to be more or leſs chargeable with the Guilt of it, and to try to diſcover his own State, by ſuch like Queſtions as theſe, laid home to his Conſcience. If Chriſtianity has not done that to my Flock which is the only End and Intent of it, is there nothing of this Failure chargeable upon my Conduct over it? Can my righteous Judge lay nothing grievous to my Charge on that Account? Can my own Heart bear me Witneſs that I did not run in my own Will, was not driven by human Paſſions, but ſtaid and waited till the Holy Spirit called me to this Office? Have I not undertaken the Care of others Souls, before I had ever any true and real Care of my own? Have I not preſumed to convert and ſtrengthen others, before I was converted myſelf? To preach by hearſay of the Grace, and Mercy, Mercy, and Salvation, of the Gospel, whilst I myself was an obedient Slave to Sin? Have I not taken upon me to explain and lay open the Mysteries of God's Love in Christ Jesus, before they had had their proper Entrance into my own Soul? Has my own Repentance, Compunction, deep Sensibility of the Burden of Sin, and want of a Saviour, taught me how to make the Terrors of the Lord known in the Deep of every Man's Heart, and to awaken and pierce the Consciences of Sinners? Has my own true and living Faith in Christ my Saviour, my own Experience of the atoning, cleansing, sanctifying Power of his precious Blood, enabled me with great Boldness to tell all Sinners, that to the Faith which worketh by Love, Christ always and infallibly saith, what he said in the Gospel, Thy Sins are forgiven: thy Faith hath saved thee; go in Peace?

Can my own Heart, and God, who is greater than our Hearts, bear me Witness that in my sacred Office I have not sought myself, or my own Things, but the Things of Jesus Christ? If I have changed one Flock or Station for another, or added one Cure to another, have I done it in Singleness of Heart, as unto the Lord, and not for myself? Has all that I have sought or done of this Kind, been only from this Motive, and in this View, that I might be more truly faithful to him that hath called me, and be more and more spent and sacrificed for the Salvation of Souls? Have I neglected no Means of fitting and preparing myſelf for the Illuminations of God's Holy Spirit, which alone can enable me in any Meaſure to ſpeak to, and work upon, the Hearts and Conſciences of Men? Have I earneſtly longed, and laboured after every Kind and Degree of inward and outward Holineſs, and Purity of Body, Soul, and Spirit, that my ſtanding at the Altar may be acceptable to God, and my Prayers and Interceſſions for my Flock avail much before him? Has my own Self-denial, Renunciation of the World, and Love of the Croſs of Chriſt, enabled me to preach up thoſe Duties in their full Extent? Has my own ſtrictly pious Uſe of the Things of this World, my own Readineſs to relieve and aſſiſt every Creature to the utmoſt Extent of my Ability, fitted me to call others to theſe Things with Power and Authority? Have all Ages and Conditions of People under my Care had their proper Inſtruction and Warning from me, ſo that I have ſpared no Folly, Vanity, Indulgence, or Conformity to the World, that hurts Mens Souls, and hinders their Progreſs in Piety? Have I done all that by my Prayers and Preaching, Life and Example, which Chriſt expects from thoſe whom he has enjoin'd to feed his Sheep? Can my Flock by looking at me ſee what Virtues they want? Can they by following me, be led to every Kind and Degree of Chriſtian Perfection? Laſtly, has the Will of God and the Spirit of the Goſpel been the Beginning and End, the Reaſon and Motive, the Rule

Rule and Measure, of my liking or disliking, doing or not doing, every thing among those People with whom I have lived as their Minister? These are a few of such Questions as the present State of Religion in this Island calls upon every Minister of the Gospel to sift and try himself by. For as the Order of the Clergy is instituted for no other End, but for the preserving of Religion and true Piety in the World; so when any Age is more than ordinarily sunk in Vice and Impiety, the whole Order of the Clergy, and every Member of it, have great reason not only to be deeply afflicted, but greatly affrighted at it, and to suspect and fear their own Conduct, since that which is their particular Work, has had so little Success. They have great reason to apprehend, that it is some Degeneracy of Spirit, some common Misbehaviour, some general Negligence, some want of Example, some Failure in Doctrine, some Defect in Zeal and Care of their particular Flocks, that too much contributes to so general a Corruption of Manners. This does not suppose, that it is in the Power of our Order to regulate the Manners of People as we please; it only supposes, that of all human Means it has the greatest Effect; and that when any Nation or People are either very good or very bad, the Behaviour of the Clergy may reasonably be reckon'd to have greatly contributed to it. Let us all therefore of the Clergy, who have any right Sense of the Nature of our Order, any true Love for our Brethren of it, awaken and ſtir up one another to a faithful Diligence in our Callings, not ſuch as may ſecure us from public Scandal, and the Laws of the Land, but ſuch a faithful Diligence as the Nature of our Office, the Spirit of the Goſpel, and the preſent Decay of Religion, calls for. Let us beſeech and intreat one another deeply to conſider the great Need that this poor Nation hath of a zealous, pious, exemplary, diſintereſted and laborious Clergy; to conſider the dreadful Judgments of God, that may juſtly be expected to fall firſt upon our own Heads, if this true, only Relief and Remedy is not procured by all of us, according to the utmoſt of our Ability. It is now no time for Eaſe, Indulgence, or worldly Repoſe; all is to be renounced, all is to be ſacrificed; and we muſt in the Spirit of Martyrdom awaken the World into a Faith and Love of the Goſpel. Now is the Time that we muſt give up all our worldly Regards, forſake all that we have; that we muſt hate Father and Mother, Wife and Children, and Brothers and Siſters, yea, and our own Lives alſo, or we cannot be faithful Miniſters of Jeſus Chriſt. The ſame Spirit which firſt planted the Goſpel, is now required to recover and reſtore it amongſt us. We muſt break off our Chains of worldly Prudence, and come forth in the Spirit and Power of the Goſpel; ſo live, and ſpeak, and act, whether in the Pulpit or out of it, that all who ſee and hear us may be forced to confeſs that God is in us of a Truth, and that his Holy Spirit hath ſent us. A Miniſtry that hath not this Power, that have not full Proof, both to themſelves and others, that the Holy Spirit is thus with them, opening the Kingdom of God in their own Souls, and enabling them to preach it to others with Spirit and Power, are to anſwer to God for their Want of it.

To aſk whether the Aſſiſtance of the Holy Spirit is to be ordinary or extraordinary, is as needleſs and groundleſs a Diſtinction, as to aſk whether a Miniſter of the Goſpel ought to be an ordinary or extraordinary good Man. The Operation of the Holy Spirit in us ſince the Fall, is a ſupernatural Power, and therefore in a juſt Senſe always extraordinary, becauſe enabling us to be and do that, which the ordinary Power of fallen Nature is inſufficient for; but it is more or leſs reſtored to us, as we are more or leſs fitted to receive it. And all that Aſſiſtance or Renovation of the Holy Spirit which an Apoſtle might expect, for the raiſing his own perſonal Holineſs to its greateſt Height, or for enabling him with Spirit and Power to move, affect, and convert the Hearts of Men to the Faith of the Goſpel, may be juſtly expected now by ſuch Miniſters of the Goſpel, as do all that which an Apoſtle did to obtain and receive it. Our Religion is founded on this Doctrine, —— that we are to be born again of the Holy Spirit, —— that it is to be the Breath and

Life of our new-born, inward Man,——that there is no Sanctification of the Heart, no Illumination of the Mind, no Knowlege of Divine Myſteries, no Love of holy Things, poſſible to be had, but in and by the Motion and Life of this Holy Spirit renew'd or born again in us;——that its Life, Motion, and Power, in us, increaſeth according to our Faith, Prayers, and Deſires of it.

Is it not now a flat Denial of all this to ſay, as is ſaid by ſome, that the Eſtabliſhment of the Goſpel in the World, together with the Aſſiſtances of human Learning and Languages, has been the Occaſion why the Aſſiſtance of the Holy Ghoſt is abated, and become only ſuch as may be called ordinary? For if we conſult either Scripture or Experience, muſt it not be ſaid, that worldly Peace and Proſperity want as much to be ſanctified by the Holy Spirit, as Perſecution and Diſtreſs? That human Learning and Knowlege need as high Degrees of Divine Grace and Help, as human Ignorance? Is not the Blindneſs, the Infatuation and Corruption of Men of Letters, as notorious as that of unlearned Men? Does an Editor of Terence, Horace, or Virgil, receive ſuch Illumination from Plays and Poetry? Do Cardinals and Pluraliſts receive ſo much Unction and Aſſiſtance from human Eſtabliſhments, as to need leſs to be led and govern'd by the Holy Spirit of God? Or will we ſay, that a critical Study of divided Languages, and a Religion eſtabliſh'd in worldly

Eaſe

Eaſe and Peace, are not only in themſelves free from Danger and Corruption, but have ſo much of the Nature of the Holy Spirit of God in them, that they can be to us in his Stead, and make his ſanctifying Operations upon us needed in a leſs Degree?

On the Part of God, our Redemption in Jeſus Chriſt, and our Sanctification by the Holy Ghoſt, ſtand always in the ſame Degree of Nearneſs and Fulneſs to all of us; there is hardly a Chapter in the New Teſtament that can be underſtood, or its Doctrines obſerved, but upon the Suppoſition of this great Truth. If Chriſt is leſs form'd in us than he was in the firſt Saints of the Church, if we come not to the perfect Man, to the Meaſure of the Stature of the Fulneſs of Chriſt, it is not becauſe Chriſt is now become only our Redeemer in an ordinary Way or Degree, but it is becauſe we have not ſo turn'd to him, not ſo turn'd from ourſelves, not ſo counted all Things but Dung, that we might win Chriſt, and be found in him, as the firſt Saints did. If the Holy Spirit does not now in ſuch a Degree renew, quicken, move, and ſanctify our Hearts, and fill us with ſuch Degrees of Divine Light and Love, as was done in the firſt Age of the Church, it is not becauſe this ſanctifying Spirit has committed ſome Part of his Work to human Learning, and ſo is become only our Sanctifier in a leſſer and ordinary Degree, but it is becauſe we ourſelves have forſaken this Fountain of living

Waters, and hew'd out broken Ciſterns for ourſelves; it is becauſe we have grieved this holy Spirit, reſiſted his Motions, quench'd his holy Fire, and under an outward Profeſſion of Chriſt have kept up that Old Man, with his Deeds, which cannot be the Temple and Habitation of the Holy Spirit.

If therefore we have any true Senſe of the Nature and Weight of our Eccleſiaſtical Calling, any Deſire to do the full Work of the Miniſtry, to ſatisfy the Wants and Neceſſities of our Flocks; if we have any Fear of being condemn'd as uſeleſs, inſignificant Labourers in Chriſt's Vineyard, it is high time to awake from this Dream of an ordinary and extraordinary Sanctification of the Holy Spirit; it ſerves only to keep us unſanctified, ſhut up in Death, in the dead Workings of our own corrupted Nature, to keep us learnedly content with our State, as if we were rich, and increaſed in Goods, and had Need of nothing *, and hinders us from knowing that we are wretched, and miſerable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

Several of the Clergy, whoſe Lot is fallen in this corrupt Age, may be ſuppoſed to have taken upon them the ſacred Office, and to have lived in it, not enough according to the Nature and Spirit of it, merely through the Degeneracy of the Times, and from a Conſideration that they are well enough, according to the Meaſure of Religion that now paſſes in the World.

* Rev. iii. 17.

World. And perhaps there are few, if any, of the Order, however eminent for good Works, whoſe Virtues have not received ſome Abatement from the ſame Cauſe. This therefore may be added as another Reaſon why all the Clergy of this Land ſhould ſearch into their Lives and Conduct with the utmoſt Severity, and bring every thing to the Teſt of the Letter and Spirit of the Goſpel.

The Chriſtian Religion has not had its proper Effect, nor obtain'd its intended End, till it has ſo ſet up the Kingdom of God amongſt us, that his Will is done on Earth, as it is done in Heaven. This is the Perfection that every Chriſtian, when advancing forward in the ſeveral Degrees of Holineſs and Purification, is to tend to, and aſpire after. And if they who are to be taught, are to be thus ſeparated from an earthly Nature, thus emptied of all worldly Paſſions, thus dead to the Workings of Self-will, and Self-love, that the Spirit of God may be all in all in them, what Manner of Men ought they to be, who are to teach, promote, advance, and lead the Way to this Purity and Perfection? What a Diſtance ought he to be from every Appearance of Pride, that is to draw others to love and practiſe the profound Humility of the Bleſſed Jeſus? How ought he to deny his Appetites, to humble his Body, and be ſteady in all Kinds of Self-Denial, who would convince his Flock that they who ſow to the Fleſh, ſhall of the Fleſh reap Deſtruction?

How heavenly-minded, how devoted to God, how attentive to the one Thing needful, how unſpotted from the World ought he to be, who is to perſuade others that they cannot poſſibly ſerve God and Mammon? How empty ought he to be of all ſelfiſh Cunning, all worldly Policy, all Arts and Methods of Ambition, who is to fix it deep in the Hearts of his Hearers, that unleſs they become as little Children, they cannot ſee, nor enter into the Kingdom of God? What open Hands, and open Heart ought he to have, what an Extent of Charity ought to be viſible in him, who is to bring his Flock to this Faith, that it is more bleſſed to give than to receive? How remarkably, undeniably plain, open, ſincere, undeſigning, and faithful, ſhould he be, who is to recommend, plant, and eſtabliſh Sincerity, Plainneſs, Simplicity, Truth, and Innocence, amongſt his Flock? There is ſuch a neceſſary Fitneſs in theſe Things, that the Force and Power of Religion muſt be much prevented, when its Precepts are recommended to the World by ſuch as excuſe themſelves from the plain and open Practice of them?

The Office of the Miniſtry is of the higheſt Nature; it is a Truſt which no Language can ſufficiently expreſs; and the unfaithful Diſcharge of it is, of all Conditions in Life, the moſt dreadful. To be charged with the Death and Blood of Souls, by that God who laid down his Life to redeem them, is a Condemnation that will carry more of Guilt and Puniſhment

in it than any other. Would you know the Office of a Chriſtian Paſtor, you muſt look at the Office of Chriſt; would you know what Manner of Spirit he ought to be of, you muſt look at the Spirit of Chriſt. For the Work of the Miniſtry is only the Work of Chriſt committed to other Hands, who are to ſupply his Abſence, to be here in his Stead, to be doing the ſame Things, and with the ſame Spirit that he did, till the End of the World.

Nothing is ſo highly honourable as to bear a Part in the Prieſthood of Chriſt, and be employ'd in the Work of the Miniſtry; but then it ſhould be well conſider'd, that it is only honourable in the ſame Senſe as it may be ſaid that nothing is more honourable than to ſuffer as a Martyr. It is an Honour that is as different from all worldly Figure and Diſtinction, as the Glory of Chriſt upon the Croſs is different from the Triumph of an earthly Prince. When therefore we think of the Honour and Dignity of the Paſtoral Function, we ſhould be careful to remember, that it is only the Honour of dying a Martyr, an Honour of humbling, abaſing, and ſacrificing ourſelves with Chriſt, and continuing the Exerciſe of his ſuffering Prieſthood for the Salvation of the World. The holy Function is often conſider'd only as an authoritative Commiſſion to miniſter in holy Things; but it is much more than this; it is a Call and Command to act with the Spirit of Chriſt, to repreſent his Purity, to continue his Holineſs, to bear a Part of his Sacrifice, and devote themſelves for the Good of others, as he did. A Prieſt that has only his Ordination to diſtinguiſh him, wants as much to make him a true Prieſt, as Judas wanted to make him a true Apoſtle. For tho' Holineſs gives no Man a Commiſſion to exerciſe the Paſtoral Office, yet all who are called to it, are as much ordained and appointed to a peculiar Holineſs of Life, as to the Adminiſtration of the Sacraments; and when they ceaſe to be as Light and Salt to the reſt of the World, they ſin againſt the Paſtoral Office in as high a degree as they that enter upon it without any Authority.

For the ſacred Office is God's Appointment, to continue through all Ages of the World, the Spirit and Power of Chriſt, for reconciling Men to God, in the ſame Manner, and by the ſame Means of Holineſs, Sacrifice, and Devotion, which Chriſt exerciſed when he was upon Earth. We need no other Proof of this, than this one Saying of our Bleſſed Lord: As my Father hath ſent me, ſo ſend I you. That is, for all the Ends for which I am come into the World, for all the ſame Ends I ſend you into it, to be there in my ſtead, to ſupply my Abſence, to carry on the Work that I have begun, to exerciſe my Power, to act with my Spirit, to continue the Exerciſe of my Love, and Labour, and Suffering, for the Salvation of Mankind. To be ſent by our Bleſſed Lord for the ſame Ends as he was ſent into the World, is ſuch an Appointment of us to all Kinds and Degrees of Holineſs, as can never be rightly diſcharged, but by our giving and devoting ourſelves wholly and abſolutely unto God.

Imagine that you had lived with our Bleſſed Lord when he was upon Earth, that you had learn'd the Dignity and Divinity of his Perſon, that you had ſeen the Love which he bore to Mankind, that you had entered into the glorious Deſigns of his Kingdom; which was, to convert the Inhabitants of the Earth, poor Creatures of Fleſh and Blood, into Sons of God, and Heirs of eternal Glory.

Imagine that you had ſeen him after his Reſurrection, when he had redeem'd the World, conquer'd Sin, Death, and Hell, and was about to take Poſſeſſion of his Throne; imagine that then, in that State, you had ſeen him commiſſion ſome of his Followers to be Prieſts and Interceſſors with God on Earth, as he had been, to feed, and nouriſh, and watch over his Flock, as he had done, to go before them in ſuch exemplary Holineſs, ſuch Love of God, ſuch Compaſſion for Sinners, ſuch Contempt of the World, ſuch Poverty of Spirit, ſuch Obedience and Reſignation, as they had him for an Enſample; had you been preſent at all this, how would you then have heard and felt theſe Words: As my Father hath ſent me, ſo ſend I you?

What Sentiments of Piety, what Magnificence of Spirit, what exalted Holineſs, would you you have expected of those, who were called to succeed so great a Master in so great a Work? Could you think they could be fit for this Office, or were enough like him that had called them to it, unless they had renounced and sacrificed every thing for the Sake of it? Could you think that any Care but that of the Church of God was proper for them? Would you not own that the Conversion of Sinners to God, ought to have been their one only Labour and Pains? that they were to seek for no other Happiness in this World, than such as their Lord and Master had done, but consider themselves as called from the common Affairs, Ease and Pleasures of Life, to be in Christ's Stead towards the rest of Mankind, to conduct them safely to eternal Happiness? Now when we consider the Apostles in this Light, as being the first that were entrusted with the Care of Souls, and from Christ himself, we can see no Degree of Zeal, no Height of Piety, no Compassion for Sinners, no Concern for the Honour of God, no Contempt of Sufferings, no Disregard of worldly Interest, no Watchings or Mortifications, no Fervours of Devotion, to which we of the Clergy are not equally obliged. For the Salvation of Mankind is still the same glorious, great and necessary Work that it was in their Days, is still to be carried on by the same Means, and is now in the Hands of the Clergy, as it was then in theirs. If it was their Happineſs and Glory to be faithful to him that called them, to forget the little Intereſts of Fleſh and Blood, and have nothing at Heart, but the Advancement of God's Kingdom, we ſhall fail both of Happineſs and Glory, if we ſeek it any other way. If an Apoſtle, conſidering the Weight of reconciling Souls unto God, is forced to cry out, Who is ſufficient for theſe things? ſhall we think any Care but that which is the greateſt, ſufficient to make us ſtand uncondemned before God? It is a fatal Deception to imagine, that the Life of a Miniſter of God is ever to be a Life of Eaſe or worldly Repoſe. For tho' the temporal Sword be not always drawn againſt them, nor they forced to flee from one City to another, yet the World, the Fleſh, and the Devil, have perhaps never ſo much Difficulty to be reſiſted, as in temporal Proſperity, nor have the Miniſters of Chriſt ever more Occaſion to put on all their Armour, that when the World is given up to Eaſe, and Peace, and Plenty. Swarms of Vice ſteal upon us in theſe Seaſons, the Spirit and Life of Religion is in danger of being loſt, and the Salvation of Souls is made more difficult, than in the moſt perilous Times. And how is ſuch a State of Temptation to be reſiſted, ſuch a Torrent of Vice to be oppoſed, but by the Clergy's ſhewing themſelves viſible and notorious Examples of all the contrary Virtues. When Mankind are wallowing in Debauchery, wantoning in Pleaſures, and given up to

Vanity

Vanity and Luxury in all Shapes, it is then the Duty of the faithful Minister, by his being crucified to the World, to proclaim himself the Messenger of a crucified Saviour, and to make his own self-denying, mortified, and heavenly Life, a plain, open, and constant Reproof of all vain Indulgences. For to yield to, or fall in with the Softness, Vanity, Luxury, Indulgence, or Avarice of the World, is the same Infidelity and Breach of Trust in the sacred Office, as to depart from the true Faith, and fall in with some abominable Heresy.

I believe I need not now help the Reader to observe, that the Doctor's Undertaking is further liable to these great Objections against it: First, That it calls us from the Sin and Danger of being Righteous over-much, when we are always to own, that we are not yet Righteous enough. Secondly, That it proposes to stir us up against this Sin and Danger, at a time, when this Nation is in Danger of the severest Judgments of God upon it, for a general Irreligion and Profaneness. Thirdly, That it tends to lead the Clergy from a just Sense of what the Nature of their Office, the Nature of Religion, and the present State of this Nation, requires of them. That it tends to raise an ill Spirit in them, not only to be content with an ordinary common Degree of Piety in themselves, and their Flocks, but with a watchful, and jealous Eye to guard against all the Beginnings of an uncommon, or more than ordinary nary Sanctity of Life, either in themſelves or others.

Thus, ſays he, " To what a Height of Fa" natic Madneſs in Doctrine, as well as Prac" tice, are ſome advanced, who ſet out at firſt
" with an Appearance of more than ordinary
" Sanctity in Practice only *?" Is not this calling upon the Clergy to beware, how they admit theſe Beginnings of a more than ordinary Sanctity of Life, either in themſelves, or thoſe committed to their Care? Is it not plainly telling them, that they muſt ſtick cloſely and ſteadily to ſuch Sanctity of Practice, as may be called ordinary, or elſe they will be in Fanatic Madneſs? Here is no Force put upon his Words, a more than ordinary Sanctity in Practice only, is mark'd out as the genuine natural Cauſe of Fanatic Madneſs; and therefore the Cauſe is equally condemn'd with the Effect. Had he meant that his Reader ſhould not have the ſame Diſlike of the one, as of the other, or had he been afraid of his doing ſo, would he not have put in a Word in Favour of a more than ordinary Sanctity of Life? would he not have ſaid, that he did not intend to blame that, or at leaſt not ſo much as the other? But not a Word of this, a more than ordinary Sanctity in Practice only, and Fanatic Madneſs, are conſider'd as Cauſe and Effect, and left in the ſame State of Condemnation, to be equally guarded againſt, and avoided by the Reader.

So that in a Nation over-run with all manner of Corruption both of Principle and Practice, where the ordinary State of Religion has hardly the Form of Godlineſs, People are in this State of Things to content themſelves with ſuch a Sanctity of Life, as may be deemed to be ordinary.

And here I can't help addreſſing myſelf with great Affection to all my younger Brethren of the Clergy. According to the Courſe of Nature, you are likely to have the Care of the Church wholly upon your Hands in a ſhort time; and therefore it is chiefly from you that the Reſtoration of true Piety is to be expected in this Nation. I beſeech you, therefore, for your own Sakes, for the Goſpel's Sake, for the Sake of Mankind, to devote yourſelves wholly to the Love and Service of God. As you are yet but Beginners in this great Office, you have it in your Power to make your Lives the greateſt Happineſs, both to yourſelves, and the whole Nation. You are enter'd into Holy Orders in degenerate Times, where Trade and Traffic have ſeized upon all holy Things; and it will be eaſy for you, without Fear, to ſwim along with the corrupt Stream, and to look upon him as an Enemy, or Enthuſiaſt, that would ſave you from being loſt in it. But think, my dear Brethren, think in time, what Remorſe you are treaſuring up for yourſelves, if you live to look back upon a looſe, negligent, corrupt, diſorderly, worldly, unedifying Life,

ſpent amongſt thoſe whoſe Blood will be required at your Hands. Think, on the other Hand, how bleſſedly your Employment will end, if by your Voices, your Lives, and Labours, you put a Stop to the Overflowings of Iniquity, reſtore the Spirit of the Primitive Clergy, and make all your Flock bleſs and praiſe God, for having ſent you amongſt them. Lay this down as an infallible Principle, that an intire, abſolute Renunciation of all worldly Intereſt, is the only poſſible Foundation of that exalted Virtue which your Station requires. Without this, all Attempts after an exemplary Piety are in vain. If you want any thing from the World by way of Figure and Exaltation, you ſhut the Power of your Redeemer out of your own Souls; and inſtead of converting, you corrupt the Hearts of thoſe that are about you. Deteſt therefore, with the utmoſt Abhorrence, all Deſires of making your Fortunes, either by Preferments or rich Marriages, and let it be your only Ambition to ſtand at the Top of every Virtue, as viſible Guides and Patterns to all that aſpire after the Perfection of Holineſs. Conſider yourſelves merely as the Meſſengers of God, that are ſolely ſent into the World on his Errand, and think it Happineſs enough, that you are called to the ſame Buſineſs, for which the Son of God was born into the World. I don't call you from a ſober Uſe of human Learning, but I would fain perſuade you to think nothing worthy of your Notice in Books and Study, but that which directly applies to the Amendment of the Heart, which makes you more holy, more divine, more heavenly, than you would be without it. You want nothing, but to have the Corruption of your natural Birth removed, to have the Nature, Life and Spirit of Jesus Christ derived into you; as this is all that you want, so let this be all that you seek from Books, Study, or Men. This is the only, certain Way to become eminent Divines, instructed to the Kingdom of Heaven. And above all, let me tell you, that the Book of all Books is your own Heart, in which are written and engraven the deepest Lessons of Divine Instruction; learn, therefore, to be deeply attentive to the Presence of God in your Hearts, who is always speaking, always instructing, always illuminating that Heart that is attentive to him. Here you will meet the Divine Light in its proper Place, in that Depth of your Souls, where the Birth of the Son of God, and the Proceeding of the Holy Ghost, are always ready to spring up in you: And be assured of this, that so much as you have of inward Attention to God in your Hearts, of inward Love and Adherence to his holy Light and Spirit within you, so much as you have of real, unaffected Humility and Meekness, so much as you are dead to your own Will and Self-love, so much as you have of Purity of Heart, so much, and no more, nor any further, do you see and know the Truths of God. These Virtues are the only

Eyes,

Eyes, and Ears, and Senſes, and Heart, by which you will know and underſtand every thing in Scripture, in that Manner, and in that Degree, in which God would have it underſtood, both for your own Good, and the Good of other People. It was owing to this Purity of Heart, and Attendance upon God, that an ancient Widow, named Anna *, knew him to be the true Meſſiah, whom the Rulers, Chief Prieſts, and Doctors of the Law, condemn'd as an Impoſtor. Had they, inſtead of their Adherence to critical Knowlege, and rabbinical Learning, been devoted to God in ſuch Purity of Heart as ſhe was, they had known as much of the Kingdom of God as ſhe did. Place therefore all your Hope and Confidence, all your learned Help and Skill, in the ardent Love and Practice of theſe Virtues, and then, and then only, you will be able Miniſters, holy Prieſts, and Meſſengers of God; your cleanſed Hearts, like ſo many purified Mirrors, will be always penetrated, always illuminated, by the Rays of Divine Light, and you will no more need the Critics, to tell you what God ſpeaks to you in the Scriptures, than to tell you what God ſpeaks to you in your own Hearts. There are indeed in the Scriptures Secrets and Myſteries, only fully to be known in God's own Time, and not a Minute ſooner; but of all Men in the World, the critical Dealers in Words and Particles, know the leaſt of them, and make the vaineſt Attempts to underſtand them. But Scripture, conſidered as a Doctrine of Life, Faith, and Salvation in Jeſus Chriſt, is a ſealed or unſealed, an open or ſhut up Book to every Heart, in the ſame Proportion as it ſtands turn'd to the World, or turn'd to God. Nothing underſtands God, but the Spirit of God; nothing brings the Spirit of God into any Mind, but the renouncing all for it, the turning wholly to it, and the depending wholly upon it. Human Learning is by no means to be rejected from Religion; for it is of the ſame good Uſe and Service, and affords the ſame Aſſiſtance to Religion, that the Alphabet, Writing and Printing does. But if it is raiſed from this Kind and Degree of Aſſiſtance, if it is conſidered as a Key, or the Key, to the Myſteries of our Redemption in Jeſus Chriſt, inſtead of opening to us the Kingdom of God, it locks us up in our own Darkneſs. It is a Truth confeſſed on all Hands, that the Kingdom of Grace is the Beginning of the Kingdom of Glory, and that they differ only in degree. Is not this plainly confeſſing, that the Light of the Kingdom of Grace muſt be one and the ſame with that of the Kingdom of Glory? How elſe can one be the Beginning of the other? And muſt not that, which is to be our one only Light in Heaven in a full Degree, be now our one only Light of all heavenly Things in a lower Degree? Therefore all that we ſee and know of the Kingdom of God now, muſt be by that

ſame Light by which we ſhall ſee and know the Kingdom of God hereafter. God is an all-ſpeaking, all-working, all-illuminating Eſſence, poſſeſſing the Depth, and bringing forth the Life of every Creature according to its Nature. Our Life is out of this Divine Eſſence, and is itſelf a creaturely Similitude of it; and when we turn from all Impediments, this Divine Eſſence becomes as certainly the true Light of our Minds here, as it will be hereafter. This is not Enthuſiaſm, but the Words of Truth and Soberneſs; and it is the running away from this Enthuſiaſm, that has made ſo many great Scholars as uſeleſs to the Church as tinkling Cymbals, and all Chriſtendom a mere Babel of learned Confuſion. I ſhall now only add one Word more: A compoſed Gravity of Life, a ſuitable Decency of outward Behaviour, is not the Thing that is demanded of you; your Piety muſt be ſolid, your Lives exemplary, the Perfection of your Virtues muſt ſhine before Men, or you will all of you in your ſeveral Degrees, ſtand chargeable with the ill State of Religion, that is about you.

I muſt now take Notice of an injurious Quotation or two that the Doctor has made from the Treatiſe of Chriſtian Perfection. The Doctor quotes me as affirming, That not only the Wickedneſs and Vanity of this World, but even its moſt lawful and allowed Concerns, render Men unable to enter, and unworthy to be received into the true State of Chriſtianity. And again, that the Wisdom from above condemns all Labour as equally fruitless, but that which labours after everlasting Life. Then the Doctor affirms thus; Here's an utter Condemnation of all Trades, and of all Professions, of all Business, and secular Concerns whatever *. Does the Doctor then believe that I bought Pen, Ink, and Paper, and wrote that Book, to shew that no Christian ought to make, buy or sell Pen, Ink, and Paper? And that I publish'd that Book to prove that it was my Opinion that it was utterly unlawful for a Christian to be a Printer, a Bookbinder, or a Bookseller? Does not the Doctor know, that the Christian Perfection in the Two first Pages, to prevent all Mistake, openly declares for the Continuance of Mankind in their several States and Conditions, openly declares against a Cloyster, or any singular State of Life, openly asserts Christian Perfection to consist in the holy and religious Conduct of ourselves in every State of Life †? Does he not know that in the Serious Call to a devout Life, &c. which presently follow'd the other Book, the very Title declares solely for a Piety adapted to the State and Condition of all Orders of Men? But there is something still more wonderful, more regardless of Right and Wrong in the Doctor's Charge against me; for in this very Passage quoted by him, secular Business is expressly affirm'd to be most lawful and allow'd Concerns. And yet from this Passage affirming the Lawfulness

fulneſs of worldly Buſineſs, and proceeding upon it as a certain Truth, the Doctor has extracted the Unlawfulneſs of all ſecular Concerns whatever. Again, Does not the Doctor know that he deſignedly mangled the Words he quoted, and left out that Part which ſhew'd the Reaſon of my ſo expreſſing myſelf? That I was there ſpeaking to that Parable of our Lord's, where all that were bidden to the Feaſt, refuſed to come. The Firſt, becauſe he had bought a Piece of Ground; the other, becauſe he muſt try his Oxen; the Third, becauſe he had married a Wife. Then the Maſter in Anger ſaid, None of theſe Men ſhall taſte of my Supper. Whence I thus obſerved, This Parable teaches us, that not only the Vices and the Vanity of the World, but its moſt lawful and allow'd Concerns, render Men unable to enter, and unworthy to be received into the true State of Chriſtianity. And does not every one ſee this to be the plain, neceſſary, and inoffenſive Senſe of the Parable? Had I not made Nonſenſe of it, if I had ſaid, that lawful Buſineſs could not become a Hindrance of Men's Salvation? For are there not here Three lawful Concerns become Three Hindrances of their coming to the Feaſt, and Three Reaſons of their being declared unworthy of it? Then I go on to ſhew, that it is not the Employment itſelf that is condemn'd, but its being made a Reaſon, or Excuſe, as in the Parable, for not living wholly unto God, adding theſe Words, the true Wiſdom from above condemns all Labour as equally fruitleſs, but that which labours after everlaſting Life. Let but Religion determine the Point, and what can it ſignify, whether a Man forgets God in his Farm, or a Shop, or at a Gaming Table? Now what is there here condemned, but the forgetting God? Or will any one ſay, that a Shop, and a Farm, are here condemned, becauſe God is to be remembered in them, or becauſe they are to be made Employments of Piety, that labour after everlaſting Life? The Doctor proceeds to charge me with poſitively aſſerting, that all Chriſtians are, in all Ages, obliged to ſell all that they have, and give it to the Poor. I have been ſo far from aſſerting this, that I have with all my Might ſaid, and proved the direct contrary, that no Chriſtians of any Age are obliged to it. Speaking of the Command of our Saviour's to the young Man, to ſell all, and give it to the Poor, I have ſhewn, by Variety of Arguments, and Texts of Scripture, that that Command calls no rich Man to ſell what he has; that it calls him only to do that with his Eſtate, which he is called to, by the whole Tenour of Scripture, as having Riches, that are not his own, of which he is only a Steward, and not a Proprietor, as being obliged to love his Neighbour as himſelf in the Uſe of them. That the Command of ſelling all, implies only ſuch heavenly Affection, ſuch Diſregard of Riches, as is expreſs'd, by being dead to the World, having our Converſation in Heaven, being born again from above, and having over- come the World. From the Beginning to the End of this Matter, I have utterly rejected all ſelling, and ſhewn, that it means only a perfect Charity, a parting with the Self-Enjoyment of our Eſtates, to make them, as far as we are able, the common Support of thoſe People whom we are to love, as we love ourſelves, and as Chriſt has loved us. The Doctor, therefore, in this Accuſation, muſt be allowed to have ſtuck cloſely to his Text; he has not been Righteous over-much. The Doctor makes now an Inference or two from this Doctrine of Charity. According to this Divinity, ſays he, it is a Sin to be rich. Here he is juſt as wrong as he could poſſibly be. For, according to the Divinity in the Book of Chriſtian Perfection, and the Serious Call, &c. the Bleſſedneſs, the Piety, the Happineſs ariſing from the Poſſeſſion of Riches, is demonſtrated from Chapter to Chapter, and viſibly painted in a great Variety of Characters. Thoſe Two Books were publiſh'd chiefly to ſhew to rich Men their exceeding Happineſs. And I can conſiſtently ſay, that I ſhould reckon it a Happineſs to myſelf, to be one of the Number, ſupported only by this one Saying of our Lord's; that it is more bleſſed to give, than to receive. Another Inference the Doctor makes, is this; that according to this Divinity, if a Man ſues you for your Houſe or Land, without the leaſt Pretence of Right, you are bound to recede from your Right, and let him have have it, rather than defend it *. There had been as much Truth, and more Wit, if he had ſaid, when Thieves have any Deſign of entering into your Houſe, you are obliged to have no Locks or Bolts upon your Doors. For I have ſaid no more of the Unlawfulneſs of appealing to Courts of Juſtice, to ſecure us in the juſt Poſſeſſion of our Houſe and Land, than of the Unlawfulneſs of going to a Smith for Locks and Bolts, when Thieves want to have our Goods. I take it to be as lawful to live under human Government, and to enjoy the Benefit of it, as to live under the Light and Benefit of the Sun. And I look upon Courts of Juſtice, which are to protect People in the Enjoyment of their Property, to be the firſt and chief Benefit of Government. And if they were abſolutely unlawful, for the ſame Reaſon would all Locks, and Doors, and Fences be ſo too. On the other hand, I have ſaid, that the abſtaining from Contentions at Law, chuſing to ſuffer, and bear with Variety of Injuries, where we might legally defend ourſelves, and bring Puniſhment upon thoſe that injure us, is a proper Part of Chriſtian Self-denial, a juſt Conformity to the Meekneſs, and ſuffering Spirit of our Bleſſed Lord, and highly beneficial to our own ſpiritual Advancement. And muſt not every one, that owns the Goſpel, ſay the ſame? Has not our Saviour himſelf firſt ſaid ſo? But does it therefore follow, that a Man has no Rights, or none

none that he may own; becauſe it may be often, and in many Caſes, a Matter of great Piety to ſuffer wrongfully with Patience? The ſhort of the Matter is this: All Things that are lawful, are not expedient, nor edifying. Of Contentions at Law, moſt of them are very apt to do us great Hurt, many of them are piouſly to be avoided, through Patience and Meek-ſuffering of Wrong; but ſome may be neceſſary, even as Parts of our Duty. Is there any thing more plain, or ſelf-evident, than this? The Doctor might have obſerved, that I ſpoke of Law-Suits only under the Article of Self-denial, and therefore was only to ſpeak of the Duty, Piety and Benefit, of forbearing from them; that there was great Neceſſity that this Doctrine of Meekneſs, and patient Suffering of ill Uſage, ſhould be fully ſet forth, both to Clergy and Laity; that I had no more Reaſon to tell People that Courts of Juſtice were in themſelves lawful, and ſuch as might juſtly be appealed to in ſome Caſes, than to tell them that it was lawful to live in this Iſland, and that they need not ſeek for a Country where there was no Laws nor Government to protect them. The Doctor has ſomething like an Excuſe for the Weakneſs and Injuſtice of all the foregoing Remarks and Cenſures; they are to be conſidered only as little Daſhes of his Pen upon Books, which he ſays are not conſiderable enough to be formally refuted *. Something like this

this I remember was formerly ſaid by the Biſhip of Bangor, now Lord Biſhop of Wincheſter, concerning my Letters to him. But his Lordſhip had the Prudence and Equity not to make inconſiderate Remarks upon Books, that he thought not conſiderable enough to be formally refuted by him. Into whoſe Head could it enter to think of formally confuting Thomas à Kempis, Taylor's Life of Chriſt, or his Holy Living and Dying? Or what muſt we think of his Piety, who ſhould ſay, that he only forbore ſuch a Work, becauſe the Reaſonings in thoſe Books were too inconſiderable to be formally refuted? I deſire no Authority for what I have written, but the Goſpel, or I could ſoon ſhew that every thing in my Books that offends the Doctor, is again and again to be found, not only in theſe pious Authors, but in the Writings of the moſt eminent Saints through all Ages of the Church.

An ADVERTISEMENT to the READER.

I Have Nothing to ſay by way of Preface or Introduction. I only aſk this Favour of the Reader, that he would not paſs any Cenſure upon this Book, from only dipping into this, or that particular Part of it, but give it one fair Peruſal in the Order it is written, and then I ſhall have neither Right, nor Inclination to complain of any Judgment he ſhall think fit to paſs upon it.

CHAP. I.

Of Creation in general. Of the Origin of the Soul. Whence Will and Thought are in the Creature. Why the Will is free. The Origin of Evil solely from the Creature. This World not a first, immediate Creation of God. How the World comes to be in its present State. The first Perfection of Man. All Things prove a Trinity in God. Man hath the triune Nature of God in Him. Arianism and Deism confuted by Nature. That Life is uniform through all Creatures. That there is but one kind of Death to be found in all Nature. The fallen Soul hath the Nature of Hell in it. Regeneration is a real Birth of a Divine Life in the Soul. That there is but one Salvation possible in Nature. This Salvation only to be had from Jesus Christ. All the Deists Faith and Hope prov'd to be false.

1. IT has been an Opinion commonly received, tho' without any Foundation in the Light of Nature, or Scripture, that God created this whole visible World, and all Things in it, out of Nothing. Nay, that the Souls of Men, and the higheſt Orders of Beings, were created in the ſame Manner. The Scripture is very deciſive againſt this Original of the Souls of Men. For Moſes ſaith, God breathed into Man (Spiraculum Vitarum) the Breath of Lives, and Man became a Living Soul. Here the Notion of a Soul created out of Nothing, is in the plaineſt, ſtrongeſt Manner rejected, by the firſt Written Word of God; and no Jew or Chriſtian can have the leaſt Excuſe for falling into ſuch an Error; here the higheſt and moſt Divine Original is not darkly, but openly, abſolutely, and in the ſtrongeſt Form of Expreſſion aſcribed to the Soul; it came forth as a Breath of Life, or Lives, out from the Mouth of God, and therefore did not come out of the Womb of Nothing, but is what it is, and has what it has in itſelf, from, and out of the firſt and higheſt of all Beings.

For to ſay that God breathed forth into Man the Breath of Lives, by which He became a Living Soul, is directly ſaying, that That which was Life, Light, and Spirit in the living God, was breathed forth from Him to become the Life, Light and Spirit of a Creature. The Soul therefore being declared to be an Effluence from God, a Breath of God, muſt have have the Nature and Likeneſs of God in it, and is, and can be nothing elſe, but ſomething, or ſo much of the Divine Nature, become creaturely exiſting, or breathed forth from God, to ſtand before Him in the Form of a Creature.

When the Animals of this World were to be created, it was only ſaid, Let the Earth, the Air, the Water bring forth Creatures after their kinds; but when Man was to be brought forth, it was ſaid, Let us make Man in our own Image and Likeneſs. Is not this directly ſaying, Let Man have his Beginning and Being out of us, that He may be ſo related to us in his Soul and Spirit, as the Animals of this World are related to the Elements from which they are produced. Let Him ſo come forth from us, be ſo breathed out of us, that our tri-une, divine Nature may be manifeſted in Him, that he may ſtand before us as a creaturely Image, Likeneſs, and Repreſentative of that which we are in ourſelves.

Now, from this original Doctrine of the Creation of Man, known to all the firſt Inhabitants of the World, and publiſhed in the Front of the firſt Written Word of God; theſe great Truths have been more or leſs declared to all the Nations of the World. Firſt, That all Mankind are the created Offspring of the One

God. Secondly, That in all Men there is a Spirit or Breath of Lives, that did not begin to be out of Nothing, or was created out of Nothing; but came from the true God into Man, as his own Breath of Life breathed into Him. Thirdly, That therefore there is in all Men, wherever diſperſed over the Earth, a divine, immortal, never-ending Spirit, that can have nothing of Death in it, but muſt live for-ever, becauſe it is the Breath of the everliving God. Fourthly, That by this immortal Breath, or Spirit of God in Man, all Mankind ſtand in the ſame Nearneſs of Relation to God, are all equally his Children, are all under the ſame Neceſſity of paying the ſame Homage of Love and Obedience to Him, all fitted to receive the ſame Bleſſing and Happineſs from Him, all created for the ſame eternal Enjoyment of his Love and Preſence with them, all equally called to worſhip and adore Him in Spirit and Truth, all equally capable of ſeeking and finding Him, of having a Bleſſed Union and Communion with Him.

Theſe great Truths, the firſt Pillars of all true and Spiritual Religion, on which the Holy and Divine Lives of the antient Patriarchs was ſupported, by which they worſhipped God in a true and right Faith; theſe Truths, I ſay, were

were moſt eminently and plainly declared in the expreſs Letter of the Moſaic Writings, here quoted. And no Writer, whether Jewiſh or Chriſtian, has ſo plainly, ſo fully, ſo deeply laid open the true Ground, and Neceſſity of an Eternal, never-ceaſing Relation between God, and all the Human Nature; no one has ſo inconteſtably aſſerted the Immortality of the Soul, or Spirit of Man; or ſo deeply laid open, and proved the Neceſſity of one Religion, common to all Human Nature, as the Legiſlator of the Jewiſh Theocracy has done. Life and Immortality are indeed juſtly ſaid to be brought to Light by the Goſpel; not only becauſe they there ſtand in a new Degree of Light, largely explained, and much appeal'd to, and abſolutely promiſed by the Son of God Himſelf, but chiefly becauſe the precious Means and Myſteries of obtaining a bleſſed Life, and a bleſſed Immortality, were only revealed, or brought to Light by the Goſpel.

But the inconteſtable Ground and Reaſon of an immortal Life, and eternal Relation between God, and the whole Human Nature, and which lays all Mankind under the ſame Obligations to the ſame true Worſhip of God, is moſt fully ſet forth by Moſes, who alone tells us the true Fact; How, and Why Man is immortal in his Nature, viz. becauſe the Beginning of his Life was a Breath, breathed into Him from God; and for this End, that he might be a living Image and Likeneſs of God, created to partake of the Nature and Immortality of God.

This is the great Doctrine of the Jewiſh Legiſlator, and which juſtly places Him amongſt the greateſt Preachers of true Religion. St. Paul uſed a very powerful Argument to perſuade the Athenians to own the true God, and the true Religion, when he told them, "that "God made the World and all Things there-"in; that He giveth Life and Breath, and "all Things; that he hath made of one "Blood, all Nations of Men to dwell on the "Earth; that they ſhould all ſeek the Lord, "if haply they might feel after, and find "Him, ſeeing He is not far from any of us, "becauſe in Him we live, move, and have our "Being *." And yet this Doctrine, which St. Paul preaches to the Athenians, is nothing elſe, but that ſame Divine and Heavenly Inſtruction, which He had learnt from Moſes, which Moſes openly and plainly taught all the Jews. The Jewiſh Theocracy therefore was by no means an Intimation to that People, that that they had no Concern with the true God, but as Children of this World, under his temporal Protection or Puniſhment; for their Lawgiver left them no room for ſuch a Thought, becauſe He had as plainly taught them their eternal Nature and eternal Relation, which they had to God in common with all Mankind; as St. Paul did to the Athenians, who only ſet before them that very Doctrine that Moſes taught all the Jews. The great End of the Jewiſh Theocracy was to ſhew, both to Jew and Gentile, the abſolute, uncontroulable Power of the one God, by ſuch a Covenanted Interpoſition of his Providence, that all the World might know, that the one God, from whom both Jew and Gentile were fallen away, by departing from the Faith and Religion of their Firſt Fathers, was the only God, from whom all Mankind could receive either Bleſſing or Curſing.

This was the great Thing intended to be proclaimed to all the World by this Theocracy, viz. that only the God of Iſrael had Power to ſave or deſtroy, to puniſh or reward, according to his Pleaſure; and that therefore all the Gods of the Heathens, were mere Vanity.

If therefore any Jews, by reaſon of thoſe extraordinary Temporal Bleſſings and Curſings which they received under their Theocracy, grew groſsly ignorant, or dully ſenſeleſs of their eternal Nature, and eternal Relation to God, and of that one true Religion, which by Nature they were obliged to obſerve in common with all Mankind; if they took God only to be their local or tutelary Deity, and themſelves to be only Animals of this World; ſuch a Groſſneſs of Belief was no more to be charged upon their great Lawgiver, Moſes, than if they had believed, that a Golden Calf was their true God. But to return to the Creation.

2. It is the ſame Impoſſibility for a Thing to be created out of Nothing, as to be created by Nothing *. It is no more a Part, or Prerogative of God's Omnipotence to create a Being out of Nothing, than to make a Thing to be, without any one Quality of Being in it; or to make, that there ſhould be Three, where there is neither Two, nor One. Every Creature is nothing elſe, but Nature put into a certain Form of Exiſtence; and therefore a Creature not form'd out of Nature, is a Contradiction. A Circle, or a Square cannot be made out of Nothing, nor cou'd any Power bring them into Exiſtence; but becauſe there is an Extenſion in Nature, that can be put into the Form of a Circle,

Circle, or a Square: But if dead Figures cannot by any Power be made out of Nothing, who sees not the Impossibility of making Living Creatures, Angels, and the Souls of Men out of Nothing?

3. Thinking, and Willing are Eternal, they never began to be. Nothing can think, or will now, in which there was not Will and Thought from all Eternity. For it is as possible for Thought in General to begin to be, as for That which thinks in a particular Creature to begin to be of a Thinking Nature: therefore the Soul, which is a Thinking, Willing Being is come forth, or created out of That which hath Willed and Thought in God, from all Eternity. The created Soul is a Creature of Time, and had its Beginning on the Sixth Day of the Creation; but the Essences of the Soul, which were then form'd into a Creature, and into a State of Distinction from God, had been in God from all Eternity, or they could not have been breathed forth from God into the Form of a living Creature.

And herein lies the true Ground and Depth of the uncontroulable Freedom of our Will and Thoughts: They must have a Self-motion, and Self-direction, because they came out of the Self-existent God. They are eternal, divine Powers, Powers, that never began to be, and therefore cannot begin to be in Subjection to any Thing. That which thinks and wills in the Soul, is That very same unbeginning Breath which thought and willed in God, before it was breathed into the Form of an human Soul; and therefore it is, that Will and Thought cannot be bounded or conſtrained.

Herein alſo appears the high Dignity, and never-ceaſing Perpetuity of our Nature. The Eſſences of our Souls can never ceaſe to be, becauſe they never began to be: and nothing can live eternally, but that which hath lived from all Eternity. The Eſſences of our Soul were a Breath in God before they became a Living Soul, they lived in God before they lived in the created Soul, and therefore the Soul is a Partaker of the Eternity of God, and can never ceaſe to be. Here, O Man, behold the great Original, and the high State of thy Birth; Here let all that is within thee praiſe thy God, who has brought Thee into ſo high a State of Being, who has given Thee Powers as eternal, and boundleſs at his own Attributes, that there might be no End or Limits of thy Happineſs in Him. Thou beganneſt as Time began, but as Time was in Eternity before it became Days and Years, ſo Thou waſt in God before before Thou waſt brought into the Creation: And as Time is neither a Part of Eternity, nor broken off from it, yet come out of it; ſo thou art not a Part of God, nor broken off from Him, yet born out of Him. Thou ſhould'ſt only will that which God willeth, only love that which He loveth, co-operate, and unite with Him in the whole Form of thy Life; becauſe all that Thou art, all that Thou haſt, is only a Spark of his own Life and Spirit derived into Thee. If thou deſireſt, inclineſt, and turneſt to God, as the Flowers of the Field deſire, and turn towards the Sun, all the Bleſſings of the Deity will ſpring up in Thee; Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, will make their Abode with Thee. If thou turneſt in towards thyſelf, to live to thyſelf, to be happy in the Workings of an own Will, to be rich in the Sharpneſs and Acuteneſs of thy own Reaſon, thou chuſeſt to be a Weed, and canſt only have ſuch a Life, Spirit and Bleſſing from God, as a Thiſtle has from the Sun. But to return.

4. To ſuppoſe a Willing, Underſtanding Being, created out of Nothing, is a great Abſurdity. For as Thinking and Willing muſt have always been from all Eternity, or they could never have been either in Eternity, or Time;

ſo, wherever they are found in any particular, finite Beings, they muſt of all Neceſſity, be direct Communications, or Propagations of that Thinking and Willing, which never could begin to be.

The Creation therefore of a Soul, is not the Creation of Thinking and Willing, or the making That to be, and to think, which before had Nothing of Being, or Thought; but it is the Bringing the Powers of Thinking and Willing out of their Eternal State in the One God, into a Beginning State of a Self-conſcious Life, diſtinct from God. And this is God's omnipotent, creating Ability, that He can make the Powers of his own Nature become Creatural, Living, Perſonal Images of what He is in Himſelf, in a State of diſtinct Perſonality from Him: So that the Creature is one, in its finite, limited State, as God is one, and yet hath nothing in it, but that which was in God before it came into it: For the Creature, be it what it will, high or low, can be Nothing elſe, but a limited Participation of the Nature of the Creator. Nothing can be in the Creature, but what came from the Creator, and the Creator can give nothing to the Creature, but that which it hath in itſelf to give. And if Beings could be created out of Nothing, Nothing, the Whole Creation could be no more a Proof of the Being of God, than if it had ſprung up of itſelf out of Nothing: For if they are brought into Being out of Nothing, then they can have Nothing of God in them; and ſo can bear no Teſtimony of God; but are as good a Proof, that there is no God, as that there is one. But if they have any Thing of God in them, then they cannot be ſaid to be created out of Nothing.

5. That the Souls of Men were not created out of Nothing, but are born out of an Eternal Original, is plain from hence; from that Delight in, and Deſire of Eternal Exiſtence, which is ſo ſtrong and natural to the Soul of Man. For nothing can delight in, or deſire Eternity, or ſo much as form a Notion of it, or think upon it, or any way reach after it, but that alone which is generated from it, and come out of it. For it is a Self-evident Truth, that Nothing can look higher, or further back, than into its own Original; and therefore, Nothing can look or reach back into Eternity, but that which came out of it. This is as certain, as that a Line reaches, and can reach no further back, than to that Point from whence it aroſe.

Our

Our bodily Eyes are born out of the firmamental Light of this World, and therefore they can look no further than the Firmament: But our Thoughts know no Bounds; therefore they are come out of that which is boundleſs. The Eyes of our Minds can look as eaſily backwards into that Eternity which always hath been, as into that which ever ſhall be; and therefore it is plain, that That which Thinks and Wills in us, which ſo eaſily, ſo delightfully, ſo naturally penetrates into all Eternity, has always had an Eternal Exiſtence, and is only a Ray or Spark of the Divine Nature, brought out into the Form of a Creature, or a limited, perſonal Exiſtence, by the Creating Power of God.

6. Again. Every Soul ſhrinks back, and is frighted at the very Thought of falling into Nothing. Now this undeniably proves, that the Soul was not created out of Nothing. For it is an Eternal Truth, ſpoken by all Nature, that every Thing ſtrongly aſpires after, and cannot be eaſy, till it finds and enjoys that Original out of which it aroſe. If the Soul therefore was brought forth out of Nothing, all its Being would be a Burden to it; it would want to be diſſolved, and to be deliver'd from every kind and Degree of Senſibility; and nothing thing could be ſo ſweet and agreeable to it, as to think of falling back into That Nothingneſs, out of which it was called forth by its Creation. Thus is the Eternal, immortal, divine Nature of the Soul, which the Schools prove with ſo much Difficulty one of the moſt obvious, ſelf-evident Truths in all Nature. For Nothing but that which is Eternal in its own Nature, can have the leaſt Thought about Eternity.

If a Beaſt had not the Nature of the Earth in it, Nothing that is on the Earth, or ſprings out of it, could be in the leaſt Degree agreeable to it, or deſired by it. If the Soul had not the Nature of Eternity in it, Nothing that is eternal could give it the ſmalleſt Pleaſure, or be able to make any kind of Impreſſion upon it. For as Nothing can taſte, or reliſh, or enter into the agreeable Senſations of this World, but that which hath the Nature of this World in it; ſo Nothing can taſte, or reliſh, or look into Eternity with any kind of Pleaſure, but that which hath the Nature of Eternity in it.

7. If the Soul was not born, or created out of God, it could have no Happineſs in God, no Deſire, nor any Poſſibility of enjoying Him. If it had nothing of God in it, it muſt ſtand in the utmoſt Diſtance of Contrariety to him, and be utterly incapable of living, moving, and and having its Being in God: For every Thing must have the Nature of That, out of which it was created, and must live, and have its Being in that Root or Ground from whence it sprung. If therefore there was nothing of God in the Soul, nothing that is in God could do the Soul any Good, or have any kind of Communication with it; but the Gulph of Separation between God and the Soul, wou'd be even greater than that which is between Heaven and Hell.

8. But let us rejoice, that our Soul is a Thinking, Willing Being, full of Thoughts, Cares, Longings, and Desires of Eternity; for this is our full Proof, that our Descent is from God Himself, that we are born out of Him, breathed forth from him; that our Soul is of an Eternal Nature, made a Thinking, Willing, Understanding Creature out of That which hath Will'd and Thought in God from all Eternity; and therefore must, for ever and ever, be a Partaker of the Eternity of God.

And here you may behold the sure Ground of the absolute Impossibility of the Annihilation of the Soul. Its Essences never began to be, and therefore can never cease to be; they had an Eternal Reality before they were in, or became a distinct Soul, and therefore they must muſt have the ſame Eternal Reality in it. It was the Eternal Breath of God before it came into Man, and therefore the Eternity of God muſt be inſeparable from it. It is no more a Property of the divine Omnipotence to be able to annihilate a Soul, than to be able to make an Eternal Truth become a Fiction of Yeſterday: And to think it a Leſſening of the Power of God, to ſay, that he cannot annihilate the Soul, is as abſurd, as to ſay, that it is a Leſſening of the Light of the Sun, if it cannot deſtroy, or darken its own Rays of Light.

O, dear Reader, ſtay a while in this important Place, and learn to know thyſelf: All thy Senſes make Thee to know and feel, that thou ſtandeſt in the Vanity of Time; but every Motion, Stirring, Imagination, and Thought of thy Mind, whether in fanſying, fearing, or loving Everlaſting Life, is the ſame infallible Proof, that Thou ſtandeſt in the Midſt of Eternity, art an Offspring and Inhabitant of it, and muſt be for ever inſeparable from it. Aſk when the firſt Thought ſprung up, find out the Birth-Day of Truth, and then thou wilt have found out, when the Eſſences of thy Soul firſt began to be. Were not the Eſſences of thy Soul as old, as Unbeginning, as unchangeable, as Everlaſting as Truth itſelf, Truth would be at the ſame Diſtance from Thee, as abſolutely unfit for Thee, as utterly unable to have any Communion with Thee, as to be the Food of a Worm.

The Ox could not feed upon the Graſs, or receive any Delight or Nouriſhment from it, unleſs Graſs and the Ox had one and the ſame Earthly Nature and Original: Thy Mind could receive no Truth, feel no Delight and Satisfaction in the Certainty, Beauty, and Harmony of it, unleſs Truth and the Mind ſtood both in the ſame Place, had one and the ſame unchangeable Nature, Unbeginning Original. If there will come a Time, when Thought itſelf ſhall ceaſe, when all the Relations and Connections of Truth ſhall be unty'd; then, but not till then, ſhall the Knot, or Band of thy Soul's Life be unlooſed. It is a Spark of the Deity, and therefore has the Unbeginning, Unending Life of God in it. It knows nothing of Youth, or Age, becauſe it is born Eternal. It is a Life that muſt burn for ever, either as a Flame of Light and Love in the Glory of the Divine Majeſty, or as a miſerable Firebrand in that God, which is a Conſuming Fire.

9. It is impoſſible, that this World, in the State and Condition it is now in, ſhould have been an

an immediate and Original Creation of God: This is as impoſſible, as that God ſhould create Evil, either Natural, or Moral. That this World hath Evil in all its Parts; that its Matter is in a corrupt, diſorder'd State, full of Groſſneſs, Diſeaſe, Impurity, Wrath, Death and Darkneſs, is as evident, as that there is Light, Beauty, Order and Harmony every where to be found in it. Therefore it is as impoſſible, that this outward State and Condition of Things, ſhould be a firſt and immediate Work of God, as that there ſhould be Good and Evil in God Himſelf. All Storms and Tempeſts, every Fierceneſs of Heat, every Wrath of Cold proves with the ſame Certainty, that outward Nature is not a firſt Work of God, as the Selfiſhneſs, Envy, Pride, Wrath, and Malice of Devils, and Men proves, that they are not in the firſt State of their Creation. As no Kind or Degree of Moral Evil could poſſibly have its Cauſe in, or from God, ſo there cannot be the leaſt Shadow of Imperfection and Diſorder in outward Nature, but what muſt have ſprung up in the ſame manner, and from the ſame Cauſes, as Sickneſs and corrupt Fleſh is come into the Human Body, namely, from the Sin of the Creature. Storms, Tempeſts, Gravel, Stone, ſour and dead Earth are the ſame Things, the ſame Diſeaſes, the ſame Effects of Sin, produced in the ſame manner in the outward Body of Nature, as corrupt Fleſh, Fevers, Dropſies, Plagues, Gravel, Stone, and Gout, are produced in the outward Body of Man. For That, and That only which produces Stone in the Body of Man, did produce Stone in the outward Nature, as ſhall plainly appear by and by. For Nature within, and without Man, is one and the ſame, and has but one and the ſame way of Working; a Stone in the Body, and a Stone out of the Body of Man, proceeds from one and the ſame Diſorder of Nature.

When therefore you ſee a diſeaſed, gouty, leprous, aſthmatical, ſcorbutick Man, you can with the utmoſt Certainty ſay, this is not that Human Body which God firſt created in Paradiſe; ſo, when you ſee the Diſorders of Heat and Cold, the poiſonous Earth, unfruitful Seaſons, and malignant Qualities of outward Nature, you can with the ſame Certainty affirm, this State of Nature is not a firſt Creation of God, but that ſame muſt have happened to it, which has happened to the Body of Man. For dark, ſour, hard, dead Earth, can no more be a firſt, immediate Creation of God, than a Wrathful Devil, as ſuch, can be created by Him.

For

For dark, ſour, dead Earth is as diſorder'd in its kind, as the Devils are, and has as certainly loſt its firſt heavenly Condition and Nature, as the Devils have loſt theirs. But now, as in Man, the little World, there is Excellency and Perfection enough to prove, that Human Nature is the Work of an all-perfect Being, yet, ſo much Impurity and Diſeaſe of corrupt Fleſh and Blood, as undeniably ſhews, that Sin has almoſt quite ſpoiled the Work of God. So, in the great World, the Footſteps of an infinite Wiſdom in the Order and Harmony of the Whole, ſufficiently appears; yet, the Diſorders, Tumults, and Evils of Nature, plainly demonſtrate, that the preſent Condition of this World is only the Remains or Ruins, firſt, of a Heaven ſpoil'd by the Fall of Angels, and then of a Paradiſe loſt by the Sin of Man. So that Man, and the World in which He lives, lie both in the ſame State of Diſorder and Impurity, have both the ſame Marks of Life and Death in them, both bring forth the ſame ſort of Evils, both want a Redeemer, and have need of the ſame kind of Death and Reſurrection, before they can come to their firſt State of Purity and Perfection.

10. That this outward World was not created out of Nothing, is plainly taught by St. Paul, who declares, Rom. i. 20. that the Creation of the World is out of the Invisible Things of God; so that the outward Condition and Frame of Visible Nature, is a plain Manifestation of that Spiritual World from whence it is descended. For as every Outside necessarily supposes an Inside, and as temporal Light and Darkness must be the Product of Eternal Light and Darkness, so this outward, visible State of Things necessarily supposes some inward, invisible State, from whence it is come into this Degree of Outwardness. Thus all that is on Earth is only a Change or Alteration of something that was in Heaven: And Heaven itself is Nothing else but the first glorious Out-birth, the Majestick Manifestation, the beatific Visibility of the One God in Trinity. And thus we find out, how this temporal Nature is related to God; it is only a gross Out-birth of that which is an Eternal Nature, or a blessed Heaven, and stands only in such a Degree of Distance from it, as Water does to Air; and this is the Reason why the last Fire will, and must turn this gross, Temporal Nature into its first, heavenly State. But to suppose the gross Matter of this World to be made out of Nothing, or to be a Grossness that has proceeded from Nothing, or compacted Nothing, is more absurd abſurd, than to ſuppoſe Ice that has congeal'd Nothing, a Yard that is not made up of Inches, or a Pound that is not the Product of Ounces.

11. And indeed to ſuppoſe this, or any other material World to be made out of Nothing, has all the ſame Abſurdities in it, as the ſuppoſing Angels and Spirits, to be created out of Nothing.

All the Qualities of all Beings are Eternal; no real Quality or Power can appear in any Creature, but what has its eternal Root, or generating Cauſe in the Creator. If a Quality could begin to be in a Creature, which did not always exiſt in the Creator, it would be no Abſurdity to ſay, that a Thing might begin to be, without any Cauſe either of its Beginning, or Being. All Qualities, Properties, or whatever can be affirmed of God, are ſelf-exiſtent, and neceſſary exiſtent. Self and neceſſary Exiſtence is not a particular Attribute of God, but is the general Nature of every Thing that can be affirmed of God. All Qualities and Properties are ſelf-exiſtent in God: Now, they cannot change their Nature when they are deriv'd, or form'd into Creatures, but muſt have the ſame Self-birth, and neceſſary Exiſtence in the Creature, which they had in the Creator. The Creature begins to be, when, and as it pleaſed

God; but the Qualities which are become Creaturely, and which conſtitute the Creature, are ſelf-exiſtent, juſt as the ſame Qualities are in God. Thus, Thinking, Willing, and Deſire can have no outward Maker, their Maker is in themſelves, they are ſelf-exiſtent Powers wherever they are, whether in God, or in the Creature, and as they form themſelves in God, ſo they form themſelves in the Creature. But now, if no Quality can begin to be, if all the Qualities and Powers of Creatures muſt be eternal and neceſſary exiſtent in God, before they can have any Exiſtence in any Creature; then it undeniably follows, that every created Thing muſt have its whole Nature from, and out of the Divine Nature.

All Qualities are not only good, but infinitely perfect, as they are in God; and it is abſolutely impoſſible, that they ſhould have any Evil or Defect in them, as they are in the One God, who is the great and Univerſal All. Becauſe, where all Properties are, there muſt neceſſarily be an all poſſible Perfection: And that which muſt always have All in itſelf, muſt, by an abſolute Neceſſity, be always all perfect. But the ſame Qualities, thus infinitely good and perfect in God, may become imperfect and evil in the Creature; becauſe in the Creature, being limited and finite, they may be divided and ſeparated from one another by the Creature itſelf. Thus Strength and Fire in the Divine Nature, are Nothing elſe but the Strength and Flame of Love, and never can be any thing elſe; but in the Creature, Strength and Fire may be ſeparated from Love, and then they are become an Evil, they are Wrath and Darkneſs, and all Miſchief: And thus that ſame Strength and Quality, which in Creatures making a right Uſe of their own Will, or Self-motion, becomes their Goodneſs and Perfection, doth in Creatures making a wrong Uſe of their Will, become their evil and miſchievous Nature: And it is a Truth that deſerves well to be conſidered, that there is no Goodneſs in any Creature, from the higheſt to the loweſt, but in its continuing to be ſuch an Union of Qualities and Powers, as God has brought together in its Creation.

In the higheſt Order of created Beings, this is their ſtanding in their firſt Perfection, this is their Fulfilling the whole Will or Law of God, this is their Piety, their Song of Praiſe, their Eternal Adoration of their great Creator. On the other hand, there is no Evil, no Guilt, no Deformity in any Creature, but in its dividing and ſeparating itſelf from ſomething which God had given to be in Union with it. This, and This alone, is the Whole Nature of all Good

Good, and all Evil in the Creature, both in the moral and natural World, in Spiritual and Material Things. For Inſtance, dark, fiery Wrath in the Soul, is not only very like, but it is the very ſelf-ſame Thing in the Soul which a Wrathful Poiſon is in the Fleſh. Now, the Qualities of Poiſon are in themſelves, all of them good Qualities, and neceſſary to every Life; but they are become a Poiſonous Evil, becauſe they are ſeparated from ſome other Qualities. Thus alſo the Qualities of Fire and Strength that conſtitute an Evil Wrath in the Soul, are in themſelves very good Qualities, and neceſſary to every good Life; but they are become an evil Wrath, becauſe ſeparated from ſome other Qualities with which they ſhould be united.

The Qualities of the Devil and all fallen Angels, are good Qualities; they are the very ſame which they received from their infinitely perfect Creator, the very ſame which are, and muſt be in all heavenly Angels; but they are an helliſh, abominable Malignity in them now, becauſe they have, by their own Self-motion, ſeparated them from the Light and Love which ſhould have kept them glorious Angels.

And here may be ſeen at once, in the cleareſt Light, the true Origin of all Evil in the Creation, without the leaſt Imputation upon the

the Creator. God could not poſſibly create a Creature to be an infinite All, like Himſelf: God could not bring any Creature into Exiſtence, but by deriving into it the ſelf-exiſtent, ſelf-generating, ſelf-moving Qualities of his own Nature: For the Qualities muſt be in the Creature, that which they were in the Creator, only in a State of Limitation; and therefore, every Creature muſt be finite, and muſt have a Self-motion, and ſo muſt be capable of moving right and wrong, of uniting or dividing from what it will, or of falling from that State in which it ought to ſtand: But as every Quality, in every Creature, both within and without itſelf, is equally good, and equally neceſſary to the Perfection of the Creature, ſince there is nothing that is evil in it, nor can become evil to the Creature, but from itſelf, by its ſeparating That from itſelf, with which it can, and ought to be united, it plainly follows, that Evil can no more be charged upon God, than Darkneſs can be charged upon the Sun; becauſe every Quality is equally good, every Quality of Fire is as good as every Quality of Light, and only becomes an Evil to that Creature, who, by his own Self-motion, has ſeparated Fire from the Light in his own Nature.

12. If

12. If a delicious, fragrant Fruit had a Power of ſeparating itſelf from that rich Spirit, fine Taſte, Smell, and Colour which it receives from the Virtue of the Sun, and the Spirit of the Air; or if it could in the Beginning of its Growth, turn away from the Sun, and receive no Virtue from it, then it would ſtand in its own firſt Birth of Wrath, Sourneſs, Bitterneſs, and Aſtringency, juſt as the Devils do, who have turned back into their own dark Root, and rejected the Light and Spirit of God: So that the helliſh Nature of a Devil is Nothing elſe, but its own firſt Forms of Life, withdrawn, or ſeparated from the heavenly Light and Love; juſt as the Sourneſs, Aſtringency, and Bitterneſs of a Fruit, are Nothing elſe but the firſt Forms of its own vegetable Life before it has reached the Virtue of the Sun, and the Spirit of the Air.

And as a Fruit, if it had a Senſibility of itſelf, would be full of Torment, as ſoon as it was ſhut up in the firſt Forms of its Life, in its own Aſtringency, Sourneſs, and Stinging Bitterneſs: So the Angels, when they had turned back into theſe very ſame firſt Forms of their own Life, and broke off from the Heavenly Light and Love of God, they became their own Hell. No Hell was made for them, no new Qualities came into them, no Vengeance or Pains from the God of Love fell upon them; they only ſtood in that State of Diviſion and Separation from the Son, and Holy Spirit of God, which, by their own Motion, they had made for themſelves. They had nothing in them, but what they had from God, the firſt Forms of an Heavenly Life, Nothing but what the moſt heavenly Beings have, and muſt have, to all Eternity; but they had them in a State of Self-torment, becauſe they had ſeparated them from that Birth of Light and Love, which alone could make them glorious Sons, and bleſſed Images of the Holy Trinity.

The ſame ſtrong Deſire, fiery Wrath, and Stinging Motion is in Holy Angels, that is in Devils, juſt as the ſame Sourneſs, Aſtringency, and biting Bitterneſs is in a full ripened Fruit, which was there before it received the Riches of the Light and Spirit of the Air. In a ripened Fruit, its firſt Sourneſs, Aſtringency, and Bitterneſs is not loſt, nor deſtroyed, but becomes the real Cauſe of all its rich Spirit, fine Taſte, fragrant Smell, and beautiful Colour; take away the working, contending Nature of theſe firſt Qualities, and you annihilate the Spirit, Taſte, Smell, and Virtue of the Fruit, and there there would be nothing left for the Sun and Spirit of the Air to enrich.

Juſt in the ſame manner, that which in a Devil is an evil Selfiſhneſs, a wrathful Fire, a Stinging Motion, is in an Holy Angel, the everlaſting Kindling of a divine Life, the ſtrong Birth of an Heavenly Love, it is a real Cauſe of an ever-ſpringing, ever-triumphing Joyfulneſs, an ever-increaſing Senſibility of Bliſs.

Take away the working, contending Nature of theſe firſt Qualities, which in a Devil, are only a Serpentine Selfiſhneſs, Wrath, Fire, and Stinging Motion; take away theſe, I ſay, from Holy Angels, and you leave them neither Light, nor Love, nor heavenly Glory, Nothing for the Birth of the Son, and Holy Spirit of God to riſe up in.

So that here you may ſee this glorious Truth, that the Love and Goodneſs of God is as plain and undeniable in having given to the fallen Angels, thoſe very Qualities and Powers which are now their Hell, as in giving the firſt Sourneſs, Aſtringency and Bitterneſs to Fruits, which alone makes them capable of their delicious Spirit, Taſte, Colour, and Smell.

13. And thus you ſee the uniform Life of all the Creatures of God; how they are all raiſed, enriched, and bleſſed by the ſame Life of God, derived derived into different Kingdoms of Creatures. For the Beginnings and Progreſs of a perfect Life in Fruits, and the Beginnings and Progreſs of a perfect Life in Angels, are not only like to one another, but are the very ſame Thing, or the working of the very ſame Qualities, only in different Kingdoms. Aſtringency in a Fruit, is the very ſame Quality, and does the ſame Work in a Fruit, that attracting Deſire does in a Spiritual Being; it is the ſame Beginner, Former, and Supporter of a Creaturely Life in the one, as in the other. No Creature in Heaven, or Earth, can begin to be, but by this Aſtringency, or Deſire, being made the Ground of it: And yet this Aſtringency kept from the Virtue of the Sun, can only produce a poiſonous Fruit, and this aſtringent Deſire in an Angel, turned from the Light of God, can only make a Devil. The biting, ſtinging Bitterneſs of a Fruit, if you could add Thought to it, would be the very gnawing Envy of the Devil: And the envious Motion in the Devil's Nature, would be Nothing elſe but that Stinging Bitterneſs which is in a Fruit, if you cou'd take Thought from the Devil's Motion.

14. From this Attraction, Aſtringency, or Deſire, which is one and the ſame Quality in every individual Thing, which is the firſt Form of

of Being and Life, the very Ground of every Creature, from the higheſt Angel to the loweſt Vegetable, we are led by an unerring Thread to the firſt Deſire, or that Deſire which is in the Divine Nature. For as this Attraction, or aſtringent Deſire is in Spiritual and corporeal Things, one and the ſame Quality, working in the ſame Manner, ſo is it one and the ſame Quality with that firſt, unbeginning Deſire, which is in the Divine Nature.

That there is an attracting Deſire in the Divine Nature, is undeniable, becauſe Attraction is eſſential to all Bodies; and Deſire, which is the ſame Quality, is abſolutely inſeparable from all intelligible Beings; therefore, that which is neceſſarily exiſtent in the Creature, upon the Suppoſition of its Creation, muſt neceſſarily be in the Creator; becauſe no inherent, operative Quality can be in the Creature, unleſs the ſame kind of Quality had always been in the Creator: Therefore, Attraction or Deſire, which are inſeparable from every created Being and Life, are only various Participations of the Divine Deſire; or Emanations from it, form'd into different Kingdoms of Creatures, and working in all of them according to their reſpective Natures.

In

In Vegetables, it is that Attraction, or Desire, which brings every growing Thing to its highest Perfection: In Angels, it is that blessed Hunger, by which they are fill'd with the Divine Nature: In Devils, it is turn'd into that Serpentine Selfishness, or crooked Desire, which makes them a Hell and Torment to themselves.

15. On the other hand, as we thus prove a posteriori, from a View of the Creature, that there must be an attracting Desire in the Divine Nature; so we can prove a priori also, from a Consideration of God, that there must be an attracting Desire in every Thing that ever was, or can be created by God: For nothing can come into Being, but because God wills and desires it; therefore the Desire of God is the Creator, the Original of every Thing. The Creating Will, or Desire of God, is not a distant, or separate Thing, as when a Man wills or desires something to be done, or removed at a Distance from him; but it is an Omnipresent, working Will and Desire, which is itself, the Beginning and Forming of the Thing desir'd. Our own Will, and desirous Imagination, when they work and create in us a settled Aversion, or fix'd Love of any thing, resemble in some Degree, the Creating Power of God, which makes Things out of itſelf, or its own working Deſire. And our Will, and working Imagination could not have the Power that it has now even after the Fall, but becauſe it is a Product, or Spark of that firſt Divine Will or Deſire which is omnipotent.

16. Here therefore we have plainly found the true Original, or firſt Source of all Things. The Deſire in God is the firſt Former, Generator, and Creator of all Things; they are all the Births of this omnipotent, working Deſire; for every Thing that comes into Being, muſt have the Nature of that Power that form'd it, and therefore the Nature of every Creature muſt ſtand in an attractive Deſire, that is, every Thing muſt be a Created, attractive Power; becauſe it is the Birth, or Product of a Deſire, or attractive Power, and could neither come into, nor continue in Being, but becauſe it was generated not only by, but out of an attracting Deſire. And herein lies the Band, or Knot of all created Being and Life.

17. Will or Deſire in the Deity, is juſtly conſidered as God the Father, who from Eternity to Eternity, wills or generates only the Son, from which eternal Generating, the Holy Spirit eternally proceeds: And this is the infinite

Perfection

Perfection or Fullneſs of Beatitude of the Life of the Tri-une God.

Now, as the unbeginning, eternal Deſire is in God, ſo is the created Deſire in the Creature; it ſtands in the ſame Tendency, hath the Nature of the Divine Deſire, becauſe it is a Branch out of it, or created from it. In the Deity, the Eternal Will or Deſire, is a Deſiring, or Generating the Son, whence the Holy Spirit proceeds; the Deſire that is come out of God into the Form of a Creature, has the ſame Tendency, it is a Deſire of the Son and Holy Spirit. And every created Thing in Heaven and Earth attains its Perfection, by its Gaining in ſome Degree, the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it: For all Attraction and Deſire in the Creature, generates in them as it did in God; and ſo the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God ariſes in ſome Degree, or other, in all Creatures that are in their proper State of Perfection.

18. And here lies the Ground of that plain, and moſt fundamental Doctrine of Scripture, that the Father is the Creator, the Son the Regenerator, and the Holy Spirit the Sanctifier. For what is this but ſaying in the plaineſt manner, that as there are Three in God, ſo there muſt be Three in the Creature, that as the Three ſtand related to one another in God, ſo muſt they ſtand in the ſame Relation in the Creature. For if a threefold Life of God muſt have diſtinct Shares in the Creation, Bleſſing, and Perfection of Man, is it not a Demonſtration, that the Life of Man muſt ſtand in the ſame threefold State, and have ſuch a Trinity in it, as has its true Likeneſs to that Trinity which is in God?

That which generates in God, muſt generate in the Creature; and that which is generated in God, muſt be generated in the Creature; and that which proceeds from this Generation in the Deity, muſt proceed from this Generation in the Creature: And therefore, the ſame threefold Life muſt be in the Creature in the ſame manner as it is in God. For a Creature that can only exiſt, and be bleſſed by the diſtinct Operation of a Tri-une God upon it, muſt have the ſame Tri-une Nature that is anſwerable to it. And herein lies our true, and eaſy, and ſound, and edifying Knowledge and Belief of the Myſtery of a Trinity in Unity: And this is all that the Scripture teaches us concerning it. It is not a Doctrine that requires learned or nice Speculations, in order to be rightly apprehended by us. But when with the Scriptures, we believe the Father to be our

Creator,

Creator, the Son our Regenerator, and the Holy Spirit the Sanctifier; then we are learned enough in this Myſtery, and begin to know the Tri-une God in the ſame Manner in Time, that we ſhall know him in Eternity.

And the Reaſon why this great Myſtery of a Trinity in the Deity is thus reveal'd to us, and the Neceſſity of a Baptiſm in the Name of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, laid upon us, is this; it is to ſhew us, that the Divine, Tri-une Life of God is loſt in us, and that nothing leſs than a Birth from the Son and Holy Spirit of God in us, can reſtore us to our firſt Likeneſs to that Tri-une God, who at firſt created us. This I have fully ſhewn in the little Treatiſe upon Regeneration.

19. When Man was created in his Original Perfection, the Holy Trinity was his Creator; the Breath of Lives, which became a Living Soul, was the Breath of the Tri-une God: But when Man began to will, and deſire, that is, to generate contrary to the Deity, then the Life of the Tri-une God was extinguiſhed in him.

The Deſire in Man being turn'd from God, loſt the Birth of the Son, and the Proceeding of the Holy Spirit; and ſo fell into, or under the Light and Spirit of this World: That is, of a Paradiſical Man, enjoying Union and Communion with Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, and living on Earth in ſuch Enjoyment of God, as the Angels live in Heaven, he became an Earthly Creature, ſubject to the Dominion of this outward World, capable of all its evil Influences, ſubject to its Vanity and Mortality; and as to his outward Life, ſtood only in the higheſt Rank of Animals. This and This alone, is the true Nature and Degree of the Fall of Man; it was neither more nor leſs than this. It was a Falling out of one World, or Kingdom, into another, it was changing the Life, Light and Spirit of God, for the Light and Spirit of this World. Thus it was that Adam died the very Day of his Tranſgreſſion, he died to all the Influences and Operations of the Kingdom of God upon him, as we die to the Influences of this World, when the Soul leaves the Body; and, on the other hand, all the Influences, Operations and Powers of the Elements of this Life became opened in him, as they are in every Animal at its Birth into this World.

All other Accounts of that Fall, which only ſuppoſe the Loſs of ſome Moral Perfection, or Natural Acuteneſs of his Rational Powers, are not only ſenſeleſs Fictions, but are an expreſs Denial of the Old and New Teſtament Account count of it; for the Old Teſtament expreſsly ſays, that Adam was to die the Day of his Tranſgreſſion, and therefore it is certain, that He then did die, and that the Fall was his loſing his firſt Life: And to ſay that he did not die to that firſt Life in which he was created, is the ſame Denial of Scripture, as to ſay, that he did not eat of the forbidden Tree.

Again, the ſame Scripture aſſures us, that after the Fall, his Eyes were opened; I ſuppoſe this is a Proof, that before the Fall, they were ſhut. And what is this, but ſaying in the plaineſt manner, that before the Fall, the Life, Light and Spirit of this World, were ſhut out of him? and that the Opening of his Eyes, was only another way of ſaying, that the Life and Light of this World were opened in him?

If an Angel, or any Inhabitant of Heaven, was to be ſent of a Meſſage into this World, it muſt be ſuppoſed, that neither the Darkneſs, nor Light of this World could act according to their Nature upon him; and therefore, tho' he was here, he muſt be ſaid not to have the opened Eyes of this World: But if this Heavenly Meſſenger ſhould be taken with our Manner of Life, ſhould be in Doubts about returning to Heaven, and long to have ſuch Fleſh and Blood as ours is, as earneſtly as

Adam long'd to eat of the earthly Tree; and if by this Longing, he ſhould actually obtain that which he deſir'd; muſt it not then be ſaid of him, when he had got this new Nature, his Eyes were opened, to ſee Light and Darkneſs; and that only for this Reaſon, becauſe the Heavenly Life was departed from him, and the Earthly Life of this World was opened in Him? And thus it was that Adam died, and thus his Eyes were opened.

Again, when his Eyes were thus opened, or the Light and Life of this World thus open'd in him, he was immediately aſham'd and ſhock'd at the Sight of his own Body, and wanted to hide it from himſelf, and from the Sight of the Sun. Now, how could this have happened to him, if his Body had not undergone ſome very extraordinary Change, from a State of Glory and Perfection, to a lamentable Degree of Vileneſs and Impurity?

All the Terror at his fallen State, ſeems to ariſe from the ſad Condition, in which he ſaw and felt his outward Body. This made him aſham'd of himſelf; this made him tremble, at hearing the Voice of God; this made him creep behind the Trees, and endeavour to hide and cover his Body with Leaves.

And is not all this the ſame Thing, as if

Adam

Adam had ſaid, All my Sin, my Guilt, my Miſery, and Shame, is publiſhed before Heaven and Earth, by this ſad State and Condition in which my Body now appears.

But now, what was this ſad State and Condition of his Body? What did Adam ſee in the Manner and Form of it that fill'd him with ſuch Confuſion? Why, he only ſaw that he was fallen from his Paradiſical Glory, to have the ſame groſs Fleſh and Blood as the Beaſts and Animals of this World have; which was, to bring forth an Offſpring in the ſame earthly Manner, as they did. He could ſee, and be aſhamed of no other Deformity in his Body, but that which he had in common with the Animals of this World; and therefore there was nothing elſe in his outward Form that He could be aſhamed of; and yet it was his outward Form that fill'd him with Confuſion. And is not this the greateſt of all Proofs, that before his Fall, his Body had not this Nature and Condition of the Beaſts in it? Is it not the ſame Thing, as if he had ſaid, this Body which now makes me aſham'd, and which I want to hide, tho' it be only with thin Leaves, becauſe it brings me down amongſt the Animals of this World, is not that firſt Body of Glory into which God

at first breathed the Breath of Lives, and in which I became a Living Soul.

Again, if Adam's Body had been of the same kind of Flesh and Blood as ours is now, only in a better State of Health and Vigour, How could he have been created Immortal? If he was not created Immortal, how can it be said, that Sin alone brought Mortality, or Death into Human Nature? But if he had Immortality in his first created State, then he must have such a Body as none of the Elements, or Elementary Things of this World could act upon; for there is no Death in any Creature of this World, but what is brought upon it by that Strife and Destruction which the four Elements bring upon one another. But if Sin alone gave the Elements, and all Elementary Things their first Power of acting upon the Body of Adam; then it is plain, that before his Sin, he had not, could not have a Body of such Flesh and Blood as we now have, but that he stood, as to the State, Nature, and Condition of his outward Body, at as great a Distance and Difference from the Animals of this World, as Heaven does from Earth, and was created with Flesh and Blood as much exalted above, and superior to the Nature and Power of all the Elements, as the Beasts of this World are under them.

And

And herein plainly appears the true Senſe of that ſaying, God made not Death, that is, he made not That which is mortal, or dying in the Human Nature, but Sin alone form'd and produced That in Man, which could, and muſt die like the Bodies of Beaſts. Death, and the Grave, and the Reſurrection, are all three, ſtanding Proofs, that the Body of beſtial Fleſh and Blood, which we now have, at the Sight of which Adam was aſhamed, which muſt die, which can rot in the Grave, which muſt not be ſeen after the Reſurrection, was not that firſt Body, in which Adam appeared before God in Paradiſe: For if it is an undeniable Truth of Scripture, that this Fleſh and Blood cannot enter into the Kingdom of God; it muſt be a Truth of the ſame Certainty, that this Fleſh and Blood could not by God Himſelf be brought into Paradiſe; but that it muſt have the ſame Original with every other polluted Thing that is an Abomination in his Sight, or incapable of entring into the Kingdom of God.

20. That the Goſpel alſo plainly ſhews, that Man was created in the Dignity and glorious Enjoyment of the Tri-une Life of God, and that his Fall, was a falling into the earthly Life of the Light and Spirit of this World, I have ſufficiently proved from the greateſt Articles

ticles of our Chriſtian Faith, concerning the Neceſſity, Nature, and Manner of our Redemption, in the Book of Chriſtian Regeneration. I have there ſhewn, that Baptiſm in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, ſignifies Nothing but our being born again into this Tri-une Life of God.——That the Neceſſity of being born again of the Word or Son of God, of being born of the Spirit, or receiving Him as a Sanctifier of our new rais'd Nature, plainly proves that what we loſt by the Fall, was this Tri-une Life of God: He that denies this, denies the whole of the Chriſtian Redemption *.

21. It has been already obſerved, that when Man was created in his Original Perfection, the Holy Trinity was his Creator; but when Man was fallen, or had loſt his firſt Divine Life, then there began a new Language of a Redeeming Religion. Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt were now to be conſidered, not as creating every Man as they created the Firſt, but as differently concerned in raiſing the fallen Race of Mankind, to that firſt Likeneſs of the Holy Trinity in which their firſt Father was created: Hence it is, that the Scriptures ſpeak of the Father, as Drawing, and Calling Men; becauſe becauſe the Deſire which is from the Father's Nature, muſt be the firſt Mover, Stirrer, and Beginner. This Deſire muſt be moved and brought into an anguiſhing State, and have the Agitation of a Fire that is kindling; and then Men are truly drawn by the Father.

The Son of God is now conſidered as the Regenerator or Raiſer of a new Birth in us; becauſe he enters a ſecond Time into the Life of the Soul, that his own Nature and Likeneſs may be again generated in it, and that he may be That to the Soul in its State, which he is to the Father in the Deity.

The Holy Ghoſt is repreſented as the Sanctifier, or Finiſher of the Divine Life reſtored in us; becauſe as in the Deity, the Holy Ghoſt proceeds from the Father and the Son, as the amiable, bleſſed Finiſher of the Tri-une Life of God; ſo the fallen Nature of Man cannot be raiſed out of its unholy State, cannot be bleſſed and ſanctified with its true Degree of the Divine Life, till the Holy Spirit ariſes up in it.

Since then the Tri-une God, or the three Perſons in the one God, muſt have this Difference of Shares, muſt reach out this different Help to the Raiſing up of fallen Man, it is undeniable, that the firſt created Man ſtood

in

in the Image and real Likeneſs of the one God, not only repreſenting, but really having in his Birth and Life, the Birth and Life of the Holy Trinity. God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt had ſuch a Unity in Trinity in Man, as they had in the Deity itſelf: How elſe could Man be the Image and Likeneſs of the Holy Trinity, if it was not ſuch a Birth in Man, as it was in itſelf? Or, how could the Holy Trinity dwell and operate in Man, each Perſon according to its reſpective Nature, unleſs there was the ſame threefold Life in Man as there is in God? How could the Holy Trinity be an Object of Man's Worſhip and Adoration, if the Holy Trinity had not produced itſelf in Man? The Creature is only to own and worſhip its Creator; therefore Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt muſt have each of them their Creaturely Offspring, or Product in Man, if Man is to worſhip Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If therefore you deny Angels, and the Souls of perfect Men to have the tri-une Nature, or Life of God in them: If you deny that Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, have ſuch Union and Relation in the Soul, as they have out of it, you are guilty of as great Hereſy and Apoſtacy from the Goſpel, as if you denied the Father to be the Creator or Him that

calleth and draweth, the Son to be the Redeemer, or Him that regenerateth, and the Holy Spirit to be Him that sanctifieth Human Nature.

22. Again: Consider this great Truth, which will much illustrate this Matter; you can be an Inhabitant of no World, or a Partaker of its Life, but by its being inwardly the Birth of your own Life, or by having the Nature and Condition of that World born in you. As thus, Hell must be inwardly born in the Soul, it must arise up within it, as it does without it, before the Soul can become an Inhabitant of it.

Again: That which is the Life of this outward World, viz. its Fire, and Light, and Air, must have such a State and Birth within you, as they have without you, before you can be an Inhabitant or Partaker of the Life of this World; that is, Fire must be in you, must be the same Fire, have the same Place and Nature within you, have the same Relation to the Light and Air that is within you, as it has without you, or else the Fire of the outward World, cannot keep up, or have any Communion with your own Life.

The Light of this World can signify nothing to you, cannot reach or enrich you with its Powers

Powers and Virtues, if the ſame Light is not ariſen in the ſame Manner in the kindling of your own Life, as it ariſes in the outward World.

The Air alſo of this World can do you no Good, can be no Blower up and Preſerver of your Life, but becauſe it has the ſame Birth in you, that it has in outward Nature. And therefore it muſt be a Truth of the greateſt Certainty, that ſo it muſt of all Neceſſity be, with Reſpect to the Kingdom of God, or that Life which is to be had in the Beatifick Preſence of God; it muſt, by an abſolute Neceſſity, have the ſame Birth within you, as it has without you, before you can enter into it, or become an Inhabitant of it: If you are to live, and be eternally bleſſed in the tri-une Life, or Beatifick Preſence of God, that Tri-une Life, muſt, of the utmoſt Neceſſity, firſt make itſelf creaturely in you; it muſt be and ariſe in you, as it does without you, before you can poſſibly enter into any Communion with it.

Now is there any Thing more plain and Scriptural, more eaſy to be conceived, more pious to be believed, and more impoſſible to be denied, than all this? And yet this is all that I have ſaid, in two Propoſitions in the Treatiſe upon upon Chriſtian Regeneration : It is there ſaid, " Man was created by God after his own Image, " and in his own Likeneſs, a Living Mirror of " the Divine Nature ; where Father, Son, and " Holy Ghoſt each brought forth their own " Nature in a Creaturely Manner." Now, what is this, but ſaying, That the Holy Trinity brought forth a Creature in its own Likeneſs, ſtanding in a creaturely Birth of the divine, tri-une Life ? If it did not ſtand thus, how could it have a Likeneſs of the Holy Trinity ? Or how could it have its Form or Creation from the Holy Trinity ? Or how could it without this tri-une Life in itſelf, enter into, or be a Partaker of the tri-une Life or Preſence of God ? In the next Propoſition it is ſaid ; " In it, that is, in this created Image of the " Holy Trinity, the Father's Nature genera- " ted the Divine Word, or Son of God, and " the Holy Ghoſt proceeded from them both " as an amiable, moving Life of both. This " was the Likeneſs or Image of God, in which " the firſt Man was created, a true Offspring " of God, in whom the Divine Birth ſprung " up as in the Deity, where Father, Son, and " Holy Ghoſt, ſaw themſelves in a creaturely " manner."

Now, what is this, but saying in the plainest Manner, only thus much, that the tri-une, creaturely Life stood in the same Birth and Generation of its threefold Life, as the Deity doth, whose Image, Likeness, and Offspring it is? And can it possibly be otherwise; for if the Creature cometh from the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as their created Image and Likeness, must not That which it hath from the Father, be of the Nature of the Father, That which it hath from the Son, be of the Nature of the Son, and That which it hath from the Holy Ghost, be of the Nature of the Holy Ghost? And must they not therefore stand in the Creature in such Relation to one another, as they do in the Creator? If it is the Nature of the Father to generate, if it is the Nature of the Son to be generated, if it is the Nature of the Holy Ghost to proceed from both, must not That which you have from the Father generate in you, That which you have from the Son be generated in you, and that which you have from the Holy Ghost, proceed from both in you? All which is only saying this plain and obvious Truth, that That Being, or created Life, which you have from Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, must stand in such a tri-une Relation within you as it does without you ; that having this threefold Likeneſs of God, you may be capable of entring into an Enjoyment of his tri-une, beatifick Life or Preſence.

For, conſider again this Inſtance, with regard to the Life of this World. The Fire, and Light, and Air, of outward Nature, muſt become creaturely in you ; that is, you muſt have a Fire that is your own creaturely Fire, you muſt have a Light that is generated by, or from your own Fire, a Breath that proceeds from your own Fire and Light, as the Air of outward Nature proceeds from its Fire and Light : You muſt have all this Nature and Birth of Fire, and Light, and Air in your own creaturely Being, or you cannot poſſibly live in, or have a Life from the Fire, and Light, and Air of outward Nature : No Omnipotence can make you a Partaker of the Life of this outward World, without having the Life of this outward World born in your own creaturely Being. And therefore, no Omnipotence can make you a Partaker of the Beatifick Life or Preſence of the Holy Trinity, unleſs that Life ſtands in the ſame tri-une State within you, as it does without you.

The Nature of this World muſt become creatural in you, before you can live, or have a Share in the Life of this World; the tri-une Nature of God muſt breathe forth itſelf to ſtand creaturely in you, before you can live, or have a Share in the Beatifick Life or Preſence of the tri-une God.

Now, is not all this ſtrictly according to the very outward Letter, and inward Truth of the moſt important Articles of the Chriſtian Religion? For what elſe can be meant by the Neceſſity of our being born again of the Word, or Son of God, being born of the Spirit of God, in order to our Entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven? Is not this ſaying, that the tri-une Life of God muſt firſt have its Birth in us, before we can enter into the tri-une, beatifick Life, or Preſence of God? What elſe is taught us by that new Birth ſought for by a Baptiſm, in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt? Does it not plainly tell us, that the tri-une Nature of the Deity is That which wants to be born in us, and that our Redemption conſiſts in Nothing elſe but in the Bringing forth this new Birth in us, and that, being thus born again in the Likeneſs of the Holy Trinity, we may be capable of its threefold Bleſſing and Happineſs? The New Teſtament tells us of the Impoſſibility of our being redeemed, but by the Son of God, of the Impoſſibility poſſibility of our being made holy, but by the Holy Spirit of God: Now, how could we want any diſtinct Thing particularly from the Son of God, any diſtinct Thing, particularly from the Holy Ghoſt, in order to raiſe and repair our fallen Nature, how could this Particularity be thus abſolutely neceſſary, but becauſe the holy threefold Life of the Deity muſt ſtand within us, in the Birth of our own Life, as it does without us, that ſo we may be capable of living in God, and God in us.

Search to Eternity, why no Devil, or Beaſt can poſſibly be a Partaker of the Kingdom of Heaven, and there can only this one Reaſon be aſſign'd for it, becauſe neither of them have the tri-une, holy Life of God in them: For every created Thing does, and muſt, and can only want, ſeek, unite with, and enjoy That outwardly, which is of the ſame Nature with itſelf. Remove a Devil where you will, he is ſtill in Hell, and always at the ſame Diſtance from Heaven; he can touch, or taſte, or reach Nothing but what is in Hell. Carry a Beaſt where you pleaſe, either to Court, or to Church, he is yet at the ſame infinite Diſtance from the Joys and Fears either of Church, or Court, as the Beaſts that never ſaw any Thing elſe but their own Kind: And all this is grounded ſolely on this Eternal Truth; namely, That no Being can rise higher than its own Life reaches. The Circle of the Birth of Life in every Creature is its necessary Circumference, and it cannot possibly reach any farther; and therefore it is a joyful Truth, that Beings created to worship and adore the Holy Trinity, and to enter into the beatifick Life and Presence of the tri-une God, must, of all Necessity, have the same tri-une Life in their own Creaturely Being. And now, what can be so glorious, so edifying, so ravishing, as this Knowledge of God and ourselves? The very Thought of our standing in this Likeness and Relation to the Infinite Creator and Being of all Beings, is enough to kindle the Divine Life within us, and melt us into a continual Love and Adoration: For how can we enough love and adore that Holy Trinity which has created us in its own Likeness, that we might live in an Eternal Union and Communion with it? Will any one call this an irreverend Familiarity, or bold Looking into the Holy Trinity, which is nothing else but a thankful Adoration of it, as our Glorious Father and Creator? It is our best and only Acknowledgment of the greatest Truths of the Holy Scriptures; it is the Scripture Doctrine of the Trinity kept in its own Simplicity, separated from Scholastick Speculations, tions, where the three in God, are only diſtinguiſhed by that threefold Share that they have in the Creation and Redemption of Man. When we thus know the Trinity in ourſelves, and adore its high Original in the Deity, we are poſſeſſed of a Truth of the greateſt Moment, that enlightents the Mind with the moſt ſolid and edifying Knowledge, and opens to us the fulleſt Underſtanding of all that concerns the Creation, Fall, and Redemption of Man.

Without this Knowledge, all the Scripture will be uſed as a dead Letter, and form'd only into a figurative, hiſtorical Syſtem of Things, that has no Ground in Nature; and learned Divines can only be learned in the Explication of Phraſes, and verbal Diſtinctions.

The firſt Chapters of Geneſis will be a Knot that cannot be unty'd; the Myſteries of the Goſpel will be only called fœderal Rites, and their inward Ground reproached as enthuſiaſtick Dreams; but when it is known, that the tri-une Nature of God was brought forth in the Creation of Man, that it was loſt in his Fall, that it is reſtored in his Redemption, a never-failing Light ariſes in all Scripture, from Geneſis to the Revelations. Every Thing that is ſaid of God, as Father, Regenerator, or Sanctifier of Man; every Thing that is ſaid of Jeſus Chriſt, as Redeeming, forming, dwelling in, and quickening; and of the Holy Spirit, as moving and ſanctifying us: Every Thing that is ſaid of the Holy Sacraments, or promiſed in and by them, has its deep and inward Ground fully diſcovered; and the whole Chriſtian Religion is built upon a Rock, and that Rock is Nature, and God will appear to be doing every Good to us, that the God of all Nature can poſſibly do. The Doctrine of the Holy Trinity is wholly practical; it is revealed to us, to diſcover our high Original, and the Greatneſs of our Fall, to ſhew us the deep and profound Operation of the tri-une God in the Recovery of the Divine Life in our Souls; that by the Means of this Myſtery thus diſcovered, our Piety may be rightly directed, our Faith and Prayer have their proper Objects, that the Workings and Aſpirings of our own Hearts may co-operate, and correſpond with that tri-une Life in the Deity, which is always deſiring to manifeſt itſelf in us; for as every Thing that is in us, whether it be Heaven, or Hell, riſes up in us by a Birth, and is generated in us by the Will-ſpirit of our Souls, which kindles itſelf either in Heaven, or Hell; ſo this Myſtery of a tri-une Deity manifeſting itſelf, as a Father creating, as a Son, or Word, regenerating, regenerating, as a Holy Spirit ſanctifying us, is not to entertain our Speculation with dry, metaphyſical Diſtinctions of the Deity, but to ſhew us from what a Height and Depth we are fallen, and to excite ſuch a Prayer and Faith, ſuch a Hungring and Thirſting after this triune Fountain of all Good, as may help to generate and bring forth in us that firſt Image of the Holy Trinity in which we were created, and which muſt be born in us before we can enter into the State of the Bleſſed: Here we may ſee the Reaſon, why the Learned World has had ſo many fruitleſs Diſputes about this Myſtery, and why it has been ſo often a Stone of Stumbling to Philoſophers and Criticks; it is becauſe they began to reaſon about that, which never was propoſed to their Reaſon, and which no more belongs to human Learning and Philoſophy, than Light belongs to our Ears, or Sounds to our Eyes. No Perſon has any Fitneſs, nor any Pretence, nor any Ground from Scripture, to think, or ſay any Thing of the Trinity, till ſuch Time as he ſtands in the State of the Penitent Returning Prodigal, weary of his own ſinful, ſhameful Nature; and deſiring to renounce the World, the Fleſh, and the Devil, and then is he firſt permitted to be baptized into the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt: This is the firſt Time the Goſpel teaches, or calls any one to the Acknowledgment of the Holy Trinity. Now, as this Knowledge is firſt given in Baptiſm, and there only as a Signification of a tri-une Life of the Deity, which muſt be regenerated in the Soul; ſo the Scriptures ſay Nothing afterwards to this Baptized Penitent concerning the Trinity, but only with Regard to Regeneration, every where only ſhewing him how Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, all equally divine, muſt draw, awaken, quicken, enlighten, move, guide, cleanſe, and ſanctify the new-born Chriſtian: Is it not therefore undeniably plain, that all abſtract Speculations of this Myſtery, how it is in itſelf, how it is to be ideally conceived, or Scholaſtically expreſſed by us, are a Wandring from that true Light, in which the Trinity of God is ſet before us, which is only revealed as a Key, or Direction to the true Depths of that Regeneration, which is to be ſought for from the tri-une Deity? But to go on in a farther Account of the Creation.

23. Now, as all Creatures, whether intellectual, animate, or inanimate, are Products, or Emanations of the Divine Deſire, created

out of the Father, who from Eternity to Eternity generates the Son, whence the Holy Spirit eternally proceeds; ſo every intelligent, created Being, not fallen from its State, ſtands in the ſame Birth, or generating Deſire, it generates in its Degree, as God the Father generates eternally the Son, and is bleſſed and perfected in the Divine Life, by having the Holy Spirit ariſe up in it.

Hence it is, that thoſe Angels which ſtood, and continued in the ſame Will and Deſire in which they came out from God, willing and deſiring as God from all Eternity had will'd and deſir'd, were by the Riſing up of the Holy Spirit in them, confirm'd and eſtabliſhed in the Divine Life, and ſo became eternally and inſeparably united with the ever-bleſſed tri-une Deity.

On the other hand, thoſe Angels which did not keep their Will and Deſire in its firſt created Tendency, but raiſed up an own Will and Deſire, which own Will and Deſire was their direct, full chuſing and deſiring to be, and do ſomething which they could not be, and do in God, and is therefore properly called their aſpiring to be above God, or to be without any Dependance upon him; theſe Angels, by thus going backwards with their Will and Deſire

out of, or from God and the Divine Truth, could only find, or generate That which had the utmoſt Contrariety to God and the Divine Birth, and ſo became under a Neceſſity of finding themſelves in an Eternal State, Spirit and Life that was directly contrary to all that is good, holy, amiable, bleſſed and divine.

Now, the Will and Deſire in every Creature is generating, and efficacious, ſtrictly according to the State and Nature of that Creature *; therefore, Eternal Beings in an Eternal State, muſt have an Eternal Power and Efficacy in the Working of their Wills and Deſires: When therefore thoſe Angels, with all the Strength of their Eternal Deſires, turn'd away from, and contrary to God and the Divine Birth, they could become Nothing elſe, but Beings eternally ſeparated and broken off from all that was God and Goodneſs: For Eternal Beings that ſtood only in an eternal State, acting with all their Vigour, not doubting, but ſtrongly willing, could not do any thing that had only a Temporal Nature and Effect, becauſe they ſtood not in ſuch a Nature or ſuch a World, and therefore what they will'd and generated with all their Nature, (which was a Contrariety to God) that became the Eternal State of their Nature.

Nature. And this is the Birth and Origin of Helliſh Beings.

God had done all to them and for them, that he had done to and for the Angels that ſtood; he had given them the ſame holy Beginning of their Lives, had brought them forth out of himſelf in the ſame Tendency, that which was the Nature of other Angels, was theirs; he could not make any eſtabliſhed, fix'd, and unchangeable Angels, becauſe the Life of every Thing muſt be a Birth, and willing Beings muſt have a Birth of their Wills; he could not make them fix'd, becauſe every Thing that comes from God, muſt ſo come from him, as it was in him, a ſelf-exiſtent and ſelf-moving Power, and therefore no Goodneſs of God could hinder their having a Self-motion, becauſe they were, and could be Nothing elſe but Creatures brought forth by, and out of his own ſelf-exiſtent and ſelf-moving Nature.

God is all Good, and every Thing that comes out from him, as his Creature, Product, or Offspring, muſt come forth in that State of Goodneſs, which it had in Him; and every Creature, however high in its Birth from God, muſt in the Beginning of its Life, have a Power of joining with or departing from God, becauſe the Beginning of its Life is nothing

elſe but the Beginning of its own Self-motion as a Creature; and therefore no Creature can have its State or Condition fix'd, till it gives itſelf up either wholly unto God, or turns wholly from him; for if it is an Intelligent Creature, it can only be ſo, by having the Intelligent Will of God derived into it, or made creaturely in it; but the Intelligent Will brought into a creaturely Form, muſt be That which it was in the Creator, and therefore muſt be the ſame ſelf-exiſtent and ſelf-moving Power that it was before it became creaturely in any Angel or Spirit. And thus the Cauſe and Origin of Evil, where-ever it is, is abſolutely and eternally ſeparated from God.

24. Again: As all Intelligent Beings can no way attain their Happineſs and Perfection, but by ſtanding with their Will and Deſire united to God, in the ſame Tendency in which the Father eternally generateth the Son, from whence the Holy Spirit proceedeth as the Finiſher of the tri-une, beatifick Life, ſo the ſame Thing is manifeſtly proved to us by the loweſt kind of Beings that are in this viſible World; for all Vegetables, by their Attraction or Aſtringency, which is their Deſire, and is an Out-birth of the Divine Deſire, reach their utmoſt Perfection by the ſame Progreſs, that is, by getting a Birth a Birth of the Light and Spirit of this outward World into them, and so become infallible, tho' remote Proofs that no Life can be brought to its proper Perfection in the Creature, till the Image of the tri-une Life of God, is, according to the State and Capacity of the Creature, form'd in it: Look where you will, every Thing proclaims and proves this great Truth. The Christian Doctrine of the Salvation of Mankind by a Birth of the Son, and Holy Spirit of God in them, is not only written in Scripture, but in the whole State and Frame of Nature, and of every Life in this World; for every perfect Fruit openly declares, that it can have no Goodness in it, till the Light and Spirit of this World has done that to it and in it, which the Light and Spirit of God must do to the Soul of Man, and therefore is a full Proof, that it is as absolutely necessary for every Human Creature to desire, believe, and receive the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God to save it from its own Wrath and Darkness, as it is necessary for every Fruit of the Earth to be raised and regenerated from its own Bitterness and Sourness, by receiving the Light and Spirit of this World into it.

25. Some Learned Men, willing to discover the Image of the Holy Trinity in the Creation, ation, have obſerved three Properties both in Body and Spirit, which they ſuppoſed to be a proper Likeneſs of the Trinity. But all this is Nothing to the Matter.

For as the Holy Trinity is a threefold Life in God, ſo the Image of the Trinity is only found in a threefold Life in the Creature; for it is the whole Birth, or Generation of the Thing itſelf, whether it be corporeal or ſpiritual, that ſtands in ſuch a threefold State as the Holy Trinity doth, that is the proper Likeneſs or Image of the Trinity. As there is one infinitely perfect Deity, becauſe this one Deity is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, ſo every Creature that is an original Production of the Deity, or in its proper State of Perfection, ſtands in its whole Being, or generating as the Deity doth, and neither hath, nor ever can have any Perfection, but becauſe the Tri-une Nature of God is manifeſted and brought forth in it; for Perfection of Life in God, and a Perfection of Life deriv'd from God, muſt ſtand in the ſame threefold State, and that which is a Life from the Deity, muſt have a Life of the Trinity in it.

26. Take away Attraction, or Deſire from the Creature of this World, and you annihilate the Creature; for where there is no

Attraction

Attraction or Desire, there can be no Nature or Being; and therefore Attraction or Desire shews the Work of the Creator in every Thing, or what is meant by the divine Fiat, or Creating Power. Now, what is it which this Attraction or Desire wants, hungers, draws and reaches after? Nothing else but the Light and Spirit of this World. What is the true, deep, and infallible Ground of this? Why does this Desire thus work in every Life of this World? It's because the Eternal Will in the Deity, is a Desiring or Generating the Son, from whence the Holy Spirit of God proceeds: And therefore Attraction, which is an Out-birth of the Divine Desire, stands in a perpetual Desiring of the Light and Spirit of this World, because they are the two Out-births of the Light and Holy Spirit of God. What rational Mind can help being charm'd with this wonderful Harmony and Relation betwixt God, Nature, and Creature?

27. And now, my dear Reader, if you are either Arian, or Deist, be so no longer: The Ground is dug up from under you, and neither Opinion has any Thing left to stand upon; you may wrangle and wrest the Doctrine of Scripture, because it is only taught in Words; but the Veil is now taken off from Nature, and every Plant and Fruit will teach you with the Clearneſs of a Noon-day Sun, theſe two great Truths; Firſt, That Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are one Being, one Life, one God: Secondly, That the Soul, which is dead to the Paradiſical Life, muſt be made alive again by the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it, in the ſame Manner as a dead Seed is, and only can be brought to Life in this World, by the Light and Spirit of this World.

If you are an Arian, don't content yourſelf with the Numbers that are with you, or with a Learned Name or two that are on your Side: Arianiſm has never yet been recommended by the Genius and Learning of a Baronious, or Bellarmin; and nothing but a poor, groping, purblind Philoſophy, that is not able to look either at God, Nature, or Creature, hath ever led any Man into it: For it is a Truth proclaimed by all Nature and Creature, that there is a threefold Life in God, and every Thing that is, whether it be happy, or miſerable, perfect or imperfect, is only ſo, becauſe it has, or has not the tri-une Nature of God in it.

A beginning Fruit is like a Poiſon; a Seed, for a while, is ſhut up in a hard Death. Why are they both at firſt in this State? It is becauſe cauſe each of them ſtands as yet only in that firſt Birth of Nature, which is but a Beginning Manifeſtation of the Deity. Let the Light of the Sun, and the Spirit of this World be born in them, and then the ſour, aſtringent Fruit, and the dead Seed becomes a perfect, vegetable Life, and is in its kind perfect, for this one only Reaſon, becauſe the tri-une Life of the Deity is truly manifeſted in it.

28. If you are a Deiſt, made ſo, either by the diſorderly State of your own Heart, or by Prejudices taken from the Corruptions and Diviſions of Chriſtians, or from a Diſlike of the Language of Scripture, or from an Opinion of the Sufficiency of a Religion of Human Reaſon, or from whatever elſe it may be, look well to yourſelf, Chriſtianity is no Fiction of Enthuſiaſm, or Invention of Prieſts.

If you can ſhew, that the Goſpel propoſes to bring Men into the Kingdom of Heaven by any other Method, than that, which Nature requires to make any Creature a living Member of this World, then I will acknowledge the Goſpel not to be founded in Nature.

But if what the Goſpel ſaith of the abſolute Neceſſity, that the fallen Soul be born again of the Son and Holy Spirit of God, is the very ſame which all temporal Nature ſaith of every Thing that is to enter into the Life of this World, viz. that it cannot partake of the Life of this World, till the Light and Spirit of this World is born in it; then does not all Nature in this World, and every Life in it, declare, that the Chriſtian Method of Salvation is as neceſſary to raiſe fallen Man, as the Sun and Spirit of this World is, to bring a Creature alive into it?

Now, as there is but one God, ſo there is but one Nature, as unalterable as that God from whom it ariſes, and whoſe Manifeſtation it is; ſo alſo there is but one Religion founded in Nature, and but one Salvation poſſible in Nature. Revealed Religion is nothing elſe but a Revelation of the Myſterics of Nature, for God cannot reveal, or require any Thing by a ſpoken or written Word, but that which he reveals and requires by Nature; for Nature is his great Book of Revelation, and he that can only read its Capital Letters, will have found ſo many Demonſtrations of the Truth of the written Revelation of God *.

But to ſhew, that there is but one Salvation poſſible in Nature, and that Poſſibility ſolely contained in the Chriſtian Method: Look from the Top to the Bottom of all Creatures, from the higheſt to the loweſt Beings, and you you will find, that Death has but one Nature in all Worlds, and in all Creatures: Look at Life in an Angel, and Life in a Vegetable, and you will find, that Life has but one and the ſame Form, one and the ſame Ground in the whole Scale of Beings: No Omnipotence of God can make that to be Life, which is not Life, or that to be Death, which is not Death, according to Nature; and the Reaſon is, becauſe Nature is nothing elſe but God's own outward Manifeſtation of what he inwardly is, and can do; and therefore no Revelation from God can teach, or require any Thing but that which is taught and required by God in, and through Nature. The Myſteries of Religion therefore, are no higher, nor deeper than the Myſteries of Nature, and all the Rites, Laws, Ceremonies, Types, Inſtitutions and Ordinances given by God from Adam to the Apoſtles, are only typical of ſomething that is to be done, or inſtrumental to the doing of that, which the unchangeable Working of Nature requires to be done. As ſure therefore as there is but one and the ſame Thing that is Death, and one and the ſame Thing that is Life throughout all Nature, whether temporal or eternal, ſo ſure is it, that there is but one Way to Life or Salvation for fallen Man. And this Way, let it be what it will, muſt and can be only that, which has its Reaſon and Foundation in that one Univerſal Nature, which is the one unchangeable Manifeſtation of the Deity. For if there is but one Thing that is Life, and one thing that is Death throughout all Nature, from the higheſt Angel to the hardeſt Flint upon Earth, then it muſt be plain, that the Life which is to be raiſed or reſtored by Religion, muſt, and can only be reſtored according to Nature: And therefore, true Religion can only be the Religion of Nature, and Divine Revelation can do nothing elſe, but reveal and manifeſt the Demands and Workings of Nature.

29. Now, the one great Doctrine of the Chriſtian Religion, and which includes all the reſt, is this, that Adam, by his Sin, died to the Kingdom of Heaven, or that the Divine Life extinguiſhed in him; That he cannot be redeemed, or reſtored to this firſt Divine Life, but by having it kindled or regenerated in him by the Son and Holy Spirit of God: Now, that which is here called Death, his loſing the Light and Spirit of the Kingdom of Heaven, and that which is here made neceſſary to make him alive again to the Kingdom of Heaven, is that very ſame which is called, and is Death and Life throughout all Nature, both temporal and eternal: And therefore, the Chriſtian Religion

ligion requiring this Method of raiſing Man to a Divine Life, has its infallible Proof from all Nature *. Conſider Death, or the Deadneſs that is in a hard Flint, and you will ſee what is the Eternal Death of a fallen Angel: The Flint is dead, or in a State of Death, becauſe its Fire is bound, compacted, ſhut up, and impriſoned; this is its Chains and Bands of Death: A Steel ſtruck againſt a Flint will ſhew you, that every Particle of the Flint conſiſts of this compacted Fire.

Now, a fallen Angel is in no other State of Death, knows no other Death than this: It is in its whole Spiritual, Intelligent Being, nothing elſe, but that very ſame which the Flint is, in its inſenſible Materiality, viz. an impriſon'd compacted, darkened Fire-ſpirit, ſhut up, and ty'd in its own Chains of Darkneſs, as the Fire of the Flint; and you ſhall ſee by and by, that the Flint is chang'd from its firſt State into its preſent Hardneſs of Death, in the ſame Manner, and by the ſame Means, as the Heavenly Angel is become a fiery Serpent in the State of Eternal Death.

Now, look at every Death that can be found betwixt that of a fallen Angel, and that of a hard Flint, and you will find that Death enters no where, into no kind of Vegetable,

* Spirit of Love, Part II. Page 117, &c.

Plant, or Animal, but as it has entered into the Angel, and the Flint, and ſtands in the ſame manner in every Thing where-ever it is.

Now, that a fallen Angel, is nothing elſe but a Fire ſpirit impriſon'd in the ſame manner as a Flint is an impriſon'd Fire, is plain from the Scripture Account of them; not only becauſe all the wrathful Properties of a Fire without Light, are aſcrib'd to them as their eſſential Qualities, but becauſe the Place of their Habitation, or the State, of their Life, is a Fire of Hell. For how could it be poſſible, that a helliſh Fire ſhould be the Eternal State of their Life, unleſs their Nature was ſuch a Fire? Muſt not their painful Condition ariſe from their Nature, and their Miſery be only a Senſibility of themſelves, of that which they have made themſelves to be? Therefore, if Fire ſhut up in Darkneſs, is the Nature of Hell, it can only be ſo, becauſe ſuch a darkened Fire is the very Nature of a fallen Angel. Or how again could the Human Soul, which has withſtood its Salvation in this Life, be ſaid to fall into Eternal Death, or the Fire of Hell, if the Soul itſelf did not become that Fire of Hell? For when you ſay the Soul enters into Hell, you ſay neither more nor leſs, than if you had ſaid, that Hell enters into the Soul; therefore, therefore, the State of Hell, and the State of the Soul in Hell, is one and the ſame Thing. If therefore Hell is a State of Fire ſhut up, and impriſon'd from all Communion with Light, then the ſame dark, impriſon'd Fire muſt be the Nature of the fallen Angel and loſt Soul; and thus, what your Eyes ſee to be the Death or Deadneſs of a Flint, is that ſame Thing, or that ſame State of the Thing, which the Scripture aſſures you, to be the Eternal Death of a fallen Angel, and a loſt Soul. Here alſo you may ſee a plain Proof of what I have elſewhere declared concerning the fallen Soul; that conſidered without its Redeemer in it, or the in-ſpoken Word of Life given to Adam at his Fall, it is in itſelf, as a fallen Soul, the ſame dark, fiery Spirit, as the Devils are; and that the Reaſon why Men wholly given up to Wickedneſs, and who have ſuppreſſed the Redeeming Power of God in their Souls, do not become fully ſenſible of this State of their Souls, is this, becauſe the Soul, while it is in this Fleſh and Blood, is capable of being ſoftened, aſſwaged, and comforted in ſome Degree or other, by the Influences of the Sun and Spirit of this World, as all other Creatures and Beings are. And if it was not thus, how could it be a plain, conſtant Doctrine of Scripture, ture, that when the Unredeemed Soul departs this Life, it is incapable of any thing but Hell? Is not this directly saying, that Hell, or the Sensibility of Hell was only hid and suppressed in such a Soul, by the Life and Light of this World shining upon it?

Now what I have said of the sad Condition of the Soul at the Fall, that it lost the Divine Life, or the Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it, and so became of the same dark, fiery Nature, as the Devils, is not possible to be denied, without denying the most universally received Doctrine of Scripture.

Is it not a fundamental Doctrine of Scripture, that Adam and all his Posterity had been left in a State of Eternal Death, or Damnation, unless Jesus Christ had become their Redeemer, and taken them out of their natural State? But how can you believe, or own they had been left in this State, without believing and owning that they were in it? Or, how can you with the Scripture believe, that by the Fall they became Heirs of Eternal Death and Damnation with the Devils, unless you believe and affirm, that by the Fall they became of a hellish, diabolical Nature? Or how can you hold, that by the Fall they wanted to be delivered from the State of the Devils, and yet not allow, that by the Fall, they got the Nature of the Devils? Can any Thing be more abſurd and inconſiſtent? Is it not the ſame Thing as ſaying, that God made them Heirs of Eternal Death and Hell, before they were by Nature fit for it, or before they had extinguiſhed in themſelves the Divine Life which was at firſt brought forth in them?

Again: It is a Scripture Doctrine of the utmoſt Certainty and Importance, that thoſe Souls which have totally reſiſted and withſtood all that God has done in them and for them by his Son Jeſus Chriſt, will, at their Departure from the Body, be incapable of any Thing but Eternal Death, or a helliſh Condition. Now, how can you poſſibly hold this Doctrine of Scripture, without holding at the ſame Time, that the Soul was in that State by the Fall, before it had received its Redeemer, as it is then in, when it has refuſed to receive him; for all that you can ſay of a loſt Soul is only this, that it has loſt its Redeemer, and therefore is only in the Condition of that Soul which has not received him: And therefore, if a loſt Soul is only an unredeemed Soul, it muſt be plain, that the Soul, before it had received its Redeemer, was in the miſerable Condition, and had the miſerable Nature of a Loſt Soul; and therefore,

therefore, the only Difference between the fallen Soul, and the loſt Soul is this, they are both in the ſame need of a Saviour, both have the ſame miſerable Nature, becauſe they have him not; but the one has the Offer of him, and the other has refuſed to accept of Him: But his final Refuſal of him, has only left him in Poſſeſſion of that fallen State of a helliſh Condition, which it had before a Saviour was given to it; and therefore, it is a Truth of the utmoſt Certainty, that Adam, by his Fall, died to the Divine Life, and that by this Death, his Soul became of the ſame Nature and Condition with the fallen Angels; and that therefore that new Birth or Regeneration, which he is to obtain by his Redeemer Jeſus Chriſt, is nothing elſe but the bringing back his Soul into the Kingdom of Heaven, by a Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God brought forth in it, that ſo the Life of the tri-une God may be in him again, as it was at his Creation, when his Soul was firſt breathed forth from the tri-une God. Is there any Thing more great, more glorious, or more conſiſtent than theſe Truths? Or is there any Poſſibility of denying any Part of them, without giving up the whole? Or is there any Reaſon, why a Chriſtian ſhould be loth to believe this, and this alone, to be the true State of that Regeneration which is so absolutely required by the Gospel? Is it an unreasonable or uncomfortable Thing to be told, that our Regeneration is a true and real Regaining that heavenly, divine, immortal Life which at first came forth from God, and which alone can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven?

Say that Adam did not die a real Death at his Transgression, that he did not lose a divine, immortal Life, Light and Spirit, that he did not then first become a mere earthly, mortal, Diabolical Animal in the true and proper Sense of the Words, but that these Things could only be affirmed of him in a figurative Form of Speech; say this, and then tell me what Reality you have left in any Article of our Salvation?

But if all these Things must be said of fallen Man according to the strictest Truth of the Expression, then the Gospel Regeneration, by a Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God, arising a second Time in the Soul of Man, must mean such a real Birth of a new, heavenly Life, as the proper Sense of the Words denote.

30. But to return now to my Argumentation with the Deist.

I have

I have plainly ſhewn you, that there is, and can be but one kind of Death through all Nature, whether temporal or eternal; and this I have done, by ſhewing that Eternal Death in an Angel, is the ſame Thing, and has the ſame Nature, as the hard Death that is in a ſenſeleſs Flint. But if it be a certain Truth, that Death has but one Way of entring into, or poſſeſſing any Being from the higheſt of ſpiritual to the loweſt of material Creatures, then, tho' nothing elſe could be offered, it muſt be an infallible Conſequence, that Life has but one Way of being kindled throughout all Nature, and that therefore there can be but one true Religion, and that only can be it, which hath the one only way of kindling the heavenly Life in the Soul.

Now, look where you will, the Birth or kindling of Life through all Nature ſhews you, that the Way of Goſpel Regeneration, or Raiſing the Divine Life again in the fallen Soul, is that one and the ſame Way, by which every kind of Life is, and muſt be raiſed, wherever it is found. The Goſpel ſaith, unleſs the fallen Soul be born again from above, be born again of the Word, or Son, and the Spirit of God, it cannot ſee, or enter into the Kingdom of Heaven: Now here it ſays a Truth, as much confirm'd and ratify'd by all Nature, as when it is ſaid, except a Creature hath the Light and Spirit of this World born in it, it cannot become a living Animal of this World: Or, except a Seed have the Light and Spirit of this World incorporated in it, it cannot become a Vegetable of this World, either as Plant, Fruit, or Flower. Aſk now wherein lies the abſolute Impoſſibility, that the fallen Soul ſhould be raiſed to its Divine Life, without a Birth of the Son and Holy Spirit of God in it, and the true Ground of this Impoſſibility is only this, becauſe a Seed ſhut up in its own cold hardneſs, cannot poſſibly be raiſed into its higheſt Vegetable Life, but by a Birth of the Light and Spirit of this World riſing up in it.

On the other hand, aſk why a Seed cannot poſſibly become a Vegetable Life, till the Light and Spirit of this World has been incorporated, or generated in it; and the only true Ground of it is, becauſe a fallen Soul can only be raiſed to a Divine Life, or become a Plant of the Kingdom of Heaven, by receiving the Birth of the Light and Spirit of God into it. For the true Reaſon, why Life is in ſuch a Form, and riſes in ſuch a Manner in the loweſt Creature living, is becauſe it does, and muſt ariſe

in the ſame manner, and ſtand in the ſame Form in the higheſt of Living Creatures: For Nature does, and muſt always act and generate in one and the ſame unchangeable Manner, becauſe it is nothing elſe but the Manifeſtation of one unchangeable God.

It is one and the ſame Operation of Light and Spirit, that turns Fire into every Degree and kind of Life that can be found either in temporal or eternal Nature: It is one and the ſame Operation of Light and Spirit, that upon one State of Fire, raiſes only a vegetable Life, upon another State of Fire, raiſes an animal Life, upon another State of Fire, raiſes an intellectual and angelical Life.

There is no State or Form of Death in any Creature, but where ſome kind of Fire is ſhut up from Light and Spirit, nor is there any kind of Life but what is kindled by the ſame Operation of Light and Spirit upon ſome ſort of Fire.

A Fruit muſt firſt ſtand in a poiſonous, ſour, aſtringent, bitter, and fiery Agitation of all its Parts, before the Light and Spirit of this World can be generated in it. And thus Light and Spirit operate upon one ſort of Fire in the Production of a vegetable Life.

An Animal must be conceived in the same manner, it must begin in the same Poison, and when Nature is in its fiery Strife, the Light and Spirit of this World kindles up the true animal Life.

Thus also there is but one kind, or State of Death that can fall upon any Creature, which is nothing else, but its losing the Birth of Light and Spirit in itself, by which it becomes an imprison'd, dark Fire. In an Animal, Vegetable, or mere Matter, it is a senseless State of imprison'd Fire; in an Angel, or intellectual Being, as the Soul of Man, it is a self-tormenting, self-generating, fiery Worm, that cannot lose its Sensibility, but is in a State of Eternal Death, because it is separated eternally from that Light and Spirit, which alone can raise a divine Life in any intellectual Creature.

And thus it is plain, beyond all Possibility of Doubt, that there is neither Life nor Death to be found in any Part of the Creation but what sets its infallible Seal to this Gospel Truth, that fallen Man cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven any other Way, than by being born again of the Son and Holy Spirit of God.

31. And here, my Friend, you may with Certainty see what a poor, groundless Fiction, your Religion of Human Reaſon is; its Inſignificancy and Emptineſs is ſhewn you by every Thing you can look upon.

Salvation is a Birth of Life, but Reaſon can no more bring forth this Birth, than it can kindle Life in a Plant, or Animal: You might as well write the Word, Flame, upon the out-ſide of a Flint, and then expect that its impriſon'd Fire ſhould be kindled by it, as to imagine, that any Images, or Ideal Speculations of Reaſon painted in your Brain, ſhould raiſe your Soul out of its State of Death, and kindle the Divine Life in it. No: Wou'd you have Fire from a Flint; its Houſe of Death muſt be ſhaken, and its Chains of Darkneſs broken off by the Strokes of a Steel upon it. This muſt of all Neceſſity be done to your Soul, its impriſon'd Fire muſt be awakened by the ſharp Strokes of Steel, or no true Light of Life can ariſe in it: All Nature and Creature tells you, that the Heavenly Life muſt begin in you from the ſame Cauſes, and the ſame Operation as every earthly Life, whether vegetable, or animal, does in this World *.

Now, look where you will, all Life muſt be generated in this Manner: Firſt, an Attraction, or an aſtringing Deſire, muſt work itſelf into an anguiſhing Agitation, or painful Strife;

Strife; this Attraction become reſtleſs, and highly agitated, is that firſt Poiſon, or Strife of the Properties of Nature, which is and muſt be the Beginning of every Vegetable or Animal Life; it is by this Strife, or inward Agitation, that it reaches and gets a Birth of the Light and Spirit of this World into it, and ſo becomes a Living Member, either of the animal or vegetable World.

Now, this muſt be your Proceſs, a Deſire brought into an anguiſhing State; or the bitter Sorrows and fiery Agitations of Repentance, muſt be the Beginning of a Divine Life in your Soul; 'tis by this awakened Fire, or inward Agitation, that it becomes capable of being regenerated, or turned into an heavenly Life, by the Light and Holy Spirit of God.

Nothing is, or can poſſibly be Salvation, but this regenerated Life of the Soul: How vain and abſurd would it be, to talk of a Creature's being made a Member of a vegetable or animal Kingdom, through an outward Grace or Favour? or by any outward Thing of any kind? For does not Senſe, Reaſon, and all Nature force you to confeſs, that it is abſolutely impoſſible for any Thing to become a Living Member of the animal or vegetable Kingdom, but by having the animal or vegetable Life raiſed or brought forth in it? Therefore, does not Senſe and Reaſon, and all Nature join with the Goſpel in affirming, that no Man can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, till the Heavenly Life, or that which is the Life in Heaven, be born in him?

The Goſpel ſays to the fallen, earthly Man, that he muſt be born again from above, before he can ſee, enter into, or become a Living Member of the Kingdom that is above.

Now, he that underſtands this to be a figurative Saying, that requires no real Birth of a real Life that is only above, but that an earthly Man may enter into the Life of Heaven, by only carrying this figurative Saying along with him, is as abſurd, as ignorant, and offends as much againſt Senſe, Reaſon, and all Nature, as he who holds, that it is a figurative Expreſſion, when we ſay that nothing can enter into the vegetable Kingdom, till it has the vegetable Life in it, or be a Member of the Animal Kingdom, till it hath the Animal Life born in it *.

And if ſome Learned Men will ſay, that it is Religious Enthuſiaſm to place our Salvation, or Capacity for the Kingdom of Heaven in the inward Life or Birth of Heaven derived into our Souls, they are only as learned as thoſe who who ſhould call it Philoſophical Enthuſiaſm to place the true Nature of a Vegetable, or Animal, in its getting the inward, real Birth of a Vegetable and Animal Life. But to return to the Deiſt.

You act as if God was a Being that had an arbitrary, diſcretionary Will, or Wiſdom, like that of a great Prince over his Subjects, who will reward Mankind according as their Services appeared to him. And ſo you fancy, that your Religion of Reaſon may appear as valuable as a Religion that conſiſts of Forms, and Modes, Ordinances, and Doctrines of Revelation; but your Idea of the laſt Judgment is a Fiction of Reaſon that knows nothing rightly of God. God's laſt rewarding, is only his laſt ſeparating every Thing into its own Eternal Place; it is only putting an end to all temporary Nature, to the Mixture of Good and Evil that is in Time, and leaving every Thing to be That in Eternity, which it has made itſelf to be in Time. Thus it is that our Works follow us, and thus God rewards every Man according to his Deeds *.

During the Time of this World, God may be conſidered as the good Huſbandman; he ſows the Seed, the End of the World is the Harveſt, the Angels are the Reapers; if you are Wheat, you are to be gathered into the Barn, if you are Tares, it ſignifies nothing, whence, or how, or by what Means you are become ſo; Tares are to be rejected, becauſe they are Tares, and Wheat to be gathered by the Angels, becauſe it is Wheat: This is the Mercy, and Goodneſs, and Diſcretionary Juſtice of God that you are to expect at the laſt Day. If you are not Wheat, that is, if the heavenly Life, or the Kingdom of God, is not grown up in you, it ſignifies nothing what you have choſen in the ſtead of it, or why you have choſen it, you are not That, which alone can help you to a Place in the Divine Granary.

God wants no Services of Men to reward, he only wants to have ſuch a Life quickened and raiſed up in you, as may make it poſſible for you to enter into, and live in Heaven.

He has created you out of his own Eternal Nature, and therefore you muſt have either an Eternal Life, or Eternal Death according to it. If eternal Nature ſtandeth in you, as it doth without you, then you are born again to the Kingdom of Heaven; but if Nature works contrary in you to what it does in Heaven, then you are in Eternal Death: And here lies the Neceſſity of our being born again of the Word and Spirit of God, in order to the Kingdom of Heaven. It is becauſe we are created out of that eternal Nature which is the Kingdom of Heaven; 'tis becauſe we are fallen out of it into a Life of temporal Nature, and therefore muſt have the Life of eternal Nature re-kindled in us, before we can poſſibly enter into the Kingdom of Heaven: Therefore, look where you will, or at what you will, there is only one Thing to be done, we want Nothing elſe, but to have the Light World, or the Life of Eternal Nature kindled again in our Souls, that Life, and Light, and Spirit may be That in our Souls, which they are in Eternal Nature, out of which our Souls were created; that ſo we may be heavenly Plants growing up to the Kingdom of Heaven *.

You deceive yourſelf with fancy'd Notions of the Goodneſs of God; you imagine, that ſo perfect a Being cannot damn you for ſo ſmall a Matter, as chuſing a Religion according to your own Notions, or for not joining yourſelf with this, or that Religious Society.

But all this is great Ignorance of God, and Nature, and Religion. God has appointed a Religion, by which Salvation is to be had according to the Poſſibility of Nature, where no Creature will be ſav'd, or loſt, but as it works with, or contrary to Nature. For as the God of Nature cannot himſelf act contrary to Nature, becauſe Nature is the Manifeſtation of himſelf, ſo every Creature having its Life in, and from Nature, can have only ſuch a Life, or ſuch a Death as is according to the Poſſibility of Nature: And therefore, no Creature will be ſav'd, by an arbitrary Goodneſs of God, but becauſe of its Conformity to Nature, nor any Creature loſt by a Want of Compaſſion in God, but becauſe of its Salvation being impoſſible, according to the whole State of Nature.

It is not for Notional, or Speculative Miſtakes, that Man will be rejected by God at the laſt Day, or for any Crimes that God could over-look, if he was ſo pleaſed; but becauſe Man has continued in his unregenerate State, and has reſiſted and ſuppreſſed that Birth of Life, by which alone he could become a Member of the Kingdom of Heaven. The Goodneſs and Love of God have no Limits or Bounds, but ſuch as his Omnipotence hath: And every Thing that hath a Poſſibility of partaking of the Kingdom of Heaven, will infallibly find a Place in it.

God comes not to Judgment to diſplay any Wrath of his own, or to inflict any Puniſhment as from Himſelf upon Man: He only comes to declare, that all temporary Nature is at an End, and that therefore, all Things must be, and stand in their own Places in Eternal Nature: His Sentence of Condemnation, is only a leaving them that are lost, in such a Misery of their own Nature, as has finally rejected all that was possible to relieve it.

You fancy that God will not reject you at the last Day, for having not received this, or that Mode, or Kind of Religion: But here all is Mistake again. You might as well imagine, that no particular kind of Element was necessary to extinguish Fire, or that Water can supply the Place of Air in kindling it, as suppose that no particular kind of Religion is absolutely necessary to raise up such a Divine Life in the Soul as can only be its Salvation; for Nature is the Ground of all Creatures, it is God's Manifestation of himself, it is his Instrument in, and by which he acts in the Production and Government of every Life; and therefore a Life that is to belong to this World, must be raised according to temporal Nature, and a Life that is to live in the next World, must be raised according to Eternal Nature.

Therefore, all the particular Doctrines, Institutions, Mysteries, and Ordinances of a revealed Religion that comes from the God of Nature, must have their Reason, Foundation, and and Neceſſity in Nature; and then your renouncing ſuch a revealed Religion, is renouncing all that the God of Nature can do to ſave you.

When I ſpeak of Nature as the true Ground and Foundation of Religion, I mean nothing like that which you call the Religion of Human Reaſon, or Nature; for I ſpeak here of Eternal Nature, which is the Nature of the Kingdom of Heaven, or that Eternal State, where all redeemed Souls muſt have their Eternal Life, and live in Eternal Nature by a Life deriv'd from it, as Men and Animals live in temporal Nature, by a Life deriv'd from it; for, ſeeing Man ſtands with his Soul in Eternal Nature, as certainly as he lives outwardly in temporal Nature, and ſeeing Man can have nothing in this World, neither Happineſs, nor Miſery from it, but what is according to temporal Nature, ſo he can with his Soul, attain nothing, nor ſuffer nothing in the next World, but what is according to the Eternal Nature of that World; and therefore, it is an infallible Truth, that that particular Religion can alone do us any Good, or help us to the Happineſs of the next World, which works with, and according to Eternal Nature, and is able to generate that Eternal Life in us. But your Notion of a Goodneſs of God that may be expected

at the laſt Day, is as groundleſs, as if you imagined, that God would then ſtand over his Creatures in a compaſſionate kind of weighing or conſidering who ſhould be ſaved, and who damn'd, becauſe a good-natur'd Prince might do ſo towards Variety of Offenders.

But hear how the God of Nature himſelf ſpeaks of this Matter: Behold, I have ſet before thee, Life and Death, Fire and Water, — chuſe whether thou wilt. Here lies the Whole of the Divine Mercy; 'tis all on this ſide the Day of Judgment: Till the End of Time, God is compaſſionate and long-ſuffering, and continues to every Creature a Power of chuſing Life or Death, Water or Fire; but when the End of Time is come, there is an End of Choice, and the laſt Judgment is only a putting every one into the full and ſole Poſſeſſion of That which he has choſen.

But your Notion of a Goodneſs of God at the laſt Day ſuppoſes, that if a Man has erroneouſly choſen Death inſtead of Life, Fire inſtead of Water, that God will not ſuffer ſuch a Creature to be deprived of Salvation through a miſtaken Choice; but that in ſuch a Creature, he will make Death to be Life, and Fire to be Water. But you might as well expect, that God ſhould make a Thing to be, and not to be at the ſame Time; for this is as poſſible as to make Hell to be Heaven, or Death to be Life: For Darkneſs can no more be Light, Death can no more be Life, Fire can no more be Water in any Being through a Compaſſion of God towards it, than a Circle could be a Square, a Falſhood a Truth, or two to be more than three, by God's looking upon them.

32. Our Salvation is an Entrance into the Kingdom of Heaven; now, the Life, Light and Spirit of Heaven muſt as neceſſarily be in a Creature before it can live in Heaven, as the Life, Light and Spirit of this World muſt be in a Creature before it can live in this World: Therefore the one only Religion that can ſave any one Son of fallen Adam, muſt be that which can raiſe or generate the Life, Light and Spirit of Heaven in his Soul, that when the Light and Spirit of this World leaves him, he may not find himſelf in eternal Death and Darkneſs.

Now, if this Light and Spirit of Heaven is generated in your Soul as it is generated in Heaven, if it ariſes up in your Nature within you, as it does in eternal Nature without you, (which is the Chriſtian new Birth, or Regeneration) then you are become capable of the Kingdom of Heaven, and nothing can keep keep you out of it; but if you die without this Birth of the Eternal Light and Spirit of God, then your Soul ſtands in the ſame Diſtance from, and Contrariety to the Kingdom of Heaven, as Hell does: If you die in this unregenerate State, it ſignifies nothing how you have liv'd, or what Religion you have own'd, all is left undone that was to have ſaved you: It matters not what Form of Life you have appeared in, what a Number of decent, engaging or glorious Exploits you have done either as a Scholar, a Stateſman, or a Philoſopher; if they have proceeded only from the Light and Spirit of this World, they muſt die with it, and leave your Soul in that Eternal Darkneſs, which it muſt have, ſo long as the Light and Spirit of Eternity is not generated in it.

And this is the true Ground and Reaſon, why an outward Morality, a Decency and Beauty of Life and Conduct with reſpect to this World, ariſing only from a Worldly Spirit, has nothing of Salvation in it: He that has his Virtue only from this World, is only a Trader of this World, and can only have a Worldly Benefit from it. For it is an undoubted Truth, that every Thing is neceſſarily bounded by, or kept within the Sphere of its own Activity; and therefore, to expect Heavenly Effects from a Worldly a Worldly Spirit, is Nonſenſe: As Water cannot riſe higher in its Streams, than the Spring from whence it cometh, ſo no Actions can aſcend farther in their Efficacy, or riſe higher in their Value, than the Spirit from whence they proceed. The Spirit that comes from Heaven is always in Heaven, and whatſoever it does, tends to, and reaches Heaven: The Spirit that ariſes from this World, is always in it; it is as worldly when it gives Alms, or prays in the Church, as when it makes Bargains in the Market. When therefore the Goſpel ſaith, He that gives Alms to be ſeen of Men, hath his Reward; it is grounded on this general Truth, That every Thing, every Shape, or kind or degree of Virtue that ariſes from the Spirit of this World, has nothing to expect but That which it can receive from this World: For every Action muſt have its Nature, and Efficacy according to the Spirit from whence it proceeds. He that loves to ſee a Crucifix, a worthleſs Image, ſolely from this Principle, becauſe from his Heart he embraces Chriſt as his ſuffering Lord and Pattern, does an Action poor, and needleſs in itſelf, which yet by the Spirit from whence it proceeds, reaches Heaven, and helps to kindle the heavenly Life in the Soul. On the other hand, he that from a selfish Heart, a Worldly Spirit, a Love of Esteem, distinguishes himself by the most rational Virtues of an exemplary Life, has only a Piety that may be reckon'd amongst the perishable Things of this World.

33. You (the Deist) think it a Partiality unworthy of God, when you hear that the Salvation of Mankind is attributed and appropriated to Faith and Prayer in the Name of Jesus Christ. It must be answered, First, That there is no Partiality of any kind in God; every Thing is accepted by him according to its own Nature, and receives all the Good from him that it can possibly receive: Secondly, That a Morality of Life, not arising from the Power and Spirit of Jesus Christ, but brought forth by the Spirit of this World, is the same Thing, has the same Nature and Efficacy in a Heathen, as a Christian, does only the same worldly Good to the one, as it does to the other; therefore, there is not the least Partiality in God, with respect to the Moral Works of Mankind, considered as arising from, and directed by the Spirit of this World.

Now, were these the only Works that Man could do, could he only act from the Spirit of this World, no Flesh could be sav'd, that is, no earthly Creature, such as Man is, could possibly begin to be of a heavenly Nature, or have a heavenly Life brought forth in him; for it is only a Spirit from Heaven derived into the fallen Nature, that makes any Beginning of a heavenly Life in it, that can lay the Possibility of its having the least Ability, Tendency, and Disposition towards the Kingdom of Heaven. This Spirit derived from Heaven, is the Birth of the Son of God, given to the Soul as its Saviour, Regenerator, or Beginner of its Return to Heaven; it is that Word of Life, or Bruiser of the Serpent, that was in-spoken into the first fallen Father of Men; 'tis this alone that gives to all the Race of Adam their Capacity for Salvation, their Power of being again Sons of God; and therefore, Faith and Prayer in the Name of Jesus Christ, or Works done in the Spirit and Power of Jesus Christ can alone save the Soul, because the Soul can have no Relation to Heaven, no Communion with it, no Beginning or Power of Growth in the heavenly Life, but solely by the Nature and Name of Jesus Christ derived into it. God's Redemption of Mankind is as universal as the Fall: It was the one Father of all Men that fell, therefore, all his Children were born into his fallen State: It was the one Father of all Men that was redeemed by the in-spoken Word of Life into him; therefore, therefore, all his Children are born into his State of Redemption, and have as certainly the ſame Bruiſer of the Serpent in the Birth of their Life from him, as they have from him a Serpentine Nature that is to be bruiſed.

Hence it was, that this Bruiſer of the Serpent, when born of a Virgin, and come to die for the World, ſaith of himſelf, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no Man cometh unto the Father but by me. Hence alſo the Apoſtle ſaith, There is none other Name under Heaven given among Men, whereby we muſt be ſaved,—becauſe he is that ſame ſaving Name, or Power of Salvation which from the Beginning was given to Adam, as an in-ſpoken Word of Life, or Bruiſer of the Serpent: And therefore, as ſure as Adam had any Power of Salvation derived into him from Jeſus Chriſt, ſo ſure was it, that the Apoſtle muſt tell both Jews and Heathens, that there was no Salvation in any other.

Therefore, tho' Jeſus Chriſt is the one only Saviour of all that can any where, or at any Time be ſaved, yet there is no Partiality in God, becauſe, this ſame Jeſus Chriſt, who came in Human Fleſh to the Jews in a certain Age, was that ſame Saviour who was given to Adam, when all Mankind were in his Loins; and who, through all Ages, and in all Countries, from the first Patriarchs to the End of the World, is the common Saviour, as he is the common Light that lighteth every Man that cometh into the World, and that Principle of Life both in Jews and Heathens, by which they had any Relation to God, or any Power, or Right, or Ability to call him Father. When therefore you look upon the Gospel as narrowing the Way of Salvation, or limiting it to those, who only know and believe in Jesus Christ, since his Appearance in the Flesh, you mistake the whole Nature of the Christian Redemption.

And when you reject this Saviour that then appeared, and died as a Sacrifice upon the Cross, you don't renounce a particular kind of Religion, that was given only at a certain Time to one Part of the World, but you renounce the one Source and Fountain of all the Grace and Mercy that God can bestow upon Mankind, you renounce your Share of that first Covenant which God made with all Men in Adam, you go back into his first fallen State, and so put yourself into that Condition of Eternal Death, from which there is no Possibility of Deliverance, but by that one Saviour whom you have renounced.

And

And now, my dear Friend, beware of Prejudice, or Hardneſs of Heart: One careleſs, or one relenting Thought upon all that is here laid before you, may either quite ſhut out, or quite open an Entrance for true Conviction. I have ſhewn you what is meant by Chriſtian Redemption, and the abſolute Neceſſity of a new and heavenly Birth, in order to obtain your Share of a heavenly Life in the next World: I have confirm'd the Truths of the Goſpel, by Proofs taken from what is undeniable in Nature: And I readily grant you that nothing can be true in revealed Religion, but what has its Foundation in Nature; becauſe a Religion coming from the God of Nature, can have no other End but to reform, and ſet right the Failings, Tranſgreſſions, and Violations of Nature. When the Goſpel ſaith, that Man fallen from the State of his Creation, and become an earthly Animal of this temporal World, muſt be born again of the Son and Holy Spirit of God, in order to be a heavenly Creature; 'tis becauſe all Nature ſaith, that an immortal, eternal Soul, muſt have an immortal, eternal Light and Spirit, to make it live in Eternal Nature, as every Animal muſt have a temporal Light and Spirit, in order to live in temporary Nature Muſt you not therefore either deny the Im- mortality of the Soul, or acknowledge the Neceſſity of its having an Eternal Light and Spirit? When the Goſpel ſaith, that nothing can kindle or generate the heavenly Life, but the Operation of the Light and Spirit of Heaven, it is becauſe all Nature ſaith, that no temporal Life can be raiſed but in the ſame manner in temporary Nature. Muſt you not therefore be forced to confeſs, that Nature and the Goſpel both preach the ſame Truths.

Light and Spirit muſt be where-ever there are living Beings: And there muſt be the ſame Difference betwixt the Light and Spirit of different Worlds, as there is betwixt the Worlds themſelves. Hell muſt have its Light, or it could have no living Inhabitants, but its Light is not ſo refreſhing, not ſo gentle, not ſo delightful, not ſo comfortable as flaſhing Points of Fire in the thickeſt Darkneſs of Night; and therefore their Light is called an Eternal Darkneſs, becauſe it can never diſperſe, but only horribly diſcover Darkneſs: Hell alſo muſt have its Spirit; but it is only an inceſſant Senſibility of wrathful Agitations, of which the Thunder and Rage of a Tempeſt is but a low, ſhadowy Reſemblance, as being only a little outward Eruption of That Wrath, which is the inward, reſtleſs Eſſence of the Spirit of

Hell;

Hell; and therefore that Life, tho' it be a living Spirit, is juſtly called an Eternal Death.

The Light and Spirit of God admit of no Delineation or Compariſon, they are only ſo far known to any one, as they are brought into the Soul by a Birth of themſelves in it.

Now conſider, I pray you: The Light and Spirit of this World can no more be the Light and Spirit of immortal Souls, than Graſs and Hay can be the Food of Angels; but is as different from the Light and Spirit of Heaven, as an Angel is different from a Beaſt of the Field. When therefore the Soul of a Man departs from his Body, and is eternally cut off from all temporal Light and Spirit, what is it that can keep ſuch a Soul from falling into Eternal Darkneſs, unleſs it have in itſelf, that Light and Spirit, which is of the ſame Nature with the Light and Spirit of Eternity, ſo that it may be in the Light of Heaven or Eternal Nature, as it was in the Light of this World in temporary Nature.

Light and Spirit there muſt be in every Thing that lives, but the Death of the Body takes away the Light and Spirit of this World; if therefore the Light and Spirit of Heaven be not born in the Soul when it loſes the Body, it can only have that Light and Spirit, which is the very Death and Darkneſs of Hell.

When Man loſt the Light and Spirit of his Creation, he loſt it by turning the Will and Deſire of his Soul into an Earthly Life; this was his Deſire of knowing Good and Evil in this World. His Fall therefore conſiſted in this, his Soul loſt its firſt innate, in-breath'd Light and Spirit of Heaven, and inſtead of it, had only the Light and Spirit of Temporary Nature, to keep up for a Time ſuch a Life in him from this World, as the proper Creatures of this World have: And this is the Reaſon, why Man, the nobleſt Creature that is in this World, has yet various Circumſtances of Neceſſity, Poverty, Diſtreſs and Shame, that are not common to other Animals of this World. 'Tis becauſe the Creatures of this Life are here at home, are the proper Inhabitants of this World, and therefore that Womb out of which they are born, has provided them with all that they want; but Man being only fallen into it, and as a Tranſgreſſor, muſt in many Reſpects find himſelf in ſuch Wants as other Creatures have not. Tranſitory Time has brought them forth, and therefore they can have no Pain, nor Concern, nor Danger in paſſing away; becauſe it is the very Form of their Nature, to begin, and to have an End: And therefore the

God

God of Nature has no outward Laws, or Directions for the Creatures of this World.

But the Soul of Man being not born of the Light and Spirit of this tranſitory World, but only ſtanding a while as a Stranger upon Earth, and being under a Neceſſity of having either the Nature of an Angel, or a Devil, when it leaves this World, is met by the Mercy and Goodneſs of the God of Nature, is inwardly and outwardly called, warned, directed, and aſſiſted how to regain that Light and Spirit of Heaven which it loſt, when it fell under the temporary Light and Spirit of this World. And this is the whole Ground and End of revealed Religion, viz. to kindle ſuch a Beginning or Birth of the Divine Light and Spirit in the Soul, that when Man muſt take an Eternal Leave of the Light and Spirit of this World, he may not be in a State of Eternal Death and Darkneſs.

Now, ſeeing the Light and Spirit of Heaven or Eternal Nature, is as different from the Light and Spirit of this World, as an Angel is from an Animal of the Field, if you have liv'd here only to the Spirit and Temper of this World, govern'd by its Goods and Evils, and only wiſe according to its Wiſdom, you muſt die as deſtitute of the Light and Spirit of Heaven, as the Beasts that perish. You have now an Aversion and Dislike, or at least, a Disbelief of the Doctrines of Christian Regeneration, you struggle against this Kind of Redemption, you would have no Salvation from the Light and Spirit of Eternity regenerated in your Soul; where then must you be, when the Light and Spirit of this World leaves you?

Do you think that the Light and Spirit of God will then seize upon you, shine up in you by an outward Force, tho' they never could be born in you? Or do you think, that the Light and Spirit of God can now be generating themselves in you, and ready to appear, as soon as you have ended a Life, that has continually resisted them, and would have no new Birth from them? Or that God, by a compassionate Goodness, will not suffer you to be in that Condition, into which your own Will has brought you? No, my Friend, the Will that is in you, must do That for you, which the Will that was in Angels did for those that stood, and for those that fell.

God's Goodness or Compassion is always in the same infinite State, always flowing forth, in and through all Nature in the same infinite Manner, and nothing wants it, but that which cannot receive it: Whilst the Angels stood, they they ſtood incompaſſed with the infinite Source of all Goodneſs and Compaſſion, God was communicated to them in as high a Degree as their Nature could receive; and they fell, not becauſe he ceaſed to be an infinite, open Fountain of all Good to them, but becauſe they had a Will which muſt direct itſelf.

For the Will, at its firſt ariſing in the Creature, can be ſubject to no outward Power, becauſe it has no outward Maker; as it ſtands in a creaturely Form, God is its true Creator; but as a Will, it has no outward Maker, but is a Ray, or Spark, derived from the Unbeginning Will of the Creator, and is of the ſame Nature in the Creature, as it was in the Creator, ſelf-exiſtent, ſelf-generating, ſelf-moving, and uncontroulable from without; and there could not poſſibly be a free Will in the Creature, but by its being directly deriv'd, or propagated from the ſame Will in the Creator, for Nothing can be free now, but that which always was ſo.

But if the free Will of God, which is above and ſuperior to Nature, be communicated to the Creature, then the Creature's free Will muſt have the ſame Power over its one Nature, that the Will of God has over that Eternal Nature, which is his own Manifeſtation: And therefore, therefore, every free Creature must have, and find its own Nature in this, or that State, as a Birth from the free Working of its own Will. And here appears the true Reason, why no Creatures of this World can commit Sin; 'tis because they have no Will that is superior to Nature: Their Will in every one of them, is only the Will of Nature; and therefore let them do what they will, they are always doing that which is natural, and consequently, not sinful. But the Will of Angels and Men being an Offspring, or Ray, derived from the Will of God, which is superior to Nature, stands chargeable with the State and Condition of their Nature; and therefore it is, that the Nature of the Devil, and the Nature of fallen Man is imputed to both of them, as their Sin, which could not be, but because their Will was uncontroulable, and gave Birth and Being to that State and Condition of Nature, which is called, and is their Sin.

Therefore, O Man! look well to thyself, and see what Birth thou art bringing forth, what Nature is growing up in Thee, and be assured, that stand thou must, in that State in Nature, which the working of thy own Will has brought forth in Thee, whether it be happy or miserable. Expect no Arbitrary Goodness of God towards Thee, when thou leaveſt this World; for that muſt grow for ever which hath grown here. God hath created thee in Nature, his Mercy hath ſhewn Thee all the Laws and Neceſſities of Nature, and how Thou may'ſt riſe from Thy Corruption, according to the Poſſibilities of Nature, and He can only ſave Thee by thy conforming to the Demands of Nature: The Greatneſs of the Divine Mercy and Favour towards all Men appears in this, that when all Nature was fail'd, and Mankind could from Nature have Nothing but Eternal Death, that God brought ſuch a Second Adam into the World, as being God and Man, could make Nature begin its Work again, where it fail'd in the firſt Adam.

The free Grace and Mercy by which we are ſaid in the Scripture to be ſav'd, is not an arbitrary Good Will in God, which ſaves whom he pleaſes; as a Prince may forgive ſome, and not forgive others, merely through his own Sovereign Grace and Favour: Nothing of this Kind hath any Place in God, or in the Myſtery of our Redemption; but the Mercy and Grace, by which we are ſav'd, is therefore free, becauſe God hath freely, and from his own Goodneſs, put us into a State and Poſſibility of Salvation, by freely giving us Jeſus Chriſt, Chriſt, (the Divine and Human Nature united in one Perſon) as the only Means of regenerating that firſt Divine and Human Life, which the whole Race of Mankind had loſt. In this Senſe alone it is, that all our Salvation is wholly owing to the free Grace of God, that is, our State, and Poſſibility, and Means of attaining Salvation is wholly owing to his free Grace in giving us Jeſus Chriſt; but our Salvation, conſidered as a finiſhed Thing, is not, cannot be found by any Act of God's free Grace towards us, but becauſe all That is done, alter'd, remov'd, ſuppreſſed, quickened, and recovered by us in the State of our Nature, which the free Grace of God had furniſhed us with the Poſſibility and Means of doing. If Nature and Creature had no Share in working out our Salvation; if it was all free Grace, effected againſt, and without the Powers of Nature, how comes it, that the fallen Angels are not to be redeemed as well as Man? Muſt we ſay that God is leſs good to them than he is to us? Or if they are not redeemed, can there be any other Reaſon for it, but becauſe it is an Impoſſibility in Nature? Muſt not an infinite Good do all the Good that is wanted, and is poſſible to be done? If free Grace can do what it pleaſes, if it wants no Concurrence of Nature and Creature, how can any Being, whether Man or Angel, be eternally miſerable, but through an Eternal Defect in the Goodneſs of God towards it? Shall we call that infinite Goodneſs, which ſets Bounds and Limits to itſelf, and which could do more Good, but will not?

The Truth of the Matter is this, God is as infinite and boundleſs in Love and Goodneſs, as he is in Power, but his Omnipotence can only do that which is poſſible, and nothing is poſſible but that which hath its Poſſibility in Nature; becauſe Nature is God's firſt Power, his great, univerſal Manifeſtation of his Deity, in and through, and by which all his infinite Attributes break forth, and diſplay themſelves: So that to expect, that God ſhould do any Thing that is above, or contrary to this Nature, is as abſurd as to expect that God ſhould act above, or contrary to himſelf: As God can only make a Creature to be in, and through, and by Nature; ſo the Reaſon why he cannot make a Creature to be, and not to be at the ſame Time, is only this, becauſe it is contrary to Nature. Let no Man therefore truſt to be ſav'd at the laſt Day, by any arbitrary Goodneſs, or free Grace of God; for Salvation is, and can be nothing elſe, but the having put off all that is damnable and helliſh in our Nature, which Salvation can be

be found by no Creature but by its own full conforming to, and concurring with thoſe Myſterious Means, which the free Grace of God hath afforded for the Recovery of our firſt, perfect, glorious State in Nature.

CHAP. II.

Of Eternal and Temporal Nature. How Nature is from God, and the Scene of his Action. How the Creatures are out of it. Temporal Nature created out of that which is eternal. The fallen Angels brought the first Disorders into Nature. This World created to repair those Disorders. Whence Good and Evil is in every Thing of this World. How Heaven and Hell make up the Whole of this World. How the Fire of this World differs from eternal Fire; and the Matter of this World from the Materiality of Heaven. Eternal Nature is the Kingdom of Heaven, the beatifick Manifestation of the tri-une God. God is mere Love and Goodness. How Wrath and Anger come to be ascrib'd to him. Of Fire in general. Of the Unbeginning Fire. Of the Spirituality of Fire. How Fire comes to be in material Things. Whence the Possibility of kindling Fire in the Things of this World. Every Man is, and must be the Kindler of his own Eternal Fire, &c.

1. WAS there no Nature, there could be no Creature, because the Life of every Creature is, and can be nothing else, but the Life of that Nature out of

of which it was created, and in which it has its Being. Eternal Beings muſt have their Qualities, Nature, Form and Manner of Exiſtence out of Eternal Nature, and temporal Beings out of temporary Nature: Was there no Eternity, there could be no Time, was there nothing infinite, there could be nothing finite; therefore we have here two great fundamental Truths that cannot be ſhaken; Firſt, That there is, and muſt be, an Eternal Nature; becauſe there is a Nature that is temporary, and that it muſt be that to Eternal Creatures, which temporal Nature is to temporal Creatures: Secondly, That every where, and in all Worlds, Nature muſt ſtand between God and the Creature, as the Foundation of all mutual Intercourſe; God can tranſact nothing with the Creature, nor the Creature have any Communion with God, but in, and by that Nature, in which it ſtands.

I hope no one will here aſk me for Scripture Proofs of this, or call theſe Truths Noſtrums, becauſe they are not to be found in the ſame Form of Expreſſion in ſome particular Text of Scripture. Where do the Holy Writings tell us, that a Thing cannot be, and not be at the ſame Time? Or that every Conſequence muſt ariſe from Premiſes? And yet the Scripture ture is continually ſuppoſing both theſe Truths, and there could be no Truth in the Scripture, or any where elſe, if theſe Things were not undeniable.

There is nothing ſaid of Man throughout all Scripture, but what ſuppoſes him to ſtand in Nature, under a neceſſity of chuſing ſomething that is natural, either Life or Death, Fire or Water. There is nothing ſaid of God with relation to Creatures, but what ſuppoſes him to be the God of Nature, manifeſting himſelf in and through Nature, calling, aſſiſting and directing every Thing to its higheſt natural State. Nature is the Scene of his Providence, and all the Variety of his governing Attributes diſplay themſelves by his various Operations in and through Nature: Therefore it is equally certain, that what God does to any Creature, muſt be done through the Medium of Nature, and alſo what the Creature does toward God, muſt be done in and through the Powers of that Nature in which it ſtands. No temporary Creature can turn to God, or reach after him, or have any Communion with him, but in, and according to that Relation which temporary Nature bears to God; nor can any Eternal Beings draw near to, or unite with God in any other manner, than that in which Eternal Nature is united with him. Would you know, why no Omnipotence of God can create Temporal Animals but out of temporary Nature, nor eternal Animals but out of Eternal Nature; it is becauſe no Omnipotence of God can produce a viſible Triangle, but out of, and by three viſible Lines; for, as Lines muſt be before there can be any lineal Figures, ſo Nature muſt be before there can be natural Creatures.

2. Every Thing that is in Being, is either God, or Nature, or Creature; and every Thing that is not God, is only a Manifeſtation of God; for as there is nothing, neither Nature, nor Creature, but what muſt have its Being in, and from God, ſo every Thing is, and muſt be according to its Nature, more or leſs a Manifeſtation of God. Every thing therefore, by its Form and Condition, ſpeaks ſo much of God, and God in every Thing, ſpeaks and manifeſts ſo much of himſelf. Temporary Nature is this beginning, created Syſtem of Sun, Stars, and Elements; 'tis temporary Nature, becauſe it begins and hath an End, and therefore is only a temporary Manifeſtation of God, or God manifeſted according to tranſitory Things.

3. Properly and ſtrictly ſpeaking, nothing can begin to be: The Beginning of every Thing

Thing is nothing more, than its beginning to be in a new State. Thus Time itſelf does not begin to be, but Duration, which always was, began to be meaſured by the Earth's turning round, or the riſing and ſetting of the Sun, and that is called the Beginning of Time, which is, properly ſpeaking, only the Beginning of the Meaſure of Duration: Thus it is with all temporal Nature, and all the Qualities and Powers of temporal Beings that live in it: No Quality or Power of Nature then began to be, but ſuch Qualities and Powers as had been from all Eternity, began then to be in a new State. Aſk what Time is, it is nothing elſe but ſomething of Eternal Duration become finite, meaſurable, and tranſitory? Aſk what Fire, Light, Darkneſs, Air, Water, and Earth are; they are, and can be nothing elſe, but ſome eternal Things become groſs, finite, meaſurable, diviſible, and tranſitory? For if there could be a temporal Fire that did not ſpring out of Eternal Fire, then there might be Time that did not come out of Eternity.

'Tis thus with every temporary Thing, and the Qualities of it; 'tis the Beginning of Nothing, but only of a new State of ſomething that exiſted before: Therefore all temporary Nature is a Product, Offspring, or Out-birth of Eternal Nature, and is nothing elſe but ſo much of Eternal Nature chang'd from its eternal to a temporal Condition. Fire did not begin to be, Darkneſs did not begin to be, Light did not begin to be, Water and Earth did not begin to be, when this temporary World firſt appeared, but all theſe Things came out of their Eternal State, into a lower, divided, compacted, created and tranſitory State. Hearing, Seeing, Taſting, Smelling, Feeling, did not then begin to be, when God firſt created the Creatures of this World, they only came to be Qualities and Powers of a lower, and more imperfect Order of Beings than they had been before.

Figures, and their Relations, did not then begin to be, when Material Circles and Squares, &c. were firſt made, but theſe Figures and Relations began then to appear in a lower State than they had done before: And ſo it muſt be ſaid of all temporal Nature, and every Thing in it. It is only ſomething of Eternal Nature ſeparated, changed, or created into a new, temporary State and Condition.

4. Now it may be aſk'd, why was Eternal Nature thus degraded, debaſed, and chang'd from its Eternal State of Perfection? Will any one ſay, that God of his own Will changed

Eternal

Eternal Nature, which is the Glorious Manifeſtation of his Power and Godhead, the Seat of his holy Reſidence, his Majeſtick Kingdom of Heaven, into this poor, miſerable Mixture of Good and Evil, into this impure State of Diviſion, Groſſneſs, Death, and Darkneſs? No. It is the higheſt of all Abſurdities, to ſay ſo. Now, we ſufficiently know from Scripture, that a whole Hierarchy, or Hoſt of Angels, renounced their Heavenly Life, and thereby raiſed up a Kingdom that was not Heavenly. Could they not have inflam'd and diſordered outward Nature in which they liv'd, they could not have deſtroyed the Heavenly Nature in themſelves: For every Thing muſt be according to the State of that World in which it lives; and therefore, the State of outward Nature, and the State of inward Nature in the Angels muſt ſtand and fall together; and as ſure as a whole Kingdom of Angels loſt their heavenly Life, ſo ſure is it, that their whole Kingdom loſt its heavenly State and Condition: And therefore, it is an undeniable Truth, founded on Scripture Evidence, that ſome Part of Eternal Nature was changed from its firſt State of Glory and Perfection, before the Creation of Temporary Nature; therefore, in the Creation of this poor, groſs, diſorder'd, periſhable,

periſhable, material Word, one of theſe two Things was done, either God took the ſpoiled Part of Heaven or Eternal Nature, and created it into this Temporary State of Good and Evil; or he degraded, and brought down ſome Part of the Kingdom of Heaven from its Glory and Perfection, into this Mixture of Good and Evil, Order and Diſorder in which the World ſtands. He could not do this latter, without bringing Evil into Nature, as the Devil had done, and therefore we may be ſure he did not do it; but if he did the former, then the Creation of this lower World, was a glorious Act, and worthy of the infinite Goodneſs of God, it was putting an End to the Devil's working Evil in Nature, and it was putting the Evil that was brought into Nature, in a way of being finally overcome, and turn'd into Good again. Will any one now call theſe Things whimſical Speculations? Can any Thing be thought of more worthy of God, more conformable to Nature, or more conſonant to all revealed Religion? But perhaps you will ſay, how could the Angels ſpoil or deſtroy that glorious Kingdom of Eternal Nature in which they dwelt. It may be anſwered, how could it poſſibly be otherwiſe? How could they live in Eternal Nature, unleſs Nature without them, and Nature within them, mutually mix'd and qualified with each other? Would you have ſuch mighty Spirits, with their eternal Energies, have leſs Power in that Nature, or Kingdom in which they dwelt, than a kindled Piece of Coal hath in this World? For every Piece of Coal ſet on Fire, adds ſo much Heat to outward Nature, and ſo far alters and changes the State of it.

5. Now, let it be ſuppoſed, not only that a Piece of Coal, but that the Whole of every Thing in this World, that could either give or receive Fire was made to burn, what Effect would it have upon the whole Frame of Nature? Would not the whole State of Things, the Regions, Places, and Diviſions of the Elements, and all the Order of temporal Nature be quite deſtroyed?

When therefore every Angelical Life kindled itſelf in Wrath, and became thereby divided, darkned, and ſeparated from God, the ſame Kindling, Darkning, Dividing and Confuſion muſt be brought forth in their Natural Kingdom, becauſe they liv'd in Nature, and could have neither Love, nor Wrath, but ſuch as they could exert in and by the Powers of Nature.

Now, all Fire, where-ever it is, is either a Fire of Wrath, or a Fire of Love: Fire not overcome or governed by Light, is the Fire of Wrath, which only tears in Pieces, consumes and devours all that it can lay hold of, and it wills nothing else: But Light is the Fire of Love, it is meek, amiable, full of kind Embraces, lovingly spreading itself, and giving itself with all its Riches into every Thing that can receive it. These are the two Fires of Eternal Nature, which were but one in Heaven, and can be only one where-ever Heaven is; and it was the Separation of these two Fires that changed the Angels into Devils, and made their Kingdom a Beginning of Hell.

Now, either of these two Fires, where-ever it is kindled in animate or lifeless Things, communicates its own kind of Heat in some Degree to outward Nature, and so far alters and changes the State of it: The Wrath of a Man, and the Wrath of a Tempest do one and the same Thing to outward Nature, alter its State in the same Manner, and only differ in their Degree of doing it.

Fire kindled in a material Thing, can only communicate with the Materiality of Nature; but the Fire of a wrathfully inflam'd Man, being a Fire both of Body and Soul, communicates a twofold Heat, it stirs up the Fire of outward Nature, as Fire does in a Coal, and it ſtirs up the Wrath of Hell as the Devils do.

The Fire of Love kindled by the Light and Spirit of God in a truly regenerated Man, communicates a twofold Bleſſing, it outwardly joins with the meek Light of the Sun, and helps to overcome the Wrath of outward Nature; it inwardly co-operates with the Power of Good Angels, in reſiſting the Wrath and Darkneſs of Hell: And it would be no Folly to ſuppoſe, that if all human Breath was become a mere, unmix'd Wrath, that all the Fire in outward Nature would immediately break forth, and bring that Diſſolution upon outward Nature, which will ariſe from the laſt Fire. Therefore it is neceſſary, that a whole Kingdom of Angels ſhould kindle the ſame Wrath and Diſorder in outward Nature that was in themſelves; for being in eternal Nature, and communicating with it, as temporal Beings do in temporal Nature, what they did in themſelves, muſt be done in that Nature or Kingdom in which they liv'd, and mov'd, and had their Being.

What a powerful Fire there is in the Wrath of a Spirit, may be ſeen by the Effects of human Wrath; one ſudden Thought ſhall in a Moment diſcolour, poiſon, inflame, ſwell, diſtort diſtort and agitate the whole Body of a Man. Whence alſo is it, that a diſeaſed Body infects the Air, or that malignant Air infects a healthful Body? Is it not becauſe there is, and muſt be an inſeparable Qualifying, Mixing and Uniting betwixt Nature and thoſe Creatures that live in it? Now, all Diſeaſes and Malignities, whether in Nature or Creature, all proceed from the ſinful Motions of the Will and Deſires of the Creature. This is as certain, as that Death and all that leads to it, is the ſole Product of Sin; therefore it is a certain Truth, that all the Diſorder that ever was, or can be in Nature, ariſes from that Power which the Creature hath in and upon Nature; and therefore, as ſure as a whole Hoſt of Heavenly Beings raiſed up a fiery, wrathful, dark Nature in themſelves, ſo ſure is it, that the ſame wrathful, fiery, dark Diſorder was raiſed up in that Kingdom, or Nature, in which they had their Being.

6. Now the Scriptures no where ſay in expreſs Words, that the Place of this World was the Place of the Angels that fell, and that their fallen, ſpoil'd and diſordered Kingdom, was by the Power of God, chang'd or created into this temporary State of Things in which we live; this is not expreſsly ſaid, becauſe it is plainly plainly implied and fully ſignified to us by the moſt general Doctrines of Scripture; for if we know, both from Nature and Scripture, that this World is a Mixture of Good and Evil, don't we enough know, that it could only be created out of That which was Good and Evil? And if we know that Evil cannot come from God, if we know that the Devil had actually brought it forth before the Creation of this World; are we not enough told, that the Evil which is in this World, is the Evil that was brought forth into Nature by the Devil? And that therefore the Matter of this World, is that very Materiality which was ſpoiled by the fallen Angels? How can we need a particular Text of Scripture to tell us, that the Place of this World was the Place of the Angels before their Fall, when the whole Tenor of Scripture tells us, that it is the Place of their Habitation now? For how could they have, or find Darkneſs, but in that very Place, where they had extinguiſhed the Light? What cou'd they have to do with us, or we with them, but that we are entered into their Poſſeſſions, and have their Kingdom made over to us? How could they go about amongſt us as roaring Lions, ſeeking whom they may devour, but that our Creation has brought us amongſt them?

them? They cannot possibly be any where, but where they fell, because they can live no where but in the Evil which they have brought forth; they can have no Wrath and Darkness but where they broke off from Light and Love; they can communicate with no outward Nature but that which fell with them, and underwent the same Change as they did: Therefore, tho' St. Jude saith with great Truth, that they left their own Habitation, yet, it is only as they left their own Angelical Nature, not departed from it into a distant Place, but deform'd and chang'd it; so that the Heaven that was within them, and without them, is equally left, because both within them, and without them, they have no Habitation but a fiery Darkness broken off from the Light of God.

And therefore, as Man by his Creation is brought into a Power of Commerce with those fallen Angels, who must live, and could only act in that Part of Nature which they had deformed, it is plain, that this Creation placed him in that System of Things, which was form'd and created out of their fallen Kingdom, because they can act, or be acted upon no where else.

7. And this is the one true, and only Reason, why there is Good and Evil throughout all all temporal Nature and Creature; 'tis becauſe all this temporary Nature is a Creation out of that Strife of Evil againſt Good which the fallen Angels had brought into their Kingdom. No ſubtle, evil Serpent could have been generated, no Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil could have ſprung out of the Earth, but becauſe Nature in this World was that Part of Eternal Nature which the fallen Angels had corrupted; and therefore, a Life made up of Good and Evil could be brought forth by it. Evil and Good was in the Angelical Kingdom as ſoon as they ſet their Wills and Deſires contrary to God, and the Divine Life. Had God permitted them to go on, their whole Kingdom had been like themſelves, all over one unmix'd Evil, and ſo had been incapable of being created into a redeemable State: But God put a Stop to the Progreſs of Evil in their Kingdom, he came upon it whilſt it was in Strife, and compacted or created it all into a new, temporary, material State and Condition; whence theſe two Things followed: Firſt, That the fallen Angels loſt their Power over it, and could no farther kindle their own Fire in it, but were as chain'd Priſoners, in an Extent of Darkneſs which they could neither get out of, nor extend any farther: Secondly, This new Creation being created out of this begun Strife, ſtood as yet in the Birth of Life, and ſo became capable of being aſſiſted and bleſſed by God; and finally, at the End of Time, reſtored to its firſt heavenly State.

Now, the Good and Evil that is in this World is that ſame Good and Evil, and in the ſame Strife that it was in the Kingdom of the fallen Angels, only with this happy Difference, there it was under the Devil's Power, and in a Way to be wholly evil; here it is in a new compacted, or created State under the Providence and Bleſſing of God, appointed to bring forth a new kind of Life, and diſplay the Wonders of Divine Love, till ſuch Time as a new Race of Angelical Creatures born in this Mixture of Good and Evil, ſhall be fit to receive the Kingdom of Lucifer, reſtored to its firſt Glory?

Is there any Part of the Chriſtian Religion that does not either ſuppoſe or ſpeak this great Truth, any Part of outward Nature that does not confirm it? Is there any Part of the Chriſtian Religion that is not made more intelligible, more beautiful and edifying by it? Is there any Difficulty of outward Nature that is not totally removed and ſatisfy'd by it?

How

How was the Philoſophy of the Antient Sages perplexed with the State of Nature? They knew God to be all Goodneſs, Love, and Perfection, and ſo knew not what to do with the Miſery of Human Life, and the Diſorders of outward Nature, becauſe they knew not how this Nature came into its preſent State, or from whence it was deſcended. But had they known, that temporal Nature, all that we ſee in this whole Frame of Things, was only the ſickly, defil'd State of Eternal Things put into a temporary State of Recovery, that Time and all tranſitory Things were only in this War and Strife, to be finally delivered from all the Evil that was brought into Eternal Nature, their Hearts muſt have praiſed God for this Creation of Things as thoſe Morning Stars did, that ſhouted for Joy when it was firſt brought forth.

8. From this true Knowledge of the State, and Nature, and Place of this Creation, what a Reaſonableneſs, Wiſdom, and Neceſſity does there appear in the hardeſt Sayings, Precepts and Doctrines of the Goſpel? He that thus knows what this World is, has great Reaſon to be glad that he is born into it, and yet ſtill greater Reaſon to rejoice, in being called out of it, preſerv'd from it, and ſhewn how to eſcape with the Preſervation of his Soul. The Evils that are in this World, are the Evils of Hell, that are tending to be nothing else but Hell; they are the Remains of the Sin and Poison of the fallen Angels: The Good that is in this World are the Sparks of Life that are to generate Heaven, and gain the Restoration of the first Kingdom of Lucifer. Who therefore wou'd think of any Thing, desire any Thing, endeavour any Thing, but to resist Evil in every Kind, under every Shape and Colour? Who would have any Views, Desires and Prayers after any Thing, but that the Life and Light of Heaven may rise up in Himself, and that God's Kingdom may come, and his Will be done in all Nature and Creature?

Evils

Darkness, Light, Fire and Air, Water and Earth, stand in their temporary, created Distinction and Strife, for no other End, with no other View, but that they may obtain the one Thing needful, their first Condition in Heaven: And shall Man that is born into Time for no other End, on no other Errand, but that he may be an Angel in Eternity, think it hard to live as if there were but one Thing needful for him? What was the poor Politicks, the earthly Wisdom, the Ease, Sensuality, and Advancements of this World for us, but such Fruits as must be eaten in Hell? To be swell'd with Pride, Pride, to be fattened with Senſuality, to grow great through Craft, and load ourſelves with earthly Goods, is only living the Life of Beaſts, that we may die the Death of Devils. On the other hand, to go ſtarv'd out of this World, rich in nothing but heavenly Tempers and Deſires, is taking from Time all that we came for, and all that can go with us into Eternity.

9. But to return to the farther Conſideration of Nature. As all temporary Nature is nothing elſe but eternal Nature brought out of its kindled, diſordered Strife, into a created or compacted Diſtinction of its ſeveral Parts, ſo it is plain, that the Whole of this World, in all its working Powers, is nothing elſe but a Mixture of Heaven and Hell. There cannot be the ſmalleſt Thing, or the ſmalleſt Quality of any Thing in this World, but what is a Quality of Heaven or Hell, diſcovered under a temporal Form: Every Thing that is diſagreeable to the Taſte, to the Sight, to our Hearing, Smelling or Feeling, has its Root and Ground, and Cauſe, in and from Hell, and is as ſurely in its Degree the Working or Manifeſtation of Hell in this World, as the moſt diabolical Malice and Wickedneſs is: The Stink of Weeds, of Mire, of all poiſonous, corrupted Things, Shrieks, horrible Sounds, wrath- ful Fire, Rage of Tempeſts, and thick Darkneſs, are all of them Things that had no Poſſibility of Exiſtence, till the fallen Angels diſorder'd the State of their Kingdom; therefore, every Thing that is diſagreeable and horrible in this Life, every Thing that can afflict and terrify our Senſes, all the Kinds of natural and moral Evil, are only ſo much of the Nature, Effects, and Manifeſtation of Hell: For Hell and Evil are only two Words for one and the ſame Thing: The Extent of one is the Extent of the other, and all that can be aſcribed to the one, muſt be aſcribed to the other. On the other hand, all that is ſweet, delightful and amiable in this World, in the Serenity of the Air, the Fineneſs of Seaſons, the Joy of Light, the Melody of Sounds, the Beauty of Colours, the Fragancy of Smells, the Splendor of precious Stones, is nothing elſe but Heaven breaking through the Veil of this World, manifeſting itſelf in ſuch a Degree, and darting forth in ſuch Variety ſo much of its own Nature. So that Heaven and Hell are not only as near you, as conſtantly ſhewing and proving themſelves to all your Senſes, as Day and Night, but Night itſelf is nothing elſe but Hell breaking forth in ſuch a Degree, and the Day is nothing thing elſe but a certain Opening of Heaven, to ſave us from the Darkneſs that ariſes from Hell.

O Man! conſider thyſelf, here thou ſtandeſt in the earneſt, perpetual Strife of Good and Evil, all Nature is continually at work to bring about the great Redemption; the whole Creation is travelling in Pain, and laborious Working, to be delivered from the Vanity of Time, and will thou be aſleep? Every thing thou heareſt, or ſeeſt, ſays nothing, ſhews nothing to Thee, but what either eternal Light, or eternal Darkneſs hath brought forth; for as Day and Night divide the whole of our Time, ſo Heaven and Hell divide all our Thoughts, Words and Actions. Stir which way thou wilt, do, or deſign what thou wilt, thou muſt be an Agent with the one or with the other. Thou canſt not ſtand ſtill, becauſe thou liveſt in the perpetual Workings of temporal and eternal Nature; if thou workeſt not with the Good, the Evil that is in Nature carries thee along with it: Thou haſt the Height and Depth of Eternity in Thee, and therefore be doing what thou wilt, either in the Cloſet, the Field, the Shop, or the Church, thou art ſowing That which grows, and muſt be reap'd in Eternity. Nothing of thine can vaniſh away, but every Thought, Motion, and Deſire of thy Heart, has its Effect either in the Height of Heaven, or the Depth of Hell: And as Time is upon the Wing, to put an End to the Strife of Good and Evil, and bring about the laſt great Separation of all Things into their Eternal State, with ſuch Speed art Thou making Haſte either to be wholly an Angel, or wholly a Devil: O! therefore awake, watch and pray, and join with all thy Force with that Goodneſs of God, which has created Time and all Things in it, to have a happy End in Eternity.

10. Temporal Nature opened to us by the Spirit of God, becomes a Volume of holy Inſtruction to us, and leads us into all the Myſteries and Secrets of Eternity: For as every Thing in temporal Nature is deſcended out of that which is eternal, and ſtands as a palpable, viſible Out-birth of it; ſo when we know how to ſeparate the Groſſneſs, Death, and Darkneſs of Time from it, we find what it is in its eternal State. Fire, and Light, and Air in this World are not only a true Reſemblance of the Holy Trinity in Unity, but are the Trinity itſelf in its moſt outward, loweſt kind of Exiſtence or Manifeſtation; for there could be no Fire, Fire could not generate Light, Air could not proceed from both, theſe three could not be thus united, and thus divided, but becauſe they

they have their Root and Original in the Triunity of the Deity. Fire compacted, created, ſeparated from Light and Air, is the Elemental Fire of this World: Fire uncreated, uncompacted, unſeparated from Light and Air, is the heavenly Fire of Eternity: Fire kindled in any material Thing is only Fire breaking out of its created, compacted State; it is nothing elſe but the awakening the Spiritual Properties of that Thing, which being thus ſtirr'd up, ſtrive to get rid of that material Creation under which they are impriſon'd: Thus every kindled Fire, with all its Rage and Fierceneſs, tears and divides, ſcatters and conſumes that Materiality under which it is impriſon'd; and were not theſe Spiritual Properties impriſon'd in Matter, no material Thing could be made to burn. And this is another Proof, that the Materiality of this World is come out of a higher, and ſpiritual State, becauſe every Matter upon Earth can be made to diſcover Spiritual Properties concealed in it, and is indeed a Compaction of nothing elſe. Fire is not, cannot be a material Thing, it only makes itſelf viſible and ſenſible by the Deſtruction of Matter: Matter is its Death and Impriſonment, and it comes to Life but by being able to agitate, divide, ſhake off, and conſume that Matter which held it in Death and Bondage; ſo that every Time you ſee a Fire kindled, you ſee Nature ſtriving in a low Degree to get rid of the Groſſneſs of this material Creation, and to do that which can alone be done by the laſt Fire, when all the inward, ſpiritual Properties hid in every Thing, in Rocks, and Stones, and Earth, in Sun, and Stars, and Elements, ſhall by the laſt Trumpet be awaken'd and call'd forth: And this is a certain Truth, that Fire could no where now be kindled in any material Thing, but for this Reaſon, becauſe all material Nature was created to be reſtored, and ſtands by Divine Appointment in a Fitneſs and Tendency to have its Deliverance from this created State, by Fire; ſo that every Time you ſee a Piece of Matter diſſolved by Fire, you have a full Proof, that all the Materiality of this World is appointed to a Diſſolution by Fire; and that then, (O glorious Day!) Sun and Stars, and all the Elements will be delivered from Vanity, will be again that one eternal, harmonious, glorious Thing which they were, before they were compacted into material Diſtinctions and Separations.

11. The Elements of this World ſtand in great Strife and Contrariety, and yet in great Deſire of mixing and uniting with each other; and

and hence arises both the Life and Death of all Temporal Things: And hereby we plainly know that the Elements of this World were once one undivided Thing; for Union can no where be desir'd, but where there has first been a Separation; as sure therefore as the Elements desire each other, so sure is it, that they have been parted from each other, and are only Parts of some one Thing that has been divided. When the Elements come to such a Degree of Union, a Life is produc'd; but because they have still a Contrariety to each other, they soon destroy again that same Life which they had built, and therefore every four-elementary Life is short and transitory.

Now, from this undeniable State of Nature, we are told these following great Truths: 1. That the four Elements are only four Parts of That, which before the Creation of this World, was only a one Element, or one undivided Power of Life. 2. That the Mortality of this Life is wholly and solely owing to the divided State of the Elements. 3. That the true, immortal Life of Nature, is only there to be found, where the four Elements are only one Thing, mere Unity and Harmony; where Fire and Air, Water and Earth, have a much more glorious Union than they have in Dia- monds and precious Stones: For in the brighteſt Diamonds the four Elements ſtill partake of their divided State, tho' to our Eye they appear as only one glorious Thing; but the Beauty of the Diamond is but a Shadow, a low Specimen of that Glory which will ſhine through all Nature, when Fire and Air, Water and Earth ſhall be again that one Thing which they were, before the Fall of Angels and the Creation of this World. 4. That the Body of Adam (being form'd for Immortality) could not poſſibly have the Nature, or be made out of the divided State of the Elements. The Letter of Scripture abſolutely demonſtrates this; for if Sickneſs, Sorrow, Pain, the Trouble of Heat and Cold, all ſo many Forerunners of Death, can only be where the Elements are in Diviſion and Contrariety; and if, according to Scripture, theſe Calamities did not, could not poſſibly touch Adam till he fell, then it is plain from Scripture, that before his Fall, the Diviſion and Contrariety of the Elements was not in him: And that was his Paradiſical Nature, in and by which he ſtood in a State of Superiority over all the Elements of this World. 5. That the Body of Adam loſt its one Elementary Glory and Immortality, and then firſt became groſs, dark, heavy Fleſh and Blood, under der the Power of the four Elements, when he luſted to eat, and actually did eat of that Tree, which had its Good and Evil from the divided State of the Elements. 6. Hence we alſo know, with the greateſt Certainty, the Myſtery of the Reſurrection of the Body, that it conſiſts wholely and ſolely in the reducing the four-Elementary Body of this World, to its firſt, one Elementary State, and then every one has that ſame Body raiſed again that dy'd, and all that Adam loſt is reſtored. For if the Body is mortal, and dies becauſe it is become a Body of the four Elements, it can only be raiſed immortal, by having its four Elements reduced again into one: And here lies the true Sameneſs of the Body that died, and that which riſes again. But to proceed:

12. As all the four Elements, by their Deſiring, and wanting to be united together, prove that they are only four groſsly divided Out-births of That which before was only one heavenly, harmonious Element, ſo every ſingle Element fully demonſtrates the ſame Thing; for every ſingle Element, tho' ſtanding in its created Contrariety to every other, has yet in its own divided State, all the four Elements in itſelf: Thus the Air has every Thing in it that is in the Earth, and the Earth has in itſelf every Thing that is in Fire, Water and Air, only in a different Mixture and Compaction; were it not ſo, had not every Element in ſome Degree the whole Nature of them all, they could not poſſibly mix, and qualify with one another; and this may well paſs for a Demonſtration, that That out of which the four Elements are deſcended, was one harmonious Union of them all, becauſe every one of the four, has now, and muſt have in its divided State, all the four in itſelf, tho' not in Equality; for if the four muſt be together, tho' unequally lodg'd in every ſingle Element, it is plain, the four muſt have been one harmonious Thing, before they were brought into four unequal Separations: And therefore, as ſure as there are four warring, diſagreeing Elements in Time, ſo ſure is it, that That which is now in this fourfold Diviſion, was and is in Eternity, one, in an heavenly, harmonious Union, keeping up an Eternal, joyful, glorious Life in Eternal Nature, as its four broken Parts bring forth a poor, miſerable, tranſitory Life in temporal Nature.

13. All Matter in this World is only the Materiality of Heaven thus altered. The Difference between Matter in this World and Matter in the other World, lies wholly and ſolely ſolely in this; in the one it is dead, in the other it is living Materiality. It is dead Materiality in this World, becauſe it is groſs, dark, hard, heavy, diviſible, &c. It is in this State of Death, becauſe it is ſeparated, or broken off from the Eternal Light, which is the true Life, or the Power of Life in every Thing.

In eternal Nature or the Kingdom of Heaven, Materiality ſtands in Life and Light; it is the Light's glorious Body, or that Garment wherewith Light is cloathed, and therefore has all the Properties of Light in it, and only differs from Light, as it is its Brightneſs and Beauty, as the Holder and Diſplayer of all its Colours, Powers and Virtues. But the ſame Materiality in this World, being created or compacted into a Separation from Fire united with Light, is become the Body of Death and Darkneſs, and is therefore groſs, thick, dark, heavy, diviſible, &c. for Death is nothing elſe but the ſhutting up, or ſhutting out the united Power of Fire and Light: This is the only Death that ever did, or can happen to any Thing, whether earthly or heavenly. Therefore, every Degree of Hardneſs, Darkneſs, Stiffneſs, &c. is a Degree of Death; and herein conſiſts the Deadneſs of the Materiality of this World. When it ſhall be raiſed to Life, that is, when the United Power of Fire and Light ſhall kindle itſelf through all temporal Nature, then Hardneſs, Darkneſs, Diviſibility, &c. will be all extinguiſhed together.

That the Deadneſs of the Earth may, and certainly will be brought to Life by the united Power of Fire and Light, is ſufficiently ſhewn us by the Nature and Office of the Sun. The Sun is the united Power of Fire and Light, and therefore the Sun is the Raiſer of Life out of the Deadneſs of the Earth; but becauſe Fire and Light as united in the Sun, is only the Virtue of temporary Fire and Light, ſo it can only raiſe a ſhort and fading, tranſitory Life. But as ſure as you ſee, that Fire and Light united in the Sun, can change the Deadneſs of the Earth, into ſuch a beautiful Variety of a Vegetable Life, ſo ſure are you, that this dark, groſs Earth, is in its State of Death and Darkneſs, only for this Reaſon, becauſe it is broken off from the united Power of Fire and Light: For as ſure as the outward Operation of the Fire and Light of the Sun can change the Deadneſs of the Earth into a Degree of Life, ſo ſure is it, that the Earth lies in its preſent Deadneſs, becauſe it is ſeparated from its own Eternal Fire and Light: And as ſure as you ſee, that the Fire and Light of the Sun can

raiſe a temporal Life out of the Earth, ſo ſure is it, that the united Power of Eternal Fire and Light can, and will turn all that is earthly, into its firſt State of Life and Beauty. For the Sun of this World, as it is the Union of temporal Fire and Light, has no Power, but as it is the outward Agent, or Temporary Repreſentative of Eternal Fire and Light, and therefore it can only do that in part, and imperfectly in Time, which by the Eternal Fire and Light will be wholly and perfectly done in Eternity. And therefore every Vegetable Life, every Beauty, Power, and Virtue which the Sun calls forth out of the Earth, tells us, with a divine Certainty, that there will come a Time, when all that is hid in the Deadneſs, Groſſneſs, and Darkneſs of the Earth, will be again call'd up to a Perfection of Life and Glory of Beauty.

14. How has the Philoſophy of the Schools been puzzled with the Diviſibility of Matter! 'Tis becauſe human Reaſon, the Miſtreſs of the Schools, partakes of the Deadneſs of the Earth; and the Soul of Man muſt firſt have the Light of Eternal Life riſe up in him, before he can ſee or find out the Truths of Nature. Human Reaſon knew nothing of the Death of the Matter, or the Nature and Reaſon of its temporary Creation, and ſo thought Death

Death and Diviſibility to be eſſential to Matter; but the Light of God tells every Man this infallible Truth, that God made not Death in any Thing, that he is a God of Life, and therefore, every Thing that comes from him, comes into a State of Life. Matter is thick, hard, heavy, diviſible, and the like, only for a Time, becauſe it is compacted or created into Thickneſs, Hardneſs, and Diviſibility only for a Time: Theſe are only the Properties of its temporal, created State, and therefore are no more eſſential to it than the Hardneſs of Ice is eſſential to Water. Now, that the Creation of the Matter of this World is nothing elſe but a Compaction, that all the Elements are ſeparated Compactions of That which before was free from ſuch a Compaction, is plain from Scripture. For we are told, that all the Material Things and Elements of this World, are to have their created State and Nature taken from them, by being diſſolved or melted: But if this be a Scripture Truth, then it is equally true from Scripture, that their Creation was only a Compaction; and a Compaction of ſomething that ſtood before according to its own Nature, abſolutely free from it. Mortality, Corruptibility, and Diviſibility, are not eſſential Properties, but temporary Accidents, they

they are in Things, as Diſeaſes and Sickneſs are, and are as ſeparable from them; and that is the true Reaſon, why this Mortal can put on Immortality, this Corruptible can put on Incorruptibility, and this Diviſible put on Indiviſibility: For when the four Elements ſhall be diſſolved and looſed from their ſeparate Compaction from one another, when Fire and Air, Water and Earth, ſhall be a one much more glorious and harmonious Thing than they are now in the brighteſt Diamond, then the Diviſibility of this redeemed Materiality will be more impoſſible to be conceived, than the Diſtance between Fire and Water in a Diamond.

15. The Reaſon why all inanimate Things of this World tend towards their utmoſt Perfection in their Kind, lieth wholly and ſolely in this Ground; 'tis becauſe the four Elements of this World were once the one Element of the Kingdom of the fallen Angels; and therefore, Nature in this World is always labouring after its firſt Perfection of Life, or as the Scripture ſpeaks, the whole Creation travaileth in Pain, and groaneth to be delivered from its preſent Vanity: And therefore it is, that all Vegetables and Fruits naturally graſp after every Kind and Degree of Perfection they can take in; endeavouring with all their Power, after that firſt

Perfection of Life which was before the Fall of the Angels. Every Taste and Colour, and Power and Virtue, wou'd be what it was before Lucifer kindled his dark, fiery, wrathful Kingdom; but as this cannot be, so when every Fruit and Flower has work'd itself as far towards a heavenly Perfection as it can, it is forced to wither and rot, and become a Witness to this Truth, that neither Flesh nor Blood, nor Fruit, nor Flower, can reach the Kingdom of God.

16. All the Misery and Imperfection that is in Temporary Nature, arises from the divided State of the Elements: Their Division is that which brings all Kinds and Degrees of Death and Hell into this World, and yet their being in a certain Degree in one another, and always endeavouring after their first Union, is so much of the Nature and Perfection of Heaven still in them. The Death that is in this World, consists in the Grossness, Hardness and Darkness of its Materiality. The Wrath that is in this World consists in the kindled Division of its Qualities, whence there arises a contrary Motion and Fermentation in all its Parts, in which consists both the Life and Death of all its Creatures. This Death and this Wrath is the Nature of Hell in this World, and is the

Manifeſtation of the Diſorders which the fallen Angels have occaſioned in Nature. The Heaven in this World began when God ſaid, Let there be Light, for ſo far as Light is in any Thing, ſo much it has of Heaven in it, and of the Beginning of a heavenly Life: This ſhews itſelf in all Things of this World, chiefly in the Life-giving Power of the Sun, in the Sweetneſs and Meekneſs of Qualities and Tempers, in the Softneſs of Sounds, the Beauty of Colours, the Fragrancy of Smells, and Richneſs of Taſtes and the like; thus far as any Thing is tinctured with Light, ſo far it ſhews its Deſcent from Heaven, and its partaking of ſomething heavenly and paradiſical. Again, Love or Deſire of Union, is the other Part of Heaven that is viſible in this World. In Things without Life, it is a ſenſeleſs Deſire, a friendly mixing and uniting of their Qualities, whereby they ſtrive to be again in that firſt State of Unity and Harmony in which they exiſted, before they were kindled into Diviſion by Lucifer. In rational Creatures, it is Meekneſs, Benevolence, Kindneſs and Friendſhip amongſt one another: And thus far they have Heaven and the Spirit of God in them, each in their Sphere, being and doing that to one another, which the Divine Love is and does to all.

Again, the Reaſon why Man is naturally taken with beautiful Objects, why he admires and rejoices at the Sight of lucid and tranſparent Bodies, and the Splendor of precious Stones, why he is delighted with the Beauty of his own Perſon, and is fond of his Features when adorned with fine Colours, has this only true Ground, 'tis becauſe he was created in the greateſt Perfection of Beauty, to live amongſt all the Beauties of a glorious Paradiſe: And therefore Man, tho' fallen, has this ſtrong Senſibility and reaching Deſire after all the Beauties, that can be picked up in fallen Nature. Had not this been his Caſe, had not Beauty, and Light, and the Glory of Brightneſs been his firſt State by Creation, he wou'd now no more want the Beauty of Objects, than the Ox wants to have his Paſture encloſed with beautiful Walls, and painted Gates. Every Vanity of fallen Man ſhews our firſt Dignity, and the Vanity of our Deſires are ſo many Proofs of the Reality of that which we are fallen from. Man wants to ſee himſelf in Riches, Greatneſs and Power, becauſe Human Nature came firſt into the World in that State; and therefore, what he had in Reality in Paradiſe, radiſe, that is he vainly ſeeking for, where he is only a poor Priſoner in the Valley and Shadow of Death.

17. All Beings that are purely of this World, have their Exiſtence in and Dependance upon temporal Nature. God is no Maker, Creator or Governor of any Being or Creature of this World, immediately, or by himſelf, but he creates, upholds and governs all Things of this World, by, and through, and with temporal Nature: As temporary Nature is nothing elſe but Eternal Nature ſeparated, divided, compacted, made viſible and changeable for a Time, ſo Heaven is nothing elſe but the beatifick Viſibility, the Majeſtick Preſence of the abyſſal, unſearchable, tri-une God: 'Tis that Light with which the Scripture ſaith, God is decked as with a Garment, and by which he is manifeſted and made viſible to heavenly Eyes and Beings; for Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, as they are the tri-une God, deeper than the Kingdom of Heaven or Eternal Nature, are inviſible to all created Eyes; but that beatifick Viſibility and outward Glory which is called the Kingdom of Heaven, is the Manifeſtation of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, in, and by, and through the glorious Union of Eternal Fire, and Light, and Spirit. In the Kingdom of Heaven, theſe are three and one, becauſe their Original, the Holy Trinity, is ſo, and we muſt call them by the Names of Fire, and Light, and Spirit; becauſe all that we have of Fire, and Light, and Spirit in this World, has its whole Nature directly from them, and is indeed nothing elſe but the Fire, and Light, and Spirit of Eternity, brought into a ſeparated, compacted, temporal State. So that to ſpeak of a heavenly Fire, has no more Groſſneſs and Offence in it, than when we ſpeak of a heavenly Life, a heavenly Light, or heavenly Spirit; for if there is a heavenly Light and Spirit, there muſt of all neceſſity be a heavenly Fire; and if theſe Things were not in Heaven in a glorious State of Union, they never could have been here in this groſs State of a temporal Compaction and Diviſion: So that as ſure as there are Fire, and Light, and Air in this World, in a divided, compacted, imperfect State, in which conſiſts the Life of temporary Nature and Creatures, ſo ſure is it, that Fire, and Light, and Spirit are in the Kingdom of Heaven, united in one Perfection of Glory, in which conſiſts the beatifick Viſibility of God, the Divine Nature, as communicable to heavenly Beings.

18. The

18. The Kingdom of Heaven ſtands in this threefold Life, where three are one, becauſe it is a Manifeſtation of the Deity, which is three and one; the Father has his diſtinct Manifeſtation in the Fire, which is always generating the Light; the Son has his diſtinct Manifeſtation of the Light, which is always generated from the Fire; the Holy Ghoſt has his Manifeſtation in the Spirit, that always proceeds from both, and is always united with them.

It is this Eternal Unbeginning Trinity in Unity of Fire, Light, and Spirit, that conſtitutes Eternal Nature, the Kingdom of Heaven, the heavenly Jeruſalem, the Divine Life, the beatifick Viſibility, the Majeſtick Glory and Preſence of God. Through this Kingdom of Heaven, or Eternal Nature, is the inviſible God, the incomprehenſible Trinity eternally breaking forth, and manifeſting itſelf in a boundleſs Height and Depth of bliſsful Wonders, opening and diſplaying itſelf to all its Creatures in an infinite Variation and endleſs Multiplicity of its Powers, Beauties, Joys and Glories. So that all the Inhabitants of Heaven are for ever Knowing, Seeing, Hearing, Feeling, and variouſly enjoying all that is great, amiable, infinite and glorious in the Divine Nature.

Nothing aſcends, or comes into this Kingdom of Heaven, but that which deſcended, or came out of it, all its Inhabitants muſt be innate Gueſts, and born out of it.

19. God conſidered in himſelf, as diſtinct from this Eternal Nature, or Kingdom of Heaven, is not the immediate Creator of any Angels, Spirits, or Divine Beings; but as he creates and governs all temporal Beings in, and by, and out of temporal Nature, ſo he creates and governs all Spiritual and Heavenly Beings in, and by, and out of Eternal Nature: This is as abſolutely true, as that no Being can be temporal, but by partaking of temporal Nature, nor any Being eternal, but by partaking of the eternal, divine Nature; and therefore, whatever God creates is not created immediately by himſelf, but in and by, and out of that Nature, in which it is to live, and move, and have its Being, temporal Beings out of temporal Nature, and eternal Beings out of the heavenly Kingdom of Eternal Nature: And hence it is, that all Angels, and the Souls of Men are ſaid to be born of God, Sons of God, and Partakers of the Divine Nature, becauſe they are form'd out of that Eternal Nature, which is the unbeginning Majeſty of God, the Kingdom of Heaven, or Viſible Glory of the Deity. In this Eternal Nature, which is the Majeſtick Cloathing, or

Glory

Glory of the tri-une God, manifeſted in the glorious Unity of divine Fire, Light, and Spirit, have all the created Images of God, whether they be Angels or Men, their Exiſtence, Union and Communion with God; becauſe Fire, and Light, and Spirit have the ſame Union and Birth in the Creature, as in the Creator: And hence it is, that they are ſo many various Mirrors of the Deity, penetrated with the Majeſty of God, receiving and returning back Communications of the Life of God. Now, in this Ground, that is, in this Conſideration of God, as manifeſting his Holy Trinity through Nature and Creature, lieth the ſolid and true Underſtanding of all that is ſo variouſly ſaid of God, both in the Old and New Teſtament with Relation to Mankind, both as to their Creation, Fall, and Redemption. God is to be conſidered throughout, as the God of Nature, only manifeſting himſelf to all his Creatures in a Variety of Attributes in and by Nature; creating, governing, bleſſing, puniſhing, and redeeming them according to the Powers, Workings, and Poſſibilities of Nature. Fire, Light, and Spirit in harmonious Union, is the ſubſtantial Glory, the beatifick Manifeſtation of the tri-une God, viſible and communicable to Creatures form'd out of it. All intelligent, holy Beings were by God form'd and created out of, and for the Enjoyment of this Kingdom of Glory, and had Fire, and Light, and Spirit, as the tri-une Glory of their created Being: And herein consisted the infinite Love, Goodness and Bounty of God to all his Creatures: It was their being made Creatures of this Fire, Light, and Spirit, Partakers of that same Nature in which the Holy Trinity had stood from all Eternity gloriously manifested. And thus they were Creatures, Subjects, and Objects of the Divine Love; they came into the nearest, highest Relation to God; they stood in, and partook of his own manifested Nature, so that the outward Glory and Majesty of the tri-une God, was the very Form, and Beauty, and Brightness of their own created Nature. Every Creature which thankfully, joyfully, and absolutely gave itself up to this blessed Union with God, became absolutely fix'd in its first created Glory, and incapable of knowing any thing but Love, and Joy, and Happiness in God to all Eternity: Thus in this State, all Angels and Men came first out of the Hands of God. But seeing Light proceeds from Fire by a Birth, and the Spirit from both, and seeing the Will must be the Leader of the Birth, Lucifer and Adam could could both do as they did, Lucifer could will ſtrong Might and Power, to be greater than the Light of God made him, and ſo he brought forth a Birth of Might and Power, that was only mighty Wrath and Darkneſs, a Fire of Nature broken off from its Light. Adam cou'd will the Knowledge of temporal Nature, and ſo he loſt the Light and Spirit of Heaven for the Light and Spirit of this World: And had Man been left in this State of temporary Nature, without a Redeemer, he muſt, when the Light of this World had left him, have found himſelf in the ſame abſolute Wrath and Darkneſs of Nature, which the fallen Angels are in.

20. Now, after theſe two Falls of two Orders of Creatures, the Deity itſelf came to have new and ſtrange Names, new and unheard of Tempers and Inclinations of Wrath, Fury, and Vengeance aſcribed to it. I call them new, becauſe they began at the Fall; I call them ſtrange, becauſe they were foreign to the Deity, and could not belong to God in himſelf: Thus God is in the Scriptures ſaid to be a Conſuming Fire. But to whom? To the fallen Angels, and loſt Souls. But why, and how is he ſo to them? It is becauſe thoſe Creatures have loſt all that they had from God, but Fire; and therefore God can only be found and manifeſted in them, them, as a Consuming Fire. Now, is it not justly said, that God, who is nothing but infinite Love, is yet in such Creatures only a Consuming Fire, and that tho' God be nothing but Love, yet they are under the Wrath and Vengeance of God, because they have only that Fire in them, which is broken off from the Light and Love of God, and so can know, or feel nothing of God, but his Fire in them. As Creatures they can have no Life, but what they have in and from God; and therefore, that wrathful Life which they have, is truly said to be a Wrath of God upon them. And yet it is as strictly true, that there is no Wrath in God himself, that he is not changed in his Temper towards the Creatures, that he does not cease to be one and the same infinite Fountain of Goodness, infinitely flowing forth in the Riches of his Love upon all and every Life; but the Creatures have changed their State in Nature, and so the God of Nature can only be manifested in and to them, according to their own State in Nature: And this is the true Ground of rightly understanding all that is said of the Wrath and Vengeance of God in and upon the Creatures. It is only in such a Sense as the Curse or Unhappiness of God may be said to be upon them, not because any Thing

curſed, or unhappy can be in, or come from God, but becauſe they have made that Life which they muſt have in God, to be mere Curſe and Unhappineſs to them: For every Creature that lives, muſt have its Life in and from God, and therefore God muſt be in every Creature; this is as true of Devils, as of Holy Angels: But how is God in them? Why only as he is manifeſted in Nature. Holy Angels have the tri-une Life of God in them, therefore God is in them all Love, Goodneſs, Majeſty and Glory, and theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Devils have nothing of this tri-une Life left in them, but the Fire of Eternal Nature broken off from all Light and Joy; and therefore the Life that they can have in and from God, is only a Life of Wrath and Darkneſs, and theirs is the Kingdom of Hell: And becauſe this Life is a Strength of Life which they muſt have in and from God, and which they cannot take out of his Hands; therefore, is their curſed, miſerable, wrathful Life truly and juſtly ſaid to be the Curſe, and Wrath, and Vengeance of God in and upon them, tho' God himſelf can no more have Wrath and Vengeance, than he can have Miſchief and Malice in him: For this is a glorious, two-fold Truth, that from God conſidered as in himſelf, himſelf, nothing can come from Eternity to Eternity, but infinite Love, Goodneſs, Happineſs, and Glory; and alſo that infinite Love, Goodneſs, Happineſs and Glory are, and will be for ever and ever flowing forth from him in the ſame boundleſs, univerſal, infinite manner; he is the ſame infinitely overflowing Fountain of Love, Goodneſs and Glory after, as before the Fall of any Creatures; his Love, and the infinite Workings of it can no more be leſſened, than his Power can be increaſed by any outward Thing; no Creature, or Number of Creatures can raiſe any Anger in him, 'tis as impoſſible as to caſt Terror, or Darkneſs, and Pain into him, for nothing can come into God from the Creature, nothing can be in him, but that which the Holy Trinity in Unity is in itſelf. All Creatures are Products of the infinite, tri-une Love of God; nothing will'd, and deſir'd, and form'd them, but infinite Love, and they have all of them all the Happineſs, Beauty and Excellency that an infinitely powerful Love can reach out to them: The ſame infinite Love continues ſtill in its firſt creating Goodneſs, willing, deſiring, working, and doing nothing with regard to all Creatures, but what it will'd, did, and deſired in the Creation of them: This God over Nature and Creature, Creature, darts no more Anger at Angels when fallen, than he did in the Creation of them: They are not in Hell, becauſe Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt are angry at them, and ſo caſt them into a Puniſhment, which their Wrath had contrived for them; but they are in Wrath and Darkneſs, becauſe they have done to the Light which infinitely flows forth from God, as that Man does to the Light of the Sun, who puts out his own Eyes: He is in Darkneſs, not becauſe the Sun is darkned towards him, has leſs Light for him, or has loſt all Inclination to enlighten him, but becauſe he has put out that Birth of Light in himſelf, which alone made him capable of ſeeing in the Light of the Sun. It is thus with fallen Angels, they have extinguiſhed in themſelves that Birth of Light and Love, which was their only Capacity for that Happineſs, which infinitely, and every where flows forth from God; and they no more have their Puniſhment from God himſelf than the Man who puts out his Eyes, has his Darkneſs from the Sun itſelf.

21. God, conſidered in himſelf, as the holy, tri-une God, is not the immediate Fountain and Original of Creatures; but God conſider'd as manifeſting himſelf in and through Nature, is the Creator, Father and Producer of all Things. The hidden Deity of Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, is from Eternity to Eternity, manifeſted, made viſible, perceivable, ſenſible in the united Glory of Fire, Light and Spirit; this is the beatifick Preſence, the glorious Out-birth of the Holy Trinity; this is that eternal, univerſal Nature, which brings God into all Creatures, and all Creatures into God, according to that Degree and Manner of Life which they have in Nature: For the Life of Creatures muſt ſtand in Nature, and Nature is nothing elſe but God made manifeſt, viſible, and perceptible; and therefore the Life of every Creature, be it what it will, a Life of Joy or Wrath, is only ſo much of God made manifeſt in it, and perceptible by it, and thus is God in ſome Creatures only a God of Wrath, and in others, only a God of Glory and Goodneſs.

No Creature can have Life, or live, and move, and have its Being in God, but by being form'd out of, and living in this Manifeſtation of Nature. Thus far Hell and Heaven, Angels and Devils are equally in God, that is, they equally live, move, and have their Being in that Eternal Nature, which is the Eternal Manifeſtation of God: The one have a Life of Glory, Majeſty, and Love, and Bliſs, the other a Life of Horror, Fire, Wrath, Miſery, and Darkneſs.

Darkneſs. Now, all this could not poſſibly be, there could be no Room for this Diſtinction between Creatures ſtanding in Nature, the one could not poſſibly have a Life of Majeſtick Bliſs and Glory, the other of fiery Horror and Darkneſs, but becauſe the Holy, tri-une God is manifeſted in the united Glory and Bliſs of Fire, Light, and Spirit. For the Creatures could only divide That, which there was in Nature to be divided, they could only divide That, which was united, and diviſible; and therefore, as ſure as Heaven is a ſplendorous Light of bliſsful Majeſty, as ſure as Hell is a Place of fiery Wrath and Darkneſs, ſo ſure is it from the Scriptures, that Eternal Nature, which is from God, or a Manifeſtation of God, is a Nature of united Fire, Light, and Spirit, otherwiſe, ſome Creatures could not have the bliſsful Glory of Light, and others, a horrible, fiery Darkneſs for their ſeparate Portions.

All therefore that has been ſaid of an Eternal Nature, or Kingdom of Heaven, conſiſting of united Fire, Light, and Spirit, is not only to be look'd upon as an Opinion well grounded, and ſufficiently diſcover'd by the Light of Nature, but as a fundamental Truth of reveal'd Religion, fully eſtabliſh'd by all that is ſaid in the Scriptures both of Heaven and Hell. For if God

God was not manifeſted, viſible, perceptible and communicable, in and by this united Fire, and Light, and Spirit, how could there be a Heaven of glorious Majeſty? If this Fire of Heaven could not be ſeparated, or broken off from its heavenly Light, how could there be a Hell in Nature? Or, how could thoſe Angels which loſt the Light of Heaven, have thereby fallen into a State of helliſh Darkneſs, or Fire? Is not all this the greateſt of Demonſtrations, that the holy Tri-unity of God is, and muſt be manifeſted in Nature, by the Union of Fire, Light, and Spirit? And is not this Demonſtration wholly taken from the very Letter of the moſt plain Doctrines of Scripture?

Hell and Wrath could have no Poſſibility of Exiſtence, but becauſe the Light, and Majeſty, and Glory of Heaven, muſt of all neceſſity have its Birth in and from the Fire of Nature. An Angel could not have become a Devil, but becauſe the Angelick Light and Glory had, and muſt have its Birth in and from the Fire of Life. And thus as a Devil was found, where angelick Light and Glory had its Exiſtence, ſo a Hell was found, where heavenly Glory was before; and as the Devil is nothing but a Fire-ſpirit broken off from its Angelical Light and Glory, ſo Hell is nothing but the Fire of Heaven ſeparated from its firſt Light and Majeſty.

And

And here we have plainly found two Worlds in Eternity; not possible to be two, nor ever known to be two, but by such Creatures, as have in their own Natures, by their own Self-motion, separated the Fire of Eternal Nature from its Eternal Light, Spirit and Majesty. And this is also the Beginning, or first Opening of the Wrath of God in the Creature; which is, in other Words, only the Beginning, or first Opening of Pain and Misery in the Creature, or the Origin of a hellish, tormenting State of Life.

22. And here, in this dark wrathful Fire of the fallen Creature, do we truly find that Wrath and Anger and Vengeance of God, that cleaves to Sin, that must be quench'd, atton'd, and satisfy'd before the Sinner can be reconciled to God; that is, before it can have again that tri-une Life of God in it, which is its Union with the holy Trinity of God, or its regaining the Kingdom of Heaven in itself.

Some have objected, that by thus considering the fallen Soul, as a dark, wrathful Fire-Spirit, for this Reason, because it has lost the Birth of the Son and holy Spirit of God in it, that this casts Reproach upon God the Father, as having the Nature of such a Soul in Him. But this is a groundless Objection, for this State of the Soul casts no more Reproach upon the first, than upon the second and third Persons of the holy Trinity. The fallen Soul, that has lost the Birth of the Son and holy Spirit of God in it, cannot be said to have the Nature of the Father left in it. This would be blasphemous Nonsense, and is no way founded on this Doctrine. But such a Soul must be said to have a Nature from the Father left in it, tho' a spoil'd one, and this because the Father is the Origin, Fountain and Creator of all kind of Existence: Hell, and the Devils have their Nature from Him, because every Kind of Creature must have what it has of Life and Being from its Creator; but Hell and the Devils have not therefore the Nature of the Father in them. If it be ask'd what the Father is, as he is the first Person in the sacred Trinity, the Answer must be, that as such, He is the Generator of the Son and holy Spirit: This is the Nature of the Father; where this generating is not, there is not the Nature of the Father. Is it not therefore highly absurd to charge this Doctrine with ascribing the Nature of the Father to the fallen Soul, which asserts the Soul to be fallen, for this Reason, because it has quite lost and extinguish'd all Power and Ability for the Birth of the Son and holy Spirit in it? How could it be more roundly roundly affirm'd, or more fully prov'd, that the fallen Soul hath not the Nature of the Father left in it. But to proceed:

The Reader ought not to wonder, or be offended at the frequent mention of the Word Fire, which is here us'd to denote the true Nature, and State of the Soul. For both Nature and Scripture ſpeak continually the ſame Language. For wherever there is mention of Life, Light, or Love in the Scriptures, there Fire is neceſſarily ſuppoſed, as being that in which all Life, and Light, and Love muſt neceſſarily ariſe; and therefore the Scriptures ſpeak as often of Fire, as they do of Life, and Light, and Love, becauſe the one neceſſarily includes the other: For all Life, whether it be vegetable, ſenſitive, animal, or intellectual, is only a kindled Fire of Life in ſuch a Variety of States; and every dead, inſenſitive Thing is only ſo, becauſe its Fire is quench'd, or ſhut up in a hard Compaction. If therefore we will ſpeak of the true Ground of the fallen State of Men and Angels, we are not at Liberty to think of it under any other Idea, or ſpeak of it in any other manner, than as the darkned Fire of their Life, or the Fire of their Life unable to kindle itſelf into Light and Love. Do not the Scriptures ſtrictly confine us to this Idea of Hell?

So that it is not any particular Philosophy, or affected Singularity of Expression, that makes me speak in this manner of the Soul, but because all Nature and Scripture forces us to confess, that the Root of all and every Life stands, and must necessarily stand in the Properties of Fire.

The holy Scriptures also speak much of Fire, in the Ideas which they give us, both of the divine Nature, and of created Spirits, whether they be sav'd, or lost; the former as becoming Flames of heavenly Light and Love, the latter as dark Firebrands of Hell *.

No Deſcription is, or can be given us either of Heaven or Hell, but where Fire is neceſſarily ſignified to be the Ground and Foundation both of the one and of the other. Why do all Languages, however diſtant, and different from one another, all ſpeak of the Coldneſs of Death, the Coldneſs of Inſenſibility? Why do they all agree in ſpeaking of the Warmth of Life, the Heat of Paſſions, the Burnings of Wrath, the Flames of Love? It is becauſe it is the Voice or Dictate of univerſal Nature, that Fire is the Root or Seat of Life, and that every Variety of human Tempers is only the various Workings of the Fire of Life.—It ought to be no Reaſon why we ſhould think groſsly of Fire, becauſe it is ſeen in ſo many groſs Things of this World? For how is it ſeen in them? Why only as a Deſtroyer, a Conſumer, and Refiner of all Groſſneſs; as a Kindler of Life, and Light out of Death and Darkneſs. So that in all the Appearances of Fire, even in earthly Things, we have Reaſon to look upon it as ſomething of a heavenly, exalting, and glorious Nature; as that which diſperſes Death, Darkneſs, and

 Groſſneſs,

Groſſneſs, and raiſes up the Power and Glory of every Life.

If you aſk what Fire is in its firſt, true, and unbeginning State, not yet entred into any Creature, It is the Power and Strength, the Glory and Majeſty of eternal Nature; it is that which generates, enriches, brightens, ſtrengthens, and diſplays the Light of Heaven. It is that which makes the eternal Light to be majeſtick, the eternal Love to be flaming: For the Strength and Vivacity of Fire, muſt be both the Majeſty of Light, and the Ardour of Love. It is the glorious Out-birth, the true Repreſentative of God the Father eternally generating his only Son, Light and Word.

If you aſk what Fire is in its own ſpiritual Nature, it is merely a Deſire, and has no other Nature than that of a working Deſire, which is continually its own Kindler. For every Deſire is, nothing elſe, but its own ſtriking up, or its own kindling itſelf into ſome Kind and Degree of Fire. And hence it is that Nature (tho' reduc'd to great Ignorance of itſelf) has yet forc'd all Nations and Languages to ſpeak of its Deſires, as cool, warm, or burning, &c. becauſe every Deſire is, ſo far as it goes, a kindled Fire. And it is to be obſerv'd, that Fire could have no Exiſtence or Operation in material Things, but becauſe all the Matter of this World

World has in it more or leſs of ſpiritual and heavenly Properties compacted in it, which continually deſire to be delivered from their material Impriſonment. And the ſtirring up the Deſire of theſe ſpiritual Properties, is the kindling of that Heat, and Glance, and Light, in material Things, which we call Fire, and is nothing elſe but their glorioufly breaking, and triumphantly diſperſing that hard Compaction in which they were impriſon'd. And thus does every kindled Fire, as a Flaſh or tranſitory opening of heavenly Glory, ſhew us in little and daily, but true Inſtances, the Triumph of the laſt Fire, when all that is ſpiritual and heavenly in this World, ſhall kindle and ſeparate itſelf from that, which muſt be the Death and Darkneſs of Hell.

Now the Reaſon, why there are ſpiritual Properties in all the material Things of this World, is only this, it is becauſe the Matter of this World is the Materiality of the Kingdom of Heaven, brought down into a created State of Groſſneſs, Death, and Impriſonment, by occaſion of the Sin of thoſe Angels, who firſt inhabited the Place, or Extent of this material World.

Now theſe heavenly Properties, which were brought into this created Compaction, lye in a continual Deſire to return to their firſt State of Glory; and this is the groaning of the whole Creation to be delivered from Vanity, which the Apoſtle ſpeaks of. And in this continual Deſire lieth the kindling, and all the Poſſibility of kindling any Fire in the Things of this World. Quench this Deſire, and ſuppoſe there is nothing in the Matter of this World that deſires to be reſtor'd to its firſt Glory, and then all the breaking forth of Fire, Light, Brightneſs, and Glance in the Things of this World, is utterly quench'd with it, and it would be the ſame Impoſſibility to ſtrike Fire, as to ſtrike Senſe and Reaſon out of a Flint.

24. But you will perhaps ſay, tho' this be a Truth, yet it is more ſpeculative than edifying, more fitted to entertain the Curioſity, than to aſſiſt the Devotion of Chriſtians. But ſtay awhile, and you ſhall ſee it is a Truth full of the moſt edifying Inſtruction, and directly ſpeaking to the Heart.

For if every Deſire is in itſelf, in its own Eſſence, the kindling of Fire, then we are taught this great practical Leſſon, that our own Deſire is the Kindler of our own Fire, the Former and Raiſer of that Life which leads us. What our Deſire kindles, that becomes the Fire of our Life, and fits us either for the majeſtick Glories of the Kingdom of God, or the dark dark Horrors of Hell: So that our Desire is all, it does all, and governs all, and all that we have and are, must arise from it, and therefore it is, that the Scripture saith, Keep thy Heart with all Diligence, for out of it are the Issues of Life.

We are apt to think that our Imaginations and Desires may be play'd with, that they rise and fall away as nothing, because they do not always bring forth outward and visible Effects. But indeed they are the greatest Reality we have, and are the true Formers and Raisers of all that is real and solid in us. All outward Power that we exercise in the Things about us, is but as a Shadow in Comparison of that inward Power, that resides in our Will, Imagination, and Desires; these communicate with Eternity, and kindle a Life which always reaches either Heaven or Hell. This Strength of the inward Man makes all that is the Angel, and all that is the Devil in us, and we are neither good nor bad, but according to the Working of that which is spiritual and invisible in us. Now our Desire is not only thus powerful and productive of real Effects, but it is always alive, always working and creating in us, I say creating, for it has no less Power, it perpetually generates either Life or Death in us: And here lies the Ground of the great Efficacy of Prayer, which when it is the Prayer of the Heart, the Prayer of Faith, has a kindling and creating Power, and forms and transforms the Soul into every Thing that its Desires reach after: It has the Key to the Kingdom of Heaven, and unlocks all its Treasures, it opens, extends, and moves that in us, which has its Being and Motion in and with the Divine Nature, and so brings us into a real Union and Communion with God.

Long Offices of Prayer sounded only from the Mouth, or impure Hearts, may Year after Year be repeated to no Advantage, they leave us to grow old in our own poor, weak State: These are only the poor Prayers of Heathens, who, as our Lord said, think to be heard by their much speaking. But when the Eternal Springs of the purified Heart are stirr'd, when they stretch after that God from whence they came; then it is, that what we ask, we receive, and what we seek, we find. Hence it is, that all those great Things are by the Scriptures attributed to Faith, that to it all Things are possible; that it heals the Sick, saves the Sinner, can remove Mountains, and that all Things are possible to him that believeth; 'tis because the Working of Will and Desire is the first

Eternal Source of all Power, that from which every Thing is kindled into that Degree of Life in which it ſtandeth; 'tis becauſe Will and Deſire in us are Creaturely Offſprings of that firſt Will and Deſire which form'd and govern'd all Things; and therefore, when the Creaturely Power of our Will, Imagination and Deſire leaves off its Working in Vanity, and gives itſelf wholly unto God in a naked and implicit Faith in the Divine Operation upon it, then it is, that it does nothing in vain, it riſes out of Time into Eternity, is in Union and Communion with God, and ſo all Things are poſſible to it. Thus is this Doctrine ſo far from being vainly ſpeculative, that it opens to us the Ground, and ſhews us the Neceſſity and Excellency of the greateſt Duties of the Goſpel.

25. Now, as all Deſire throughout Nature and Creature is but one and the ſame Thing, branching itſelf out into various Kinds and Degrees of Exiſtence and Operation, ſo there is but one Fire throughout all Nature and Creature, ſtanding only in different States and Conditions. The Fire that is in the Light of the Sun, is the ſame Fire that is in the Darkneſs of the Flint: That Fire which is the Life of our Bodies, is the Life of our Souls; that which tears Wood in Pieces, is the ſame which upholds upholds the beauteous Forms of Angels: It is the ſame Fire that burns Straw, that will at laſt melt the Sun, the ſame Fire that brightens a Diamond, is darkned in a Flint: It is the ſame Fire that kindles Life in an Animal, that kindled it in Angels: In an Angel it is an Eternal Fire of an Eternal Life, in an Animal it is the ſame Fire brought into a temporary Condition, and therefore can only kindle a Life that is temporary: The ſame Fire that is mere Wrath in a Devil, is the Sweetneſs of flaming Love in an Angel; and the ſame Fire which is the Majeſtick Glory of Heaven, makes the Horror of Hell.

CHAP. III.

The true Ground of all the Doctrines of the Gospel discovered. Why Adam could make no Atonement for his Sins. Why, and how Jesus Christ alone could make this Atonement. Whence the Shedding of Blood for the Remission of Sins. What Wrath and Anger it is, that is quenched and aton'd by the Blood of Christ. Of the last Sufferings of Christ. Why, and how we must eat the Flesh and drink the Blood of Jesus Christ.

1. WE have now, Worthy Reader, so far cleared the Way, that we have nothing to do, but to rejoice in the most open Illustration, and full Proof of all the great Doctrines of the Gospel, and to see all the Objections, which Deists, Arians, and Socinians have brought against the first Articles of our Faith, dash'd to Pieces: For as soon as we but begin to know, that the holy, tri-une Deity from Eternity to Eternity manifests itself in Nature, by the tri-une Birth of Fire, Light and Spirit, and that all Angels and Men must have been created out of this Nature; there is not a Doctrine in Scripture concerning the Creation, Creation, Fall, and Redemption of Man, but becomes the moſt plainly intelligible, and all the Myſteries of our Redemption are proved and confirmed to us, by all that is viſible and perceptible in all Nature and Creature.

Here we have the plain Foundation of the whole Oeconomy of all Religion from the Beginning to the End of Time, why the Incarnation of the Son of God, who is the Light of the World, muſt have before it the fiery Diſpenſation of the Father delivered from Mount Sinai; and after it, the pouring out, or proceeding forth of the Holy Spirit upon all Fleſh; it is becauſe the tri-une Life of the fallen Race muſt be reſtored according to the tri-une Manifeſtation of the Holy Deity in Nature.

Here we know what the Love, and what the Anger of God is, what Heaven and Hell, an Angel and a Devil, a loſt and a redeemed Soul are. The Love, and Goodneſs, and Bleſſing of God known, found, and enjoyed by any Creature, is nothing elſe but the Holy Trinity of God known, found, and enjoyed in the bliſsful, glorious, tri-une Life of Fire, Light and Spirit, where Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt perpetually communicate their own nameleſs, numberleſs, boundleſs Powers, Riches and Glories to the created Image of their own Nature.

Nature. The Hell in Nature, and the helliſh Life in the Creature, the Wrath of God in Nature and Creature, is nothing elſe but the triune, holy Life broken and deſtroyed in ſome Order of Creatures, it is only the Fire of Heaven ſeparated from its heavenly Light and Spirit. This is that Eternal Anger, and Wrath, and Vengeance, that muſt be aton'd, ſatisfy'd, and remov'd, that eternal Fire that muſt be quench'd, that eternal Darkneſs that muſt be changed into Light, or there is no Poſſibility in Nature, that the Soul of fallen Man ſhould ever ſee the Kingdom of God: And here all the Doctrines of the Socinians are quite tore up by the Roots. For in this Ground appeareth the abſolute Neceſſity of the Incarnation, Life, Sufferings, Death, Reſurrection and Aſcenſion of the Son of God. Here lieth the full Proof, that through all Nature there could no Redeemer of Man be found, but only in the Second Perſon of the adorable Trinity become Man. For as the Light and Spirit of Eternal Life, is the Light and Spirit of the Son and Holy Ghoſt manifeſted in Heaven, ſo the Light of Eternal Life could never come again into the fallen Soul, but from him alone, who is the Light of Heaven. He muſt be again in the Soul, as he was in it, when it was firſt breathed forth from the Holy Trinity, he must be manifested in the Soul, as he is in Heaven, or it can never have the Life of Heaven in it.

The Socinians therefore, or others, who think they pay a just Deference to the Wisdom and Omnipotence of God, when they suppose there was no absolute Necessity for the Incarnation of the Son of God; but that God, if he had so pleased, could as well have sav'd Man some other Way, shew as great Ignorance both of God and Nature, as if they should have said, that when God makes a blind Man to see by opening or giving him Eyes, there was no Necessity in the Thing itself, that Sight should be given in that particular Way, but that God, if he had so pleased, could have made him become a seeing Man in this World without the Eyes, or Light of this World.

For if the Son of God is the Light of Heaven, and Man only wants to be redeemed, because he has lost the Light of Heaven; is it not absolutely impossible for Him to be redeemed any other Way, or by any other Thing, than by a Birth of this Son of God in him. Is not this Particularity the one only Thing that can raise fallen Man, as seeing Eyes are the one only Thing that can take away Blindness from the Man?

If Adam had been able to undo in himſelf all that he had done, if he could have gone back into that State from whence he was fallen, if he could have raiſed up again in himſelf that Birth of the Holy Trinity, in which he was created, no Saviour had been wanted for him; but becauſe he could not do any Thing of this, but muſt be That which he had made himſelf to be, therefore the Wrath of Nature, or the Wrath of God manifeſted in Nature, abode upon him, and this Wrath muſt of all neceſſity be appeaſed, aton'd, and ſatisfy'd, that is, it muſt be kindled into Light and Love, before he could again find, and enjoy the God of Nature, as a God of Light and Love.

Could Adam himſelf have done all that which I have juſt now mentioned, then his own Actions had aton'd and ſatisfied the Divine Wrath, and had reconcil'd him to God: For nothing loſt him the Love of God, but That which ſeparated him from God; and nothing did, or ever can ſeparate him from God, but the Loſs of that tri-une Life, in which alone the Holy Trinity of Divine Love can dwell. If therefore Adam could have raiſed again in himſelf that tri-une Life, then his Sin, and the Wrath of God upon him, had been only tranſitory; but becauſe he did That, which according to all the Possibilities of Nature, was unalterable; therefore he became a Prisoner of an eternal Wrath, an Heir of an everlasting, painful Life, till the Love of God, who is greater than Nature, should do That for him and in him, which he could by no Powers of Nature do for himself, nor the highest of Creatures do for him.

3. And here we see in the plainest Light, that there was no Anger in God himself towards the fallen Creature, because it was purely and solely the infinite Love of God towards him, that did, and alone could raise him out of his fallen State: All Scripture, as well as Nature, obliges us to think thus of God. Thus it is the whole Tenor of Scripture, that God so lov'd the World, that he sent his only-begotten Son into it, that the World, through him, might be saved: Is not this saying more than if it had been said, that there was no Anger in God himself towards fallen Man? Is he not expressly declared to be infinitely flowing forth in Love towards him? Could God be more infinite in Love, or more infinitely distant from all Possibility of Anger towards Man, when he first created him, than when he thus redeemed him? God out of pure and free Love gave his Son to be the Life of the World, first, as an inspoken and ingrafted

Word

Word of Life, as the Bruiſer of the Serpent given to all Mankind in their Father Adam. This Word of Life, and Bruiſer of the Serpent, was the Extinguiſher of that Wrath of God that lay upon fallen Man. Now, will the Scriptures, which tell us that the Love of God ſent his Son into the World, to redeem Man from that helliſh Wrath that had ſeiz'd him, allow us to ſay, that it was to extinguiſh a Wrath that was got into God himſelf, or that the Bruiſer of the Serpent was to bruiſe, ſuppreſs, or remove ſomething that Sin had raiſed in the Holy Deity itſelf? No ſurely, but to bruiſe, alter, and overcome an Evil in Nature and the Creature, that was become Man's Separation from the Enjoyment of the God of Love, whoſe Love ſtill exiſted in its own State, and ſtill followed him, and gave his only Son to make him capable of it. Do not the Holy Scriptures continually teach us, that the Holy Jeſus became incarnate to deſtroy the Works of the Devil, to overcome Death and Hell that had taken Man captive? And is not this ſufficiently telling us, what that Wrath was, and where it exiſted, which muſt be aton'd, ſatisfy'd, and extinguiſhed, before Man could again be alive unto God, or reconciled unto him, ſo as to have the tri-une Life of Light and Love in him? It was a Wrath of Death, a Wrath of Hell, a Wrath of Sin, and which only the precious, powerful Blood of Chriſt could change into a Life of Joy and Love: And when this Wrath of Death and Hell are removed from Human Nature, there neither is, nor can be any other Wrath of God abiding on it. Are not the Devils and all loſt Souls juſtly ſaid to be under the eternal Wrath of God, and yet in no Wrath but that which exiſts in Hell, and in their own Helliſh Nature.

4. They therefore, who ſuppoſe the Wrath and Anger of God upon fallen Man, to be a State of Mind in God himſelf, to be a political kind of juſt Indignation, a Point of Honourable Reſentment, which the Sovereign Deity, as Governor of the World, ought not to recede from, but muſt have a ſufficient Satisfaction done to his offended Authority, before he can, conſiſtently with his Sovereign Honour, receive the Sinner into his Favour, hold the Doctrine of the Neceſſity of Chriſt's atoning Life and Death in a miſtaken Senſe. That many good Souls may hold this Doctrine in this Simplicity of Belief, without any more Hurt to themſelves, than others have held the Reality of Chriſt's Fleſh and Blood in the Sacrament under der the Notion of the Tranſubſtantiation of the Bread and Wine, I make no Manner of Doubt: But when Books are written to impoſe and require this Belief of others, as the only ſaving Faith in the Life and Death of Chriſt, it is then an Error that ceaſes to be innocent: For neither Reaſon, nor Scripture will allow us to bring Wrath into God himſelf, as a Temper of his Mind, who is only infinite, unalterable, overflowing Love, as unchangeable in Love, as He is in Power and Goodneſs. The Wrath that was awakened at the Fall of Man, that then ſeized upon him, as its Captive, was only a Plague, or Evil, or Curſe that Sin had brought forth in Nature and Creature; it was only the Beginning of Hell: It was ſuch a Wrath as God himſelf pitied Man's lying under it; it was ſuch a Wrath as God himſelf furniſhed Man with a Power of overcoming and extinguiſhing, and therefore it was not a Wrath that was according to the Mind, Will, and Liking, or Wiſdom of God; and therefore it was not a Wrath that was in God himſelf, or which was exerciſed by his Sovereign Wiſdom over his diſobedient Creatures: It was not ſuch a Wrath, as when Sovereign Princes are angry at Offenders, and will not ceaſe from their Reſentment, 'till ſome political Satisfaction, or valuable Amends be made to their ſlighted Authority. No, no; it was ſuch a Wrath as God himſelf hated, as he hates Sin and Hell, a Wrath that the God of all Nature and Creature ſo willed to be remov'd and extinguiſhed, that ſeeing nothing leſs cou'd do it, he ſent his only-begotten Son into the World, that all Mankind might be ſav'd and delivered from it. For ſeeing the Wrath that was awakened and brought forth by the Fall, and which wanted to be appeas'd, aton'd, and quench'd, was the Wrath of eternal Death, and eternal Hell, that had taken Man captive; therefore God ſpared not the precious, powerful, efficacious Blood of the Holy Jeſus, becauſe that alone could extinguiſh this eternal Wrath of Death and Hell, and re-kindle Heaven and Eternal Life again in the Soul. And thus all that the Scriptures ſpeak of the Neceſſity and powerful Atonement of the Life and Death of Chriſt, all that they ſay of the infinite Love of God towards fallen Man, and all that they ſay of the Eternal Wrath and Vengeance to which Man was become a Prey, have the moſt ſolid Foundation, and are all of them proved to be conſiſtent, harmonious Truths of the greateſt Certainty, according to the plain Letter of Scripture.

5. It

5. It is the Foundation of the Law and the Gospel, that without shedding of Blood, there is no Remission of Sins; and that the precious Blood of Christ could alone do this, could alone reconcile us to God, and deliver us from the Wrath to come. How, and why Blood, and only the Blood of Jesus Christ could do this, will appear as follows: Adam was created with a twofold Respect, to be himself a glorious, living, eternal Image of the Holy, triune God, and to be a Father of a new World of like Beings, all descended from himself: When Adam fell, he lost both these Conditions of his created State; the Holy Image of God was extinguished, his Soul lost the Light and Spirit of Heaven, and his Body became earthly, bestial, corruptible Flesh and Blood, and he could only be a Father of a Posterity partly diabolical, and partly bestial.

Now, if the first Purpose of God was to stand, and to take Effect; if Adam was still to be the Father of a Race that were to become Sons of God, then there was an absolute Necessity that all that Adam had done in and to himself, and his Posterity, by the Fall, should be undone again; the Serpent and the Beast, that is, the Serpentine Life, and the bestial Life in Human Nature, must both of them be overcome, and driven out of it. This was the one only, poſſible Salvation for Adam, and every Individual of his Poſterity.

Adam had kill'd that which was to have been immortal in him, he had raiſed that into a Life which never ſhould have been alive in him, and therefore that which was to be undone and alter'd both in himſelf and his Poſterity, was this, it was to part with a Life that he had raiſed up into Being, and to get another Life, which he had quite extinguiſhed.

And here appears the true, infallible Ground of all the Sacrifice, and all the Blood-ſhedding that is neceſſary to redeem and reconcile Man to God. 'Tis becauſe the earthly, fleſhly, beſtial, corruptible Life under the Elements of this World, is a Life rais'd and brought into Man by the Fall, is not that Life which God created, but is an Impurity in the Sight of God, and therefore cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; 'tis a Life, or Body of Sin, brought forth by Sin, and the Habitation of Sin, and therefore it is a Life that muſt be given up, its Blood muſt be poured out, before Man can be releaſed from his Sins: This is the one only Ground of all the Shedding of Blood in Religion. Had not a Life foreign to the Kingdom of God, and utterly incapable of it, been introduced by the Fall, there had been no poſſible Room for the Death of any Creature, or the pouring out any Blood, as ſerviceable and inſtrumental to the raiſing fallen Man.

6. But now, this beſtial, animal Life which is thus to be given up, and its Blood pour'd out, is but the half, and leſſer half of that which is requir'd to deliver Man from all that the Fall has brought upon him. For the heavenly Life, the Birth of the Light and Holy Spirit of God, which Adam had quite extinguiſhed, was to be kindled or regenerated again; alſo his firſt, glorious, immortal Body was to be regain'd, before he could become an Inhabitant of the Kingdom of Heaven: But for all this Adam had no Power. See here again the true and dreadful State of the Fall, it was the Fall into ſuch a Life, as muſt be ſlain and ſacrificed before the fallen Soul cou'd come to God; and yet this Death and Sacrifice of the Body, which was thus abſolutely neceſſary, was the moſt dreadful Thing that could happen to Man, becauſe his own Death, come when it wou'd, would only remove him from the Light of this World into the Eternal Darkneſs, and helliſh State of fallen Angels: And here we find the true Reaſon, why Man's own Death, tho' a Sacrifice neceſſary to be made, made, had yet nothing of Atonement or Satisfaction in it; it was becauſe it left the eternal Wrath of Nature, and the Hell that was therein, unquench'd and unextinguiſh'd in the Soul, and therefore made no Reconcilement to God, no Reſtoration to the Creature of its firſt State and Life in God, but left the Soul in its dark, wrathful Separation from the Kingdom of Light and Love,

But here the amazing Infinity of divine Love appear'd, ſuch a Myſtery of Love as will be the univerſal Song of Praiſe to all Eternity. Here God, the ſecond Perſon in the holy Trinity, took human Nature upon him, became a ſuffering, dying Man, that there might be found a Man, whoſe Sufferings, Blood and Death had Power to extinguiſh the Wrath and Hell that Sin had brought forth, and to be a Fountain of the firſt heavenly Life to the whole Race of Mankind.

It was human Nature that was fallen, that had loſt its firſt heavenly Life, and got a beſtial, diabolical Life in the ſtead of it. Now if this human Nature was to be reſtor'd, there was but one poſſible Way, it muſt go back to the State from whence it came, it muſt put off all that it had put on, it muſt regain all that it had loſt: But the human Nature that fell, could do nothing thing of this, and yet all this must be done in and by that human Nature which is fallen, or it could never, to all Eternity, come out of the State of its Fall; for it could not possibly come out of the State of its Fall, but by putting off all that, which the Fall had brought upon it. And thus stood Man, as to all the Powers of Nature and Creature, in an utter Impossibility of Salvation, and had only a short Life of this World betwixt him and Hell.

7. But let us now change the Scene, and behold the Wonders of a new Creation, where all Things are called out of the Curse and Death of Sin, and created again to Life in Christ Jesus; where all Mankind are chosen and appointed to the Recovery of their first glorious Life, by a new Birth from a second Adam, who, as an universal Redeemer, takes the Place of the first fallen Father of Mankind, and so gives Life and Immortality, and Heaven to all that lost them in Adam.

God, according to the Riches of his Love, rais'd a Man out of the Loins of Adam, in whose mysterious Person, the whole Humanity, and the Word of God was personally united; that same Word which had been inspoken into Adam at his Fall, as a secret Bruiser of the Serpent, and real Beginning of his Salvation; so that that in this ſecond Adam, God and Man was one Perſon. And in this Union of the divine and human Nature lies the Foundation and Poſſibility of our Recovery. For thus the holy Jeſus became qualify'd to be the ſecond Adam, or univerſal Regenerator of all that are born of Adam the firſt. For being himſelf that Deity, which as a Spark or Seed of Life was given to Adam, thus all that were born of Adam had alſo a Birth from him, and ſo ſtood under him, as their common Father and Regenerator of a heavenly Life in them. And it was this firſt inſpoken Word of Life which was given to Adam, that makes all Mankind to be the ſpiritual Children of the ſecond Adam, tho' he was not born into the World till ſo many Years after the Fall. For ſeeing the ſame Word that became their perfect Redeemer in the Fulneſs of Time, was in them from the Beginning, as a Beginning of their Redemption, therefore he ſtood related to all Mankind as a Fountain and Deriver of an heavenly Life into them, in the ſame univerſal manner as Adam was the Fountain and Deriver of a miſerable Mortality into them.

And ſeeing alſo this great and glorious Redeemer had in himſelf the whole Humanity, both as it was before and after the Fall, viz.

in

in his inward Man the Perfection of the first Adam, and in his outward the Weakness and Mortality of the fallen Nature; and seeing he had all this, as the Undoer of all that Adam had done, as the Overcomer of Death, as the Former and Raiser of our heavenly Life, therefore it was, that all his Conquests over this World, Sin, Death, and Hell, were not the Conquests of a single Person that terminated in himself, but had their real Effect and efficacious Merit through all human Nature, because he was the appointed Father and Regenerator of the whole human Nature, and as such, had that same Relation to it all as Adam had: And therefore as Adam's Fall, Sin and Death, did not, could not terminate in himself, because he was our appointed Father, from whom we must have such a State and Condition of Life as he had; so the Righteousness, Death, Resurrection and Ascension of Christ into the Kingdom of Heaven did not terminate in himself, but became ours, because he is our appointed second Adam, from whom we are to derive such a State and Condition of Life as he had; and therefore all that are born again of him, are certainly born into his State of Victory and Triumph over the World, Sin, Death and Hell.

8. Now

8. Now here is opened to us the true Reaſon of the whole Proceſs of our Saviour's Incarnation, Paſſion, Death, Reſurrection and Aſcenſion into Heaven: It was becauſe fallen Man was to go through all theſe Stages as neceſſary Parts of his Return to God; and therefore, if Man was to go out of his fallen State, there muſt be a Son of this fallen Man, who, as a Head and Fountain of the whole Race, could do all this, could go back through all theſe Gates, and ſo make it poſſible for all the Individuals of human Nature, as being born of him, to inherit his conquering Nature, and follow him through all theſe Paſſages to eternal Life. And thus we ſee, in the ſtrongeſt and cleareſt Light, both why and how the holy Jeſus is become our great Redeemer.

Had he fail'd in any of theſe Things, had he not been all that he was, and did all that he did, he could not have made one full, perfect, ſufficient Atonement and Satisfaction for the Sins of the whole World, that is, he could not have been and done that, which in the Nature of the Thing was abſolutely neceſſary, and fully ſufficient to take the whole human Race out of the Bondage and Captivity of their fallen State. Thus, had he not really had the divine Nature in his Perſon, he could not have begun to be our second Adam from the Time of the Fall, nor could we have ſtood related to him as Children, that had receiv'd a new Birth from him. Neither could he have made a Beginning of a divine Life in our fallen Nature, but that he was that God who could make Nature begin again where it had fail'd in our firſt Father. Without this Divinity in his Perſon, the Perfection of his Humanity would have been as helpleſs to us as the Perfection of an Angel. Again, had he not been Man, and in human Nature overcome Sin and Temptation, he could have been no Saviour of fallen Man, becauſe nothing that he had done had been done in and to the fallen Nature. Adam might as well have deriv'd Sin into the Angels by his Fall, as Chriſt had deriv'd Righteouſneſs into us by his Life, if he had not ſtood both in our Nature, and as the common Father and Regenerator of it; therefore his Incarnation was neceſſary to deliver us from our Sins, and accordingly the Scripture ſaith, he was manifeſt in the Fleſh to deſtroy the Works of the Devil. Again, if Chriſt had not renounced this Life, as heartily and thoroughly as Adam choſe it, and declared abſolutely for another Kingdom in another World; if he had not ſacrific'd the Life he took up in and from this World, he could not have been

our Redeemer, and therefore the Scripture continually aſcribes Atonement, Satisfaction, Redemption, and Remiſſion of Sins to his Sufferings and Death. Again, had not our Lord entred into that State of eternal Death which fallen Man was eternally to inherit; had he not broke from it as its Conqueror, and roſe again from the Dead, he could not have deliver'd us from the Effects of our Sins, and therefore the Apoſtle ſaith, If Chriſt be not riſen, ye are yet in your Sins. But I muſt enlarge a little upon the Nature and Merits of our Saviour's laſt Sufferings. It is plain from Scripture that that Death, which our bleſſed Lord dy'd on the Croſs, was abſolutely neceſſary for our Salvation; that he, as our Saviour, was to taſte Death for every Man —that as the Captain of our Salvation, he was to be made perfect through Sufferings —— that there was no Entrance for fallen Man into Paradiſe till Chriſt had overcome that Death and Hell, or that firſt and ſecond Death which ſtood between us and it.

Now the abſolute Neceſſity of our Saviour's doing and ſuffering all this, plainly appears, as ſoon as we conſider him as the ſecond Adam, who, as ſuch, is to undo all the Evil that the firſt Adam had done in human Nature; and there-therefore muſt enter into every State that belong'd to this fallen Nature, reſtoring in every State that which was loſt, quickening that which was extinguiſh'd, and overcoming in every State that by which Man was overcome. And therefore as eternal Death was as certainly brought forth in our Souls, as temporal Death in our Bodies, as this Death was a State that belong'd to fallen Man, therefore our Lord was obliged to taſte this dreadful Death, to enter into the Realities of it, that he might carry our Nature victoriouſly through it. And as fallen Man was to have enter'd into this eternal Death at his giving up the Ghoſt in this World, ſo the ſecond Adam, as reverſing all that the firſt had done, was to ſtand in this ſecond Death upon the Croſs, and dye from it into that Paradiſe out of which Adam the firſt dy'd into this World.

Now when the Time drew near that our bleſſed Lord was to enter upon his laſt great Sufferings, viz. the Realities of that ſecond Death through which he was to paſs, then it was that all the anguiſhing Terrors of a loſt Soul began to open themſelves in him; then all that eternal Death which Adam had brought into his Soul, when it loſt the Light and Spirit of Heaven, began to be awaken'd, and ſtir-

ring in the ſecond Adam, who was come to ſtand in the laſt State of the fallen Soul, to be encompaſs'd with that eternal Death and Senſibility of Hell, which muſt have been the everlaſting State of fallen Man.

The Beginning of our Lord's Entrance into the terrible Jaws of this ſecond Death, may be juſtly dated from thoſe affecting Words, My Soul is exceeding ſorrowful, even unto Death, tarry ye here with me and watch. See here the Lord of Life reduc'd to ſuch Diſtreſs as to beg the Prayers, Watching, and Aſſiſtance of his poor Diſciples! A plain Proof that it was not the Sufferings of this World, but a State of dreadful Dereliction that was coming upon him. O holy Redeemer, that I knew how to deſcribe the anguiſhing Terrors of thy Soul, when thou waſt entring into eternal Death, that no other Son of Man might fall into it.

The Progreſs of theſe Terrors are plainly ſhewn us in our Lord's Agony in the Garden, when the Reality of this eternal Death ſo broke in upon him, ſo awaken'd and ſtirr'd itſelf in him, as to force great Drops of Blood to ſweat from his Body. This was that bitter Cup which made him withdraw himſelf, proſtrate himſelf, and thrice repeat an earneſt

Prayer,

Prayer, that if it were poſſible, it might paſs from him, but at the ſame Time heartily pray'd to drink it according to the divine Will.

This was that Cup he was drinking from the ſixth to the ninth Hour on the Croſs, nail'd to the Terrors of a two-fold Death, when he cry'd out My God, my God, why haſt thou forſaken me?

We are not to ſuppoſe that our Lord's Agony was the Terrors of a Perſon that was going to be murder'd, or the Fears of that Death which Men could inflict upon him; for he had told his Diſciples, not to fear them that could only kill the Body, and therefore we may be ſure he had no ſuch Fears himſelf. No, his Agony was his Entrance into the laſt, eternal Terrors of the loſt Soul, into the real Horrors of that dreadful, eternal Death, which Man unredeemed muſt have dyed into when he left this World. We are therefore not to conſider our Lord's Death upon the Croſs, as only the Death of that mortal Body which was nail'd to it, but we are to look upon him with wounded Hearts, as fix'd and faſten'd in the State of that two-fold Death, which was due to the fallen Nature, out of which he could not come till he could ſay, It is finiſhed; Father, into thy Hands I commend my Spirit.

In that Inſtant he gave up the Ghoſt of this earthly Life; and as a Proof of his having overcome all the Bars and Chains of Death and Hell, he rent the Rocks, open'd the Graves, and brought the Dead to Life, and triumphantly enter'd into that long ſhut up Paradiſe, out of which Adam dy'd, and in which he promiſed the Thief, he ſhould that Day be with him.

When therefore thou beholdeſt the Crucifix, which finely repreſents to thy Senſes the Saviour of the World hanging on the Croſs, let not thy Thoughts ſtay on any Sufferings, or Death, that the Malice of Men can cauſe; for he hung there in greater Diſtreſs than any human Power can inflict, forſaken of God, feeling, bearing, and overcoming the Pains and Darkneſs of that eternal Death which the fallen Soul of Adam had brought into it. For as Adam by his Fall, or Death in Paradiſe, had nothing left in his Soul, but the Nature, Properties and Life of Hell, all which muſt have awaken'd in him in their full Strength, as ſoon as he had loſt the Fleſh, and Blood, and Light of this World, as this eternal Death was a State that belonged to Man by the Fall, ſo there was an abſolute Neceſſity that the Saviour of Man ſhould enter into all theſe awaken'd Realities of the laſt eternal Death, and come victoriouſly out of them, or Man had never been redeemed from them. For the fallen Nature could no way poſſibly be ſav'd, but by its own coming victoriouſly out of every Part of its fallen State; and therefore all this was to be done by that Son of Man, from whom we had a Power of deriving into us his victorious Nature.

Laſtly, if our bleſſed Lord was not aſcended into Heaven, and ſet on the Right Hand of God, he could not deliver us from our Sins; and therefore the Scripture aſcribes to him, as aſcended, a perpetual Prieſthood in Heaven: If any Man Sin, ſaith St. John, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jeſus Chriſt the Righteous, and he is the Propitiation for our Sins.

All theſe Things therefore are ſo many equally eſſential Parts of our Saviour's Character, as he is the one Atonement, the full Satisfaction for Sin, the Saviour and Deliverer from the Bondage, Power, and Effects of Sin. And to aſcribe our Deliverance from Sin, or the Remiſſion of our Sins more to the Life and Actions, than to the Death of Chriſt, or to his Death more than to his Reſurrection and Aſcenſion, is directly contrary to the plain Letter and Tenor of the Scripture, which ſpeaks of all theſe Things as jointly qualifying our Lord to be the all-ſufficient Redeemer of Mankind; and when ſpeaking ſeparately of any of them, aſcribes the ſame Power, Efficacy, and redeeming Virtue to one as to the other.

And all this is very plain from the Nature of the Thing; for ſince all theſe Things are neceſſary Parts or Stages of our Return to God, every one of them muſt have the ſame neceſſary Share in delivering us from our ſinful State; and therefore what our Saviour did, as living, dying, riſing from the Dead, and aſcending into Heaven, are Things that he did as equally neceſſary, and equally efficacious to our full Deliverance from all the Power, Effects, and Conſequences of our Sins.

And here we may ſee, in the plaineſt Light, how Chriſt is ſaid to bear our Iniquities, to be made Sin for us, and how his Sufferings have deliver'd us from the Guilt and Sufferings due to our Sins, and how we are ſaved by him. It is not by an arbitrary, diſcretionary Pleaſure of God, accepting the Sufferings of an innocent Perſon, as a ſufficient Amends or Satisfaction for the Sins of Criminals. This is by no means the true Ground of this Matter. In this View we neither think rightly of our Saviour, nor rightly of God's receiving us to Salvation thro' him.

him. God is reconciled to us through Jesus Christ in no other Sense than as we are new born, new created in Christ Jesus. This is the only Merit we have from him. Jesus Christ was made Sin for us, he bore our Iniquities, he saved us, not by giving the Merit of his innocent unjust Sufferings as a full Payment for our Demerits, but he saved us because he made himself one of us, became a Member of our Nature, and such a Member of our Nature, as had Power to heal, remove, and overcome all the Evils that were brought into our Nature by the Fall. He bore our Iniquities and sav'd us, because he stood in our Nature as our common Father, as one that had the same Relation to all Mankind as Adam had, and from whom we can derive all the conquering Power of his Nature, and so are enabled to come out of our Guilt and Iniquities by having his Nature deriv'd into us. This is the whole of what is meant by having our guilty Condition transferred upon him, and his Merit transferred upon us: Our Guilt is transferred upon him in no other Sense than as he took upon him the State and Condition of our fallen Nature, to bear all its Troubles, undergo all its Sufferings, till he had heal'd and overcome all the Effects of Sin. His Merit or Righteousness is imputed or deriv'd into us in no other Senſe, than as we receive from him a Birth, a Nature, a Power to become the Sons of God. Hence it appears, what vain Diſputes the World has had upon this Subject, and how this edifying, glorious Part of Religion has been perplex'd and loſt in the Fictions and Difficulties of ſcholaſtick Learning. Some People have much puzzled themſelves and others with this Queſtion, How it is conſiſtent with the Goodneſs and Equity of God to permit, or accept the Sufferings of an innocent Perſon as a Satisfaction for the Guilt and Puniſhment of criminal Offenders? But this Queſtion can only be put by thoſe, who have not yet known the moſt fundamental Doctrine of the Goſpel Salvation; for according to the Goſpel, the Queſtion ſhould proceed thus, How it is conſiſtent with the Goodneſs and Equity of God, to raiſe ſuch an innocent, myſterious Perſon out of the Loins of fallen Man, as was able to remove all the Evil and Diſorder that was brought into the fallen Nature? This is the only Queſtion that is according to the true Ground of our Redemption, and at once diſperſes all thoſe Difficulties which are the mere Products of Human Invention. The Short of the Matter is this:

Man

Man conſidered as created, or fallen, or redeemed, is That which he is, becauſe of his State in Nature; he can have no Goodneſs in him when created, but becauſe he is brought into ſuch a Participation of a Goodneſs that there is in Nature; he can have no Evil in him when fallen, but becauſe he is fallen from his good State in Nature; he can no way be redeemed, but by being brought into his firſt State of Perfection in Nature; and therefore, this is an eternal, immutable Truth, that he can be redeemed by the God of Nature, only according to the Poſſibilities of Nature: And here lies the true Ground, the whole Reaſon of all that our Saviour was, and did, and ſuffered on our Account: It was becauſe in and through all Nature there could be no other Relief found for us: It was becauſe nothing leſs than ſuch a Proceſs of ſuch a Myſterious Perſon could have Power to undo all the Evils that were done in and to the Human Nature; and therefore it is not only conſiſtent with the Goodneſs and Equity of God to bring ſuch a Myſterious Perſon into the World, but is the moſt infinite Inſtance of his moſt Infinite Love to all Mankind, that can poſſibly be conceived and adored by us. To proceed:

9. By

9. By the Fall of our first Father we have lost our first, glorious Bodies, that eternal, celestial Flesh and Blood which had as truly the Nature of Paradise and Heaven in it, as our present Bodies have the Nature, Mortality and Corruption of this World in them: If therefore we are to be redeemed, there is an absolute Necessity that our Souls be cloathed again with this first paradisical, or heavenly Flesh and Blood, or we can never enter into the Kingdom of God. Now, this is the Reason, why the Scriptures speak so particularly, so frequently, and so emphatically of the powerful Blood of Christ, of the great Benefit it is to us, of its Redeeming, Quickening, Life-giving Virtue; it is because our first Life, or heavenly Flesh and Blood is born again in us, or derived again into us from this Blood of Christ.

Our Blessed Lord, who died for us, had not only that outward Flesh and Blood, which he received from the Virgin Mary, and which died upon the Cross, but he had also an holy Humanity of heavenly Flesh and Blood veil'd under it, which was appointed by God to quicken, generate, and bring forth from itself, such an holy Offspring of immortal Flesh and Blood, as Adam the first should have brought forth before his Fall.

If

If our Lord Chriſt had not had a heavenly Humanity, conſiſting of ſuch Fleſh and Blood as is not of this World, he had not been ſo perfect as Adam was, nor could our Birth from him, raiſe us to that Perfection, which we had loſt, nor could his Blood be ſaid to purchaſe, ranſom, redeem, and reſtore us; becauſe, as it is heavenly Fleſh and Blood that we have loſt, ſo we can only have it ranſom'd and reſtor'd to us, by that Blood which is of the ſame heavenly and immortal Nature with that which we have quite loſt. Our common Faith, therefore, obliges us to hold, that our Lord had the Perfection of the firſt Adam's Fleſh and Blood united with, and veiled under that fallen Nature, which he took upon him from the Bleſſed Virgin Mary. Had he not taken our fallen Nature upon him, nothing that he had done, could have been of any Advantage to us, or brought any Ranſom or Redemption to our fallen Nature; and had he not taken our Nature as it was before the Fall, he could not have been our ſecond Adam, or a Reſtorer to us of that Nature, which we ſhould have had from Adam if he had not fallen.

Now, what our Common Faith thus fully teaches, concerning a heavenly, as well as earthly Humanity, which our Lord had, is alſo

alſo plainly ſignified to us by ſeveral clear Texts of Scripture; as where he ſaith of himſelf, I am from above, ye are from beneath; again, I am not of this World; and further, No one aſcends into Heaven, but He that came down from Heaven, even the Son of Man, who is in Heaven: Theſe and other Texts of the like Nature, which plainly ſpeak of ſomething in our Bleſſed Lord, which can neither be underſtood of his Divinity, nor of that Fleſh and Blood which he received from the Virgin Mary, has forc'd ſome Scholaſtick Divines to hold the Pre-exiſtence of our Saviour's Soul, which is an Opinion utterly inconſiſtent with our Redemption; for it is as neceſſary that our Lord ſhould have a Soul as well as a Body derived from Adam, in order to be the Redeemer of Adam's Offspring: But all theſe Texts, which a Learning, merely literal, has thus miſtaken, do only prove this great, neceſſary, and edifying Truth, that our Bleſſed Lord had a heavenly Humanity, which cloathed itſelf with the Fleſh and Blood of this World in the Womb of the Virgin; and from that heavenly Humanity, or Life-giving Blood it is, that our firſt heavenly, immortal Fleſh and Blood is generated and form'd in us again; and therefore his Blood is truly the Atonement, the Ranſom

ſom, the Redemption, the Life of the World; becauſe it brings forth, and generates from itſelf the paradiſical, immortal Fleſh and Blood, as certainly, as really, as the Blood of fallen Adam brings forth and generates from itſelf the ſinful, vile, corruptible Fleſh and Blood of this Life.

Wou'd you farther know, what Blood this is, that has this atoning, Life-giving Quality in it? It is that Blood which is to be receiv'd in the Holy Sacrament. Wou'd you know, why it quickens, raiſes and reſtores the inward Man that died in Paradiſe? The Anſwer is from Chriſt himſelf, He that eateth my Fleſh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him, that is, he is born of my Fleſh and Blood. Wou'd you know, why the Apoſtle ſaith, That he hath purchaſed us by his Blood, Acts xx. 28. That we have Redemption through his Blood, Epheſ. i. 7. Why he prays the God of Peace —— through the Blood of the Everlaſting Covenant, to make us perfect in every good Work to do his Will; 'tis becauſe the Holy Jeſus ſaith, except we drink his Blood, we have no Life in us, and therefore the drinking his Blood, is the ſame Thing as receiving a Life of heavenly Fleſh and Blood from him: And all this is only ſaying, that our Saviour, the ſecond Adam, muſt must do that for us and in us, which the first Adam shou'd have done; his Blood must be that to us by way of Descent, or Birth from him, which the Blood of our first Father, if he had not fallen, wou'd have been to us; and as this Blood of an immortal Life is lost by the Fall, so he from whom we receive it again by a secondary Way, is justly and truly said, to purchase, to redeem, and ransom us by his Blood.

Now, there is but one redeeming, sanctifying, Life-giving Blood of Christ, and it is that which gave and shed itself under the Veil of that outward Flesh and Blood that was sacrificed upon the Cross; it is that Holy and Heavenly Flesh and Blood which is to be received in the Holy Sacrament; it is that holy, immortal Flesh and Blood which Adam had before the Fall, of which Blood if we had drank, that is, if we had been born of it, we had not wanted a Saviour, but had had such Flesh and Blood as could have entred into the Kingdom of Heaven; had we received this holy, immortal Flesh and Blood from Adam before his Fall, it had been called our being born of his Flesh and Blood; but because we receive that same Flesh and Blood from Jesus Christ, our second Adam, by our Faith, our Hunger and

Desire

Desire of it; therefore it is justly call'd our eating and drinking his Flesh and Blood.

And here we have another strong Scripture Proof, that our Saviour had heavenly Flesh and Blood veil'd under that which he receiv'd from the Virgin Mary. For does not the Holy Sacrament undeniably prove to us, that he had a heavenly Flesh entirely different from that which was seen nail'd to the Cross, and which was to be a heavenly, substantial Food to us; that he had a Blood entirely different from that which was seen to run out of his mortal Body, which Blood we are to drink of, and live for ever?

Now, that Flesh and Blood cannot enter into the Kingdom of God, is a Scripture Truth; and yet it must be affirm'd to be a Truth according to the same Scriptures, that Flesh and Blood can, and must enter into the Kingdom of God, or else, neither Adam, nor any of his Posterity could enter in thither; therefore, it is a Scripture Truth, that there is a Flesh and Blood that has the Nature, the Likeness, and Qualities of Heaven in it, that is as wholly different from the Flesh and Blood of this World, as Heaven is different from the Earth. For if the Flesh and Blood that we now have, cannot possibly enter into the Kingdom of Heaven,

Heaven, and yet we must be Flesh and Blood, and Christ our Lord must be Flesh and Blood, for ever in Heaven; then it follows, that there is a real Flesh and Blood that has nothing of this World in it, that neither arises from it, nor is nourished by it, but will subsist eternally, when this World is dissolved and gone. Now, if this Flesh and Blood is lost by the Fall of our first Father, and if the Blood which we derive from him is the Cause, the Seat, and Principle of our mortal, corruptible, impure Life; if from the Blood of this first Father, all our Unholiness, Impurity and Misery is derived into us, then we may clearly understand what is meant by our being redeemed by the Blood of Christ, and why the Scriptures speak so much of his atoning, quickening, Life-giving, cleansing, sanctifying Blood; it is because it is to us the Reverse of the Blood of Adam, it is the Cause, the Seat, the Principle of our Holiness and Purity of Life; it is that from which we derive an immortal, holy Flesh and Blood in the same Reality from this second Adam, as we inherit a corrupt, impure, and earthly Flesh and Blood from our first Adam: And therefore that which would have been done to us by our Birth, if we had been born of the holy Blood of Adam unfallen, that we are to underſtand to be done to us, in and by the Holy Blood of Chriſt. For the Blood of Chriſt is that to us in the Way of Redemption, which the Blood of our firſt Father ſhou'd have been to us in the Order of the Creation; for the Redemption has no other End, but to raiſe us from our Fall, to do that for us, which we ſhou'd have had by the Condition of our Creation, if our Father had kept his State of Glory and Immortality; and this is a certain Truth, that there would have been no eating the Fleſh, and drinking the Blood of Chriſt in the Chriſtian Scheme of Redemption, but that the Fleſh and Blood which we ſhou'd have had from Adam, muſt of all neceſſity be had, before we can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

10. Here therefore is plainly diſcovered to us, the true Nature, Neceſſity and Benefit of the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's-Supper; both why, and how, and for what End, we muſt of all neceſſity, eat the Fleſh, and drink the Blood of Chriſt. No figurative Meaning of the Words is here to be ſought for, we muſt eat Chriſt's Fleſh, and drink his Blood in the ſame Reality, as he took upon him the real Fleſh and Blood of the Bleſſed Virgin: We can have no real Relation to Chriſt, can be no true Members of his myſtical Body, but by being real Partakers of that ſame kind of Fleſh and Blood, which was truly his, and was his, for this very End, that through him, the ſame might be brought forth in us: All this is ſtrictly true of the Holy Sacrament, according to the plain Letter of the Expreſſion; which Sacrament was thus inſtituted, that the great Service of the Church might continually ſhew us, that the whole of our Redemption conſiſted in the receiving the Birth, Spirit, Life and Nature of Jeſus Chriſt into us, in being born of him, and cloathed with a heavenly Fleſh and Blood from him, juſt as the whole of our Fall conſiſts in our being born of Adam's ſinful Nature and Spirit, and in having a vile, corrupt and impure Fleſh and Blood from him.

But what Fleſh and Blood are we to eat and drink? Not ſuch as we have already, not ſuch as any Offspring of Adam hath, not ſuch as can have its Life and Death by, and from the Elements of this World; and therefore, not that outward, viſible, mortal Fleſh and Blood of Chriſt, which he took from the Virgin Mary, and was ſeen on the Croſs, but a heavenly, immortal Fleſh and Blood, which came down from Heaven, which hath the Nature, Qualities, and Life of Heaven in it, according

according to which our Lord ſaid of himſelf, that he was a Son of Man came down from Heaven, that he was not of this World, that he was from Above, &c. that very Fleſh and Blood which we ſhould have received from Adam, if we had kept his firſt glorious and immortal Nature. For as the Fleſh and Blood which we loſt by his Fall, was the Fleſh and Blood of Eternal Life, ſo it is the ſame Fleſh and Blood of Eternal Life which is offered to us in the Holy Sacrament, that we may eat, and live for ever: This is the adorable Height and Depth of this Divine Myſtery, which brings Heaven and Immortality again into us, and gives us Power to become Sons of God. Woe be to thoſe who come to it with the Mouths of Beaſts, and the Minds of Serpents! who, with impenitent Hearts, devoted to the Luſts of the Fleſh, the Luſts of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life, for worldly Ends, outward Appearances, and ſecular Conformity, boldly meddle with thoſe Myſteries that are only to be approached by thoſe that are of a pure Heart, and who worſhip God in Spirit and in Truth. Juſtly may it be ſaid of ſuch, that they eat and drink Damnation to themſelves, not diſcerning, that is, not regarding, not reverencing, not humbly adoring the Myſteries of the Lord's Body.

If you ask how the eating and drinking the Body and Blood of Christ, is the receiving that Flesh and Blood of Eternal Life, which we should have had from Adam himself, it is for this plain Reason, because the same kind of Flesh and Blood is in Christ, that was in Adam, and is in Christ as it was in Adam, for this very End, that it might be derived into all his Offspring: So that we come to the Sacrament of the Blessed Body and Blood of Christ, because he is our Second Adam, from whom we must now receive that eternal, celestial Flesh and Blood which we should have had from our first Father; and therefore it is, that the Apostle saith, the first Adam was made a living Soul, that is, had a Life in himself which could have brought forth an eternal, ever-living Offspring; but having brought forth a dead Race, the last Adam, as the Restorer of the Life that was lost, was made a quickening Spirit, because quickening again that Life which Adam as a living Soul, should have brought forth.

And thus we have the plain and full Truth of the most mysterious Part of this Holy Sacrament, delivered from the tedious Strife of Words, and that Thickness of Darkness which learned Contenders on all Sides have brought into it. The Letter and Spirit of Scripture are here here both preſerved, and the Myſtery appears ſo amiable, ſo intelligible, and ſo beneficial, as muſt needs raiſe a true and earneſt Devotion in every one that is capable of hungering and thirſting after Eternal Life. And this true and ſound Knowledge of the Holy Sacrament cou'd never have been loſt, if this Scripture Truth had not been over-look'd; namely, that Chriſt is our ſecond Adam, that he is to do that for us, which Adam ſhould have done; that we are to have that Life from him, as a Quickening Spirit, which we ſhould have had from Adam as a living Soul; and that our Redemption is only doing a ſecond Time, or in a ſecond Way, that which ſhou'd have been done by the firſt Order of our Creation: This plain Doctrine attended do, would ſufficiently ſhew us, that the Fleſh and Blood of Eternal Life, which we are to receive from Chriſt, muſt be that Fleſh and Blood of Eternal Life which we loſt in Adam. Now, if we had received this immortal Fleſh and Blood by our Deſcent from Adam, we muſt in the Strictneſs of the Expreſſion have been ſaid to partake of the Fleſh and Blood of Adam; ſo ſeeing we now receive it from Chriſt, we muſt in the ſame Strictneſs of the Expreſſion, be ſaid to be real Partakers of the Fleſh and Blood of Chriſt, becauſe he hath the ſame heavenly Fleſh and Blood which Adam had, and for the ſame End that Adam had it; namely, that it may come by and through him into us. And thus is this great Sacrament, which is a continual Part of our Chriſtian Worſhip, a continual Communication to us of all the Benefits of our Second Adam; for in and by the Body and Blood of Chriſt, to which the Divine Nature is united, we receive all that Life, Immortality, and Redemption, which Chriſt, as living, ſuffering, dying, riſing from the Dead, and aſcending into Heaven, brought to Human Nature; ſo that this great Myſtery is that, in which all the Bleſſings of our Redemption and new Life in Chriſt are center'd. And they that hold a Sacrament ſhort of this Reality of the true Body and Blood of Jeſus Chriſt, cannot be ſaid to hold that Sacrament of Eternal Life, which was inſtituted by our Bleſſed Lord and Saviour.

HAD I the Spirit of an Adversary, or were inclined to find Entertainment for the Satirical Reader, it wou'd not be easy for me to overlook the Opportunity which Dr. Trap's Reply has put into my Hands; but as I don't want to lessen any Appearance of Ability which the Doctor has shewn on this Occasion, or have any Wish that his Pen had not all its Advantages; so whatever personally concerns him, either as a Writer, a Scholar, a Disputant, a Divine, or a Christian, shall have no Reflection from me; and tho' by this means, some sort of Readers may be less pleased, yet, the more Christian Reader will be glad to find, that

thus I must leave two Thirds of his Reply untouch'd; and as I neither have, nor (by the Grace of God) ever will have any personal Contention with any Man whatever, so all the Triumph which the Doctor has gained over me by that Flow of Wrath and Contempt which he has let loose upon me, I shall leave him quietly to enjoy.

It would be no Pleasure to me, nor Benefit to the World, to discover that Malignity of Spirit, that undistinguishing Head, that diabolical Calumny, that shameful Ignorance, that unthinking Temper, that blundering Mind, that perverse Disposition, that indecent Sufficiency, that unbecoming Presumption, that nauseous Dulness, that Ignorance of Logic, that Insensibility of Argument, that Want of Grammar, which he has so heartily laid to my Charge; and if he has any Readers that thank him for this, I shall make no Attempt to lessen their Number.

As I desire nothing for myself, or the Reader, but good Eyes, and a good Heart, seriously attentive to Things useful and edifying, and always open to the Light and Influence of the Holy Spirit of God, so I shall endeavour to say nothing but what is suitable to such a State of Mind, both in myself and the Reader.

The

The Doctor, by way of Plea for a certain Freedom in Drinking, had appeal'd to our Saviour's Miracle at the Marriage Feaſt, where he turn'd Water into Wine, at a Time when the Gueſts had already drank enough, and had indulg'd ſomething to Pleaſure and Chearfulneſs. Therefore more Wine, or a Continuance of Drinking, when Man have already indulged ſomething to Pleaſure and Chearfulneſs, has Authority from our Saviour's Conduct at the Feaſt.

One would imagine no one need be help'd to look with a juſt Indignation at this Abuſe and Prophanation of our Lord's Miracle. Did the Saviour of the World mean, or intend to teach any Thing like this in what he did? Was this the Spirit of his Mind when he thus tim'd this Miracle, did he intend to convey this Inſtruction to them? Now, if our Lord had not this Spirit, did not mean thus to inſtruct the Feaſters by thus timing his Miracle, Is it not a great Profanation of it to appeal to it for that Inſtruction, which was not meant or intended by it? Had any one of thoſe Gueſts then preſent, come up to our Lord and ſaid, Sir, we have heard indeed a Report that you require a Man to deny himſelf, to hate even his own Life in this World, and to forſake all that he hath in order order to be your Diſciple, but now we perceive, not by Words, but by your miraculous Actions, that you are no Enemy to theſe kind of Pleaſures and Indulgences, ſince you have work'd a Miracle to help us to more Wine, when we had already drank enough, and had indulged ſomething to Pleaſure and Chearfulneſs. What would our Lord have ſaid to ſo ſagacious an Obſerver? Would he have told him, that Fleſh and Blood had not revealed ſo great a Truth unto him? Would he have acquieſced in the Propriety and Juſtneſs of his Obſervation, and pronounced him rightly diſpoſed to be one of his Diſciples? But if ſuch an Obſervation could not have been approv'd by our Lord as a Sign of a good Mind, how is the Doctor to be excuſed, who not only looks thus at it himſelf, but propoſes it to the World to be conſidered in that View? In order to vindicate our Saviour's Conduct in this Matter, I ventur'd, without any Help from Commentators or Schoolmen, to tell the Doctor, " That the Wine here ſpo-

" ken of, was not common Wine, and there" fore had no Relation to our common Drink" ing——that it was not Wine from the Juice
" of the Grape——that it had nothing in it
" but what came from a heavenly Hand——
" that it muſt have in it the Purity and Vir- " tue

" tue of him that made it——that it had as " good Qualities in it, and was fitted to have " the ſame Effect upon ſome that drank it as " the Clay which he moiſten'd with his Spit- " tle had upon the Eyes of the Blind——that " it was Water only ſo alter'd, and endued " with ſuch Qualities, as he pleaſed to put in- " to it; and therefore we may be ſure it was " Water as highly bleſſed for their Uſe as they " were capable of; we may be ſure it was fit- " ter to allay the Heat and Diſorder of their " Drinking, than if it had been Water unal- " ter'd by our Saviour. How ſuitable was this " Miracle to a Feaſt? How worthy of ſo di- " vine a Perſon! to make them cooler by giv- " ing them Water made fitter for that Purpoſe, " and to raiſe their Faith by its miraculouſly " ſeeming to be the beſt of Wine.* "

Now how can it be prov'd that this Interpretation is not a true one, not a ſafe one, not a good one? That our Saviour could do all this which is here mention'd, that he could convert Water into a Wine of this Nature, is undeniable; therefore if it had not this Nature and Qualities in it, it could only be becauſe he choſe to make it as bad as that Wine, which has has the Curſe of the Earth in it. But who will undertake to prove that Wine thus brought forth by a divine Power, muſt have the Nature of Wine that is ſqueez'd from the Grape under the Curſe of Sin?

The Doctor confutes my Interpretation, by calling it a ſenſeleſs, impious, profane, ridiculous Noſtrum, a Whimſy of my own Brain, diluting the glorious Miracle into nothing. He has alſo accepted the Help of a learned Aſſiſtant, one Philoclericus, who backs this Confutation by ſaying, that it has evaporated the Miracle into nothing. They both agree that I have brought it to nothing, and only differ in my manner of doing it. The one holds it to be by Dilution, and the other by Evaporation.

To ſet this Matter therefore in a clear Light, let it be ſuppos'd, that the Ruler of the Feaſt ſhould have come to our Saviour, and ſaid, Sir, having been ſurpriz'd at the extraordinary Difference between the laſt Cup of Wine that was brought to me, and that which had been uſed in the Feaſt before, I call'd the Bridegroom to tell him my Wonder at that extraordinary Wine which he had kept to the laſt; but being ſince inform'd by them that drew it, that this Wine was by thy Word of Power drawn from Veſſels brim full of Water, I now come to fall down down before thee, and confeſs that thou art come from God, and haſt given me a Wine that has not the Nature of the earthly Grape in it: But as God gave our Fathers Manna to eat, which was juſtly call'd Angels Food, and Bread from Heaven, ſo this Wine, which thou by a divine Power has given us, muſt be look'd upon, not as the poor Juice of the Grape, but as Wine given us from Heaven.

Now had the Doctor and his learned Aſſiſtant been there, and had been ſuch Chriſtians as they are now, they muſt both have fallen upon the Ruler of the Feaſt, as a ſenſeleſs, impious, profane, ridiculous Wretch, that had diluted and evaporated our Lord's glorious Miracle into nothing: Though it was impoſſible in the Nature of the Thing, for all the Diſciples of our Lord, though ever ſo full of Faith in him, to make higher Profeſſion of the Reality of this glorious Miracle than the Ruler here has done; and yet he has ſaid nothing but what is ſaid in the Account which I have given of the Wine. And indeed it muſt be ſtrangely abſurd for any one to ſuggeſt, that the Reality of the Miracle is hurt by this Account of the Wine. For is not as great a divine Power requir'd to change Water into a Wine, that has a better Nature and Qualities than common Wine, as to make it have no more Goodneſs and Virtue in it than is in the ordinary Juice from the Grape? Or is it not rightly called Wine by thoſe that drew it, or by him that drank it, becauſe it was Wine in Perfection, in ſuch Perfection, as the Grape could never give ſince Adam brought the Curſe into the World.

The Doctor ſays, he believes it was juſt the ſame ſort of Wine as if it had been from the Juice of the Grape, and his Reaſon is, becauſe it is a Part of his Faith that our Saviour had the Power of creating, p. 56. Now this is the very worſt Reaſon the Doctor could poſſibly have thought of. For the Doctor, I will venture to ſay, is ſo orthodox a Schoolman as to hold the common Notion of Creating, viz. that it is a Power of making ſomething to be out of nothing. But Wine thus created is the laſt Thing the Doctor ſhould have had Recourſe to; firſt, becauſe it is directly contrary to the Letter of the Text, which expreſsly ſaith, the Water was made Wine, therefore not a created Wine. Secondly, becauſe Wine ſo created, could not poſſibly be juſt the ſame Sort of Wine, as if it had been from the Juice of the Grape, becauſe as the Grape and every earthly Thing ſtands in a State of Evil, Corruption, and Curſe through the Sin of the fallen Creatures, it is abſolutely impoſſible impoſſible that any Thing immediately created by God out of Nothing, ſhould have any Thing of that Evil, Corruption, or Curſe in it which Sin alone has brought into the Creatures.

The Truth of the Matter is, here was no more a Creation of Wine in this Miracle, than Wine is created every Time the Vine has ripe Grapes upon it. Water, together with Earth, is every Year turn'd into the Juice of the Grape by the Power of the Sun, from God's eternal Word, firſt ſaying, Let the Earth bring forth, the Fruit-tree yielding Fruit, &c.

This ſame eternal, ever ſpeaking, ever operating Word of God, being become Man, could as well turn Water into Wine in a quicker Way by his own Power, as by the Help of the Vine once in a Year. Seeing therefore this Wine was not raiſed from Water and Earth, according to the common Courſe of Vegetation in fallen Nature, but by the immediate Agency of the God of Nature upon Water alone, it is reaſonable and abſolutely neceſſary to ſuppoſe, that it was Wine very much freed from all that Evil, Wrath, and Curſe, which is inſeparable from the ordinary Workings of the preſent State of Nature. Hence it appears, that the Interpretation here given, is ſo far from being a profane, fane, impious, ſenſeleſs Noſtrum, is ſo far from having any Thing of Force, or Fiction in it, that it is the firſt, moſt eaſy, natural, and direct Senſe, in which the Miracle can be juſtly underſtood. And therefore every ſober Chriſtian ought to reject the Doctor's Uſe of this Miracle as inconſiſtent with Piety. Great Intemperance, we all know, is carry'd on by ſuch as pretend not to exceed the lawful Bounds of Pleaſure and Indulgence. And is it conſiſtent with Chriſtian Piety, or Prudence, to furniſh ſuch People with a Pretext for what they do, from our Saviour's Example and Conduct? Or is he to be blam'd, who by a juſt, innocent, and ſafe Interpretation of the Miracle, leaves ſuch People no Claim to its Authority? Surely it is a ſad Miſtake to draw Arguments for ſenſual Indulgence from him, who came to teach and ſave the World by every Kind and Degree of poſſible Self-denial.

But I ſhall add but one Argument more, which is ſufficient of itſelf to ſhew how unjuſtly the Doctor draws an Argument from our Saviour's turning Water into Wine, when more than was neceſſary had been already drank, and ſomething, as he ſays, had been indulged to Pleaſure and Chearfulneſs; and my Argument is this: It is undeniably plain from the whole Story of this Matter, that there was no more Water turn'd into Wine than that one Cup, which was carry'd to the Ruler of the Feaſt, and therefore neither Foundation nor Excuſe for the Doctor's Argument from it.

When the Veſſels were empty, our Lord ordered them to be filled, and to be filled up to the Brim with Water. Such an Order as this muſt, at leaſt in the Execution of it, draw the Eyes and Attention of many that were preſent. Not a Syllable is ever mention'd of any Wine in the Veſſels; they are only repreſented to us as ſtanding brim-full of Water. Our Lord only bids a Servant to draw from theſe Pots thus full of Water, and what he drew and carry'd to the Ruler from Veſſels full of Water, was ſuch Wine as ſtrangely ſurpriz'd him with its peculiar Excellency. The Wine was only found in that Cup into which our Saviour ordered the Servant to draw, and bear to the Ruler, and as he gave this Command but once, ſo it is certain there was but this one Cup of miraculous Wine. A haſty Reader, that has his Eye upon the Increaſe of the Liquor, and wants to have an Argument for his Purpoſe from it, may hurry himſelf into a Fancy, that our Saviour made all the Water Pots ſtand brim-full of Wine. But the Story itſelf plainly repreſents quite another Matter, and is only a Relation of one Cup of miraculous Wine, The Care that our Lord took, that all the Veſſels ſhould be fill'd with Water up to the Top, was not, that the Gueſts might have all the Wine theſe Veſſels could hold, but that all the Veſſels being filled up to the Top, and made viſible to all Beholders, might be ſo many plain Proofs that the Wine which he ordered to be drawn, could only be drawn from one of thoſe Veſſels which ſo many Beholders ſaw to be brim-full of Water, both before and after the Drawing of the Cup of Wine. And herein lay the Strength, and Certainty, and Glory of the Miracle; that ſo many Witneſſes were forced to ſee and own, that by the Word of our Lord, Wine was drawn from Pots juſt fill'd, and ſtill remaining full to the Top with Water. And when this Miracle had thus inconteſtably manifeſted itſelf, the whole Affair was over, and the Gueſts were left, not to rejoice over full Pots of Water turn'd into Wine, but to make ſober Reflections upon the Divinity of that Perſon, who had put ſuch an aſtoniſhing End to their Drinking. Great and holy Jeſus! How like thyſelf, the Saviour of the World, haſt thou acted at this Feaſt! How couldſt thou more ſink the Value, extinguiſh the Deſire, ſuppreſs all Thoughts of Pleaſure and Indulgence in earthly Wine, than by ſhew-

ing the Feaſters, that from the pooreſt of the Elements thou couldſt call forth ſuch Wine as no Grape could give? How couldſt thou more effectually take from them their ſenſual Joy, or more powerfully call them to deny themſelves and come after thee, than by thus miraculouſly ſhewing them, that the richeſt Delights of ſenſual Gratifications were far ſhort of what thou couldſt give to thoſe, that would leave all earthly Delights for thee.

The next Thing of Importance which I ſhall ſpeak to, ſhall be with Regard to what I have ſaid to the Clergy. The miſerable State of Religion, and the great Corruption of Manners, ſo inconteſtably apparent in this Iſland, gave me a juſt Occaſion to deſire all the Clergy, from the higheſt to the loweſt in the Order, to conſider their Conduct, and ſee how free they were from the common Corruption, and how juſtly every one could clear himſelf from having any Share in this general Depravity of Manners. I was not inſenſible that this was a dangerous Attempt, that would expoſe me to the Reſentment of not a few of my Brethren: But as I wrote for no other End but to do as much Good as I could to thoſe who were capable of it, ſo I had no Care but how to ſpeak diſagreeable Truths, in as Chriſtian and inoffenſive a manner as I could; how I have ſucceed-

ed in this, is left to the World to judge. And as it is but too apparent, that the Root of all the Evil, which but too much ſpreads itſelf through the whole Body of the Clergy, is owing to a worldly, trading Spirit, too viſible from the Top to the Bottom of the Order, ſo I pointed at it in the ſofteſt and moſt affecting manner that I could, in the following Words, grounded on a plain Apoſtolical Doctrine and Practice.

" St. Paul, I had obſerv'd, had ſaid, it was lawful for thoſe that preach the Goſpel to live by the Goſpel, and yet makes it Matter of the greateſt Joy and Comfort to himſelf that he had wholly abſtain'd from this lawful Thing; and declares, it were better for him to dye than that this Rejoicing ſhould be taken from him. He appeals to his daily and nightly working with his own Hands, that ſo he might preach the Goſpel freely, and not be chargeable to thoſe that heard him. And this he ſaid he did, not for want of Authority to do otherwiſe, but that he might make himſelf an Enſample unto them to follow him. Here, I ſay, " What fine and awakening Inſtructions are " here given to us of the Clergy, in a practi- " cal Matter of the greateſt Moment? How " ought every one to be frighted at the

" Thoughts

" Thoughts of desiring or seeking a second Liv- " ing, or of rejoicing at great Pay where there " is but little Duty, when the Apostle's rejoi- " cing consisted in this, that he had passed " through all the Fatigues and Perils of preach" ing the Gospel without any Pay at all?
" How cautious, nay, how fearful ought we
" to be, of going so far as the secular Laws
" permit us, when the Apostle thought it
" more desirable to lose his Life, than to go so " far as the very Law of the Gospel would " have suffer'd him?

" It is looked upon as lawful to get several " Preferments, and to make a Gain of the " Gospel, by hiring others to do Duty for us
" at a lower Rate. —— It is look'd upon as " lawful to quit a Cure of Souls of a small In" come, for no other Reason, but because we " can get another of a greater. ——It is look'd
" upon as lawful for a Clergyman to take the " Revenues of the Church, which he serves, to " his own Use, though he has more than a suf" ficient Competency of his own, and much " more than the Apostle could get by his La" bour. —— It is look'd upon as lawful for " the Clergy to live in State and Equipage, to " buy Purple and fine Linnen out of the Re" venues of the Church. ——It is look'd upon

" as lawful for Clergymen to enrich their Fa" milies, to bring up their Children in the fa-
" ſhionable Vanities, and corrupting Methods
" of a worldly and expenſive Life, by Money
" got by preaching the Goſpel of Jeſus Chriſt.
" But now, ſuppoſing all this to be lawful,
" what Comfort and Joy might we treaſure
" up to ourſelves, what Glory and Honour
" might we bring to Religion, what Force
" and Power might we give to the Goſpel,
" what Benefit and Edification ſhould we do
" to our Neighbour, if we wholly abſtain'd
" from all theſe lawful Things? Not by work" ing Day and Night with our own Hands,
" as the great Apoſtle did, but by limiting our
" Wants and Deſires according to the plain " Demands of Nature, and a religious Self-
" Denial."

Now, there are but two poſſible ways of juſtly replying to this; firſt, either by ſhewing that theſe Obſervations are falſely drawn from the Apoſtle's Doctrine and Practice, that I have miſtaken the Spirit of St. Paul, and the Genius of the Goſpel, that I am here doing what the Apoſtle would not do, was he here in Perſon, and repreſenting ſuch Things as Corruptions, which the Apoſtle would be glad to ſee flouriſhing in the Church of Chriſt: Or, ſecondly

condly, that tho' these Things are plainly condemnable from the Apostle's Doctrine and Practice, yet they are not chargeable upon the Spirit, Temper and Practice of the Clergy of this Land. Now, tho' not a Word to the Purpose could possibly be said, but by one of these two Ways, yet the Doctor shuts his Eyes to both of them, and then pronounc'd the following Sentence upon Me, That a Quaker, or Infidel, could not well have reflected with more Virulency upon the Clergy of our Church, then I have done in these Expressions.

Must I then suppose, that the Doctor in his Sermons, never mentions any Failings that concerns his Auditors, or lays before them any of their unchristian Ways of Life? If he does, I desire to know how he clears himself from virulently reflecting upon them and their Christianity? The Quakers, and Infidels, are ready enough, and able enough to shew, that most Congregations of Christians are sadly fallen away from the Religion of the Gospel; and does the Doctor forbear this Charge, is he asham'd to call his Flock to a more Christian Life, or afraid to remind them of their Departure from the Gospel, lest he should seem to join with Quakers and Infidels, who make great Complaints of the Corruptions of Chriſtians? Or, how can the Doctor deſire to be thought to have any true Love, or juſt Eſteem for thoſe Chriſtians, whom he is ſo often reminding of the Corruption and Depravity of their Manners, ſo contrary to the Religion of Jeſus Chriſt? Now, if the Doctor knows how to untye this Knot, and to extricate himſelf from the Charge of virulent reflecting upon his Pariſhioners, as Quakers and Infidels do, then he has diſſolved his Charge againſt me into a mere nothing.

If it was a Thing required of me, I know no more how to raiſe in myſelf the leaſt Spark of Rancour, or Ill-will towards the Clergy, as ſuch, than I know how to work myſelf up into a Hatred of the Light of the Sun. It is as natural to me, to wiſh them all their Perfection, as to wiſh Peace and Happineſs to myſelf both here and hereafter; and when I point at any Failings in their Conduct, it is only with ſuch a Spirit as I would pluck a Brother out of the Fire.

In that Part of my Anſwer, which is addreſs'd to the younger Clergy, I ſaid, "Lay "this down for an infallible Principle; that "an entire, abſolute Renunciation of all "worldly Intereſt, is the only poſſible Foun-"dation of that exalted Virtue, which your

"Station

" Station requires; without this, all Attempts " after an exemplary Piety are in vain: " (and then, by way of Limitation and " Explication of this, it thus immediately fol- " lows:) If you want any Thing from the " World by way of Figure and Exaltation, " you ſhut the Power of your Redeemer out " of your own Souls, and inſtead of convert- " ing, you corrupt the Hearts of thoſe that " are about you. Deteſt therefore, with the " utmoſt Abhorrence, all Deſires of making " your Fortunes, either by Perferments, or " rich Marriages, and let it be your only Am- " bition, to ſtand at the Top of every Virtue, " as viſible Guides and Paterns to all that aſ- " pire after the Perfection of Holineſs," p. 61.

Now, one would imagine there was no Part of the Chriſtian World, however corrupted by Diviſion, where this Doctrine would not be admitted at leaſt in Theory; or, that the Goſpel of Chriſt ſhould be thought to be reproached, where ſuch Advice as this was given to young Divines: And yet it is of this very Advice, that Dr. Trap ſays, he hopes they will have more Grace and Senſe than to follow it: That it is falſe Doctrine, tending to the Reproach and Scandal of the Chriſtian Religion, p. 87.

Is

Is it then come to this, that unleſs young Divines chuſe to ſerve Mammon as well as God, their Profeſſion is a renouncing of Grace and Senſe, and a Reproach to Religion? And muſt they that pretend to act in Chriſt's Name, as Succeſſors in his Office, take Care that they renounce not the Politicks of the Kingdom of this World? For my part, I thought it as ſafe, as Chriſtian, as conſiſtent with the Honour of the Goſpel, to give this Advice thus to ſuppreſs all worldly Views, as to reſiſt all the Temptations of the Devil.

Had Martin Luther, when he gave his Reaſons and Motives for withdrawing from Communion with the Pope, been able to have added this; that the Advice here given, had been formally condemn'd by the Pope in a great Council, the Defenders of that Church would have found it as hard to have made ſuch a Decree conſiſtent with the Goſpel, as the ſelling of Indulgencies: And it may well be ſuppoſed, that no Proteſtant Writer, when ſetting forth the Marks of Antichriſt, and the Beaſt in that Church, would have forgot to have made this Condemnation to be one of them.

For who can ſhew it to be ſo contrary to the whole Spirit of the Goſpel, to call in the

Aſſiſtance

Assistance of the Saints, or to deny the Cup to the Laity in the Manner the Church of Rome does, who can shew this to put so entire a Stop to the Salvation by the Gospel, as to condemn the Advice here given to young Divines as a Scandal and Reproach to Christianity? For all the Ends and Designs of the Gospel may be pursued, and Men may arise out of the Corruption of their Nature, notwithstanding these two Mistakes: But to condemn it as an Error inconsistent with Grace and Sense, a Scandal and Reproach to Christianity, for young Divines to renounce worldly Views, and devote themselves wholly to God, is striking at the whole Root of all Holiness of Life, and no less than a Denial of the whole Spirit of the Gospel.

Our Church requires all its Candidates for Holy Orders, to make Profession of their being mov'd and called by the Holy Ghost to enter into the Service of the Church: This, I should think, is Proof enough, that the Spirit of this World ought not to be alive in them, when they make this Profession; and yet, if any young Persons should come to be ordain'd, thus dead to all wordly Views, thus wholly devoted to God, as I have here recommended, they ought, according to the Doctor, to be rejected

jected by the Bishop, as being led by a Spirit that has lost all Grace and Sense, and is a Scandal and Reproach to the Christian Religion.

It is needless to quote particular Texts of Scripture, teaching the same that I have here taught; as, that our Saviour assures us, that we cannot serve God and Mammon: That St. Paul requires us, having Food and Raiment, to be therewith content, for this Reason, because they that will be rich, fall into divers Temptations of the Devil: That St. John forbids us to love the World, or the Things of the World, for this Reason, because all that is in the World, the Lust of the Flesh, the Lust of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life, is not of the Father, but is of the World. It is needless to have Recourse to particular Texts of this kind, because the whole Nature and Reason of our Redemption is a standing, plain Proof of the same Thing; for we want to be redeemed for no other Reason, but because we are born Children of this World, and have by Nature only the Life, Spirit and Temper of this World in us: This is our Fall, our Curse, our Separation from God; and therefore we can have no Redemption, but by a Renunciation of all the Workings of the Life of this World in us, by a total dying to, and denying ourselves; because all that we are, as to our State, Spirit and Life in this World, is a Life that carries us from God, a Life that ſhould not have been raiſed up in us; 'tis a Life begun by the Fall, a Life of Sin and Corruption, which cannot enter into Heaven. The Life that we have in this World, from the Fall of Adam, is not to be naturally deſtroyed or murder'd, nor are the Neceſſaries and Conveniencies of Life to be rejected, nor is any one to renounce his Share in the Employments that are neceſſary and uſeful to Social Life: The Renunciation of this World reaches no farther than the renouncing the Spirit, Temper, and Inclinations of this worldly Life: We may ſtand in our Stations, when we ſtand in them as the Servants of God, as Citizens of the new Jeruſalem, who have amongſt earthly Things, our Converſation in Heaven: We may keep our Poſſeſſions, when we poſſeſs them as the Things of God, and uſe them not as Nature, but as the Spirit directs us; when we do thus, we have the Poverty of Spirit, which the Goſpel requires, and come up to the very Letter of that Command given to the young Man, to ſell all that he had, and give to the Poor.

But now, if our natural Life in this World, is a corrupt, impure, diſorderly, beſtial, diabolical bolical Life brought forth by the Fall, if we want to be redeemed becauſe we have this State of Life in and from this World, if we want to be born again of the Son of God, born again of the Holy Spirit, becauſe our natural Birth is according to the Spirit of this World; if nothing of the Beaſt, or the Devil, no kind or degree of Selfiſhneſs, Envy, Pride and Vanity can enter into the Kingdom of God, then it is plain from the Nature of the Thing, that all Religion which leaves this Nature alive and unrenounced, which lets Selfiſhneſs, Pride, Wrath, and Vanity ſubſiſt in us, which bring us to our Graves in the ſame Nature in which we were born, is not the Religion that can ſave us. If this Nature in all its moſt ſecret Workings is not renounc'd and deny'd, it matters not what we are, or what we have been doing, it ſignifies little in what Chair we have ſat, whether in Italy, or England, how long we have been Preachers, how many Hereticks and Schiſmaticks we have oppoſed, or how many Books we have written in Defence of Orthodoxy; it is as vain to appeal to this, as to our having preached and propheſy'd in the Name of Chriſt, in the Streets and Fields: For if this Nature is allowed to live in us, all our good Works have been govern'd by it, they have ſprung from Selfiſhneſs, are animated with Pride, and only ſerve to gratify our own natural Paſſions. When therefore the Doctor calls upon young Divines to have more Grace and Senſe than to be driven from Thoughts of advancing themſelves by Preferments and rich Marriages, he would do well to conſider, how little ſhort this is of calling them to break their very Baptiſmal Vow, of renouncing the Pomps and Vanities of the World. And if young Candidates for Holy Orders, looking only at their Baptiſmal Vow, ſhould be led into this Degree of Self-denial and Detachment from the World, does the Doctor think, that the Apoſtles, from whom this Baptiſmal Vow is deſcended, will riſe up in the Day of Judgment, and condemn ſuch groſs Ignorance and Abuſe of it? Does he think, that there are any departed Saints that will join with him in ſaying, that ſuch a Spirit is a Scandal and Reproach to the Goſpel? What more favourable Diſpoſition could the Adverſary of Mankind wiſh to ſee, either in young or old Divines, than a wanting and deſiring to have Figure in the World, either by Preferments or rich Marriages? Would he find it difficult to enter into thoſe Hearts, where the Luſt of the Fleſh, the Luſt of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life had thus entered?

enter'd? Or would he look upon such as but half fitted for him, in Comparison of those who enter'd into holy Orders in a Spirit of Self-denial, and Renunciation of the Pomps and Vanities of the World? Does the Doctor think that these gross Instances of worldly Ambition have no Affinity with those Pomps and Vanities, which must be renounced in Baptism?

John the Baptist was but the Preparer of the Way for evangelical Purity of Life; but does the Doctor think that if the Baptist was now to come amongst us, as some have thought he will come again before the End of the Church, that he would look at Things as the Doctor does, that he would see such Perfections and such Corruptions, such Orthodoxy and such Enthusiasm as the Doctor sees; that this burning and shining Light would see no Generation of Vipers but where the Doctor sees them; that he would preach no where but in Churches; that he would spare no Clergy, nor any Church, but that which is establish'd in this Island; that he would complain of the Hardships of our Clergy, and the suffering Spirit which they are forced to practise, as the Doctor does; that he would plead for a priestly Liberty of coveting Preferments and rich Marriages, as the Doctor doth;

doth, that he would condemn the Treatiſe upon Chriſtian Perfection amongſt the moſt pernicious Books of the Age, that he would recommend Wharton's Defenſe of Pluralities, and the Doctor's Diſcourſe of the Folly, Sin, and Danger of being righteous over-much, as the true Fruits of that Spirit which firſt preach'd the Goſpel? He that can believe this, muſt believe that the Baptiſt was come to confeſs the Errors and Miſtakes of his firſt Appearance in the World.

I ſhall therefore proceed to tell young Divines, that a total Renunciation of the Spirit, Temper, and Inclinations of this Life, is the one Thing neceſſary to conſecrate them to their holy Office; that as ſure as the Church of Chriſt is not a Kingdom of this World, as ſure as Jeſus Chriſt came to deliver us from this evil World, as ſure as he requires us to be born again from above, to hate even our own Life in this World, and to forſake all and follow him, ſo ſure is it that no one has the Call of the Holy Spirit to the Miniſtry of the Goſpel, nor the leaſt Ground of hoping to be led and govern'd by it in his Miniſtry, till he at leaſt prays, deſires, and heartily endeavours to have all that Diſregard of worldly Proſperity, Figure, and Diſtinction, which the Spirit of Je-ſus Chriſt, the Maxims of the Goſpel, and the Practice of the Apoſtles ſet before him. Till this Renunciation of the World is made, we cannot enter into the Miniſtry at its own Door, but, like Thieves and Robbers, climb over its Walls; and then it will be no Wonder if we do no more Good to the Church than Thieves do the Houſe they break open and plunder. If a young Miniſter wants to act the Part, and have the Appearance of a fine Gentleman, to go on in the common Spirit of the World, to cover a ſecular Spirit with an eccleſiaſtick Garb, and make his Fortunes in the Church, he muſt be told, that it is much ſafer to be a Publican and a Sinner, than to be a Trader in ſpiritual Things; that he who with unſanctify'd Hands attends at the Altar, is farther from the Kingdom of God, than he who has not yet made one Step towards it.

Covetouſneſs is Idolatry; it is a heatheniſh, Antichriſtian Vice, tho' only trafficking in worldly Matters; but when it takes Poſſeſſion of the Altar, and makes a Trade of the Myſteries of Salvation, and turns Godlineſs into Gain, it has a Blackneſs of Vice and Depravity which much exceeds that of the worldly Miſer. The Spirit of an Eccleſiaſtick ſhould be the Spirit of Heaven, knowing nothing of this World, World, but how to escape its Snares and Temptations, burning in the Love of God, and holding out Light and Direction to all that aspire after every Perfection of the Christian Life.

'Tis too commonly thought, that when a young Student has taken his Degree, and shewn some Signs of a Genius for Learning, that he is well prepared to enter into the Service of the Church. But alas! all the Accomplishments of human Learning are but the Ornaments of the Old Man, which leave the Soul in its Slavery to Sin, full of all the Disorders and Corruptions of the fallen Nature, and under the Blindness and Perverseness of some of its Passions. If it were not thus, how could the Errors of all Churches have the greatest Scholars for their Champions? All the learned Catholick World is amazed at the Prejudice, the Blindness, the Perverseness, the Partiality, the Weakness, the Sophistry, the Unfairness of Protestant Critics. All the Protestant World is in the same Degree of Wonder at the same Disorders in Catholick Disputants. Is not this a Demonstration of the Nature, Power, and Place of human Learning? Of its great Usefulness and Benefit to Religion? Does not this enough shew, that it is the Effect and Offspring of the old Man, has his Nature and Qualities, dwells in him, and is govern'd by him? Is not this a Demonſtration, that the greateſt Degrees of hiſtorical, verbal, critical Knowledge are no real Hindrance of ſpiritual Blindneſs? Is not this a Demonſtration, that human Learning is as different from divine Light as Heaven is from Earth, the new from the old Man; and that conſidered in itſelf, it leaves us in our firſt State of Slavery to blind and corrupt Paſſions? Now nothing can deliver a Man from this State, but a Spirit born into him from above, a Light from the Spirit of God derived into his Soul, which alone can bring forth a new Man created in Chriſt Jeſus. Nothing can make way for this new Birth from above, but a total Renunciation and Dying to all that we are by our natural Birth in this World. 'Tis only this Separation from Things below, that can make us Partakers of the Truth and Light that comes from above. Take away all Selfiſhneſs from the Papiſt and the Proteſtant, or let them both be dead to the Workings of this Spirit, and then they will be as fully agreed about Goſpel Truths, as they are in the Form of a Square and a Circle. For nothing ſtands in the way of divine Truth, or hinders its plain and full Entrance into us, but this Partiality

tiality or Selfiſhneſs, which adheres to every one who does not make it his firſt Maxim, Prayer, and Endeavour to dye to, and deny himſelf in all the Tempers and Inclinations of our fallen Nature. This Self-denial is the continual Doctrine of our Lord; it is by him made the Beginning of all Converſion to God, and he that cannot, or will not begin there, can make no Beginning of that Life, Light, and Salvation to which he is called in Chriſt Jeſus: Therefore he that offers himſelf for holy Orders, without this Spirit of Self-denial, is a miſerable Intruder into the Myſteries of Salvation; he only hardens and fixes himſelf in the Corruptions of his own Nature, and inſtead of becoming an Inſtrument of ſaving others, his very Office makes his own Salvation more dangerous.

I doubt not but ſome will here charge me with pleading for Poverty in the Miniſtry, and with Enmity to that Maintenance which they have both from the Law and the Goſpel. But this is ſo far from being true, that I wiſh every good Miniſter, whom the Spirit of God has called to his Office, and governs in it, had much more of this World's Goods than are needful for his own reaſonable Subſiſtence; becauſe it is certain, that ſuch a one's Money would all be put into the Poor's Bag, and he would as gladly and liberally administer to their temporal as to their spiritual Necessities. I write against nothing but Avarice, Selfishness, Pride, and Ambition, and the making the Provisions of the Church subservient to these Tempers. A Provision arising from the Gospel, is consecrated by the Gospel, and is profaned by being touch'd and used by a worldly Spirit. And he who turns this Provision of the Gospel into a Support and Gratification of worldly Passions, sins against the Nature and Law of the Gospel more than he that pays his Tithes with Reluctance.

I can easily believe there are Clergy in this Land, who labour in the Gospel, without having a sufficient Subsistence from it; but if much of this Evil was to be charged upon Pluralities, Commendams, and such like spiritual Trading, there would be no Injustice in it. And if the inferior Clergy had their Labours only undervalued by the Laity, they would be in much better Condition than they are.

When it is complain'd by what shameful Qualifications, empty Titles, and unworthy Pretences, Numbers of Persons get loaded and dignified with Variety of Preferments; it is answered, in Excuse of this great Evil, That if

Pre-

Preferments might not be thus crowded together, great Learning, diſtinguiſh'd Abilities, and eminent Labours for the Service of Religion, muſt go unrewarded.

As this Anſwer is not fetch'd from the Goſpel, or the Primitive Church, ſo I ſhall ſhew, that it is as little ſupported by Reaſon. For if this great Learning is truly Goſpel Learning, if this eminent Labour is truly pious Labour, what State of Life can ſo little want to be rewarded? How can Imagination itſelf place a Man more above the Thoughts and Deſires of worldly Advancement? If ſuch a one is full of the Light and Spirit of the Goſpel, if his Labours have been like thoſe of an Apoſtle, muſt he not like an Apoſtle be dead to the World? Can ſuch a one look upon his Labour as a Hardſhip, becauſe it has left him as low, and as far from the Pomp of the World as it found him? Can he repine becauſe the Goſpel has not prov'd a good worldly Bargain to him? If the Spirit of God has begun, and directed all his Labours, animated all his Studies and Deſigns, can ſuch a one think it hard, that he has not by ſuch Labours purchaſed to himſelf a Share in the State and Pride of Human Life?

If by a great Divine, is only meant a Perſon well ſkill'd in Critical Contention, who can artfully, plauſibly, ſcholaſtically defend a Set of Notions, amongſt which he happened to be born, and bred, ſuch a Divine, I own, may be very impatient, and much cool'd in his Zeal, unleſs he finds himſelf well rewarded; but if an eminent Divine is to be underſtood in a Senſe ſuitable to the Goſpel, he is that particular Perſon that muſt needs have the greateſt Contempt and Diſlike of every Thing, that has but the Appearance of the Pomp and Vanity of this World in it. If therefore it was urged, that this Conjunction of Preferments and dignifying Rewards was neceſſary to bring ambitious Scholars into the Church, or to keep them in it, there would be ſome Senſe, tho' no Goſpel in the Pretence; but to talk of them as neceſſary to be the Rewards of eminent Piety and Apoſtolick Labour, is as abſurd, as to ſay, that thoſe who have truly put on Chriſt, who ſtand in the higheſt Degree of a renewed Nature, who beſt know and feel the Bleſſing of a mortify'd, heavenly Spirit, have leſs Reaſon to be content with Food and Raiment, than thoſe who ſtand in a lower Degree of the Chriſtian Life; 'tis ſaying, that a Biſhop, becauſe having moſt of the Spirit and Office of an Apoſtle in him, may well deſire more of the Pride and Figure of this World, than the lower lower Clergy, who have leſs of the Apoſtolical Spirit and Perfection in them.

To want to ſtand in ſome Degree of worldly Figure, is the State of a Babe in the Chriſtian Life, that hath hardly taſted the Milk of Evangelical Nouriſhment, and therefore can no way become thoſe, who are to lead and compel others to the Perfection and Fulneſs of the Stature in Chriſt Jeſus.

A great Divine is but a cant Expreſſion, unleſs it ſignifies a Man greatly advanced in the Divine Life, whoſe own Experience and Example is a Demonſtration of the Reality of all the Graces and Virtues of the Goſpel. No Divine has any more of the Goſpel in him, than that which proves itſelf by the Spirit, Actions, and Form of his Life, the reſt is but Hypocriſy, not Theology: If therefore Poverty of Spirit, a Diſregard of worldly Figure, a total Self-denial is any Part of the Goſpel, an eminent Divine, or one advanced in the Spirit and Life of Jeſus, can have no Wiſh with regard to the Figure, Pride and Pomp of this Life, but to be placed out of every Appearance of it: And if the firſt and higheſt in Divine Knowledge are not the foremoſt in Poverty of Spirit, and the outward Humility of Chriſt and his Apoſtles; if eminent Divines want and desire to have a Dignity of worldly Figure, to have Respect by any other Means than by the Divine Virtues and Graces of an Evangelical Spirit and Conversation, and are not content with all the Contempt that such a Life can expose them to, they may be great Scholars, but they are little Divines, and must be thought to be much wanting in that which is the chief Part of the Ministers of Jesus Christ. But to proceed:

The next Thing I said to the young Clergy, was this; "Consider yourselves merely as the "Messengers of God, that are sent into the "World solely on his Errand; and think it "Happiness enough that you are called to the "same Business for which the Son of God "was born into the World," p. 81.

Now, I thought what I here said, was as unexceptionable, as pious, as unfit to be condemn'd by a Professor of Christian Theology, as if I had only recommended the loving of God with all our Heart and Soul, and Mind and Strength; and that if any Clergyman dislik'd it, he would be forced to keep his Dislike to himself: But the Doctor is very open in his Indignation at it; the same Answer, he says, is to be given here, as before, viz. that it is false.

falſe Doctrine, tending to the Scandal and Reproach of the Chriſtian Religion.

Our Bleſſed Lord, when he ſent the firſt Preachers of the Goſpel into the World, ſaid unto them, As my Father hath ſent me, ſo ſend I you——go ye and teach all Nations——and lo I am with you to the End of the World. Now let it be ſuppoſed, that theſe firſt Preachers of the Goſpel fully believed, that from the Time of their Appointment to this high Office, they were to conſider themſelves merely as the Meſſengers of God, ſent into the World ſolely on his Errand, and that it was Happineſs enough for them to be called to that Buſineſs, for which the Son of God was born into the World; if they had this Belief, what follows? Why, according to the Doctor, it follows, that they ſet out from the very firſt in one of the greateſt Errors, had miſtaken the Nature and Intent of their Miſſion, and had gone into the World upon a Principle that was falſe in itſelf, and ſcandalous and reproachful to the Chriſtian Religion.

But if this Belief is not to be condemn'd in the firſt Clergy, as a falſe Opinion of their Office, ſcandalous and reproachful to the Chriſtian Religion, I deſire to know why thoſe Clergy, who claim their Succeſſion from the firſt, and expect the Preſence of Chriſt in and with with their Miniſtry, are not to be called upon to be of the ſame Spirit and Belief with the firſt of their Order; or how it can be a Scandal to the Goſpel, for the modern Clergy to be as wholly devoted to the Service of God, as the Apoſtles were: Surely there is ſomething ſo extravagant in the Doctor's Condemnation of the Advice here given to young Divines, as muſt ſhock even the common Reader; and if it could be ſuppoſed, that there are others amongſt the learned Clergy, who are in this like minded with the Doctor, and glad to ſee this Advice condemn'd in this manner, if it could be ſuppoſed, that there are not Numbers amongſt them of Rank and Eminence that want and deſire to bear their Teſtimony againſt it, have we not too much Reaſon to fear that, which God threatened to the Angel of the Church at Epheſus, namely, the Removal of our Candleſtick out of its Place.

The Doctor ſets it out as an extraordinary Preſumption in ſuch a Man as I am, to pretend to give Advice to young Divines, when it is ſo ſufficiently done already by the Offices of our Church, the Charges, Inſtructions and Exhortations of our Biſhops at their Viſitation, and ſo many excellent Ordination and Viſitation Sermons, p. 87. Now, granting the Plenty and Excellency Excellency of all these, yet I have some hope, that my Presumption may be found to be only like that of the poor Widow, who after so many rich Oblations of great People, presum'd to put her little Mite into the Treasury. And if it be true, that the Things here suggested by me, are only such as have been already fully set forth by so many great Bishops and excellent Preachers, how will the Doctor come off for condemning it, as false Doctrine, scandalous, and reproachful to the Christian Religion?

Dr. Trap gives a Reason for his condemning this Advice, which is thus expressed: It is, says he, false to say, that Clergymen ought to mind nothing, in any Degree, but their Profession and Duty, as Clergymen; they are Husbands, Parents, Men, as well as Clergymen, and must in some measure be concerned in the Affairs of the World, p. 88.

Part of this I own to be very true, viz. that they are Men, and have the Wants of Human Nature which must be supplied; and for a full Proof of this, the Doctor might have justly appeal'd to St. Paul, who, tho' miraculously called to be an Apostle, and separated from the World to be merely a Messenger and Apostle of Jesus Christ; yet, after this high Apostleship, work'd at his Trade, and often

ſpent ſome Part of the Day and the Night in making Tents: Therefore, if all thoſe whom I have exhorted to conſider themſelves as ſo highly ſet apart for the ſole Service of God, ſhould ſhew ſuch a Degree of worldly Care as St. Paul did, when he work'd at his Trade, they might yet juſtly be ſaid to act ſuitably to their Station, as the Miniſters of God, that are wholly devoted to his Service; for if they ſhould refuſe to live, how could it be their Deſire to live wholly to the Service of God; or, who can ſay that St. Paul departed from his Character, as a Miniſter of God, when he laboured with his own Hands, that he might glorioufly and freely preach the Goſpel? For it was for the Sake of the Goſpel, to promote and recommend the Goſpel, to make his Preaching the more ſucceſsful; it was to ſhew that he had fully renounc'd the World, deſir'd nothing from it, but for the Glory and Love of God, would preach Salvation freely to the World: And thus have all the Miniſters of the Goſpel an Example in St. Paul, how they may make their Care of a Livelihood a Part of their Service to God.

But when the Doctor ſays, that Clergymen are Huſbands and Parents, I muſt object a little; becauſe no Scripture, or Antiquity ſhews me, me, that these Characters must belong to a Preacher of the Gospel; and therefore, when a Clergyman excuses himself from any Heights of the Ministerial Service, by saying, he has marry'd a Wife, and therefore cannot come up to them; it seems to be no better an Excuse, than if he had said, he had hir'd a Farm, or bought five Yoke of Oxen.

I know very well, that the Reformation has allowed Priests and Bishops not only to look out for Wives, but to have as many as they please, one after another: But this is only to be consider'd as a bare Allowance, and perhaps granted upon such a Motive, as Moses of old made one to the Jews, for the Hardness of their Hearts, tho' from the Beginning it was not so; and therefore when Elogiums are sometimes made from the Pulpit on this Matter, I think they had better been spar'd; an Allowance granted to Weakness, is but an indifferent Subject to be made a Matter of Glory.

The Doctor should also have observ'd, that my Address was made to the young Clergy, and such as are only upon entring into holy Orders, nine in ten of which, may be supposed to be neither Husbands nor Fathers. He should also have remember'd that our Universities are full of Clergy, who are obliged to live unmarry'd, marry'd, that they may have proper Leiſure and Freedom to attend their Studies without Impediment from worldly Cares. And therefore if I pointed at ſuch a Dedication of the Clergy to the Service of God, as Huſbands and Fathers cannot enter into, yet the Matter is not blameable, becauſe there are ſo many that have not yet entred into this State of Subjection to the World, but are at Liberty to devote themſelves wholly to the Service of the Goſpel. And therefore if to ſuch as theſe, I can ſo repreſent the Weight, the Duties, the heavenly Nature of the Prieſthood, as to prevent or extinguiſh in them all Thoughts and Deſires of being thus marry'd to the World, what hurt have I done them, or the marry'd Clergy, or the Goſpel of Jeſus Chriſt?

Virginity or Celibacy, when entred into from a Principle of divine Love, from a Heart burning with the Deſire of living wholly and ſolely to God, is a State that gives Wings to all our Endeavours, and truly fits the Soul for the higheſt Growth of every heavenly Virtue: And if he that is conſecrated to the Service of the Altar, deſires not to keep his Heart from carnal Love; if he feels not ſuch an Aſcent of his Soul towards Heaven, as to have no Wiſh, but that his whole Body, Soul, and Spirit, may be be presented to God in its utmost Degree of Purity, he must be said to have his Lamp much less kindled, than many of the Laity, both Men and Women have had, in all Ages of the Church. Custom and common Practice has too great a Power over our Judgments, and reconciles us to any Thing; but if a Christian, who liv'd when Christianity was is its Glory, when the first Apologists for it, appeal'd to the Numbers of both Sexes, devoted to the Chastity of the single Life, as an invincible Proof of the Power, and Divinity of the Gospel; if a Christian of those Days was now to come into the World, he must needs be much more shocked at Reverend Doctors in Sacerdotal Robes, making Love to Women, than at seeing a Monk in his Cell, kissing a wooden Crucifix.

The Knowledge and Love of the Virgin State began with Christianity, when the Nature of our Corruption, and the Nature of our Redemption were so fully discovered by the Light of the Gospel. Then it was, that a new Degree of heavenly Love was kindled in the human Nature, and brought forth a State of Life that had not been desir'd, till the Son of the Virgin came into the World. John the Baptist may be look'd upon as the Beginner of the Gospel Dispensation; this burning and shining Light was in his Perſon, the Figure of Judaiſm ending in Chriſtianity. In his outward Birth and State he was a Jew, in his inward Spirit and Character he belong'd to the Goſpel. He came out of the Wilderneſs burning and ſhining, to preach the Kingdom of Heaven at Hand. This may ſhew us that Heat and Light from above, kindled in a State of great Self-denial, are neceſſary to make us able Miniſters of the Goſpel; and that if we pretend to the Miniſtry without theſe Qualifications, and come only burning and ſhining with the Spirit of this World, we are only as well fitted to hinder, as the Baptiſt was to prepare the Way to the Kingdom of Heaven. Look at this great Saint, all ye that deſire to preach the Goſpel. He came forth in the higheſt Degrees of Mortification and Chaſtity of Life. But why did he ſo come? It was to ſhew the World that theſe two great Virtues muſt form the Spirit of every Preacher of the Goſpel. His Character does not call you to a Wilderneſs beyond Jordan, or to be cloathed with Camels Hair, &c. Such Circumſtances are particular to himſelf; but it calls you to his inward Spirit of Self-denial, to ſtand in his State of Death to the World, and all carnal Love, if you would not only preach, but prove the Perfection of the Goſpel: For if the Baptiſt was to be thus dead to the Fleſh and the World, that he might only preach thus much, that the Kingdom of Heaven was at Hand; can a leſs Self-denial be required of thoſe, who are to preach that which is much more, namely, that the Kingdom of Heaven is come?

Now if this holy Baptiſt, when he came to Jeruſalem, and had preach'd a-while upon Penitence, and the Kingdom of Heaven at hand, had made an Offering of his Heart to ſome fine young Lady of great Accompliſhments, had not this put an End to all that was burning and ſhining in his Character? And if thoſe Clergy who date their Miſſion from Jeſus Chriſt himſelf, who claim being ſent by him as he was by his Father, to ſtand as his Repreſentatives, applying the Means and Myſteries of Salvation to all that deſire to be born again from above, if they, whether they be Vicars, Rectors, Arch-Deacons, Deans, or Biſhops, ſhould look upon their Office to be as ſacred, and their Station as high in the Kingdom of God, as the Baptiſt's was; if they ſhould look upon Love-Addreſſes to the Sex, as unbecoming, as foreign, as oppoſite to their Character, as to the Baptiſt's; could any one ſay, that they took too much upon them, or paid too great a Reverence to the Holineſs and Purity of that Prieſthood, which they deriv'd from the very Perſon and Office of Jeſus Chriſt.

Our bleſſed Lord improv'd upon theſe two Articles of Mortification and Chaſtity, and ſets them before every Preacher of the Goſpel in a yet fuller Light. It is needleſs to ſhew how much he ſpeaks of the Nature and Neceſſity of a total Self-denial; but what he ſays of the Virgin-Life, as to be choſen by thoſe who are able to chuſe it, for the Kingdom of Heaven's ſake, Matth. xix. 12. is more than a Volume of human Eloquence in Praiſe of it. What Wonder is it, if after this, great Numbers both of Men and Women were found in the firſt Ages of the Church, that choſe to know no Love, but that of God in a ſingle Life?

St. Paul has done every thing to hinder a Miniſter of Jeſus Chriſt from entring into Marriage, except calling it a ſinful State, when he ſays, He that is married, careth for the Things of the World, how he may pleaſe his Wife; and how could he more powerfully preſs the Virgin Life upon the Clergy, than when he ſays, He that is unmarried, careth for the Things that belong to the Lord, how he may pleaſe the Lord. Now, who would imagine, that after this Determination of the Matter, by

ſo great an Apoſtle, there ſhould be any need of Church Authority to reſtrain any one in Holy Orders, from ſeeking after a Wife? Yet it muſt be ſuppoſed, that even in the primitive Church there was ſome Fear at leaſt, that ſuch a Reſtraint would ſoon be needful; becauſe the twenty-ſeventh Apoſtolical Cannon orders, that none amongſt the Clergy be permitted to enter into Wedlock, except thoſe, who have no higher an Office in the Church, than that of mere Singers and Readers.

When our Bleſſed Lord ſent the firſt Preachers of the Goſpel into the World, he took them from amongſt marry'd Men, Fiſhermen, Publicans, and Tentmakers; and there was no more Reaſon to look upon a Perſon as unfit to be an Apoſtle, becauſe he had a Wife, than becauſe he had a Trade: And therefore, St. Paul does not tell Timothy and Titus to ordain no marry'd Perſon, for then no Elders could have been ordained in the Church, but he only enjoins them to lay Hands only on ſuch as were in the moſt perfect Condition of the marry'd Life, who had been the Huſbands but of one Wife, and whoſe whole Family was a Proof of their Wiſdom and Piety.

Hence it was, that the primitive Church made ſo great a Difference between a marry'd

Clergyman, and a Clergyman that marry'd; the former was allowed for the Reaſons above-mention'd, but the latter always cenſured as a thing highly reproachful, as a departing from that Self-denial, Devotion and Conſecration to God, in which every one in Holy Orders ought to live: But when Chriſtianity had breathed a while in the World, there ſoon became leſs Occaſion to ordain Perſons that were marry'd; for the Apologiſts appeal to the Numbers of both Sexes conſecrated to God in a Virgin Life, as one great Proof of the Divinity of the Chriſtian Religion. But when ſuch Arguments as theſe were uſed, to ſet forth the Glory of the Goſpel, need any one be told, that it muſt have been highly ſhameful in thoſe Days, for a Prieſt of ſuch a Religion, to be looking out for a Wife? There is ſcarce a Saint, or eminent Father of the firſt Ages, who did not write ſet Diſcourſes, and preach entire Homilies in Praiſe of this Virgin Perfection of Life; but ſurely this was enough telling the World, that that Order of Men who officiated in the Myſteries of this Divine Religion, and were Teachers of its Perfection, were Perſons devoted to God in a Holy Virginity of Life: And if it be aſk'd, why amongſt all our modern fine Sermons, we have none upon the Per- fection and Advantage of a holy Virginity; the Reaſon can be only this, becauſe our Prieſts and Biſhops marry as often, as the Common People of the World. In the Primitive Church, if a Subdeacon married a Widow, he was degraded from his Office; and the Reaſon was, becauſe he who tempted a Woman to marry a ſecond Time, was looked upon to be a Corrupter of Human Nature: Theſe were the Sentiments of the Church, when it might be truly called the Spouſe of Jeſus Chriſt.

I ſhall conclude this Matter with a Paſſage taken from the Serious Call to a devout and Holy Life; it is a Quotation from the great and learned Euſebius, who liv'd at the time of the firſt general Council, when the Faith of our Nicene Creed was eſtabliſhed: His Words are theſe, " There hath been, ſaith he, inſtituted " in the Church of Chriſt, two Ways or " Manners of Living; the one raiſed above the " ordinary State of Nature, and common Ways " of Living, rejects Wedlock, Poſſeſſions, and " World'y Goods, and being wholly ſeparated " and removed from the ordinary Converſation " of Common Life, is appropriated and de- " voted ſolely to the Worſhip and Service of " God, through an exceeding Degree of hea- " venly Love: They who are of this Order

" of People, ſeem dead to the Life of this " World, and having their Bodies only upon " Earth, are in their Minds and Contemplations
" dwelling in Heaven; from whence, like ſo
" many heavenly Inhabitants, they look down " upon Human Life, making Interceſſions and " Oblations for the whole Race of Mankind;
" and this, not with the Blood of Beaſts, or
" the Fat, or Smoak and burning of Bodies,
" but with the higheſt Exerciſes of true Piety,
" with cleanſed and purified Hearts, and with " a whole Form of Life ſtrictly devoted to " Virtue: Theſe are their Sacrifices, which " they are continually offering unto God, and " implore his Mercy and Favour for themſelves
" and their fellow Creatures. Chriſtianity
" receives this as the perfect Manner of Life.

" The other is of a lower Form, and ſuiting
" itſelf more to the Condition of Human Na" ture, admits of chaſte Wedlock, the Care of " Children and Families, of Trade and Buſi-
" neſs, and goes through all the Employments
" of Life, under a Senſe of Piety and Fear of " God: Now, they who have choſen this " Manner of Life, have their ſet Times for " Retirement and Spiritual Exerciſes, and par" ticular Days are ſet apart for their hearing
" and learning the Word of God: And this " Order

" Order of People are considered as in the se- " cond State of Piety" *. Here you see the Perfection of the Christian Life plainly set out, and how it was, that Numbers of private Persons, Men and Women, who had no Share in the Ecclesiastical Office, yet, by this Perfection of Life, made themselves holy and heavenly Interceſſors for the whole Race of Mankind. Now, are we not here obliged to suppose, that in this Father's Days, the Clergy were in this Number of People, that were thus heavenly in the whole Form of their Life, thus devoted to God and the Edification of the Church, by embracing the perfect Life of Christianity? If they were not, do they not stand plainly condemned by the Religion of the Gospel, since this Father assures us, that Christianity held this to be the perfect Manner of Life? I shall only add thus much here, that till such a Degree of heavenly Love, such a Sense of the Purity, Holiness and heavenly Nature of the sacred Calling, till such a Desire of Perfection is awakened in the Clergy, as shuts out all carnal Love and worldly Tempers from their Hearts, they cannot be such Priests and Interceſſors with God, such Patterns of Purity and Holiness, such Kindlers of divine Love and heavenly Desires amongst Men, as the Nature of their Office both intends and requires of them.

* Serious Call, &c. p. 134.

If

If a Candidate for Holy Orders dares not make this total Donation of himſelf to God, to be an Inſtrument of his good Pleaſure only in the Service of the Goſpel, if it is not the real State of his Heart, to wiſh nothing for himſelf in this World, but the moſt perfect Purification of his Nature, the higheſt Advancement in all Divine Virtues; if he deſires any thing in and by his Office, but a Concurrence with Jeſus Chriſt in the Salvation of Souls; if he has any Reſerves of Self-ſeeking, or Self-advancement in the World, any fleſhly Paſſions which he hopes to make conſiſtent with the Duties of his Profeſſion; if he is not ſeparated in Will and Deſire from all that is not God, and the Service of God, he muſt be ſaid to want the beſt Proofs of his being called by the Holy Ghoſt.

Dr. Trap's violent Condemnation of what I ſaid to the young Clergy, and Candidates for Holy Orders, made it neceſſary for me to enter thus far into this Subject. If any thing that I have ſaid to theſe Perſons, concerning the Excellency, the Advantage, the Purity, the Neceſſity of a Virgin Life, in order to their own Perfection, and the full Edification of the Church, gives Offence to any of the marry'd Clergy, it can only be to thoſe, who don't wiſh to ſee

the Church in a better State, than that, in which they found it; and to such there need no Apology be made.

But to turn to another Matter; I had said; that " Salvation wholly consists in the Incar-" nation of the Son of God in the Soul or " Life of Man; that that which was done and " born in the Virgin Mary, must be done, " and born in us: As our Sin and Death is " Adam in us, so our Life and Salvation is " Christ in us——As we are earthly, corrupt " Men, by having the Nature and Life of " Adam the first propagated in us, so we must " become new and heavenly Men, by having " the Life and Nature of Adam the second " regenerated in us: But if we are to be like " him in Nature, as we are like to Adam in " Nature, then there is an absolute Necessity, " that that which was done and born in the " Virgin Mary, be also by the same Power of " the Holy Ghost, done and born in us. The " Mystery of Christ's Birth must be the My-" stery of our Birth, we cannot be his Sons " but by having the Birth of his Life derived " into us: The new Paradisical Man must be " brought forth in the same Manner in every " individual Person. That which brought " forth this Holy Birth in the first Adam at his

" Creation

" Creation, and in the ſecond Adam in the " Virgin Mary, that alone can bring it forth " in any one of their Offſpring" *. Now, there ſeems to be nothing in all this, but what is eaſily to be apprehended, and fully believ'd by every one, that knows any thing of the Chriſtian Life; but the Doctor makes two Replies to this Doctrine: The firſt is this, Was ſuch Words, ſays he, ever heard amongſt Chriſtians before? † Yes, good Sir, they have often been heard before, by ſuch as have Ears to hear; for they are the very Words which Chriſt, and his Apoſtles have as plainly ſpoken, as they have ſpoke any one Article of the Apoſtles Creed: They are only as different from the Words of Chriſt and his Apoſtles, as the Engliſh Words of the Bible, are different from thoſe Greek Words, in which the Goſpels were written. When the Scripture ſaith, that Chriſt muſt be form'd in us, does it not ſay, that Chriſt muſt be born, or become incarnate to us? When it ſaith, Chriſt was born of the Virgin Mary, doth it not ſay, that Chriſt was incarnate of the Virgin Mary? Or is there any thing to fright a learned Divine, who has for forty Years been told, that Chriſt muſt be formed in us,

us, revealed in us, that he must put on Christ, to be told, that Christ must become incarnate in us, that he must bring forth himself in us, and have such a Birth in our Soul and Life, as he had in the Virgin Mary? For where-ever he is born, must he not be born in the same Manner? Was it not the Word of God, that by the Power of the Holy Ghost became Man in the Virgin Mary? And is there any Thing in this Birth on this wise that is inconsistent with the Birth of our new Man in Christ Jesus? Must not the same Word of God, by the same Operation of the Holy Spirit, bring forth that in us, which is the new Man in Christ Jesus, or Christ formed in us? When our Lord saith, that we must be born again from Above, of the Word of God, is it more or less than saying, that that Word which was born in the Virgin Mary, and was incarnate in her, must be born and incarnate in us? When the Apostle saith, that we must be born again of the incorruptible Seed of the Word, is not this expressly saying, that that must be done and born in us, which was done and born in the Virgin Mary? If he says, that Christ must be formed in us, does he not say, that he must have such a Birth and Form in us, as he had in the Virgin Mary; only with this Difference, that in the Birth of Chriſt, the Fulneſs of the Deity, or eternal Word became Man, and dwelt perſonally in him; but in us, only a Spark, or Seed of the Word is form'd and rais'd up into a new, heavenly Man. Is there now any Thing in all this, but the moſt comfortable, ſubſtantial Part of our Redemption ſet out in the plaineſt Words of Scripture? Reject this Doctrine, ſay that you cannot, you will not, you deſire not to have Chriſt thus born and formed in you, and then you reject all that Salvation, which the Word of God, born of a Virgin hath brought into the World. For the Scripture is abſolutely plain in telling us, that loſt Man cannot be made alive again unto God, but ſolely by this way, by being born again of the Word and holy Spirit of God; if therefore we deſire not, but reject ſuch a Birth, as was brought forth by the Word and holy Spirit of God in the Virgin Mary; do we not plainly reject that Birth in which all our Salvation conſiſts? And therefore to ſay that that muſt be done and born in us, which was done and born in the Virgin Mary, is as plain, as ſcriptural, as to ſay, that we muſt be born again of the Word and holy Spirit of God. And on this Ground

in

it is, that Christ in us, is said to be our Hope of Glory.——And that the Kingdom of Heaven is within us——that we must be in Christ new Creatures——that we must put on Christ——that he must be formed in us, reveal'd, manifested in us——that he is our Life——that he brings us forth out of himself, as the Vine does its Branches —— that unless we eat his Flesh and drink his Blood we have no Life in us. These, and many other the like Sayings of Scripture, which are the strongest, deepest Expressions of the Nature and Manner of our Salvation, are all grounded on this Truth, viz. That the Mystery of Christ's Birth is the Mystery of our New Birth; that that must be done and born in us, which was done and born in the Virgin Mary, namely a New Man brought forth in the Likeness of Christ, by a Birth from the Word, and holy Spirit of God.

But the Doctor has a second Reply to this Matter, which stands thus expressed. Whether, says he, you consider the Divinity, or the Sense of this, could George Fox himself have out-done it? p. 48. This Reply, consider'd in itself, might have its Place amongst those algebraic Quantities, that are some Degrees less than nothing; but with Regard to the Doctor's Purpose it has something in it, for it is an Appeal peal to that which is very powerful, which has ſuppreſs'd many a good Truth; it is an Appeal to vulgar Prejudice, and ſhews that the Doctor is not without his Expectations from that Quarter. And thus it is, that the Catholick Artiſt in his Country, plays a Martin Luther, when he wants to reproach that, which he knows not how to confute. What Degree of Senſe, or Divinity George Fox was poſſeſſed of, I cannot pretend to ſay, having never read any of his Writings; but if he has ſaid any good and divine Truths, I ſhould be as well pleaſed in ſeeing them in his Books, as in any of the Fathers of the primitive Church. For as the Goſpel requires me to be as glad to ſee Piety, Equity, ſtrict Sobriety, and extenſive Charity in a Jew, or a Gentile, as in a Chriſtian; as it obliges me to look with Pleaſure upon their Virtues, and be thankful to God, that ſuch Perſons have ſo much of true and ſound Chriſtianity in them; ſo it cannot be an unchriſtian Spirit, to be as glad to ſee Truths in one Party of Chriſtians, as in another; and to look with Pleaſure upon any good Doctrines, that are held by any Sect of Chriſtian People, and be thankful to God, that they have ſo much of the genuine, ſaving Truths of the Goſpel amongſt them. For if we have no Anger or

Complaint againſt thoſe that are divided from us, but what proceeds from a Chriſtian Fear, that what they hold and practiſe will not be ſo beneficial to them, as our Religion will be to us, muſt we not have the utmoſt Readineſs and Willingneſs to find, own, and rejoice in thoſe good Doctrines and Practices which they ſtill retain and profeſs? If a poor Pilgrim, under a Neceſſity of travelling a dangerous and difficult Road by himſelf, had, through his own Perverſeneſs loſt the Uſe of a Leg, and the Sight of one Eye, could we be ſaid to have any charitable Concern for his Perverſeneſs and Misfortune, unleſs we were glad to ſee, that he had one good Leg, and one good Eye ſtill left, and unleſs we hop'd and deſir'd they might bring him at laſt to his Journey's End. Now let every Part of the Church which takes itſelf to be ſound and good, and is only angry at every other Part, becauſe they have leſſen'd the Means of their own Salvation; let her but have thus much Charity in her Anger, and then ſhe will be glad to ſee, in every perverſe Diviſion, ſomething like the one good Leg, and the one good Eye of the Pilgrim, and which ſhe will hope and wiſh may do them the ſame Good.

Selfiſhneſs and Partiality are very inhuman and baſe Qualities, even in the Things of this World, but in the Doctrines of Religion they are of a baſer Nature. Now this is the greateſt Evil that the Diviſion of the Church has brought forth; it raiſes in every Communion a ſelfiſh, partial Orthodoxy, which conſiſts in courageouſly defending all that it has, and condemning all that it has not. And thus every Champion is train'd up in Defence of their own Truth, their own Learning, and their own Church, and he has the moſt Merit, the moſt Honour, who likes every Thing, defends every Thing amongſt themſelves, and leaves nothing uncenſured in thoſe that are of a different Communion. Now how can Truth, and Goodneſs, and Union, and Religion be more ſtruck at, than by ſuch Defenders of it? If you aſk why the great Biſhop of Meaux wrote ſo many learned Books againſt all Parts of the Reformation, it is becauſe he was born in France, and bred up in the Boſom of Mother Church. Had he been born in England, had Oxford, or Cambridge been his Alma Mater, he might have rival'd our great Biſhop Stillingfleet, and would have wrote as many learned Folio's againſt the Church of Rome as he has done. And yet I will venture to ſay, that if each Church could produce but one Man a-piece that had the Piety of an Apoſtle, and the impartial Love of the

firſt Chriſtians, in the firſt Church at Jeruſalem, that a Proteſtant and a Papiſt of this Stamp, would not want half a Sheet of Paper to hold their Articles of Union, nor be half an Hour before they were of one Religion. If therefore it ſhould be ſaid, that Churches are divided, eſtrang'd, and made unfriendly to one another, by a Learning, a Logic, a Hiſtory, a Criticiſm in the Hands of Partiality, it would be ſaying that, which every particular Church too much proves to be true. Aſk why even the beſt amongſt the Catholicks are very ſhy of owning the Validity of the Orders of our Church, it is becauſe they are afraid of removing any Odium from the Reformation? Aſk why no Proteſtants any where touch upon the Benefit or Neceſſity of Celibacy in thoſe, who are ſeparated from worldly Buſineſs to preach the Goſpel, 'tis becauſe that would be ſeeming to leſſen the Romiſh Error of not ſuffering Marriage in her Clergy? Aſk why even the moſt worthy and pious amongſt the Clergy of the eſtabliſhed Church, are afraid to aſſert the Sufficiency of the Divine Light, the Neceſſity of ſeeking only to the Guidance and Inſpiration of the holy Spirit, 'tis becauſe the Quakers, who have broken off from the Church, have made this Doctrine their Corner Stone.

If we lov'd Truth as ſuch; if we ſought it for its own Sake; if we lov'd our Neighbour as ourſelves; if we deſir'd nothing by our Religion but to be acceptable to God; if we equally deſir'd the Salvation of all Men; if we were afraid of Error only becauſe of its hurtful Nature to us, and our Fellow-Churches, then nothing of this Spirit could have any Place in us.

There is therefore a Catholick Spirit, a Communion of Saints in the Love of God and all Goodneſs, which no one can learn from that which is called Orthodoxy in particular Churches, but is only to be had by a total Dying to all worldly Views, by a pure Love of God, and by ſuch an Unction from above, as delivers the Mind from all Selfiſhneſs, and makes it love Truth and Goodneſs with an Equality of Affection in every Man, whether he be Chriſtian, Jew, or Gentile. He that would obtain this Divine and Catholick Spirit in this diſordered, divided State of Things, and live in a divided Part of the Church without partaking of its Diviſion, muſt have theſe three Truths deeply fixed in his Mind: Firſt, that univerſal Love, which gives the whole Strength of the Heart to God, and make us love every Man as we love ourſelves, is the Nobleſt, the moſt Divine, the God-like

State

State of the Soul, and is the utmoſt Perfection to which the moſt perfect Religion can raiſe us; and that no Religion does any Man any Good, but ſo far as it brings this Perfection of Love into him. This Truth will ſhew us, that true Orthodoxy can no where be found, but in a pure diſintereſted Love of God, and our Neighbour. Secondly, That in the preſent divided State of the Church, Truth itſelf is torn and divided aſunder; and that therefore he can be the only true Catholick, who has more of Truth, and leſs of Error, than is hedged in by any divided Part. This Truth will enable us to live in a divided Part, unhurt by its Diviſion, and keep us in a true Liberty and Fitneſs to be edify'd and aſſiſted by all the Good that we hear or ſee in any other Part of the Church. And thus uniting in Heart and Spirit with all that is holy and good in all Churches, we enter into the true Communion of Saints, and become real Members of the holy Catholick Church, tho' we are confin'd to the outward Worſhip of only one particular Part of it. It is thus, that the Angels, as miniſtring Spirits, aſſiſt, join, unite, and co-operate with every Thing that is holy and good, in every Diviſion of Mankind. Thirdly, he muſt always have in Mind this great Truth, that it is the Glory of the divine Juſtice to have no Reſpect of Parties or Perſons, but to ſtand equally diſpoſed to that which is right and wrong, as well in the Jew as in the Gentile. He therefore that would like as God likes, and condemn as God condemns, muſt have neither the Eyes of the Papiſt nor the Proteſtant; he muſt like no Truth the leſs becauſe Ignatius Lyola, or John Bunyan were very zealous for it; nor have the leſs Averſion to any Error, becauſe Dr. Trap or George Fox had brought it forth. Now if this univerſal Love, and impartial Juſtice, is the Spirit which will judge the World at the laſt Day, how can this Spirit be too ſoon, or too much in us; Or what can do us more Hurt than that which is an Hindrance of it? When I was a young Scholar of the Univerſity, I heard a great Religioniſt ſay in my Father's Houſe, that if he could believe the late King of France to be in Heaven, he could not tell how to wiſh to go thither himſelf. This was exceeding ſhocking to all that heard it: Yet ſomething of this kind of Temper muſt be ſuppoſed to be more or leſs in thoſe, who have, as a Point of Orthodoxy, work'd themſelves up into a hearty Contempt and Hatred of thoſe that are divided from them. He that has been all his Life long uſed to look with great Abhorrence upon thoſe whom whom he has called superſtitious Bigots, dreaming Viſionaries, falſe Saints, canting Enthuſiaſts, &c. muſt naturally expect they will be treated by God as they have been by him; and if he had the Keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, ſuch People would find it hard to get a Place in it. But it ſtands us greatly in Hand to get rid of this Temper before we dye; for if nothing but univerſal Love can enter into the Kingdom of God, what can be more neceſſary for us, than to be full of this Love before we dye?

We often hear of People of great Zeal and Orthodoxy, declaring on their Death-beds their ſtrict Attachment to the Church of England, and making ſolemn Proteſtations againſt all other Churches; but how much better would it be, if ſuch a Perſon was to ſay, "In this "divided State of Chriſtendom, I muſt con- "form to ſome outwardly divided Part of it, "and therefore I have choſen to live and dye "in outward Communion with the Church "of England; fully believing, that if I wor- "ſhip God in Spirit and in Truth in this di- "vided Part of the Church, I ſhall be as ac- "ceptable to him, as if I had been a faithful "Member of the one whole Church, before it "was broken into ſeparate Parts. But as I am "now going out of this diſordered Diviſion,

" into a more universal State of Things, as I " am now falling into the Hands of the great " Creator and Lover of all Souls; as I am go- " ing to the God of all Churches, to a King- " dom of universal Love, which must have " its Inhabitants from all People, Nations, and " Languages of the Earth; so in this Spirit of " universal Love, I desire to perform my last " Act of Communion in this divided Church, " uniting and joining in Heart and Spirit with " all that is Christian, Holy, Good, and Ac- " ceptable to God in all other Churches; pray- " ing, from the Bottom of my Soul, that " every Church may have its Saints; that " God's Kingdom may come, his Will be " done in every Division of Christians and " Men, and that every Thing that hath Breath " may praise the Lord."

Need any one now be told the superior Excellency of this Spirit, or its Fitness to be admitted into the Kingdom of universal Love? Need we any Proof that nothing but this Catholick Spirit will carry us unhurt by Schism, through all those Divisions which the Devil, the World, and fleshly Wisdom have brought into the Church? Again, We have often seen learned Protestants very zealous in pulling to Pieces the Lives of the Saints of the Romish Church

Church, and casting all the Reproach and Ridicule they can, upon their wondrous Spirit; tho' the Lives of the Saints of the primitive Church, written by the Fathers of the greatest Name and Authority, are as fit for to be exposed in the same Manner. Now, whence does this proceed? Why, from a secret Touch of that Spirit which could not bear to have the late King of France in Heaven; it proceeds from a partial, selfish Orthodoxy, which cannot bear to hear, or own, that the Spirit and Blessing of God are so visible in a Church from which it is divided, and against which it has so much preach'd: But if a Person be of this Spirit, what does it signify where he has his outward Church? If a Romish Priest in the North of England could not bear the Splendor of a Life so devoted to God, so fruitful in all the Works of Piety and Goodness, as was that of the late Lady Elizabeth Hastings, if he should want to sully the Brightness of her Christian Graces, and prove her to have been no Saint, lest it should appear, that the Spirit of God was not confin'd to the Romish Church, would not such a Zeal shew a worse Spirit, than that of Superstition, a greater Depravity of Heart, than the saying now and then an Ave Mary.

The

The more we believe, or know of the Corruptions and Hindrances of true Piety in the Church of Rome, the more we ſhou'd rejoice to hear, that in every Age ſo many eminent Spirits, great Saints, have appeared in it, whom we ſhould thankfully behold as ſo many great Lights hung out by God, to ſhew the true Way to Heaven, as ſo many joyful Proofs that Chriſt is ſtill preſent in that Church, as well as in other Churches, and that the Gates of Hell have not prevailed, or quite overcome it? Who that has the leaſt Spark of Heaven in his Soul, can help thinking and rejoicing in this manner at the Appearance of a St. Bernard, a Tereſa, a Francis de Sales, &c. in that Church? Who can help praiſing God, that her invented Devotions, ſuperſtitious Uſe of Images, Invocation of Saints, &c. have not ſo ſuppreſſed any of the Graces and Virtues of an Evangelical Perfection of Life, but that amongſt Cardinals, Jeſuits, Prieſts, Friars, Monks and Nuns, Numbers have been found, who ſeem'd to live for no other End, but to give Glory to God and Edification to Men, and whoſe Writings have every Thing in them, that can guide the Soul out of the Corruption of this Life into the higheſt Union with God. And he who through a partial Orthodoxy is diverted from feeding in theſe green Paſtures of Life, whoſe

juſt Abhorrence of Jeſuitical Craft and worldly Policy keeps him from knowing and reading the Works of an Alvares du Pas, a Rodrigues, a Du Pont, a Guilloree, a Pere Surin, and ſuch like Jeſuits, has a greater Loſs than he can eaſily imagine: And if any Clergyman can read the Life of Bartholomeus a Martyribis, a Spaniſh Archbiſhop, who ſat with great Influence at the very Council of Trent, without being edify'd by it, and deſiring to read it again and again, I know not why he ſhould like the Lives of the beſt of the Apoſtolical Fathers: And if any Proteſtant Biſhop ſhould read the Stimulus Paſtorum wrote by this Popiſh Prelate, he muſt be forced to confeſs it to be a Book, that would have done Honour to the beſt Archbiſhop, that the Reformation has to boaſt of. O my God, how ſhall I unlock this Myſtery of Things; in the Land of Darkneſs, over-run with Superſtition, where Divine Worſhip ſeems to be all Shew and Ceremony, there both amongſt Prieſts and People, thou haſt thoſe, who are fired with the pure Love of thee, who renounce every thing for thee, who are devoted wholly and ſolely to thee, who think of nothing, write of nothing, deſire nothing but the Honour, and Praiſe, and Adoration that is due to thee, and who call all the

the World to the Maxims of the Gospel, the Holiness and Perfection of the Life of Christ. But in the Regions where Light is sprung up, whence Superstition is fled, where all that is outward in Religion seems to be prun'd, dress'd, and put in its true Order; there a cleansed Shell, a whited Sepulchre, seems too generally to cover a dead Christianity.

The Error of all Errors, and that which makes the blackest Charge against the Romish Church, is Persecution, a religious Sword drawn against the Liberty and Freedom of serving God according to our best Light, that is, against our worshipping the Father in Spirit and in Truth: This is the great Whore, the Beast, the Dragon, the Antichrist. Now, tho' this is the frightful Monster of that Church, yet, even here, who, except it be the Church of England, can throw the first Stone at her? Where must we look for a Church that has so renounc'd this persecuting Beast, as they have renounc'd the Use of Incense, the Sprinklings of Holy Water, or the extreme Unction of dying Persons? What Part of the Reformation abroad has not practised and defended Persecution? What Sect of Dissenters at home have not, in their Day of Power, dreadfully condemn'd Toleration?

When

When it ſhall pleaſe God to diſpoſe the Hearts of all Princes in the Chriſtian World entirely to deſtroy this Antichriſtian Beaſt, and leave all their Subjects in that religious Freedom which they have from God; then the Light of the Goſpel, the Benefit of its Faith, the Power of its Miniſters, the Uſefulneſs of its Rites, the Benediction of its Sacraments will have proper Time and Place to ſhew themſelves; and that Religion which has the moſt of a Divine Power in it, whoſe Offices and Services do moſt good to the Heart, whoſe Miniſters are moſt of all devoted to God, and have the moſt Proof of the Power and Preſence of Chriſt with them, will become, as it ought to be, the moſt univerſal; and by this Deſtruction of the Beaſt, nothing but the Errors, Deluſions, Corruptions and Fictions of every Religion, will be left in a helpleſs State. All that I have ſaid on this Matter, has been occaſioned by the Doctor's Appeal to vulgar Prejudice; and all that I have ſaid is only to intimate thus much, that the greateſt Evil which the Diviſion of the Church brings forth, is a Sectarian, ſelfiſh Spirit, that with the Orthodoxy of the Old Jews, would have God to be only their God, and themſelves only, his choſen People. If therefore we would be true Chriſtians of the

Catholick

Catholick Church, we must put off this Selfishness and Partiality of the carnal Jew, we must enter into a Catholick Affection for all Men, love the Spirit of the Gospel wherever we see it; not work ourselves up into an Abhorrence of a George Fox, or an Ignatius Lyola; but be equally glad of the Light of the Gospel where-ever it shines, or from what Quarter it comes; and give the same Thanks and Praise to God for an eminent Example of Piety, where-ever it appears, either in Papist or Protestant.

To return. Dr. Trap supposing the World running into a Charity that would ruin Wife and Family, asks his charitable Half-thinker thus; "Did you never hear that Charity begins "at home? Did you never read that of St. "Paul, If any provide not for his own, and "especially those of his own House, he hath "denied the Faith, and is worse than an In-"fidel." The Doctor's Proverb I meddled not with, but the Text of St. Paul I rescued from his gross Misapplication of it. That Text has no more Relation to an excessive Charity, the Sin the Doctor was opposing, than to an excessive Fasting. The Apostle neither thought of this Sin in this Place, nor in any other Part of his Writings; nor does he ever give the smallest Hint of the Danger of falling into it.

The

The one Thing in Queſtion was this, whether poor Widows, who had near Relations, that could ſupply their Wants, ſhould be maintain'd by the Charity of the Church : The Apoſtle determines the Matter thus ; that if ſuch Perſons, who were thus able, did not thus provide for, that is, ſupply the Wants of their poor Kindred, they were ſo far from having the Faith of Chriſtians, that they wanted a Goodneſs that was to be found amongſt Infidels : This is the whole of the Apoſtle's Doctrine in this Text. He ſpeaks of providing for thoſe of our own Houſe or Family, in no other Senſe, than as it ſignifies our Charity to them, when they fall into Diſtreſs : But the Doctor, either led away with, or truſting to the Sound of the Engliſh Word, provide, grafts all theſe following Errors upon this plain Text. When it is ſaid, a Perſon has provided well for his Family, every one ſuppoſes that he has laid up well in Store, or got an Eſtate to be divided amongſt them for their future Subſiſtence, from this Uſe of the Engliſh Word, provide, in the Text ; the Doctor would have it believ'd, that the Apoſtle teaches every Head of a Family to be carefully and continually laying up in Store, and making ſome fix'd Proviſion for the future Maintenance of his Kindred. But the Apoſtle

is as infinitely diſtant from this Thought or Direction, as from teaching them to get their Cellars well fill'd with ſtrong Liquors: When he here ſays, provide, he ſays only this, Shut not your Eyes to the Wants of your poor Kindred, but provide them with what they have need of, and don't let them fall to the Charge of the Church. The Doctor's ſecond Error is this; that, according to this Text, a Chriſtian ought not to hinder himſelf from thus laying up in Store for his Family, or leave them to live by their Labour and Induſtry, through an Extent of Charity to his poor Neighbours. Tho' the Apoſtle has not one ſingle Syllable about this Matter; and is as far from ſaying any Thing like it, as from ſaying, that a Chriſtian, when he makes a Feaſt, ſhould only invite his rich Kindred and Acquaintance. The one has as much of the Apoſtle and the Goſpel for it, as the other. The Doctor's third Error is this; that, according to this Text, he, who by a daily, continual Charity, has incapacitated himſelf to lay up in Store, a fixed Proviſion for the future Maintenance of his Family, is condemn'd by the Apoſtle, as denying the Faith, and worſe than an Infidel: Tho' the Apoſtle ſpeaks no more here of ſuch a Perſon, or any more condemns him, than he ſpeaks in the

Praiſe of Ananias and Saphira, who kept back Part of the Price of the Land they had ſold.

The Perſon here condemn'd, is not he, who through a continual Charity, or loving his Neighbour as himſelf, is hindred from laying up in Store; not he, who, through a Chriſtian Love of relieving the diſtreſſed Members of Chriſt, is content with helping his own Family to Food and Raiment, ſuch a Perſon is not thought of, much leſs condemn'd by the Apoſtle; but it is that Chriſtian, who being able, is yet unwilling to ſupport his near Relations, that are fallen into Poverty, but through a ſordid Selfiſhneſs, leaves them to be maintained by the Church; this is the only Chriſtian the Apoſtle here condemns, as having put off the Piety of the Goſpel, and wanting even the Virtue of good-natur'd Infidels.

I ſaid further, Had the Apoſtle known a Parent in his Days, who, through his great Charity for others, had reduced his own Family to a want of Relief, he would have been ſo far from rebuking him as an half-thinking Fool, or expoſing him to others, as guilty of Madneſs, that he would have told them, that ſuch a one had conſecrated himſelf and Family to the Church, as the proper Objects of their Care. To which the Doctor gives this Anſwer This he affirms, and this I deny; and as he produces no other Proof, ſo I give no other Anſwer, p. 69. Had the Doctor ſaid, as his Affirmation has no Senſe in it, ſo there need be no Senſe in my Denial of it, he had anſwered as well as he has here done. What I affirm'd, did not conſiſt as the Doctor's Denial doth, only of two Words; but was, a large Propoſition that carry'd its own Proof along with it, becauſe I ſaid nothing of the Apoſtle, but what the Nature of the Thing oblig'd me to ſay of every ſober Chriſtian. For if any Chriſtian could be ſuppoſed to want Compaſſion and Affection for ſuch a Sufferer, from his own Charity to others, he muſt be ſuch a one as the Apoſtle affirms to have denied the Faith, and to be worſe than an Infidel. But to ſhew the Doctor what I ſaid, has its Proof from the common Voice of Chriſtianity in the Apoſtles Days, may ſufficiently appear from the following Paſſage of St. Clement, who was a Companion and Fellow-labourer of the Apoſtle, and Biſhop of no leſs a Church than that of Rome. "We have known many amongſt us, "(ſays St. Clement) who have delivered themſelves into Bonds and Slavery, that they "might reſtore others to their Liberty; many "who have hired out themſelves Servants unto "others,

" others, that by their Wages they might feed " and sustain them that wanted " *.

Will the Doctor now say, that this is no Proof of that which I affirmed of the Apostle, that he would have had a Love for those who were become Sufferers by their own Charity to others? Does not this Apostolical Bishop make it his Boast, and the Glory of Christianity; not that they had some, but many such amongst them?

It was not only in the first Church at Jerusalem, that the Christians had all things common. For St. Barnabas writing to some converted Jews, teaches them to have all Things common, to call nothing their own in this World, because they were called to the common Enjoyment of the Things of Eternity. Communicabis in omnibus rebus proximo tuo; nihil dices quicquam tibi proprium, si enim Communicatis in Vicem, in bonis, incorruptibilibus, quanto magis in corruptibilibus †.

An Age after this, Justin Martyr thus glories of the Power of the Gospel-Faith; We, says he, who before were became Christians, loved our Wealth and Possessions above all Things, now give up all Propriety in them, that they may be in common for all that want them. Qui Pecuniarum & Poſſeſſionum Fructus ac Proventus præ rebus omnibus adamabamus, nunc etiam quæ habemus in Commune conferimus, & cum indigentibus quibuſcunque communicamus *. What a lean, heatheniſh Figure muſt the Doctor's Proverb of Charity beginning at home, have made in the Days of St. Barnabas, Clement, or Juſtin Martyr? Or who durſt then have made ſuch an Uſe of the Text of St. Paul, as the Doctor has done, or coupled it with ſuch a Proverb? Were any of theſe firſt Saints to judge of this Matter, the Doctor might, for ought I know, have a worſe Reprimand from them for ſo doing, than if he had only coupled Cardinals with Pluraliſts.

In order to ſhew the Doctor that he was very unſeaſonably preaching againſt the Sin and Folly of an exceſſive Charity, when yet every Part of the Church wanted to be ſhewn how they were fallen from the Goſpel-degree of it, I ſet before him an imaginary Biſhop of Wincheſter, yet drawn according to the Model of the Holy Biſhops of the firſt Ages. I ſuppoſed this Biſhop ſo born again from Above, ſo fill'd with the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt, that he look'd upon all the Revenues of his See, with no other Eyes, than as our Saviour look'd at that that Bag that was carried along with him by his Diſciples, as ſo much for his own Neceſſities, and the Neceſſities of others. I ſuppoſed that in this Spirit, he ſo expended his yearly Income, that he choſe to bring up his Children as much Strangers to all worldly Figure, and in as low a State of Labour as that to which our Lord and his Apoſtles had been us'd. I ſuppos'd, that by a Piety of Life and Converſation, equal to this exalted Charity, he had inſtill'd ſuch an heavenly Spirit into his Wife and Children, as made them highly thankful for their Condition, and full of Praiſe to God for the Bleſſing of ſuch a Relation. Dr. Trap, tho' an antient Divine, ſeems to ſtart back with Fright, at the Sight of this Apoſtolical Biſhop, and ſuppoſes, that if ſuch a Monſter of a Man was now to get into a Biſhoprick, he muſt needs make his Children extraordinary wicked, fill them with Abhorrence of his Memory, and ſpread Infidelity in the World, by making Chriſtianity a Jeſt to Infidels, p. 71.

I ſay, ſays the Doctor, very clearly and plainly, that ſuch a Biſhop muſt be a Mad-man, p. 70. Now, if the Doctor will prove from the Scriptures this Biſhop to be a Mad-man, it muſt be for the following Reaſons; Firſt, becauſe he had ſo mean a Spirit, as to ſuffer

the Son of a Biſhop to work under a Carpenter, as the Redeemer of Mankind had done. Secondly, becauſe he taught himſelf and his Family to believe that which St. Paul believed, that having Food and Raiment, we ought to be therewith content. Thirdly, becauſe he came up to the very Letter of the great Commandment, of loving our Neighbour as ourſelves. Fourthly, becauſe he ſeem'd to imitate the Spirit of the firſt Chriſtians at Jeruſalem, who accounted nothing to be their own that they poſſeſs'd. Fifthly, becauſe he had turned himſelf and Family from all the Vanity of this World, the Luſt of the Fleſh, the Luſt of the Eyes, and the Pride of Life. Sixthly, becauſe he ſeem'd to have this of the Apoſtle fixed in his Mind, He that ſaith, he abideth in Chriſt, ought ſo to walk, as he walked. Seventhly, becauſe his Life was faſhioned according to this Doctrine of the Holy Jeſus, Learn of me, for I am meek, and lowly of Heart: I am among you, as he that ſerveth: Whoſoever will be great among you, let him be your Miniſter; even as the Son of Man came not to be miniſtred unto, but to miniſter. For it may be ſaid with the greateſt Certainty, that if the Doctor will have any Proof from the Scripture of the Madneſs of this Biſhop, ſhop, it muſt be as abſurd as the Reaſons here alledg'd.

Come we now to conſider this Biſhop according to the Spirit, Practice and Laws of the Church in all Ages. Any one vers'd ever ſo little in the Hiſtory of the Church, muſt ſee at the firſt Sight, that this ſuppoſed Biſhop is a true Copy of the firſt Apoſtolical Fathers. And if this Biſhop was to be accounted a Madman, becauſe of the Manner of his Life, we muſt come down ſeveral Ages after Conſtantine, to the Mitre and Triple Crown, before we could find a Biſhop in his Senſes. The Clements, the Polycarps, the Ignatius's, the Irenæus's, the Cyprians, the Gregory's, the Baſils, the Ambroſe's, the Chryſoſtoms, the Hillary's, the Auguſtin's, and a Number that have long graced our Calendars, as Saints, muſt take their Place among Bedlamites; for they were all of them to a Tittle, the very Man I have ſuppoſed at Wincheſter. They conſidered every Penny that was brought in by the Goſpel, as a Proviſion for the Poor, and themſelves as only entitled to their common Share out of it. They durſt no more raiſe any of their Relations into a Splendor of Life, or give them any Figure from the Revenues of the Church, than commit Sacrilege. They gloried as much in their own ſtrict Poverty and Want of worldly Figure, as in their having totally renounced Idols.

But we have much more than primitive Example for our Biſhop of Wincheſter; the Doctrine and Laws of the Church have unanimouſly from Age to Age, to the very Council of Trent, required every Biſhop to be of the ſame Spirit of which we have ſuppoſed him. The Church, both by the Doctrine of Fathers, and the Canons of Councils conſtantly maintains; Firſt, that the Clergy are not Proprietors, but barely Stewards of the Benefices they enjoy; having them for no other End, but for their own neceſſary, frugal Subſiſtence, and the Relief of the Poor. Secondly, that a Clergyman uſing his Benefice for his own Indulgence, or the enriching his own Family, is guilty of Sacrilege, and is a Robber and Murderer of the Poor. Thirdly, that if a Clergyman has a reaſonable Subſiſtence of his own, and is not in the State of the Poor, that then, let his Benefice be what it will, he has no Right to uſe any Part of it for himſelf, nor for his Kindred, unleſs they be fit to be conſidered amongſt thoſe Poor that are to be relieved by the Church. Fourthly, that every Biſhop and Clergyman is to live in an humble, lowly, frugal, gal, outward State of Life, seeking for no Honour or Dignity in the World, but that which arises from the Distinction and Lustre of his Virtues. Fifthly, that a Benefic'd Clergyman using the Goods of the Church for his own Indulgence, or raising Fortunes for his Children, or their expensive Education, is sacrilegious, and a Robber of the Poor. Sixthly, that every Clergyman is to die out of the Church as poor as he entred into it. Seventhly, that a Clergyman dying, cannot leave or bequeath any Thing to his Children or Friends, but barely that which he had independently of the Church.

May it not therefore well be wonder'd what could provoke Dr. Trap to cenſure our Biſhop as a Madman, whoſe whole Form of Life, and Uſe of his Biſhoprick, is not only after the Model of the firſt and greateſt Saints that ever were Biſhops, but alſo ſuch as the whole Church from the Beginning, both in Council and out of Council, from Age to Age, hath abſolutely requir'd requir'd of every benefic'd Clergyman, who would not be condemn'd by her, as ſacrilegious, and a Robber of the Poor. They who would ſee the whole of this Matter ſet in a clear Light, may read an excellent Treatiſe of the learned Dupin, wrote near the End of his Life, where this Truth is by him aſſerted and inconteſtably prov'd, viz. That whatever Changes have been made in the Nature and Tenure of the Goods and Revenues of the Church, or however they have been variouſly divided amongſt Eccleſiaſticks, yet this has remained always unchangeable and undeniable, That a Clergyman was no Proprietor of his Benefice; that he could only take ſo much of it to his own Uſe, as was neceſſary to his Subſiſtence, and then the Remainder, be it what it would, belong'd to the Poor. This, ſays he, is ſtrictly maintained by the Canons of Councils, both before and after the Diviſion of eccleſiaſtical Revenues. C'eſt ce que portent preciſement les Canons, & avant, & apres la Partition des Biens eccleſiaſtiques *.

But now if this be the Caſe, if this be an inconteſtable Doctrine, ſupported by every Authority that can be brought for any one Doctrine of the Goſpel, have we not here an utter ter Condemnation of Pluralities? Is it not an Affront to the Gospel, to the plainest Maxims of Right and Wrong, the whole Authority of the Church, to offer one single Word in Defence of them? Logical, scholastic Distinctions and Definitions of the Nature of Parishes and Residence, can signify no more here, where the whole Nature of the Thing is to be avoided, than the same Art of Words, when used by Jesuitical Casuists, can justify the Violation of moral Duties. And if Dr. Trap was only to look at this one Doctrine, he would have no reason to think it so sad a Thing, to see Pluralists coupled with Cardinals. See, says the learned Dupin, Rules which will appear hard to many of the benefic'd Clergy, but yet, says he, they are true, conformable to natural Equity, the Laws, Custom, and Tradition of the Church, and the Practice of the most holy Bishops; and wo be to those that observe them not. Malheur a Ceux qui ne les suivent pas*. And therefore he concludes thus, There may be many amongst the benefic'd Clergy who err in this Matter, through an Ignorance of that which is required of them; therefore what I have said ought to be taken in good Part, as proceeding from Charity, and a sincere Love of Truth.

I come

* Ibid. p. 442.

I come now to that which the Doctor ſays of Enthuſiaſm and Enthuſiaſts. Speaking to the younger Clergy of the Means of attaining divine Knowledge, I had theſe Words, " The " Book of all Books is your own Heart, in " which are written the deepeſt Leſſons of di- " vine Inſtruction; learn therefore to be deep- " ly attentive to the Preſence of God in your " Hearts, who is always ſpeaking, always in- " ſtructing, always illuminating that Heart " that is attentive to him." Now can any Thing be conceived more ſcriptural, or more inoffenſive than all this? Is there any thing to ſuppreſs or hurt the Piety and Devotion of that Heart, which would place its all in God? Which deſires to be moved and guided in all Things by his holy Spirit. How can we worſhip God in Spirit and in Truth, how can we pray unto him, turn to him, how can we raiſe any Act of Faith or Hope in him, Reſignation unto him, or Dependance upon him, but by thus thinking of him? Take any Thing from God that I have here aſcrib'd to him, ſuppoſe him not to be thus inwardly ſpeaking, inſtructing, illuminating, and then tell me why my Heart ſhould ſeek him, or how it can find him? A Page or two after this, to ſhew the deep and intimate Union the Soul has has with its Creator, I said, " God is an all-

" speaking, all-working, all-illuminating Es" sence, possessing the Depth, and bringing " forth the Life of every Creature according to " its Nature. Our Life is out of this divine " Essence, and is itself a creaturely Similitude of " it; and when we turn from all Impediments,
" this divine Essence becomes as certainly the " true Light of our Minds here, as it will be " hereafter." Now is there any Thing here to shock, or fright, or delude the Piety of any Christian? Is it a monstrous Thing to be told, that the Light of Heaven reaches us in this World, that we have this Communion with God; that when we turn rightly to him, he dwells in us and we in him; that we receive his Operation and Light upon us in this Life, as we shall do in the next, only with this Difference, that now what is done in Faith will then be in open Vision? How can we believe any thing that is said of the Light and holy Spirit of God in the Scripture, without believing this? If this be not true, how can we believe that Jesus Christ is the Light which lighteth every Man that cometh into the World? Or is there any Thing here more said of God, than when the Apostle saith, that in him we live, move, and have our Being? If the Word of God was not an ever-ſpeaking Word, how could Nature and Creature ſpeak forth any Thing? If God was ever ſilent could any Thing elſe ſpeak? Again, if Nature is conſtantly at Work; if there could be no Nature but becauſe there is a continual ſtirring and working which cannot ceaſe; is not this a ſufficient Proof that there is an all-working Deity? And if we are told, that, in the Kingdom of Heaven, there ſhall be no Sun, nor Moon, but the Lamb ſhall be the Light thereof, is not this telling us, that God himſelf is the uncreated Light, always in the ſame State of Infinity, and therefore an all-illuminating Being? And if there is always Light in Nature, a Light that cannot be extinguiſhed, muſt it not come from the all-illuminating Being? Yet Dr. Trap ſays, all this is Enthuſiaſm, if ever there was any in the World; that they are the Words of Falſhood and Phrenzy *. If the Doctor had been clear in this Matter, it had been very eaſy for him to have ſhewn his Reader wherein this Enthuſiaſm and Frenzy lay; and it was alſo very neceſſary for him to have here ſaid ſomething very plain and clear concerning the Nature and Ground of Enthuſiaſm: For if his Reader, without any clear and diſtinct Notion of

of Enthuſiaſm, is taught to cry out againſt a Doctrine, which only teaches, that God is always ſpeaking, inſtructing, and illuminating that Heart that is in great Purity turn'd to him; if he is taught boldly and blindly to condemn this as Enthuſiaſm and Frenzy, how ſhall ſuch a one be able to defend himſelf, when he is told by others, that two Thirds of the New Teſtament is Enthuſiaſm? As where it is ſaid, I am the Light and Life of the World ——The Kingdom of Heaven is within you —— Except ye eat my Fleſh and drink my Blood, ye have no Life in you——If any Man love me, my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our Abode with him——No Man can come unto me, except the Father draweth him——The natural Man cannot receive and know the Things of the Spirit of God——He breathed on them, and ſaid, Receive ye the Holy Ghoſt——The Spirit of Truth, he dwelleth in you, and ſhall be with you——No Man can ſay, Abba Father, or that Jeſus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghoſt ——As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sons of God. In our Liturgy we pray that God would prevent us in all our Doings, and further us with his continual Help ——That we may obey the godly Motions of the the Spirit in Righteouſneſs and true Holineſs —— That by his holy Inſpiration we may think thoſe Things that be good, and by his merciful Guiding may perform the ſame —— That his holy Spirit may in all Things direct and rule our Hearts, &c. Now what muſt the unlearned Reader, or the learned Doctor himſelf do with theſe and the like Places of Scripture, and Prayers of the Church, if it be Enthuſiaſm, Falſehood, and Frenzy to ſay, that God is intimately preſent in the Depth of our Souls, always ſpeaking, inſtructing, enlightening that Heart, which is truly turned to him? Or how can theſe Scriptures and Prayers have the leaſt Truth or Reaſonableneſs in them, but upon this Suppoſition, that God is an all-ſpeaking, all-knowing, all-illuminating Being, out of whom we are born, and in whom we live, and move, and have our Being. But I ſhall here ſpeak a Word or two of the true Ground, and Nature of Enthuſiaſm.

In Will, Imagination, and Deſire, conſiſts the Life, or fiery Driving of every intelligent Creature. And as every intelligent Creature is its own Self-mover, ſo every intelligent Creature has Power of kindling and inflaming its Will, Imagination and Deſire as it pleaſes, with Shadows, Fictions, or Realities; with Things carnal or ſpiritual, temporal or eternal. And this kindling of the Will, Imagination, and Deſire, when raiſed into a ruling Degree of Life, is properly that which is to be underſtood by Enthuſiaſm: And therefore Enthuſiaſm is, and muſt be of as many Kinds as thoſe Objects are, which can kindle and enflame the Wills, Imaginations, and Deſires of Men. And to appropriate Enthuſiaſm to Religion, is the ſame Ignorance of Nature, as to appropriate Love to Religion; for Enthuſiaſm, a kindled, inflamed Spirit of Life, is as common, as univerſal, as eſſential to human Nature, as Love is; it goes into every Kind of Life as Love does, and has only ſuch a Variety of Degrees in Mankind as Love hath. And here we may ſee the Reaſon, why no People are ſo angry at Religious Enthuſiaſts, as thoſe that are the deepeſt in ſome Enthuſiaſm of another Kind.

He whoſe Fire is kindled from the Divinity of Tully's Rhetorick, who travels over high Mountains to ſalute the dear Ground that Marcus Tullius Cicero walk'd upon; whoſe noble Soul would be ready to break out of his Body, if he could ſee a Deſk, a Roſtrum from whence Cicero had pour'd forth his Thunder of Words, may well be unable to bear the Dulneſs of thoſe, who go on Pilgrimages only to viſit the Sepulchre, Sepulchre, whence the Redeemer of the World roſe from the dead, or who grow devout at the Sight of a Crucifix, becauſe the Son of God hung as a Sacrifice thereon.

He whoſe heated Brain is all over painted with the antient Hieroglyphicks; who knows how and why they were this and that, better than he can find out the Cuſtoms and Uſages of his own Pariſh; who can clear up every Thing that is doubtful in Antiquity, and yet be forc'd to live in Doubt about that which paſſes in his own Neighbourhood; who has found out the Sentiments of the firſt Philoſophers with ſuch Certainty, as he cannot find out the real Opinion of any of his Contemporaries; he that has gone thus high into the Clouds, and dug thus deep into the Dark for theſe glorious Diſcoveries, may well deſpiſe thoſe Chriſtians, as brain-ſick Viſionaries, who are ſometimes finding a moral, and ſpiritual Senſe in the bare Letter and Hiſtory of Scripture-Facts.

It matters not what our Wills and Imaginations are employed about; wherever they fall and love to dwell, there they kindle a Fire, and that becomes the Flame of Life, to which every Thing elſe appears as dead, and inſipid, and unworthy of Regard. Hence it is that even the poor Species of Fops and Beaux have a right to be placed among Enthuſiaſts, tho' capable of no other Flame than that, which is kindled by Taylors and Peruke-Makers. All refined Speculatiſts, as ſuch, are great Enthuſiaſts; for being devoted to the Exerciſe of their Imaginations, they are ſo heated into a Love of their own Ideas, that they ſeek no other ſummum bonum. The Grammarian, the Critick, the Poet, the Connoiſſeur, the Antiquary, the Philoſopher, the Politician, are all violent Enthuſiaſts, tho' their Heat is only a Flame from Straw, and therefore they all agree in appropriating Enthuſiaſm to Religion. All ambitious, proud, ſelf-conceited Perſons, eſpecially if they are Scholars, are violent Enthuſiaſts, and their Enthuſiaſm is an inflamed Self-Love, Self-Eſteem, and Self-Seeking. This Fire is ſo kindled in them, that every Thing is nauſeous and diſguſtful to them, that does not offer Incenſe to that Idol, which their Imagination has ſet up in themſelves. All Atheiſts are dark Enthuſiaſts; their Fire is kindled by a Will and Imagination turn'd from God into a gloomy Depth of Nothingneſs, and therefore their Enthuſiaſm is a dull burning Fire, that goes in and out, thro' Hopes and Fears of they know not what that is to come. All profeſſed Infidels are remarkable Enthuſiaſts, they have kindled a bold Fire from a few faint Ideas, and therefore they are all Zeal, and Courage, and Induſtry to be conſtantly blowing it up. A Tyndal and a Collins are as inflamed with the Notions of Infidelity, as a St. Bennet and St. Francis with the Doctrines of the Goſpel.

Enthuſiaſts therefore we all are, as certainly as we are Men; and conſequently, Enthuſiaſm is not a Thing blameable in itſelf, but is the common Condition of human Life in all its States; and every man that lives either well or ill, is that which he is, from that prevailing Fire of Life, or driving of our Wills and Deſires, which is properly called Enthuſiaſm. You need not then go to a Cloyſter, the Cell of a Monk, or to a Field Preacher, to ſee Enthuſiaſts, they are every where, at Balls and Maſquerades, at Court and the Exchange: They ſit in all Coffee-houſes, and cant in all Aſſemblies. The Beau and the Coquet have no Magick, but where they meet Enthuſiaſts. The Mercer, the Taylor, the Bookſeller have all their Wealth from them; the Works of a Bayle, a Shaftſbury, and Cicero, would loſe four Fifths of their aſtoniſhing Beauties, had they not keen Enthuſiaſts for their Readers.

That which concerns us therefore, is only to ſee with what Materials our prevailing Fire of Life is kindled, and in what Species of Enthuſiaſts it truly places us. For either the Fleſh or the Spirit; either the Wiſdom from above, or the Wiſdom of this World, will have its Fire in us; and we muſt have a Life that governs us either according to the Senſuality of the Beaſt, the Subtilty of the Serpent, or the Holineſs of the Angel. Enthuſiaſm is not blameable in Religion, when it is true Religion that kindles it. We are created with Wills and Deſires for no other End, but to love, adore, deſire, ſerve, and co-operate with God; and therefore the more we are inflam'd in this Motion of our Wills and Deſires, the more we have of a God-like, divine Nature, and Perfection in us. Religious Enthuſiaſm is not blameable, when it is a ſtrong Perſuaſion, a firm Belief of a continual Operation, Impreſſion, and Influence from above, when it is a total Reſignation to, and Dependance upon the immediate Inſpiration, and Guidance of the holy Spirit in the whole Courſe of our Lives; this is as ſober, and rational a Belief, as to believe that we always live, and move, and have our Being in God. Both Nature and Scripture demonſtrate this to be the true Spirit of a Religious Man. Nature tells every one, that we can only be heavenly by a Spirit deriv'd from Heaven, as plainly as it tells us, that we can only only be earthly, by having the Spirit of this World breathing in us. The Gospel teaches no Truth so constantly, so universally as this, that every good Thought and good Desire is the Work of the holy Spirit. And therefore both Nature and Scripture demonstrate, that the one only Way to Piety, Virtue and Holiness, is to prepare, expect, and resign ourselves up wholly to the Influence and Guidance of the holy Spirit, in every Thing that we think, or say, or do. The moment any one departs from this Faith, or loses this Direction of his Will and Desire, so far, and so long he goes out of the one only Element of all Holiness of Life. There is nothing that so sanctifies the Heart of Man, that keeps us in such habitual Love, Prayer, and Delight in God; nothing that so kills all the Roots of Evil in our Nature, that so renews and perfects all our Virtues, that fills us with so much Love, Goodness, and good Wishes to every Creature, as this Faith, That God is always present in us with his Light and Holy Spirit. When the Heart has once learnt thus to find God, and knows how to live every where, and in all Things in this immediate Intercourse with him, seeing him, loving him, and adoring him in every Thing, trusting in him, depending upon him for his continual Light and holy Spirit; when it knows that this Faith is infallible; that by thus believing, it thus poſſeſſes all that it believes of God; then it begins to have the Nature of God in it, and can do nothing but flow forth in Love, Benevolence, and good Will towards every Creature; it can have no Wiſh towards any Man, but that he might thus know, and love, and find God in himſelf, as the true Beginning of Heaven, and the heavenly Life in the Soul.

On the other hand, no Error ſo hurtful to the Soul, ſo deſtructive of all the Ends of the Goſpel, as to be led from this Faith and entire Dependance upon the holy Spirit of God, or to place our Recovery in any Thing elſe, but in the Operation of the Light and holy Spirit of God upon the Soul. It is withdrawing Men not only from the eaſieſt, the moſt natural, the moſt fruitful, but the only poſſible Source of all Light and Life. For every Man, as ſuch, has an open Gate to God in his Soul, he is always in that Temple, where he can worſhip God in Spirit and Truth: Every Chriſtian, as ſuch, has the firſt Fruits of the Spirit, a Seed of Life, which is his Call and Qualification to be always in a State of inward Prayer, Faith, and holy Intercourſe with God.

All

All the Ordinances of the Gospel, the daily sacramental Service of the Church, is to keep up, and exercise, and strengthen this Faith; to raise us to such an habitual Faith and Dependance upon the Light and holy Spirit of God, that by thus seeking and finding God in the Institutions of the Church, we may be habituated to seek him and find him; to live in his Light, and walk by his Spirit in all the Actions of our ordinary Life. This is the Enthusiasm in which every good Christian ought to endeavour to live and dye.

I come now to an Enthusiast, which the Doctor has accidentally met with, from whom, it seems, I have borrowed some of my strange Notions, and would put them off as my own, p. 119. The Doctor has this Intelligence from his trusty Assistant, who says, what else can be expected from those, Who read Jacob Behmen, Dr. Pordage, and Mrs. Lead, with almost the same Veneration and implicit Faith, that other People read the Scripture, ibid. Two of these Writers I know very little of, yet as much as I desire to know; but J. Behmen, call'd the Teutonick Theosopher, I have read much, and much esteem: But the Design of putting off some of his strange Notions, as my own, is as well well grounded, as if the Doctor had charged me with a Design of picking his Pocket.

The illustrious Sir Isaac Newton, when he wrote his Principia, and publish'd to the World his great Doctrine of Attraction, and those Laws of Nature by which the Planets began, and continue to move in their Orbits, could have told the World, that the true and infallible Ground of what he there advanced, was to be found in the Teutonick Theosopher, in his three first Properties of Eternal Nature; he could have told them, that he had been a diligent Reader of that wonderful Author, that he had made large Extracts out of him, and could have referred to him for the Ground of what he had observed of the Number Seven. Now why did not this great Man do thus? Must we suppose that he was loth to have it thought, that he had been help'd by any Thing that he had read? No: It is an unworthy Thought. But Sir Isaac well knew, that Prejudice and Partiality had such Power over many People's Judgments, that Doctrines, tho' ever so deeply founded in, and proved by all the Appearances of Nature, would be suspected by some as dangerous, and condemned by others, even as false and Wicked, had he made any Refe- rences to an Author that was only called an Enthuſiaſt.

Dr. Trap may take himſelf for an eminent Example and Proof of this. He has here ſhewn with what Speed Matters may be determined by Prejudice. For here a Stranger, a Layman, not ſo much as known to the Doctor by Name, who, for ought he can tell, may be ſome ſmall Retailer of Infidelity, or Snuff-Candle in the Play-houſe, who has gain'd upon the Doctor by no other Marks of Ability and Judgment, but his Compliments to him, and his Scurrility upon me; from the Authority of this Informer, the Doctor immediately puts J. B. into his Liſt of Enthuſiaſts. Is not this a Proof of what Sir Iſaac Newton muſt have met with from ſome great Scholars, and to what a ſpeedy Confutation he muſt have expoſed himſelf, and the plaineſt Appearances of Nature, had he ever referred to the Teutonick Theoſopher? Now am I here to ſuppoſe, that this Cenſure of the Doctor's relating to J. B. is a Raſhneſs that has here firſt ſeized upon him by Chance, that he never before in his Life allowed himſelf to treat any Man, or any Book in this manner; that if he took the Judgment of another, it was of ſomebody that he knew; if he condemn'd an Author, he always ſtaid till he had read ſome-

thing of him, at leaſt an Index, or a Title Page or two of his Works? Or am I to ſuppoſe, that this has been the Doctor's Method upwards of thirty-ſeven Years; calling one Man an Enthuſiaſt, another a Fanatick, this a monſtrous, that the moſt pernicious Book of the Age, as raſhly, as haſtily, regarding no more of Right or Wrong in that which he affirms of theſe Matters, than he has here done with regard to J. B.? But I hope the Doctor is ſingular in this Spirit; for if it could be ſuppos'd, that it was common amongſt learned Men, to get their Knowledge of antient and modern, foreign and domeſtick Enthuſiaſts, as haſtily and ſlightly as the Doctor here doth; muſt it not be very dangerous for the Unlearned to take any Opinions of this kind from them? Muſt it not be ſaid, that one Grain of Equity, good Senſe, and real Knowledge, is more to be deſired, than an hundred Weight of ſuch Learning?

When I conſidered the fallen Soul, as a Fire-Spirit, deprived of its proper Light, and therefore become of a Diabolical Nature, I could have directed to J. B. for the deep and infallible Ground of it; but what need was there for that, when I could make the plaineſt Principles of Nature, the plaineſt Doctrines of Scripture, Scripture, every thing that was ſaid of the Fall, of Heaven, of Hell, and the like, to be undeniable Proofs of it? What I ſaid in the Second Propoſition of the Diſcourſe upon Regeneration, concerning the Holy Tri-unity of God in Man, ſtands not in that Form of Expreſſion any where that I know of; but for the true Ground and Certainty of it, I could have referr'd to the Teutonick Theoſopher, to many ancient and modern Writers of the greateſt Name, and to a venerable Record of Antiquity, aſcrib'd even to St. Peter himſelf; where he aſſerts, even upon the ſame Ground as I have done, that becauſe we were created in the Image and Likeneſs of God, therefore the tri-une Life ariſes in us, as it does in God, and we have in us, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit *.

But what Occaſion was there for theſe References, when I had ſo much better Proof, when I could ſhew, that all which the Scriptures ſay of the whole Nature and Manner of our Redemption, of the whole Nature and Form of Baptiſm, all that they ſay of the Neceſſity of the

* Rationalis Homo, factus ad Imaginem, & Similitudinem Dei, fert in ſe Symbolicè Factoris ſui Imitationem. Habet enim in ſe Patrem, Filium & Spiritum. Mens quidem locum Patris obtinet, Filii vero, qui ex mente gignitur, Sermo Interior, at quæ auditur Vox Prolationis, Spiritum repræſentat, &c. Collect. S. S. Patr. p. 595——1719.

the Word, and Holy Spirit of God having again a Birth in us, are abſolute, deciſive Proofs of it? * I knew alſo very well, that the moſt eſſential, fundamental, and joyful Doctrines of the Goſpel would be queſtioned, or received with Difficulty, had I referr'd to a poor Shoemaker for any Proof of them: And it may well be believed, that the Doctor would have been amongſt the firſt and loudeſt of thoſe, who would have cry'd out at my Folly and Preſumption in directing to an Author, whom all the World knew to be an illiterate Enthuſiaſt; and yet, if all the World knows it as the Doctor knows it, all the World may be ſaid to know nothing about it.

Dr. Trap has a Fling at my Want of Taſte for his Virgil's, Horace's, and Terence's: I own, when I was about Eighteen, I was as fond of theſe Books as the Doctor can well be now, and ſhould then have been glad to have tranſlated the Sublime Milton, if I had found myſelf able; but this Ardour ſoon went off, and I think it as good a Proof of the Sublime, to deſire the Death of all that is Diabolical and Serpentine in my own Nature, as to be charm'd with thoſe Speeches which the Devils make in Milton. Had the Doctor been more converſant in the Writings of a Set of Men call'd Myſtical

* See Regeneration, p. 22 to 33.

Myſtical Divines, than he appears to have been, he had been better able to have charged me with humble Plagiary than he is at preſent, and might have done more Service to what he calls the Noble Science of Theology, than by all that Light which he has got from his Poets, which he acknowledges to have ſomewhat of Wantonneſs in them, p. 38. Of theſe Myſtical Divines, I thank God, I have been a diligent Reader, through all Ages of the Church, from the Apoſtolical Dionyſius the Areopagite, down to the great Fenelon Archbiſhop of Cambray, the illuminated Guion, and M. Bertot. Had the Doctor read St. Caſſian, a Recorder of the Lives, Spirit and Doctrine of the Holy Fathers of the Deſarts, as often as he had read the Story of Æneas and Dido, he had been leſs aſtoniſhed at many Things in my Writings: But I apprehend the Doctor to be as great a Stranger to the Writers of this kind, with which every Age of the Church has been bleſs'd, and to know no more of the divine Ruſbrochius, Thaulerus, Suſo, Harphius, Johannes de Cruce, &c. than he does of J. B. For had he known any Thing of them, he had known that I am as chargeable with the Sentiments of all of them, as with thoſe of J. Behmen. For tho' I never wrote upon any Subject till I could call it my own, till I was ſo fully fully poſſeſſed of the Truth of it, that I could ſufficiently prove it in my own Way, without borrowed Arguments; yet, Doctrines of Religion I have none, but what the Scriptures and the firſt-rate Saints of the Church are my Vouchers for.

Writers, like thoſe I have mentioned, there have been in all Ages of the Church, but as they ſerved not the Ends of Popular Learning, as they helped no People to Figure and Preferment in the World, and were uſeleſs to ſcholaſtick, controverſial Writers, ſo they dropt out of publick Uſe, and were only known, or rather unknown, under the Name of Myſtical Writers, till at laſt ſome People have hardly heard of that very Name. Tho' if a Man was to be told what is meant by a Myſtical Divine, he muſt be told of ſomething as heavenly, as great, as deſireable, as if he was told, what is meant by a real, regenerate, living Member of the Myſtical Body of Chriſt. For they were thus called, for no other Reaſon, than as Moſes and the Prophets, and the Saints of the Old Teſtament may be called the Spiritual Iſrael, or the true Myſtical Jews. Theſe Writers began their Office of Teaching, as John the Baptiſt did, after they had paſſed through every kind of Mortification and Self-denial, every kind of Trial and Purification, both inward and outward. They were deeply learned in all the Myſteries of the Kingdom of God, not thro' the Uſe of Lexicons, or meditating upon Criticks, but becauſe they had paſſed from Death unto Life. They highly reverence and excellently direct the true Uſe of every thing that is outward in Religion, but like the Pſalmiſt's King's Daughter, they are all glorious within: They are truly Sons of Thunder, and Sons of Conſolation; they break open the whited Sepulchres; they awaken the Heart, and ſhew it its Filth and Rottenneſs of Death, but they leave it not, till the Kingdom of Heaven is raiſed up within it. If a Man have no Deſire but to be of the Spirit of the Goſpel, to obtain all that Renovation of Life and Spirit, which alone can make him to be in Chriſt a new Creature, it is a great Unhappineſs to him to be unacquainted with theſe Writers, or to paſs a Day without reading ſomething of what they have written. For tho' the Scriptures are an inexhauſtible Source of Spiritual Inſtruction, leading the Heart to the deepeſt Knowledge of all the Myſteries of the inward, new Life in God, with the greateſt Plainneſs and Openneſs of Expreſſion, yet a worldly Spirit, the Schools, Criticiſm, and Controverſy have ſo dry'd, and deadned every Thing into an outward Letter and figurative Expreſſion, that much of their Uſe is loſt, till theſe Holy Writers, who interpret them by the ſame Spirit which wrote them, guide us to the true Uſe and Underſtanding of them; for in theſe Writers, the Spirit of God ſpeaks a ſecond Time, and every Thing that can awaken, convert, inſtruct and inflame the Heart with the Love of God, and all Holineſs and Purity of Life, is to be found in the moſt irreſiſtible Degree of Conviction. You will perhaps ſay, Do I then call all the World to theſe Spiritual Books? No, by no means. But I call all thoſe, whom our Saviour called to himſelf in theſe Words; Come unto me all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will refreſh you.

But to return to the Doctor's Enthuſiaſt.

Jacob Behmen, in his natural Capacity and outward Condition of Life, was as mean and illiterate as any one that our Lord called to be an Apoſtle, but as a choſen Servant of God, he may be placed amongſt thoſe who had received the higheſt Meaſures of Light, Wiſdom and Knowledge from Above. He was no more a human Writer, ſpoke no more from Opinion, Conjecture, Conjecture, or Reason, in what he publiſhed to the World, than St. John did, when he put his Revelation into Writing. He has no Right to be placed amongſt the inſpir'd Pen-men of the New Teſtament, he was no Meſſenger from God of any Thing new in Religion, but the Myſtery of all that was old and true both in Religion and Nature was opened in him. This is the Particularity of his Character, by which he ſtands fully diſtinguiſhed from all the Prophets, Apoſtles, and extraordinary Meſſengers of God. They were ſent with occaſional Meſſages, or to make ſuch Alterations in the Oeconomy of Religion as pleaſed God; but this Man came on no particular Errand, he had nothing to alter, or add, either in the Form, or Doctrine of Religion; he had no new Truths of Religion to propoſe to the World, but all that lay in Religion and Nature, as a Myſtery unſearchable, was in its deepeſt Ground opened in this Inſtrument of God. And all his Works are nothing elſe but a deep Manifeſtation of the Grounds and Reaſons of that which is done, that which is doing, and is to be done, both in the Kingdom of Nature, and the Kingdom of Grace, from the Beginning to the End of Time. His Works therefore, tho' immediately from God, have not at all the Nature of the Holy Scriptures, they are not offered to the World, as neceſſary to be received, or as a Rule of Faith and Manners? and therefore no one has any Right to complain, either of the Depths of his Matter, or the Peculiarity of his Stile: They are juſt as they ſhould be, for thoſe that are fit for them; and he that likes them not, or finds himſelf unqualified for them, has no Obligation to read them.

The whole Syſtem of Chriſtianity has generally been looked upon as a Myſtery of Salvation, ſolely founded in the Divine Pleaſure; and to be ſuch a Scheme of Redemption, as is wholly to be reſolved into the Contrivance of the Will and Wiſdom of God; and therefore Men can think as differently of it, can fall into as many Opinions about it, as they can of the Will and Wiſdom of God. Hence has ariſen all the ſpeculative Oppoſition to the Goſpel: It is becauſe Reaſon, human Speculation, and Conjecture, is always imagining it can form a Religion more worthy of the Wiſdom and Deſigns of the Supreme Being than the Chriſtian is; and would be thought to oppoſe the Goſpel only for the Honour of God, and the Divine Attributes. This is the great, prevailing Idolatry of the preſent Heathen World, or that Part of Mankind who are Infidels, or Deiſts. Hence alſo is riſen another Species of Idolatry, even amongſt Chriſtians of all Denominations; who, tho' receiving and profeſſing the Religion of the Goſpel, yet worſhip God not in Spirit and in Truth, but either in the Deadneſs of an outward Form, or in a Phariſaical, carnal Truſt and Confidence in their own Opinions and Doctrines. This Body of People, whether they be Clergy or Laity, are but nominal Chriſtians; becauſe they have little more than the Name of every Myſtery of the Goſpel: Hiſtorical Chriſtians, becauſe ſatisfied with the Hiſtory of Goſpel-Salvation: Literal Chriſtians, becauſe looking only to, and contending only for, the Letter of the Inſtitutions and Myſteries of Jeſus Chriſt. For the Letter, for the federal Rite, and the figurative Expreſſion of Regeneration, they are all Zeal and Induſtry; but the Reality of it, the true Life of the New Birth, they oppoſe and reject as heartily as the Deiſt does the outward Form and Letter. Now this two-fold Idolatry of the preſent Heathen and Chriſtian World has its full Diſcovery and Confutation in the Myſtery opened in J. B. which, when underſtood, leaves no Room for any Man either to diſbelieve the Goſpel, or to content himſelf with the Letter of it. For, in the Revelation made to this Man, the firſt Beginning of all Things is opened, the whole State, the Riſe, the Workings, and the Progreſs of all Nature is revealed, and every Doctrine, Myſtery, and Precept of the Goſpel is found, not to have ſprung from any arbitrary Appointment, but to have its eternal, unalterable Ground and Reaſon in Nature; and God appears to ſave us by the Methods of the Goſpel, becauſe there was no other poſſible Way to ſave us in all the Poſſibility of Nature. And therefore the idolatrous Confidence of the Deiſt in his own Reaſon, and of the nominal Chriſtian in the outward Letter of their Religion, have equally their full Confutation.

To thoſe who confine Idolatry to the Worſhip of ſuch Idols as the old Heathens and Jews worſhipped, it may ſeem a Paradox, to talk of the Idolatry of the preſent World, either amongſt Deiſts or Chriſtians. But if we conſider Things more than Words,

we ſhall find, that Idolatry is no where, but where the Heart has ſet up Something in the Place of God; and therefore is every-where, and in every Thing, where the Heart places that Repoſe, Truſt, and Delight, which ſhould be placed in God alone. For God is only own'd, and confeſſed to be our God, by theſe Acknowledgments and Diſpoſitions of our Hearts towards Him. It is an infallible Truth, That all Sin has its Beginning and Continuance in and from Idolatry: This alone debauched the former and the later Ages of the World, and is the one Source of all the Corruption of Manners, from the Beginning to the End of Time. You don't make a Golden Calf, as the Jews did, to worſhip it; but if Mammon is your God, if your Life is devoted to Pride, Ambition, and Senſuality, your Idolatry is not ſo ſenſible, but it is as real as theirs, who danced about a Golden Calf. You fancy that Venus is not your Goddeſs, becauſe you are not worſhipping a figur'd Image of her, in a Temple call'd by her Name; but if you look at the Odes, the Hymns, the Songs, which you love, which Luſt has inſpir'd, then you may know that Venus is the Goddeſs of your Heart. It is thus with every Object, and in every Courſe of Life, that which poſſeſſes and governs our Heart, has uſurp'd the Right and Place of God in it, and has that Worſhip, Truſt, and Devotion of the Heart, which is due to God alone: And therefore the Idolatry of the preſent World, is only of a different Kind from that of the antient, it is leſs ſeen, and leſs confeſſed, but not leſs real, than when carved Images, and figur'd Idols were ador'd.

Deiſm, or the Religion of human Reaſon, ſet up in Oppoſition to the Goſpel, is direct Idolatry, and has every Groſſneſs and Vanity of Image Worſhip. For to put our Truſt in our own Reaſon, to be content with its Light, to reſign ourſelves up to it, and depend upon it as our Guide, is a Miſtake that has every Groſneſs and Vanity of the Adoration of an Idol. Now this Kind of Idolatry has over-run all the laſt Ages of the World; it is the laſt Effort of human Vanity; it is the utmoſt that Idolatry can do, both to hide and propagate itſelf, and is the Devil under the Appearance of an Angel of Light. The Goſpel has no Enemy but this Idolatry, and it is as viſible in the Church, as out of it: Hence it is, that the State of the Church is ſo ſadly deſcribed in the Revelation of St. John, for ſo many Ages, as a ſpiritual Whore-

Whoredom. When the old Jews left off the Idols of the Heathens, they fell into an Idolatry of another kind, which was this, they idolized the Rites and Ceremonies of their own true Religion; they placed that Confidence in the outward Letter, and expected that Good from their outward Rites, which they ſhould have placed, ſought, expected from God alone. This is the Idolatry of the rational Deiſt, and the nominal Chriſtian. But when the Myſtery of all Nature and Grace, which by the Mercy of God has open'd itſelf in the Writings of J. B. ſhall find its Children, every Idolatry, both within and without the Church, will be aſham'd to ſhew itſelf.

But it may be aſk'd by ſome, what warrant I have for all that I have ſaid of J. B. or how I can prove to the World, that his Writings are the Work of the holy Spirit? It is anſwered, I neither intend, nor deſire to prove this to the World. And if any one will diſpute or deny every Thing that I have ſaid of him, he will meet with no Oppoſition from me. I have given notice of a Pearl, if any one takes it to be otherwiſe, or has neither Skill or Value for Pearls, he is at Liberty to trample it under his Feet. Nothing paſſes with the World for Proof of a divinely inſpir'd Writer, but Miracles; racles; if People can ſee no other Proof but this, it is not in my Power to give them better Eyes. I ſuppoſe the Goſpel, and all the Writings of the New Teſtament, have internal Characters of their divine Original, for thoſe that can ſee them; but if they had been left to thoſe internal Characters, I am apt to think, that the Sons of Cicero, the Diſciples of a Bayle, or thoſe who ſtand the higheſt in ſuch like Literature, would, of all Men, be the moſt indiſpoſed and unwilling to ſee and own them.

Had we no Miracles for Proof of the Inſpiration of the Scriptures, they would be ſtill what they are, the true Word, and Wiſdom of God, and there would be the ſame Benefit in believing and receiving them as ſuch. But to whom could they be prov'd to come from the Spirit of God? Not to a Ciceronian, becauſe it is the Character, the Genius, the Greatneſs of Cicero, to diſſemble and perſonate; and as an Orator, a Stateſman, and a Philoſopher, to affirm or deny as he pleaſes, without any Regard to his own Sentiments. And therefore to the Sons of Cicero nothing can be proved, becauſe they depart from his Character, if they diſcover their own Sentiments, and don't either, as Philoſophers, Orators, or Stateſmen, affirm and and deny as they pleaſe, or as ſuits the Character which they chuſe to act under.

Again; It cannot be proved to a Diſciple of Bayle; becauſe, tho' he was a Man, "whoſe Strength and Clearneſs of Reaſoning "can be equalled only by the Gaiety, Eaſi-"neſs, and Delicacy of his Wit; who, per-"vading human Nature with a Glance, ſtruck "into the Province of Paradox, ——— and "had not enough of real Greatneſs, to over-"come the laſt Foible of ſuperior Geniuſes, "the Temptation of Honour, which the "Academick Exerciſe of Wit is ſuppoſed to "bring to its Profeſſors *.

And therefore to a true Diſciple of Bayle, nothing that is juſt, ſober, or true, can be ſufficiently proved; becauſe it is his Genius, his Honour, his Ambition, to maintain the Paradox.

The next Queſtion is, How this can be proved, viz. That the Scriptures have internal Characters of their Divinity. Now this can only be, by an honeſt Simplicity, and Love of Truth, by Humility and Prayer, and Converſion of the Heart to God in the reading of them. Theſe are the only Diſpoſitions that could poſſibly bring any Man into a Senſe and Belief

* Divine Legation of Moſes, B. I. p. 33.

Belief of their Divine Original: And therefore, all thoſe critical Scholars, and rationally wiſe Men, whoſe Enquiries are animated with a Love of Glory and perſonal Diſtinction, and who looked into thoſe Writings for ſuch Ends, and with ſuch Views as they read other Books, would be of all Men the moſt unable to ſee, and unwilling to own the very beſt Truths of the Holy Scriptures; becauſe it is the very Nature and End of the Scriptures, to diſcover the Vanity and Falſeneſs of that Light and Knowledge, which is got from human Reaſoning, and to ſubdue that Self-ſufficiency, which is ſo inſeparable from certain Kinds and Degrees of human Learning.
